Then likewise he shall say.

O Lorde open thou our lippes.

Aunswere.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy prayse.

Priest.

Aunswere.

Priest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne and to the holy ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is nowe, and euer shall be: worlde without ende. Amen.

Prayse ye the Lorde.

¶ Then shall be sayd or song, this Psalme folowing.

O Come let vs sing vnto the Lorde, let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.

Let vs come before his presence with thankesgiuing, and shewe our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great king aboue all Gods.

In his handes are all the corners of the earth, and the strength of the hilles is his also.

The Sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come let vs worshippe, and fall downe, and kneele before the Lorde our maker.

For he is the Lord our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his handes.

To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your harts, as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse.

When your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes.

Fourty yeares long was I grieued with this generation, and sayd it is a people that do erre in their harts, for they haue not knowne my wayes.

Vnto whom I sware in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the father. &c. As it was in the. &c.

Then shall folow certaine Psalmes in order, as they bee appointed in a Table, made for that purpose, except there be proper Psalmes appointed for that day. And at the ende of euery Psalme, throughout the yeare, and likewise at the ende of Benedictus, Benedicite, magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shall bee repeated.

Glory be to the father. &c.
As it was in the beginning. &c.

Then shall be reade two lessons distinctly with a loude voyce, that the people may heare. The first of the olde Testament, the seconde of the newe, ye as they be appointed by the Kalender, except there bee proper Lessons assigned for that daye, the Minister that readeth the Lesson standing, and turning him so, that hee may best be heard of all suche as bee present. And before euery Lesson, the Minister shall say thus. The first, second, third, or fourth Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthew, Marke, or such other as is appointed in the Kalender. And in the ende of euery Chapter he shall say.

A. ij.

And (to the ende the people may the better heare) in suche places where they do sing, there shall the Lessons bee song in a plaine tune, after the maner of distinct reading, and lykewyse the Epistle and Gospell.

After the first Lesson shall followe Te Deum laudamus, in englishe dayly throughe the whole yeare.

We beleue that thou shalt come to be our iudge.
We therefore pray thee helpe thy seruauntes, whom thou hast redemed with thy precious bloud.
Make them to be numbred with thy Saintes in glory euerlasting.
O Lorde saue thy people, and blesse thine heritage.
Gouerne them: and lift them vp for euer.
Day by day we magnifie thee.
And we worshyp thy name euer worlde without ende.

And his mercy is on them that feare him: throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arme, he hath scattered the prowde in the imaginations of their heartes.
He hath put downe the mightie from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meeke.
He hath filled the hungrie with good things, and the riche he hath sent emptie away.
He remembring his mercie hath holpen his seruaunt Israell, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seede for euer.
Glorie be to the father, and to thy sonne: and to the holye ghost.

O Sing vnto the Lorde a newe song, for he hath done marueilous things.
With his owne right hande and with his holy arme hath he gotten himselfe the victorie.
The Lorde declared his saluation, his righteousnesse hath he openlye shewed in the sight of the heathen.
He hath remembred his mercie and truth towarde the house of Israell and all the endes of the worlde haue seene the saluation of our God.
Shewe your selues ioyfull vnto the Lorde, all ye landes, sing, reioyce and giue thankes.
Prayse the Lorde vpon the harpe, sing to the harpe with a Psalme of thankesgiuing.
With Trumpets also and shawmes, O shewe your selues ioyfull before the Lorde the kinge.
Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is, the rounde worlde, and they that dwell therein.
Let the floods clap their handes, and let the hilles be ioyfull together before the Lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.
With righteousnes shal he iudge the world: & the people with equitie.
Glorie be to the father, and to the sonne and to the holye ghost.

Then a Lesson of the newe Testament. And after that Nunc dimittis in Englishe as followeth.

LOrde now lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace, according to thy worde.
For mine eies haue seene thy saluation.
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people.
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glorie of thy people Israell.
Glorie be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holye ghost.

Or this Psalme, Deus misereatur nostri in English.

GOD be mercifull vnto vs and bleſſe vs: and ſhew vs the light of thy countenaunce, and be mercifull vnto vs.

That thy wayth may be knowne vpon earth, thy ſauing health among all nations.

Let the people prayſe thee O God, yea let all the people prayſe thee.

O let the nations reioyce and be glad, for thou ſhalt iudge the folke righteouſlye, and gouerne the nations vppon earth.

Let the people prayſe thee O God, let all the people prayſe thee.

Then ſhall the earth bring forth hir encreſe, and God, euen our owne God ſhall giue vs his bleſſing.

God ſhall bleſſe vs, and all the endes of the worlde ſhall feare him.

Glorie be to the father, and to the ſonne, and to the holy ghoſt.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer ſhall be, worlde without ende. Amen.

Then ſhall followe the Creede, with other prayers as is before appointed at Morning prayer after Benedictus, and with three Collects. Firſt of the day the ſecond of peace. The third for aide againſt all perilles, as hereafter followeth, which two laſt Collects ſhall be daylie ſayd at Euening prayer without alteration

The ſecond Collect at Euening prayer.

O God from whome all holye deſires, all good counſayles, and all iuſt workes doe proceede, gyue vnto thy ſeruauntes that peace which the worlde cannot giue, that both our heartes may be ſet to obeye thy commaundements, and alſo that by thee, we being defended from the feare of our enimies maye paſſe our time in reſt and quietneſſe, throughe the merites of Jeſus Chriſt our ſauiour. Amen.

The thirde Collect for ayde againſt all perilles.

LIghten our darckeneſſe we beſeech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercie defende vs from all perils and daungers of this night, for the loue of thy onely ſonne our ſauiour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

In the feaſtes of Chriſtmas, the Epiphanie, ſaint Mathie, Eaſter, the Aſcention, Pentecoſt, Saint John Baptiſt, ſaint Iames, Saint Bartholomewe, Saint Mathew, ſaint Symon and Jude, ſaint Andrewe, and Trinitie Sundaye, ſhall be ſong or ſaide immediately after Benedictus, this confeſſion of our chriſten fayth.

WHoſoeuer will be ſaued: before all things it is neceſſarie that he holde the Catholike fayth.

Which fayth except euerye man doe keepe pure and vndefiled: without doubt he ſhall periſhe euerlaſtingelye.

And the Catholike fayth is this, that we worſhip one God in Trinitie, and Trinitie in vnitie, Neyther confounding the perſons, nor deuiding the ſubſtaunce.

For there is one perſon of the father, another of the ſonne, and another of the holye ghoſt.

But the Godhead of the father, and of the ſonne, and of the holy ghoſt, is all one, the glorie equall, the maieſtie coeternall.

Such

Suche as the Father is, suche is the Sonne, and such is the holye Ghost.

The Father vncreate, the Sonne vncreate, and the holye ghost vncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Sonne incomprehensible, and the holye Ghost incomprehensible.

The Father eternal, the sonne eternall, and the holy Ghost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternalles, but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is almightie, the Sonne almightie, and the holye Ghost almightie.

And yet they are not three almighties, but one almightie.

So the Father is God, the sonne is God, and the holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods, but one God.

So likewise the father is Lord, the son Lord, & ỹ holy ghost is Lord.

And yet they are not three Lords: but one Lorde.

For like as we be compelled, by the christian verity, yea to acknowledg euerye persone by hymselfe to be God and Lorde.

So are we forbidden by the Catholike religion, to saye there be three Gods, or three Lordes.

The Father is made of none, neyther created nor begotten.

The sonne is of the father alone, not made, nor created but begotten.

The holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the sonne, neyther made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Sonne, not three sonnes. one holye Ghost, not three holye ghostes.

And in this trinitie none is afore or after other, none is greater nor lesse than another.

But the whole three persons be coeternall togither, and coequall.

So that in all thinges, as aforesayde, the vnitie in Trinitie, and the Trinitie in vnitie is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saued must thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore it is necessarie to euerlasting saluation, that he also beleue rightly in the incarnation of our Lorde Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we beleue and confesse that our Lord Jesus Christ the sonne of God, is God and man.

God of the substaunce of the father, begotten before the worldes, and man of the substaunce of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfite God and perfite manne, of a reasonable soule, and humayne flesh subsisting.

Equall to the father as touching his godhead, and inferiour to the father as touching his manhoode.

Who although he be God and man, yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conuersion of the Godheade into flesh, but by taking of the manhoode into God.

One altogither not by confusion of substaunce, but by vnitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule and flesh is one man, so God and man is one Christ.

Who suffred for our Saluation, descended into hell, rose again the thirde day from the dead.

He ascended into heauen he sitteth on the ryght hande of the father, God almighty, from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whose comming all men shall rise againe wyth their bodies: and shall giue account for their owne workes.

And they that haue done good shall go into life euerlasting: and the y that haue done euill into euerlasting fire.

This is the Catholike fayth, which except a man beleeue faithfully, he can not be saued.

Glorie be to the father, and to the sonne and to the holye ghost.

As it was in the beginning is nowe and euer shall be worlde wythout ende. Amen.

¶ Thus endeth the order of the Morning and Euening prayer thorow the whole yeare.

Neyther rewarde vs after our iniquities.

Let vs pray.

O Lorde mercifull father that diſpiſeſt not the ſighing of a contrite heart, nor the deſire of ſuch as bee ſorowfull: mercifully aſſiſt our prayers, that wee make before thee in all our troubles and aduerſities, ſtities, whenſoeuer they oppreſſe vs, and graciouſly heare vs, that thoſe euyls, which the craft and ſubtiltie of the deuill or man worketh againſt vs be brought to naught, and by the prouidence of thy goodneſſe, they may be diſperſed, that we thy ſeruaunts being hurte by no perſecution, may euermore giue thankes vnto thee, in thy holy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lorde.

O Lorde ariſe, helpe vs, and deliuer vs for thy name ſake.

O god, we haue hard with our eares, & our fathers haue declared vnto vs, the noble workes ꝓ thou didſt in their dais, & in the old time before thē.

O Lorde, let thy mercy be ſhewed vpon vs.

The Aunſwere. As we do put our truſt in thee.

Let vs pray.

WE humbly beſeeche thee, O father, mercifully to looke vpon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy names ſake, turne from vs all thoſe euils that we moſt righteouſly haue deſerued. Amen.

After the ende of the Collect in the Letanie, whiche beginneth with theſe wordes: We humbly beſeech thee O father, &c. ſhall folow this Pſalme to be ſayde of the Miniſter, with the aunſwere of the people.

LOrde, thou art become gracious vnto thy lande, thou haſt turned away the afflictions of thy ſeruaunte.

2 Thou haſt taken away all thy diſpleaſure, and turned thy ſelfe from thy wrathfull indignation.

3 For if (thou Lord) hadſt not helped vs, it had not fayled, but our ſoules had bene put to ſilence.

4 But when we ſayde, our feete haue ſlipped, thy mercy, O Lord, hath helped vs vp.

5 In the multitude of the ſorrowes that we had in our hearts, thy comfortes haue refreſhed our ſoules.

6 Our ſoules wayted ſtill vppon the Lorde, our ſoules hanged vppon his helpe, our hope was alwayes in him.

7 In the Lordes wordes did we reioyce, in Gods worde did we comfort our ſelues.

8 For

8 For the Lord sayde: Call vpon me in the tyme of tribulacion and I will heare thee, and thou shalt praise me.

9 So when we were poore, needy, sickly, and in heauines, the lord cared for vs, he was our helpe, and our sauiour according to his worde.

10 In our aduersitie and distresse he hath lift vp our heades, and saued vs from vtter destruction.

11 He hath deliuered our soules from death, he hath fed vs in the time of dearth, he hath saued vs from the noysome pestilence.

12 Therefore will we offer in his holy temple, the oblation of thankes giuing with great gladnesse, wee will sing and speake prayses vnto the Lorde our Sauiour.

13 We will giue thankes vnto the Lorde, for hee is gratious, and hys mercie endureth for euer.

15 His mercy is greater then the heauens, and his gracious goodnesse reacheth vnto the clowdes.

16 Like as a father pitieth his owne children: euen so is the lord mercifull vnto them that feare him.

17 Therfore will we praise thee and thy mercies (O God) vnto thee will we sing, O thou holy one of Israell.

18 We will sing a new song vnto thee, O God, we will praise thee with Psalmes of thankesgiuing.

19 O sing prayses, sing prayses vnto our God, O sing prayses, sing prayses vnto our king.

20 For God is the king of the earth: sing prayses with vnderstanding.

21 We will magnifie thee O Lorde our king, we will praise thy name for euer and euer.

22 Euery day will we giue thankes vnto thee, and prayse thy name for euer and euer.

23 Our mouth shall speake the prayses of the Lorde, and let all flesh giue thankes to his holy name for euer and euer.

24 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israell for euer, and blessed bee the name of his maiestie, worlde without ende. Amen. Amen.

A prayer for the Queenes Maiestie.

O Lorde our heauenly Father, high and mightie, Kinge of Kinges, Lorde of Lordes, the onely ruler of princes, which doest from thy throne, beholde all the dwellers vpon earth, most heartily wee beseech thee with thy fauour to beholde our most gracious soueraigne Lady Queene Elizabeth, and so replenish hir with the grace of thy holy spirit that she may alway incline to thy will, and walke in thy way: Indue hir plentifully with heauenly giftes. Graunt hir in health and wealth long to lyue: strength hir that she may banquish and ouercome all hir enimies. And finally after this life, thee may atteine euerlasting ioye and felicitie: Through Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALmightie and euerlasting God, which onely worketh greate mer-uailes, sende downe vpon our Bishops and Curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful spirit of thy grace and that they may truely please thee. Powre vpon them the continuall dewe of thy blessing. Graunt this O Lorde, for the honour of our aduocate and mediatour Iesus Christ. Amen.

For rayne if the time require.

O God heauenly father, which by thy sonne Iesus Christ, hath promised to all them that seeke thy kingdome, and the righteousnesse thereof, all things necessarie to their bodily sustinaunce. Sende vs we beseech thee in this our necessity, such moderate raine and showers, that we may receyue the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour thorow Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

For faire weather.

O Lorde GOD which for the sinne of man, diddest once drowne all the worlde, except eight persons, and afterwarde of thy great mercie diddest promyse neuer to destroy it so agayne, we humbly beseech thee, that although we for oure iniquities haue worthily deserued thys plague of raine and waters, yet vppon our true repentaunce, thou wilt sende vs such seasonable weather, whereby we maye receiue the fruites of the earth in due season, and learne both by thy punishment to amende our liues, and for thy clemency to giue thee praise and glory, thorow Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

In the time of dearth and famine.

O God heauenly Father, whose gift it is, that the rayne doth fal, the earth is fruitfull, beasts increase, and fishes doe multiply. Amen.

In the time of warre.

O Almightie GOD, King of Kinges, and gouernour of all thinges whose power no creature is able to resist, to whome it belongeth iustly to punishe sinners, and to be mercifull vnto them that truely repent. Saue and deliuer vs (we humbly beseech thee) from the handes of our enimies, abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their deuises, that wee being armed with thy defence may be preserued euermore from all perilles to glorifie thee, which art the only giuer of all victorie, thorowe the merites of thy onely sonne Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the time of any common plague or sickneſſe.

ALmightie God, which in thy wrath in the tyme of king Dauid diddest slea with the plague of pestilence .lxx. thousandes, and yet remembring thy mercye diddest saue the rest, haue pittie vpon vs miserable ſerable ſinners that nowe are viſited with great ſickneſſe and mortalitie, that lyke as thou didſt then commaunde thine Angell to ceaſe from puniſhing, ſo it may nowe pleaſe thee to withdrawe from vs this great plague and greeuous ſickneſſe, thorow Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

ALmightie GOD, which haſt geuen vs grace at this time with one accorde, to make our common ſupplications vnto thee, and doeſt promiſe that when two or three be gathered in thy name, thou wilte graunt their requeſtes: fulfill now O Lorde, the deſires and petitions of thy ſeruauntes, as may be moſt expedient for them, graunting vs in this world knowledge of the truth, and in the worlde to come, life euerlaſting. Amen.

Graunt

GRaunt we beseech thee almightie God, that the wordes which we haue heard this daye with our outwarde eares, may thorowe thy grace be so graffed inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in vs, the fruit of good liuing, to the honour and praise of thy name, thorow Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

PReuent vs O Lorde, in all our doings, with thy most gracious fauour, and further vs with thy continuall helpe, that in all our workes begon and ended in thee, we may glorifie thy holy name and finally, by thy mercy obtaine euerlasting life: thorow Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALmightie God the fountayne of all wysedome, which knowest our necessities before we aske, and our ignorance in asking, we beseech thee to haue compassion vpon oure infirmities: and those things which for our vnworthinesse we dare not, and for our blindnesse we can not aske, vouchsafe to giue vs for the worthinesse of thy Sonne Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALmighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitiõs of them that aske in thy sonnes name, we beseech thee mercifully to encline thine eares to vs, that haue made now prayers and supplications vnto thee, and graunt that those things which we haue faythfully asked according to thy holy will, may effectually be obtayned, to the relefe of our necessitie, and to the setting forth of thy glorye, thorow Iesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

OF all the sentences pronounced by our sauiour Christe in his whole doctrine, none is more serious or more worthy to be borne in remembrance, then that which he spake openly in the Gospell, saying, Scrutamini scripturas, quia vos putatis in ipsis vitam eternam habere, et ille sunt quæ testimonium perhibent de me, Searche ye the scriptures, for in thẽm ye thynke to haue eternall lyfe, & those they be which beare witnesse of me. Iohn. These wordes were first spoken vnto the Iewes by our sauiour, but by hym in his doctrine meant to all: for they concerne all, of what nation, of what tongue, of what profession soeuer any man be. For to all belongeth it to be called vnto eternall lyfe, so many as by the wytnesse of the scriptures desire to finde eternal life. No man, woman, or child is excluded from this saluation, and therefore to euery of them is this spoken proportionally yet, and in theyr degrees and ages, and as the reason and congruitie of theyr vocation may aske. For not so lyeth it in charge to the worldly artificer to search, or to any other priuate man so exquisitely to studie, as it lyeth to the charge of the publique teacher to searche in the scriptures, to be the more able to walke in the house of God (which is the Church of the lyuyng God, the pyller & grounde of trueth) to the establishyng of the true doctrine of the same, and to the impugnyng of the falle. And though whatsoeuer difference there may be betwyxt the preacher in office, and the auditor in his vocation, yet to both it is sayde, Searche ye the scriptures, wherby ye may finde eternall lyfe, and gather witnesses of that saluation whiche is in Christ Iesus our Lord. Deut. For although the prophet of god Moyses biddeth the king, when he is once set in the throne of his kingdome, to describe before his eyes the volume of Gods lawe, accordyng to the example which he should receaue of the priestes of the Leuiticall tribe, to haue it with hym, and to reade in it all the dayes of his lyfe, to thende that he myght learne to feare the Lord his God, & to obserue his lawes, that his heart be not aduaunced in pryde ouer his brethren, not to swarue either on the tyght hande or on the left: yet the reason of this precept for that it concerneth all men, may reasonably be thought to be commaunded to al men, and al men may take it to be spoken to the selfe in theyr degree. Though almightie god hym selfe spake to his captayne Iosue in precise wordes, Non recedat volumen legis huius ab ore tuo, sed meditaberis in eo diebus ac noctibus &c. Let not the volume of this booke depart frõ thy mouth, but muse therin both dayes & nightes, ‡ thou mayst kepe & perfourme al thynges whiche be wrytten in it, that thou mayest direct wel thy way & vnderstande the same: yet afore Iosue. spake almyghtie God this precept to all his people in the directions of theyr wayes to himwarde, as he meant it to Iosue: For that he hath care of all, he acceppteth no mans person, his will is that all men shoulde be saued, his wyll is that al men should come to the way of trueth. Howe coulde this be more conueniently declared by God to man, then when Christe his welbeloued sonne our most louyng sauiour, the way, the trueth, and the lyfe of vs all, dyd byd vs openly, Search the scriptures: assuring vs herein to fynde eternall lyfe, to finde full testification of all his graces and benefites towardes vs in the treasure thereof? Therfore it is most conuenient that we shoulde all suppose that Christe spake to vs all in this his precept of searchyng the scriptures. If this celestiall doctour (so authorised by the father of heauen, and commaunded as his only sonne to be hearde of vs all) bydderh vs busily to searche the scriptures: of what spirite can it proceede to forbyd the readyng and studying of the scriptures? If the grosse Iewes vsed to reade them, as some men thynke that our sauiour Christe did shew by suche kynde of speakyng theyr vsage, with theyr opinion they had therein to fynde eternall lyfe, and were not of Christe rebuked or disproued, either for theyr searching, or for the opinion they had, how superstitiously or superficially soeuer some of them vsed to expende the scriptures? Howe muche more vnadiuisedly do such as boast them selfe to be either Christes vicars, or be of his gard, to lothe christen men frõ readyng, by theyr couert slaunderous reproches of the scriptures, or in theyr authoritie by law or statute to contract this libertie of studying the worde of eternall saluation? Christe calleth them not only to the single readyng of scriptures (sayth Chrisostome) but sendeth them to the exquisite searchyng of them, for in them is eternall lyfe to be founde, and they be (sayth hym selfe) the wytnesse of me: for they declare out his office, they commend his beneuolence towardes vs, they recorde his whole workes wrought for vs to our saluation. Antechriste therfore he must be, that vnder whatsoeuer colour would geue contrary precept or counsayle, to that whiche Christe dyd geue vnto vs. Very litle do they resemble Christes louyng spirite mouyng vs to searche for our comforte, that wyll discourage vs from suche searchyng, or that woulde wythe ignoraunce and forgetfulnesse of his benefite to raigne in vs, so that they myght by our ignoraunce raigne the more frankly in our consciences, to the danger of our saluation. Who can take the light from vs in this miserable vale of blyndnesse, and meane not to haue vs stumble in the paties of perdition to the ruine of our soules? who wyll enuie vs this bread of lyfe prepared and set on the table for our eternall fustenaunce, and meane not to famishe vs, or in stead thereof with theyr corrupt traditions and doctrines of man to infect vs? all the whole scripture, sayth the holy apostle saint Paul inspired from God aboue, is profitable to teache, to reproue, to amende, to instruct in righteousnes, that the man of God may be sound & perfect, instructed to euery good worke. 2. Tim.

Searche therefore good reader (on Gods name) as Christ byddeth thee the holy scriptures, wherein thou mayest finde thy saluation: Let not the volume of this booke (by Gods owne warraunt) depart from thee, but occupie thy selfe therein in the whole iourney of this thy worldly pilgrimage, to vnderstande thy way howe to walke rychtly before hym all the dayes of thy lyfe. Remember that the prophete Dauid pronounceth nym the blessed man which wyll muse in the lawe of God both day and nyght, remember that he calleth hym blessed whiche walketh in the way of the Lorde, whiche wyll searche diligently his testimonies, and wyll in theyr whole heart seeke the same. Let not the coueit suspitious insinuations of the aduersaries dryue thee from the searche of the holy scripture, either for the obscurite whica they say is in them, or for the inscrutable hydden mysteries they talke to be comprised in the, or for the straungenesse and homlynesse of the phrases they woulde charge Gods booke with. Christe exhorteth thee therefore the rather for the difficultie of the same, to searche them diligently. Saint Paul wyllem thee to haue thy sences exercised in them, and not to be a chylde in thy sences, but in malice. Though many thynges may be difficult to thee to vnderstande, impute it rather to thy dull hearyng and readyng, then to thynke that the scriptures be insuperable to them whiche with diligent searchyng labour to discerne the euyll from the good. Only searche with an humble spirite, aske in continuall prayer, seeke with purtie of lyfe, knocke with perpetuall perseuerannce, and crye to that good spirite of Christe the comforter: and surely to euery such asker it wyll be geuen, suche searchers must needes synde, to them it wyll be opened. Christ him selfe wyll open the sense of the scriptures, not to the proude, or to the wyse of the worlde, but to the lowly and contrite in heart: for he hath the key of Dauid, who openeth and no man shutteth, who shutteth and no man openeth. For as this spirite is a beinyng and liberall spirite, and wyll be easily founde of them which wyll early in carefulnesse rise to seeke hym, and as he promiseth he wyll be the comforter from aboue to teache vs, and to leade vs into all the wayes of trueth, yt that in humilitie we bowe vnto dym, denying our owne naturall senses, our carnall wittes and reasons: so is he the spirite of puritie and clearnesse, and wyll receede from hym whose conscience is subiect to fylthynesse or lyte. Into such a soule this heauenly wysdome wyll not enter, for all peruerte cogitations wyll separate vs from God: and then howe busyly so euer we searche this holy table of the scripture, yet wyll it then be a table to such to theyr owne snare, a trap, a stumblyng stocke, and a recompence to them selfe. We ought therfore to searche to synde out the trueth, not to oppresse it, we ought to seeke Christe, not as Herode dyd vnder the pretence of worshipping him to destroy him, or as the pharisees searched the scriptures to dispraue Christe, and to discredite him, and not to folowe hym: but to embrace the saluation which we may learne by them. Nor yet is it ynough so to acknowledge the scriptures as some of the Iewes dyd, of the holyest of them, who vsed suche diligence, that they could number precisly not only euery verse, but euery worde and sillable, howe oft euery letter of the alphabete was repeated in the whole scriptures: they had some of them such reuerence to that booke, that they woulde not suffer in a great heape of bookes, any other to lay ouer them, they would not suffer that booke to tall to the grounde as nye as they coulde, they woulde costly bynde the bookes of holy scriptures, and cause them to be exquisitely and ornately wrytten. Which deuotion yet though it was not to be discommended, yet was it not for that intent why Christe commended the scriptures, nor they therof alowed before God: For they dyd not call vpon God in a true fayth, they were not charitable to theyr neighbours, but in the middes of all this deuotion they dyd steale, they were adulterers, they were thunderers and backbiters, euen muche lyke many of our christian men and women nowe adayes, who glory much that they reade the scriptures, that they searche them and loue them, that they frequent the publique sermons in an outward shew of al honestie and perfection, yea they can pike out of the scriptures vertuous sentences and godly preceptes to lay before other men. And though these maner of men do not muche erre for suche searchyng and studying, yet they see not the scope and the principall state of the scriptures, which is as Christe declareth it, to finde Christe as theyr sauiour, to cleaue to his saluation and merites, to be brought to the lowe repentance of their liues, and to amende them selfe, to rayse vp theyr fayth to our sauiour Christe, so to thynke of hym as the scriptures do testifie of hym. These be the principall causes why Christ dyd sende the Iewes to searche the scriptures: for to this ende were they wrytten, sayth saint Iohn, hęc scripta sunt vt credatis, & vt credentes vitam habeatis eternam. These were written to this intent, that ye shoulde beleue, and that through your beliefe you shoulde haue euerlatyng lyfe.

And here good readers, great cause we haue to extoll the wonderous wysdome of God, and with great thankes to prayse his prouidence, consyderyng howe he hath preserued and renued from age to age by speciall miracle, the incomparable treasure of his Churche. For first he dyd inspire Moyses, as Iohn Christostome doth testifie, to wryte the stone tables, and kept hym in the mountayne fourtie dayes to geue hym his lawe: after hym he sent the prophetes, but they suffred many thousande aduersities: for battayle dyd folowe, all were slayne, all were destroyed, bookes were brent vp. He then inspired agayne another man to repayre these miraculous scriptures, Esdras I meane, who of their leauinges set them agayne together: after that, he prouided that the feuentie interpreters shoulde take them in hande: at the last came Christe hym selfe, tho apostles dyd receaue them, and spread them throughout all nations, Christe wrought his miracles and wonders: and what followed? after these great volumes the apostles also dyd wryte as saint paul doth say, These be wrytten to the instruction of vs that be come into the ende of the worlde: and Christe doth say, Ye therefore erre, because ye know not the scriptures nor the power of God: and Paul dyd say, Let the worde of Christ be plentifull among you: and agayne sayth Dauid, Oh howe sweete be thy wordes to my tarote: he sayde not, to my hearyng, but to my tarote, aboue the hony or the hony combe to my mouth. Yea Moyses sayth, Thou shalt meditate in them euermore when thou ryseste, when thou sittest downe, when thou goest to sleepe, continue in them he sayth: and a thousande places more. And yet after so many testimonies thus spoken, there be some persons that do not yet so muche as knowe what the scriptures be: wherupon nothyng is in good state amongst vs, nothyng worthyly is done amongst vs: In this which pertayne to this lyte we make very great haste, but of spirituall goodes we haue no regarde. Thus farre Iohn Chrisost. It must needes signifie some great thing to our vnderstandyng, that almightie god hath had such care to preserue these bookes thus vnto vs: I say not preserue them only, but to mayntayne them and defende them agaynst the malignitie of the deuil and his ministers, who alway went about to destroy them: yet coulde these theſe neuer be ſo deſtroyed,but that he woulde haue them continue whole and perfect to this day,to our ſinguler comfort and inſtruction, where other bookes of mortall wyſe men haue perished in great numbers. It is recorded that Ptolomeus Philadelphus kyng of Egypt, had gathered together in one libratie at Alexandria by his great coſte and diligence, ſeuen hundred thouſande bookes,whereof the principall were the bookes of Moyſes,whiche reſerued not much more then by the ſpace of two hundred yeres, were all brent and conſumed in that battayle when Cæſar reſtored Cleopatra agayne after her expulſion. At Conſtantinople perished vnder Zenon by one common fire,an hundred and twentie thouſande bookes. At Rome when Lucius Aurel Antonius dyd raigne, his notable libratie by a lightning from heauen was quite conſumed: yea it is recorded that Gregorie the firſt dyd cauſe a libratie of Rome contayning only certayne Paynims workes to be burned,to thintent the ſcriptures of God ſhould be more read and ſtudied. What other great libraries haue there ben conſumed but of late dayes? And what libraries haue of olde throughout this realme almoſt in euery abbey of the ſame, ben deſtroyed at ſundry ages,beſides the loſſe of other mens priuate ſtudies,it were to long to reherſe. Wherupon ſeyng almightie God by his diuine prouidence hath preſerued theſe bookes of the ſcriptures ſafe and ſounde,and that in theyr natiue languages they were firſt written, in the great ignorance that raigned in theſe tongues, & contrary to all other caſualties chaunced vpon all other bookes in mauger of all worldly wittes,who would ſo fayne haue had them deſtroyed, and yet he by his mightie hande woulde haue them extant as wytneſſes and interpreters of his wyll towarde mankinde: we may ſoone ſee cauſe moſt reuerently to embrace theſe diuine teſtimonies of his will,to ſtudie them, and to ſearche them, to inſtruct our blinde nature ſo ſore corrupted and fallen from the knowledge in whiche firſt we were created. Yet hauyng occaſion geuen ſomewhat to recouer our fall, and to returne agayne to that diuine nature wherein we were once made, and at the laſt to be inheritours in the celeſtiall inhabitation with God almightie,after the ende of our mortalitie here brought to his duſt agayne: Theſe bookes I ſay beyng of ſuch eſtimation and auctho-ritie,ſo much reuerenced of them who had any meane taſte of them,could neuer be put out of the way, neither by the ſpyte of any tyraunt,as that tyraunt Maximian deſtroyed all the holy ſcriptures wherſoeuer they could be founde, and burnt them in the myddes of the market, neither the hatred either yf any Porphirian Philoſopher or Rhetoritian, neither by the enuie of the Romanyites,and of ſuch hypocrites who from tyme to tyme dyd euer barke agaynſt them,ſome of them not in open ſort of condemnation: but more cunnyngly vnder ſuttle pretences,for that as they ſay, they were ſo harde to vnderſtande,and ſpecially for that they affirme it to be a perilous matter to tranſlate the text of the holy ſcripture, and therfore it can not be well tranſlated. And here we may beholde the endeuour of ſome mens cauillations,who labour all they can to ſlaunder the tranſlatours, to finde fault in ſome wordes of the tranſlation: but them ſelfe wyl neuer ſet pen to the booke to ſet out any tranſlation at all. They can in theyr conſtitutions prouincial vnder payne of excommunication, inhibite all other men to tranſlate them without the ordinaries or the prouincial counſaile agree therevnto: but they wyl be wel ware neuer to agree or to geue counſayle to ſet them out. Which theyr ſuttle compaſſe in effect,tendeth but to bewray what inwardly they meane, if they coulde bryng it about,that is, vtterly to ſuppreſſe them: beyng in this their iudgement farre vnlyke the olde fathers in the primatiue Churche, who hath exhorted inaſmuch as perſons,aſwell men as women,to exerciſe them ſelues in the ſcriptures,which by S. Hieroms auctho-ritie be the ſcriptures of the people. Yea they be farre vnlyke theyr olde forefathers that haue ruled in this realme,who in theyr tymes, and in diuers ages dyd theyr diligence to tranſlate the whole bookes of the ſcriptures, to the erudition of the laytie, as yet at this day be to be ſeene diuers bookes tranſlated into the vulgar tongue,ſome by kynges of the realme, ſome by bythoppes, ſome by abbottes,ſome by other diuout godly fathers: ſo deſyrous they were of olde tyme to haue the lay ſort edified in godlyneſſe by reading in theyr vulgar tongue,the very many bookes be yet extant, though for the age of the ſpeache and ſtraungeneſſe of the charect of many of them almoſt worne out of knowledge. In which bookes may be ſeene euidently how it was vſed among the Saxons,to haue in theyr Churches read the foure goſpels, ſo diſtributed and pyked out of the body of the euangeliſtes bookes, that to euery Sunday and feſtiuall day in the yere, they were forted out to the common miniſters of the Churche in their common prayers to be read to theyr people. Now as of the moſt auncient fathers the prophetes, ſaint Peter teſtifieth that theſe holy men of God had the impulſion of the holy ghoſt, to ſpeake out theſe diuine teſtimonies: ſo it is not to be doubted but that theſe latter holy fathers of the Engliſhe Churche,had the impulſion of the holy ghoſt to ſet out theſe ſacred bookes in theyr vulgar language, to the edification of the people, by the helpe whereof they might the better folowe the example of the godly chriſtians in the beginning of the Churche,who not only receaued the worde with all redineſſe of heart, but alſo did ſearch diligently in the ſcriptures, whether the doctrine of the apoſtles were agreeable to the ſame ſcriptures. And theſe were not of the raſcall ſort(ſayth the diuine ſtorie) but they were of the beſt & of moſt noble birth among the Theſſalonians, Birthenſes by name. Yea the prophetes them ſelues in theyr dayes, wryteth S.Peter,were diligent ſearchers to enquire out this ſaluation by Chriſt,ſearching when and at what article of time this grace of Chriſtes diſpenſation ſhould appeare to the world. What meant the fathers of the Churche in theyr wrytynges, but the aduaunceing of theſe holy bookes? Where ſome do attribute no certayntie of vndoubted veritie but to the canonicall ſcriptures. Some do affirme it to be a fooliſhe raſhe boldneſſe to beleue hym, who proueth not by the ſcriptures that whiche he affirmeth in his worde. Some do accuſe all that is deliuered by tradition, not founde in the legall and euangelicall ſcriptures. Some ſay that our fayth muſt needes ſtagger, yf it be not grounded vppon the auctho-ritie of the ſcripture. Some teſtifieth that Chriſte and his Churche ought to be auaunched out of the ſcriptures, and do contende in diſputation,that the true Churche can not be knowen but only by the holy ſcriptures: For all other thynges (ſayth the ſame auctho-r) may be founde among the heritikes. Some affirme it to be a ſinful tradition that is obteuded without the ſcripure. Some plainly pronounce,that not to knowe the ſcriptures, is, not to knowe Chriſte. Wherefore let men extoll out the Churche practiſes as hyghly as they can, and let them ſet out theyr traditions and cuſtomes, their diciſions in ſynodes and counſayls, with vaunteyng the preſence of the holy ghoſt among them really,as ſome doth affirme it in theyr writing,let their groundes and their demonſtrations,their foundations be as ſtable and as ſtrong as they blaſe them out: Yet wyll we be bolde to ſay with Saint Peter, Habemus nos firmiorem ſermonem propheticum, We haue for our part a more ſtable grounde, the propheticall wordes(of the ſcriptures)& doubt not to be,commended therfore of the ſame

Sainct

Saint Peter with these wordes, Cui dum attenditis ceu lucerne apparenti in obscuro loco, recte facitis donec dies illucescat, &c. Whervnto saith he, whyle ye do attend as to a light shinyng in a darke place, ye do well vntyll the day lyght appeare, and tyll the bryght starre do aryse into our neartes. For this we knowe, that all the prophetical scripture standeth not in any priuate interpretation of vayne names, of seuerall Churches, of catholique and vniuersall seas, of synguler and wilful heades, which wyll chalenge by custome all decision to pertaine to them only, who by working so much for theyr vaine superioritie, ỹ they be not ashamed now to be of that number, Qui dicerunt, Linguã nostrã magnificabimus: labia nostra a nobis sunt, quis noster dominus est? Pſal. xi. Which haue sayd, With our tong wil we preuayle: we are they ỹ ought to speake, who is lorde ouer vs? And whyle they shal thus contend for theyr straunge claymed auctoritie, we wil proceede in the reformation begun, & doubt no more by the helpe of Christ his grace, of the true vnitie to Christes catholike Church, & of the vprightnesse of our faith in this prouince, then the spanishe cleargie once gathered together in counsayle (only by the commaundement of theyr kyng, before which tyme the Pope was not so acknowledged in his auctoritie whiche he nowe claymeth) I say as surely dare we trust, as they dyd trust of theyr fayth and vnitie. Yea no lesse confidence haue we to professe that, which the fathers of the vniuersall counsayle at Carthage in Affrike as they write them selfe did professe in theyr epistle written to Pope Celestine, laying before his face the foule corruption of him selfe (as two other of his predecessours dyd the lyke errour) in falsifiyng the canons of Nisen counsayle, for his wrong chalenge of his newe claymed auctoritie: Thus wrytyng, Prudentissime enim instituerunt Nicena, et Affricana decreta quæcunque negotia in suis locis (ubi orta sunt) finiendo, nec uniuique pronintiæ gratiam sancti spiritus defuturam, qua equitas a Christi sacerdotibus et prudenter videatur, & constantissime teneatur, maxime, quia uniuique concessum est, si iudicio offensus fuerit cognitorum, ad concilia luæ pronunciæ, uel etiam uniuersale pronocare. That the Nisen & Affrican decrees haue most prudently and iustly prouided for al maner of matters to be ended in theyr territories where they had their beginning, & they trusted that not to any one prouince should want the grace of the holy ghost, whereby both the trueth or equitie might prudently be seene of the christian prelates of Christe, and myght be also by them most constantly defended, specially for that it is graunted to euery man (if he be greeued) by the iudgement of the cause once knowen, to appeale to the counsayles of his owne prouince, or els to the vniuersall. Except there be any man whiche may beleue that our Lorde God would inspire the ryghteousnesse of examination to any one synguler person, and to denye the same to priestes gathered togethee into counsayle without number. &c. And there they do require the Bysshop of Rome to send none of his clarkes to execute such prouinciall causes, lest els say they, mought be brought in the vayne pryde of the worlde into the Churche of Christe. In this antiquitie may we in this christian catholique Churche of Englande repose our selfe, knowyng by our owne annales of auncient recorde, that kyng Lucius whose conscience was muche touched with the miracles whiche the seruauntes of Christe wrought in diuers nations, therevpon beyng in great loue with the true fayth, sent vnto Eleutherius then Bysshop of Rome, requiring of him the christian religion. *But Eleutherius dyd redily geue ouer that care to kyng Lucius in his epistle, for that the kyng as he wryteth, the vicar of God in his owne kyngdome, and for that he had receaued the fayth of Christe, and for that he had also both testamentes in his realme: he wylled hym to drawe out of them by the grace of God, and by the counsayle of his wyse men, his lawes, & by that lawe of God to gouerne his realme of Britanie, and not so much to desyre the Romane and Emperours lawes, in the which some default myght be founde sayth he, but in the lawes of God nothyng at all. *With which aunswere the kynges legates, Eluanus and Medwinus sent as messengers by the kyng to the Pope, returned to Britanie agayne, Eluanus beyng made a Bysshop, and Medwine alowed a publique teacher: who for the eloquence and knowledge they had in the holy scriptures, they repayred home agayne to kyng Lucius, and by theyr holy preachynges, Lucius and the noble men of whole Britanie receaued theyr baptisme. &c. Thus farre in the storie. Nowe therefore knowyng and beleuyng with saynt Paul, Quod quecunque præscripta sunt, ad nostram doctrinam præscripta sunt, ut per patientiam & consolationem scripturarum spem habeamus: Whatsoeuer is afore written, is wrytten before for our instruction, ỹ we through ỹ patience & comfort of scriptures might haue hope, ỹ only suertie to our fayth & conscience, is to sticke to ỹ scriptures. Wherupon while this eternal word of god be our rock & anker to stycke vnto, we wil haue patience with al ỹ vayne inuentions of men, who labour so highly to magnifie theyr tongues, to exalt them selues aboue al that is God. We wyl take comfort by the holy scriptures agaynst the maledictions of the aduersaries, & doubt not to nourish our hope continually therwith, so to liue and die in this comfortable hope, & doubt not to pertaine to ỹ elect number of Christes Church, how farre so euer we be excommunicated out of the synagogue of suche who suppose them selues to be the vniuersall lordes of all the worlde, lordes of our fayth & consciences, at pleasure. Finally to commende further vnto thee good reader the cause in part before intreated, it shalbe the lesse needefull, hauyng so nye folowed that learned preface, which sometyme was set out by the diligence of that godly father Thomas Cranmer, late Bysshop in the sea of Canterburie, which he caused to be prefixed before the translation of that Byble that was then set out. And for that the copies there of be so waited, that very many Churches do want theyr conuenient Bybles, it was thought good to some well disposed men, to recognise the same Byble againe into this fourme as it is nowe come out, with some further diligence in the printing, and with some more lyght added, part in the translation, and partly in the order of the texte, not as condemnyng the former translation, whiche was folowed mostly of any other translation, exceptyng the originall text from whiche as lytle variaunce was made as was thought meete to such as take payues therein desiring thee good reader yf ought be escaped, either by such as had the expending of the bookes, or by the ouersight of the printer, to correct the same in the spirite of charitie, callyng to remembraunce what diuersitie hath ben seene in mens iudgementes in the translation of these bookes before these dayes, though all directed theyr labours to the glory of God, to the edification of the Churche, to the comfort of their christian brethren, and al wayes as God dyd further open vnto them, so euer more desyrous they were were to reſourme theyr former humane ouerſyghtes, rather then in a ſtubburne wylfulneſſe to reſiſt the gift of the holy ghoſt, who from tyme to tyme is reſident as that heauenly teacher and leader into all trueth, by whoſe direction the Church is ruled & gouerned. And let al men remember in them ſelfe how errour and ignorannce is created with our nature: let frayle man confeſſe with that great wyſe man, that the cogitations and inuentions of mortall men be very weake, and our opinions ſoone deceaued: For the body ſo ſubiect to corruption doth oppreſſe the ſoule, that it can not aſpire ſo hye as of duetie it ought. Men we be all, and that which we knowe, is not the thouſandth part of that we knowe not. Wherupon ſayth Saint Auſten, Otherwyſe to iudge then the trueth is, this temptation ryſeth in the frailtie of man. A man ſo to loue and sticke to his owne iudgement, or to enuie his brothers, to the perill of diſſoluing the chriſtian communion, or to the peryll of ſchiſme, and of herieſie, this is diabolicall preſumption: but ſo to iudge in euery matter as the trueth is, this belongeth only to the angelicall perfection. Notwithſtanding good reader, thou mayſt be well aſſured nothing to be done in this tranſlation either of malice or wylfull meanyng, in alteryng the text, either by puttyng more or leſſe to the ſame, as of purpoſe to bring in any pryuate iudgement by falſification of the words, as ſome certaine men hath ben ouer bolde ſo to do, litle regardyng the maieſtie of God his ſcripture: but ſo to make it ſerue to theyr corrupt errour, as in alleaging the ſentence of Saint Paul to the Romanes the. 6. one certayne wryter to proue his ſatiffaction, was bolde to turne the worde of Sanctificationem into the word of Satisfactionem, Thus. Sicut exhibuimus antea membra noſtra ſeruire immunditie et iniquitati ad iniquitatem, ita deinceps exhibeamus membra noſtra ſeruire iuſtitiæ in ſatiſfactionem. That is, As we haue geuen our members to vncleanneſſe, from iniquitie to iniquitie: euen ſo from hencefoorth let vs geue our members to ſerue ryghteouſneſſe into ſatiſfaction: where the true worde is, into ſanctification. Euen ſo lykewyſe for the aduauntage of his cauſe, to proue that men may haue in theyr prayer fayth vpon ſaintes, corruptly alleageth Saint Paules text, Ad phi-lemonem. Thus. Fidem quam habes in domino Jeſu & in omnes ſanctos, leauing out the worde Charitatem, whiche woulde haue ryghtly ben diſtributed vnto omnes ſanctos. Ac fidem vnto in domino Jeſu. Where the text is, Audiens charitatem tuam & fidem quam habes in domino Jeſu & in omnes ſanctos. &c. It were to long to bryng in many examples, as may be openly founde in ſome mens wrytynges in theſe dayes, who woulde be counted the cheefe pillers of the Catholique fayth, or to note howe corruptly they of purpoſe abuſe the text to the commoditie of theyr cauſe. What maner of tranſlation may men thinke to looke for at theyr handes, yf they ſhoulde tranſlate the ſcriptures to the comfort of Gods elect, whiche they neuer dyd, nor be not lyke to purpoſe it, but be rather ſtudious only to ſeeke quarrels in other mens well doynges, to pycke fault where none is: And where any is eſcaped through humane negligence, there to cry out with theyr tragicall exclamations, but in no wyſe to amende by the ſpirite of charitie and lenitie that whiche myght be more aptly ſet. Wherupon for frayle man (compaſſed hym ſelfe with infirmitie) it is moſt reaſonable not to be to ſeuere in condemnyng his brothers knowledge or diligence where he doth erre, not of malice, but of ſimplicitie, and ſpecially in handelyng of theſe ſo diuine bookes, ſo profounde in ſenſe, ſo farre paſſyng our naturall vnderſtandyng. And with charitie it ſtandeth, the reader not to be offended with the diuerſitie of tranſlatours, nor with the ambiguitie of tranſlations: For as Saint Auſten doth witneſſe, By Gods prouidence it is brought about, that the holy ſcriptures whiche be the ſalues for euery mans ſore, though at the fyrſt they came from one language, and therby might haue ben ſpread to the whole worlde: nowe by diuerſitie of many languages, the tranſlatours ſhoulde ſpreade the ſaluation (that is contayned in them) to all nations, by ſuch wordes of vtterannce, as the reader myght perceaue the mynde of the tranſlatour, and ſo conſequentlly to come to the knowledge of God his wyll and pleaſure. And though many raſhe readers be deceaued in the obſcurities and ambiguities of theyr tranſlations, whyle they take one thyng for another, and whyle they vſe much labour to extricate them ſelues out of the obſcurities of the ſame: yet I thinke (ſayth he) this is not wrought without the prouidence of God, both to tame the proude arrogancie of man by his ſuche labour of ſcarchyng, as alſo to kepe his mynde from lothſomneſſe and contempt, where yf the ſcriptures vniuerſally were to eaſie, he woulde leſſe regarde them. And though (ſaith he) in the primatiue Churche the late interpreters which did tranſlate the ſcriptures be innumerable, yet wrought this rather an helpe, then an impediment to the readers, if they be not to negligent. For, ſaith he, Diuers tranſlations haue made many times the harder and darker ſentences, the more open and playne: So that of congruence no offence can iuſtly be taken for this newe labour, nothing preiudicing any other mans iudgement by this doing, nor yet hereby profeſſing this to be ſo abſolute a tranſlation, as that herafter myght folowe no other that myght ſee that whiche as yet was not vnderſtanded. In this point it is conuenient to conſyder the iudgement that Iohn, once byſhop of Rocheſter was in, who thus wrote: It is not vnknowen, but that many thynges haue ben more diligently diſcuſſed, & more clearely vnderſtanded by the wittes of theſe latter dayes, aſwel concerning the goſpels as other ſcriptures, then in olde tyme they were. The cauſe wherof is (ſayth he) for that to the olde men the yce was not broken, or for that their age was not ſufficient exquiſitely to expend the whole mayne ſea of the ſcriptures, or els for that in this large feeld of the ſcriptures, a man may gather ſome eares vntouched after the harueſt men, howe diligent ſoeuer they were. For there be yet (ſaith he) in the Goſpels very many darke places, which without all doubt to the poſteritie ſhalbe made muche more open. For why ſhould we diſpaire herein, ſeyng the goſpel (writeth he) was deliuered to this intent, that it myght be vtterly vnderſtanded of vs, yea to the very inche. Wherefore, foraſmuch as Chriſte ſheweth no leſſe loue to his Churche nowe, then hitherto he hath done, the auctthoritie wherof is as yet no whit diminiſhed, and foraſmuch as that holy ſpirite the perpetual keper and gardian of the ſame Church, whoſe gyftes and graces do flowe as continually and as aboundantly as from the beginning: who can doubt, but that ſuch thinges as remayne yet vnknowen in the goſpel, ſhalbe hereafter made open to the latter wittes of our poſteritie, to theyr cleare vnderſtanding? (Thus farre this wryter.) Only good readers let vs oft call vpon the holy ſpirite of God our heauenly father, by the mediation of our Lorde and ſauiour, with the wordes of the octonarie Pſalme of Dauid: who did ſo importunately craue of God to haue the vnderſtanding of his lawes and teſtament: Let vs humblye on our knees pray to almyghtie GOD, with that wyſe kyng Solomon in his very wordes, ſaying thus,

And yet may it be true that W. of Malsberie wryteth, that Johannus and Vrsula were sent after (as coadiutors) with these learned me to the preaching of the gospel, whyche was neuer extinguished in Britanie, from Joseph of Aramathia his tyme, vnto saint Austen the first bysshop of Canterburie they do openly auouche.

God of my fathers, and Lorde of mercies (thou that haſt made all thinges with thy worde, and didſt ordayne man through thy wyſdome, that he ſhoulde haue dominion ouer thy creatures which thou haſt made, and that he ſhoulde order the worlde according to holyneſſe and righteouſneſſe, and that he ſhoulde execute iudgement with a true heart) geue me wiſdome whiche is euer about thy ſeate, and put me not out from among thy chyldren: For I thy ſeruaunt and ſonne of thy handmayden am a feeble perſon, of a ſhort tyme, and to weake to the vnderſtanding of thy iudgementes and lawes. And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the chyldren of men, yet if thy wyſdome be not with hym, he ſhalbe of no value. O ſende her out therefore from thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhe may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy ſight: for ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth all thinges, and ſhe ſhall leade me ſoberly in my workes, and preſerue me in her power. So ſhall my workes be acceptable by Chriſte our Lorde, to whom with the father and the holy ghoſt, be all honour and glorie, world without end.

Amen.

The whole ſcripture of the Bible is diuided into two Teſtamentes, the olde Teſtament and the newe, whiche booke is of diuers natures, ſome legall, ſome hiſtorical, ſome ſapiential, and ſome prophetical. The olde teacheth by figures and ceremonies, the lawe was geuen terribly in lightning and thundring, to induce the people to obſeruaunce therof by feare. The newe Teſtament came in more gloriouſly with the gentle name of the Goſpell, and good tidinges, to induce men to obſerue it by loue.

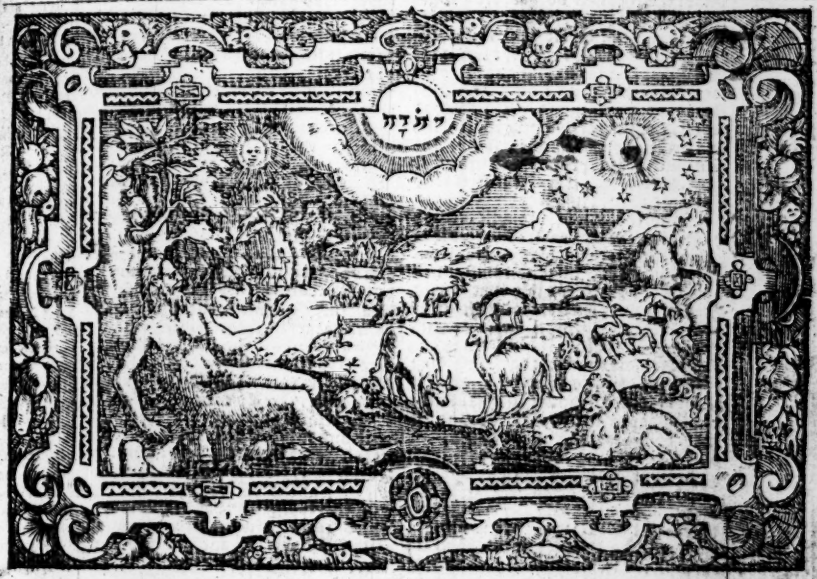
¶ The first booke of Moyſes, called in Hebrue (a) Bereſchith, and in Greke (b) Geneſis.

(a) That is, In the beginnyng.

(b) That is, generation, or creation.



¶ The first Chapter.

1. How heauen and earth, 3 the lyght, 8 the firmament, 16 the ſunne, the moone, the ſtarres, 21 and all beaſtes, foules, and fiſſhes in the ſea were made by the worde of god, 26 and howe man also was created.

(b) The confuſed heape of heauen & earth was imperfect and darke, & yet not vtterly dead, but was endued with the powre and ſtrength of gods ſpirite, and ſo made lively to continue vnto the worldes ende.

IN the begynnynge GOD created heauen & earth. 2 And the earth was (a) without fourme, & voyde: and darkenes (was) vpon the face of the deepe, and the (b) ſpirite of God moued vpon the face of the waters. 3 And God ſaide, Let there be lyght: and there was lyght. 4 And God ſawe the lyght that it was good: and God diuided the lyght from the darkenes. 5 And God called the lyght day, and the darkenes nyght: and the euenyng and the mornyng were the firſt day. 6 And God ſaide, Let there be a firmament betweene the waters, and let it make a diuiſion betweene waters and waters. 7 And God made the firmament, and ſet a diuiſion betweene the waters which (were) vnder (c) the firmament, and the waters that (were) aboue the firmament: and it was so. 8 And God called the firmament heauen: and the euenyng and the mo3ning were the second day.

9 And God sayde, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered together into one place, and let the dry3e lande appeare: and it was so. 10 And God called the dry3e lande the earth, and the gatherying together of waters called he the seas: and God sawe that it was good. 11 And God sayde, Let the earth bry3ng fo3th bud and greene hearbe apte to seede, and frutefull trees, yeeldyng fruite after his kynde, which hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth bzought fo3th greene hearbe apt to seede after his kynde, and tree yeeldyng fruite, whiche hadde seede in it selfe after his kynde. 13 And God sawe that it was good. And the euenyng and the mo3nyng were the thirde day. 14 And God sayde, Let there be lightes in the firmament of heauen, that they may diuide the day and the nyght, and let them be fo3 (d) signes and seasons, and fo3 dayes and yeres. 15 And let them be fo3 lyghtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may geue lyght vpon the earth: and it was so. 16 And god made two great lightes: a greater lyght to rule the day, and a lesse lyght to rule the nyght, and (he made) starres also. 17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shyne vpon the earth, 18 And to rule the day and nyght, and to make difference betweene the lyght and the darkenesse: and God saw that it was good. 19 And the euenyng and the mo3ning were the fourth day.

Psal. 136. b Deut. iiii. b The. 4. day. (d) These lyghtes were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies, but for signes in natural things, & tokens of Gods mercie or wrath.

20 And God sayde, Let the waters bryng fo3th (e) mouyng creature that hath lyfe, and foule that may flee vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen. 21 And god created great whales and euery liuing and mouing creature, whiche the waters bzought fo3th after they3 kynde, and euery fethered foule after they3 kinde: and God sawe that it was good. 22 And God (f) blessed them, saying Be frutefull, and multiplie, & fyll the waters of the sea, & let foule multiplie in the earth. 23 And the euenyng and mo3ning were the fift day. 24 And God sayde, Let the earth bryng fo3th liuyng creature after his kynde, catteil,

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde vnto them, Be frutefull, and multiplie, and replenishe the earth, & subdue it, and haue dominion of the fishe of the sea, and foule of the ayre, and of euery liuing thing that moueth vpon the earth. 29 And God sayde, Beholde, I haue geuen you euery hearbe bearyng seede, which is in the vpper face of all the earth, and euery tree in the which is the fruite of a tree bearing seede, (that) they may be meate vnto you: 30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery birde of the ayre, and to euery such thing that creepeth vpon the earth, which hath liue, I haue geuen euery greene hearbe for meate: and it was so. 31 And God sawe euery thyng that he had made: and beholde, it was exceeding good. And the euenyng and the mo3nyng were the sixth day.

And the seuenth day he rested from all his worke whiche he had made. 3 And God blessed the seuenth day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his worke whiche God ordered to make.

4 These are the generations of the heauens, and of the earth when they were were created, in the day when the Lorde God made the earth and the heauens. 5 And euery plant of the fielde before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the fielde before it grewe: For the Lorde God had not (yet) caused it to rayne vpon the earth, neither (was there) a man to tyll the grounde. 6 But there went vp a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the grounde.

7 The Lorde God alſo dyd shape man (c) of the duſt of the grounde, and breathed into his noſethirles the breath of lyfe, and man was a lyuyng soule. 8 And the Lorde God planted a * garden eaſtward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapen. 9 Moreouer, out of the grounde made the Lorde God to growe euery tree that was fayre to syght, and pleaſaunt to eate: The tree (d) of lyfe in the middeſt of the garden, and the tree of (e) knowledge of good and euyll. 10 And out of Eden there went foorth a ryuer to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heades. 11 The name of the firſt is Piſon, the ſame is it that compaſſeth the whole lande of (f) Hauilah, where there is golde: 12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is alſo Bdellium, and the Onix stone. 13 The name of the ſeconde ryuer is Gihon: the ſame is it that compaſſeth the whole lande of (g) Ethiopia. 14 The name of the thirde ryuer is * Hidekel, and it goeth towarde the eaſt syde of Aſſyria: and the fourth ryuer is Euphrates. 15 And the Lorde God tooke the man, and put hym into the garden of Eden, that he might worke it, and kepe it. 16 And the Lorde God (h) commaunded the man, ſaying, Eating, thou ſhalt eate of euery tree of the garden: 17 But as touchyng the tree of knowledge of good and euyll thou ſhalt not eate of it: For in what day ſo euer thou eateſt thereof, thou ſhalt dye (i) the death. 18 And the Lorde God ſayde, It is not good that the man ſhoulde be alone, I wyll make hym an helpe " lyke vnto hym. 19 And ſo out of the grounde the Lorde God had shapen euery beaſt of the fielde, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought them vnto man, that he myght ſee howe he woulde call them: For lykewyſe as man named euery lyuyng thyng, ſo was the name therof. 20 And the man gaue names to all catteil, and foule of the ayre, and to euery beaſt of the fielde: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke vnto hym. 21 The Lorde God cauſed a deepe ſleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he ſlept, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and cloſed vp the place with fleſhe in ſtead therof. 22 And the ribbe which the Lord God had taken from man, " made he a woman, and (k) brought her vnto the man. 23 And man ſayde, This is nowe bone of my bones, and fleſhe of my fleſhe, ſhe ſhalbe called woman, becauſe ſhe was taken out of man. 24 For this cauſe ſhall man leaue his father and his mother, and ſhalbe ioyned with his wyfe: and they ſhall become one fleſhe. 25 And they were both naked the man and his wyfe, and were (l) not aſhamed.

IF there be any kingdome vnder heauen that is excellent in beautie, in aboundaunce of fruites, in plenteouſneſſe, in delites and other giftes: they which haue written of countreys, do prayſe aboue all, the ſame that this figure repreſenteth. Wherfore, with the prayſes of thoſe writers, Moyſes exalteth this paradiſe, as duely belongyng vnto it. And it is very well like, that the region or kingdome of Eden hath ben ſituated in that countrey, as it appeareth in the.xxxvii. Chapter of Eſaias, the.xii. vearſe, and in the.xxviii. of Ezechiel the.xxiii. vearſe. Moreouer, wheras Moyſes ſayd that a flud did proceede from that place: I do interprete it, from the courſe of the waters, as if he ſhould haue ſayd that Adam did inhabite in the fluddes ſide, or in the lande which was watered on both ſides. Howbeit, there is no great matter in that, either that Adam hath inhabited vnder the place where both fluddes come together towarde Babylon and Seleucia, or aboue: It is ſufficient that he hath ben in a place watered of waters. But the thing is not darke nor harde to vnderſtand, howe this flud hath ben diuided in foure heades. For they be two fluddes which be gathered in one, then they ſeperate them ſelues in diuers partes. So in their ioyning & flowing together, it is but a flud, wherof there is two heades into two chanels from aboue, and two toward the ſea, when it beginneth to ſeperate it ſelfe abrode. But to declare vnto you the diuerſities of the riuers names, beſides their vſuall & principall appellations, and howe they be called as they paſſe through eche prouince, with the interpretations of the ſame, I thinke it rather tedious and combreſome, then profitable. Wherfore the ſimple ſenſe of Moyſes is, that the garden wherof Adam was the owner, was watered with waters, becauſe that the courſe of this flud was there, which was diuided into foure heades.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1 The serpent deceaueth the woman. 4 The serpent, woman, and man are cursed and dryuen out of Paradise. 15 Christe the blessed seede of the woman is promised.

A (a) As Satan can chaunge him selfe into an angell of light: so did he abuse the wisdome of the serpent to deceaue man.

(b) God suffred Satan to make the serpent his instrument, & to speake in hym.

AND the serpent was (a) suttiller then euery beast of the fielde whiche the Lorde God had made, and he sayd vnto the (b) woman: yea, hath God sayd, ye shal not eate of euery tree of the garden? 2 And the woman sayd vnto the serpent, We eate of the fruite of the trees of the garden: 3 But as for the fruite of the tree which is in the middes of the garden, God hath sayd, Ye shall not eate of it, neither shall ye touche it, lest peraduenture ye dye. 4 And the serpent sayde vnto the woman, Ye shall not dye the death. 5 For God doth knowe, that the same day that ye eate therof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shalbe as gods, knowyng good and euyll. 6 And so the woman, seeyng that the same tree was good to eate of, and pleasaunt to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wyse, toke of the fruite therof, and dyd eate, and gaue also vnto her husbande beyng with her, and he dyd eate.

B (c) By the sinne of disobedience they began to feele the corruption of their owne nature, whiche they sought to remedy, not by seeking vnto God, but by their owne deuises in couering their nakednesse with figge leaues.

(d) The sinful conscience fleeth gods presence.

(e) Adam playeth the hypocrite, in that he hyd the cause of his nakednes which was the transgression of Gods commaundement.

(f) In steade of confessiing her sinne, she encreaseth it, by accusing the serpent.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they (c) knewe that they were naked, and they sowed figge leaues together, & made them selues apernes. 8 And they hearde the voyce of the Lorde God, walkyng in the garden in the coole of the day: and Adam and his wife (d) hid them selues from the presence of the Lorde God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the Lorde God called Adam, and sayde vnto hym, Where art thou? 10 Whiche sayd, I hearde thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayde (e) because I was naked, and hyd my selfe.

11 And he sayd, Who tolde thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou not eaten of the same tree, concerning the which I commaunded thee that thou shouldest not eate of it? 12 And Adam sayde, The woman whom thou gauest (to be) with me, she gaue me of the tree, and I dyd eate. 13 And the Lorde God sayde vnto the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman sayde, The serpent (f) begyled me, and I dyd eate. 14 And the Lorde God sayd vnto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattell, and aboue euerye beast of the fielde: vpon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy lyfe. 15 I will also put (g) enmitie betweene thee and the woman, betweene thy seede and her seede: and it shall treade downe thy head, and thou shalt treade vpon his (h) heele. 16 But vnto the woman he sayd, In multiplying, I will multiply thy sorowe and thy conceptions. In sorowe (i) thou shalt bryng foorth chyldren: thy desire (shalbe) to thy husbande, and he shall haue the rule of thee. 17 Vnto Adam he sayde, Because thou hast hearkened vnto the voyce of thy wyfe, and hast eaten of the tree concerning the whiche I commaunded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eate of it: cursed is the grounde for thy sake, in sorowe shalt thou eate of it al the dayes of thy life.

18 Thorne also and thistle shall it bryng foorth to thee, and thou shalt eate the herbe of the fielde. 19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eate bread, till thou be turned agayne into the grounde, for out of it wast thou taken: For dust thou art, and into dust shalt thou be turned agayne. 20 And Adam called his wyfes name Heua: because she was the mother of all liuing. 21 Vnto Adam also and to his wyfe dyd the Lorde God make garmentes of skynnes, and he put them on. 22 And the Lord God sayd, Beholde, this man is become as one of vs, (k) in knowyng good and euyll: And nowe lest peraduenture he put foorth his hande, and take also of the tree of lyfe and eate, and liue for euer:

23 Therefore the Lorde God sent hym foorth from the garden of Eden, to dresse the grounde whence he was taken. 24 And so he droue out man, and at the east syde of the garden of Eden he set Cherubims, and a fierie two edged sworde, to kepe the way of the tree of lyfe.

C (g) The continuall fight betwixt Satan and the chyldren of God.

(h) Satan shall alwaies be stinging of Christe & his members, but not ouercome them.

(i) God doth therfore punish the woman in her body, that her soule might be saued by fayth in righteousnesse.

D (k) By this derision god vpbraydeth Adam of the miserie wher into he was fallen by ambition.

Cain kylleth his righteous brother Abel. 11 Cain is cursed, and dispayreth. 17 The generation of Enoch, Mathusael, Tubal, Lamech, Seth, and Enos.

A (a) By the fauour and gift of god, or els she prayseth God whiche had sent her a man, alord, & the seede that should breake the serpentes head, according to the promise of God as she thought.

AND Adam knewe Heua his wyfe, who conceauyng bare Cain, saying: I haue (a) gotten a man of the Lorde. 2 And she proceedyng, brought fourth his brother Habel, and Habel was a keper of sheepe, but Cain was a tyller of the grounde. 3 And in processe of dayes it came passe, that Cain brought of the fruite of the grounde an (b) oblation vnto the Lorde: 4 Habel also brought of the firstlinges of his sheepe, and of the fat thereof: and the Lorde had respect vnto Habel and to his oblation. 5 But vnto Cain and to his offering he had no respect: for the whiche cause Cain was exceedyng wroth, and his countenaunce abated. 6 And the Lorde sayd vnto Cain: Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenaunce abated? 7 If thou do wel, "shalt thou not receaue? and if thou doest not well, lyeth not thy sinne at the (c) doores: Vnto thee also pertaineth the (d) lustes thereof, and thou shalt haue dominion ouer it.

8 And Cain talked with Habel his brother: and it came to passe when they were in the fielde, Cain rose vp against Habel his brother, and slue hym. 9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Cain, Where is Habel thy brother? Whiche sayde I wote not: Am I my brothers keper? 10 And he sayde What hast thou done? the (e) voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me out of the grounde. 11 And nowe art thou cursed from the earth, whiche hath opened her mouth to receaue thy brothers blood from thy hande. 12 If thou tyll the grounde, it shall not yeelde vnto thee her strength. A fugitiue and a vacabounde shalt thou be in the earth. 13 And Cain sayd vnto the Lorde, "My iniquitie is more then that it may be forgeuen. 14 Beholde, thou hast cast me out this day from the vpper face of the earth, and from thy face shall I be hyd, fugitiue also and a vacabounde shall I be in the earth: and it shall come to passe, that euery one that findeth me shall slay me. 15 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Verily whosoeuer slayeth Cain, he shalbe punished (f) seuen folde. And the Lorde set a (g) marke vpon Cain, lest any man finding hym shoulde kyll hym.

17 Cain also knewe his wyfe, which conceaued and bare Henoch, and buyldyng a citie, he called the name of the same citie after the name of his sonne Henoch. 18 Vnto the same Henoch was borne Irad: Irad begate Mehuiael, Mehuiael begate Methusael, Methusael, begate Lamech. 19 And Lamech toke vnto hym (h) two wyues, the name of the one was Ada, and the name of the other was Zella. 20 And Ada bare Jabel, whiche was the father of such as dwell in the tentes, and of such as haue cattell. 21 His brothers name was Jubal, whiche was the father of such as handle Harpe and Organ. 22 And Zella also bare Thubalcain, which wrought cunninglye euery craft of brasse and of iron: the sister of Thubalcain was Noema.

23 And Lamech sayde vnto his wyues Ada and Zella, Heare my voyce ye wyues of Lamech, hearken vnto my speache: for I haue slayne a man to the woundyng of my selfe, and a young man to myne owne punishment. 24 If Cain shalbe auenged seuen folde, truely Lamech (i) seuentie tymes and seuen tymes.

25 Adam knewe his wyfe agayne, and she bare a sonne, and called his name Seth: For God (sayd she) hath appoynted me another seede in steade of Habel whom Cain slue.

26 And vnto the same Seth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enos: then began men to make inuocation in the name of the Lorde.

The .vi. Chapter.

5 The cause of the fludde is the sinne of man. 18 Noe the iust is preserued in the Arke, with all kyndes of beasties.

AND it came to passe, that when men began to be multiplied in the vpper face of the earth, there were daughters borne vnto them: 2 And the (a) sonnes of God also sawe the daughters of men that they were fayre, & they toke them wyues, such as they lyked, from among them all. 3 And the Lorde sayde, (b) My spirite shall not alwayes stryue with man, because he is flesshe: yet his dayes shalbe an hundreth and twentie yeres. 4 But there were ⁂ Giantes in those dayes in the earth: yea and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and hadde begotten children of them, the same became mightie men of the worlde, and men of (c) renowme.

5 But God sawe that the malice of man was great in the earth, and al the imagination of the thoughtes of his heart (was) onlye euyll euery day. 6 And it (d) repented the Lorde that he had made man vpon the earth, and he was touched with sorowe in his heart. 7 And the Lorde sayde, I wyl from the vpper face of the earth, destroy man whom I haue created: from man vnto cattell, vnto worme, and vnto foules of the ayre: For it repenteth me that I haue made them.

8 But Noah founde grace in the eyes of the Lorde. 9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah (was) a iust man, and perfect in his generations, and walked with God, 10 Noah begate three sonnes, Sem, Ham, and Japheth. 11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the same earth was fulled with cruelrie. 12 And God loked vpon the earth, and beholde it was corrupt: for all flesshe hadde corrupt his way vpon earth. 13 And God sayde vnto Noah, The ende of al flesshe is come before me, for the earth is fylled with cruelrie through them, and beholde

1 The waters of the flud beyng diminiſhed, Noe ſendeth foorth the Rauen and the doue. 15 Noe goeth out of the arke, and offereth ſacrifice vnto god.

AND God (a) remembred Noah and euery beaſt, and all the cattell that was with him in the arke: and God made (b) a wynde to paſſe vpon the earth, & the waters ceaſſed. 2 The fountaynes alſo of the deepe, and the wyndowes of heauen were ſtopped, and the rayne from heauen was reſtrayned. 3 And the waters from the earth returned, going & comming agayne: and after the ende of the hundred & fiftith day, the waters were abated. 4 And in the (c) ſeuenth moneth, in the ſeuenteenth day of the moneth, the arke reſted vpon the mountaynes of Armenia. 5 And the waters were goyng and decreaſyng vntyl the tenth moneth: In the tenth moneth, and in the firſt day of the ſame moneth, were the toppes of the mountaynes ſeene. 6 And after the ende of the .40. day, it came to paſſe (that) Noah opened the wyndow of the arke which he had made,

7 And he ſent foorth a Rauen, which went out, goyng foorth, and returnyng, vntyll the waters were dryed vp vpon the earth. 8 And agayne he ſent foorth a Doue from him, that he might ſee yf the waters were abated from the vpper face of the grounde. 9 And the Doue founde no reſt for the ſole of her foote, and ſhe returned vnto him into the arke: for the waters (were) in the vpper face of the whole earth. his (d) hande, and toke her, and pulled her to him into the arke. 10 And he abode yet other ſeuen dayes, and agayne he ſent foorth the Doue out of the arke: 11 And the doue came to him in the euentide, and lo, in her mouth was an Oliue leafe that ſhe had pluckt, wherby Noah dyd knowe that the waters were abated vpon the earth. 12 And he abode yet other ſeuen dayes, & ſent foorth the Doue, which returned not vnto him any more. 13 And it came to paſſe, in the ſixe hundred and one yere, in the firſt moneth, the firſt (day) of the moneth, the waters were dryed vp from the earth, and Noah remoued the coueryng of the arke, and loked, and beholde, the vpper face of the grounde was dryed vp. 14 And in the ſeconde moneth, in the ſeuen and twentie day of the moneth was the earth dryed. 15 And God ſpake vnto Noah ſaying, 16 (e) Go foorth of the arke, thou, and thy wyfe, thy ſonnes, and thy ſonnes wiues with thee: 17 And bryng foorth with thee euery beaſt that is with thee, of all fleſhe, both foule and cattell, and euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, that they may breede in the earth, and bryng foorth fruite, and multiplie vpon earth. 18 And ſo Noah came foorth, and his ſonnes, his wyfe, and his ſonnes wyues with him: 19 Euery beaſt alſo, & euery worme, euery foule, & whatſoeuer creepeth vpon the earth after their kindes, went out of the arke. 20 And Noah builded an aulter vnto the Lorde, and toke of euery cleane beaſt, and of euery cleane foule, (f) and offred a whole burnt offreyng on the aulter. 21 And the Lorde ſmelled a ſweete (or quiet) ſauour, and the Lorde ſayde in his heart, I wyll not hencefoorth curſe the grounde any more for mans ſake, for the imagination of mans heart is euyll from his youth: neither wyll I ſmyte any more euery thyng lyuyng, as I haue done.

22 Yet therfore ſhall not (g) ſowyng tyme and harueſt, colde and heate, ſommer and wynter, day and nyght, ceaſſe all the dayes of the earth.

(d) It ſemeth that the Rauen being a wylde and an vncleane foule, fed of the dead carcaſes, & therfore refuſed to turne againe into the arke. But the Doue being of nature a tamer foule, and vſed to cleaner foode, and findyng no place to reſt on, ſuffered her ſelfe to be receaued in agayne.

(e) Noah was in the arke one yere & ten dayes.

(f) It is called a whole burnt offering, becauſe the whole ſacrifice was conſumed with fire, by the which is ſignified that the perſon whiche did offer the ſame, ſhould haue his heart and minde wholye vpon god, as it is written: Loue thy god with all thy heart, & with all thy ſoule, &c.

(g) The order of nature deſtroyed by the flud, is reſtored by gods promiſe.

¶ The .ix. Chapter.

1 God blesseth Noe and his sonnes. 3 God geueth libertie of meates, and forbiddeth the eatyng of blood. 9 he promiseth no more to destroy the worlde with water, 13 and geueth the raynebowe for a token therof.

AND God blessed Noah, and his sonnes, and sayde vnto them, Be fruitfull and multiply, and replenishe the earth. 2 The (a) feare of you & the dread of you, shalbe vpon euery beast of the earth, and vpon euery foule of the ayre, vpon all that moueth vpon the earth, and vpon all the fishes of the sea, into your hande are they delyuered. 3 Euery thyng that moueth it selfe, and that liueth, shalbe (b) meate for you, euen as the greene herbe haue I geuen you all thinges. 4 But (c) flesche in the life therof (which is) the blood therof, shall ye not eate. 5 And surely your blood of your lines wyll (d) I require: at the hande of euery beast wyll I require it, and at the hande of man, at the hande of mans " brother wyll I require the lyfe of man. 6 Who so sheddeth mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed, for in the image of God made he man. 7 But be fruitfull, and multiply you, breede in the earth, and increase therin. 8 God spake vnto Noah, and to his sonnes with him, saying, 9 Behold, I euen I stablishe my couenaunt with you, and with (e) your seede after you: 10 And with euery lyuyng creature that is with you, in foule, in cattell, in euery beast of the earth which is with you, of all that go out of the arke, what soeuer lyuyng thyng of the earth it be. 11 And my couenaunt I make with you, that from henceforth all flesche be not rooted out with the waters of a fludde, neither shall there be a fludde to destroy the earth any more. 12 And God sayde, This is the token of the couenaunt which I make betweene me and you, and euery liuing creature that is with you for euer. 13 I do set my (f) bowe in the cloude, and it shalbe for a token betweene me and the earth. 14 And it shall come to passe, that when I bryng a cloude vpon the earth, the bowe also shalbe seene in the same cloude. 15 And I wyll thynke vpon my couenaune which is betweene me and you, and euery lyuyng creature in all flesche: and it shall no more come to passe, that waters make a fludde to destroy all flesche. 16 And the bowe shalbe in the cloude, and I wyll loke vpon it, that I may thynke vpon the euerlastyng couenaunt betweene God and euery liuyng creature in all flesche that is vpon the earth. 17 And God sayde vnto Noah, This is the token of the couenaunt which I haue made betweene me and all flesche that is vpon earth. 18 The sonnes of Noah goyng fourth of the arke, were Sem, Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of "Chanaan. 19 These are the three sonnes of Noah, & of them was the whole earth ouerspread.

20 Noah also began to be an "husbandman, and planted a vineyarde. 21 And he drinking of the wine, was dronken, & (g) vncouered within his tent. 22 And Ham the father of Chanaan, seyng the nakednesse of his father, tolde his two brethren without. 23 And Sem and Japheth takyng a garment, layde it vpon their shoulders, and commyng backwarde, couered the nakednes of their father, namely their faces beyng turned away, lest they should see their fathers nakednesse. 24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his younger sonne had done vnto him: 25 And he sayd, Cursed (h) be Chanaan, a seruaunt of seruauntes shall he be vnto his brethren. 26 He sayde moreouer: Blessed be the Lorde God of Sem, and Chanaan shalbe his seruaunt. 27 God shall " enlarge (i) Japheth: and he shal dwel in the tentes of Sem, and Chanaan shalbe his seruaunt. 28 Noah lined after the flud three hundred & fiftie yeres. 29 And all the dayes of Noah, were nine hundred and fiftie yeres, and he dyed.

1 Abram is bleſſed of god, and goeth with Lot to the land of Chanaan whiche god promiſed to geue to hym and to his ſeede. 10 Abram goeth into Egypt. 13 his wyfe calleth her ſelfe his ſiſter, for whom Pharao is plaged.

AND the Lozde ſayd vnto Abzam, Get thee (a) out of thy countrey, and out of thy nation, and from thy fathers houſe, vnto a lande that I wyll ſhewe thee: 2 And I wyll make of thee a great people, and wil bleſſe thee, and make thy name great, that thou ſhalt be a bleſſyng. 3 I wyll alſo bleſſe them that bleſſe thee, and curſe them that curſe thee: and in thee ſhall all kinredes of the earth be (b) bleſſed.
4 And ſo Abzam departed as the Lozde had ſpoken vnto hym, and Lot went with hym: and Abzam was ſeuentie and fyue yeres olde when he departed out of Haran. 5 And Abzam (c) tooke Sarai his wyfe, and Lot his bzothers ſonne, and all theyr ſubſtaunce that they had in poſſeſſion, and the ſoules that they had begotten in Haran, and they departed, that they myght come into the lande of Chanaan: and into the lande of Chanaan they came. 6 Abzam (d) paſſed thzough the lande, vnto the place of Sichem, vnto the playne of Moreh. And the Chanaanite (was) then in the lande. 7 And the Lozde appearyng vnto Abzam, ſayde, Vnto thy ſeede wyll I geue this lande: and there (e) buylded he an aulter vnto the Lozde whiche appeared vnto hym.

Nowe therefore behold, there is thy wife, take her, and go thy way. 20 And Pharao gaue his men commaundement concerning him: and they conueyed him forth, and his wife, and all that he had.

When Abram was nintie yeres olde and nine, the Lorde appeared to hym, and sayde vnto hym, I am the almightie God, walke before me, and be thou perfect. 2 And I wyll make my couenaunt betweene me and thee, and wyll multiplie thee exceedyngly. 3 And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with hym, saying. 4 It is I, beholde my couenaunt (is) with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many (a) nations. 5 Neither shal thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shalbe called (b) Abraham: for a father of many nations haue I made thee. 6 (c) I wyll make thee exceedyng fruitfull, and wyll make nations of thee, yea and kynges shall spryng out of thee.

7 Moreouer I wyll make my couenaunt betweene me and thee, and thy seede after thee in theyr generations, by an euerlastyng couenaunt: that I may be God vnto thee, and to thy seede after thee. 8 And I wyll geue vnto thee and to thy seede after thee, the lande wherin thou art a straunger (euen) all the lande of Chanaan for an euerlastyng possession, and wyll be theyr (d) God. 9 And God sayd agayne vnto Abraham, Thou shalt kepe my couenaunt therefore, both thou, and thy seede after thee in theyr generations. 10 This is my couenaunt whiche ye shall kepe betweene me & you, and thy seede after thee, euery man chylde among you shalbe (e) circumcised. 11 Ye shall circumcise (f) the flesshe of your foreskin, and it shalbe a token of the couenaunt betwixt me and you. 12 And euery manchylde of eyght dayes olde shalbe circumcised amongst you in your generations: both he that is borne in thy house, as he that is bought with money of any straunger whiche is not of thy seede.

13 Ye that is borne in thy house, and he also that is bought with money, must needes be circumcised: and my couenaunt shalbe in your flesshe for an euerlastyng couenaunt. 14 And the vncircumcised manchylde in whose flesshe the foreskin is not circumcised, (g) that soule shalbe cutte from his people: because he hath broken my couenaunt. 15 And God sayd vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sara (shall) her name be. 16 And I wyll bleesse her, and geue thee a sonne of her: yea, I wyll bleesse her, and she shalbe (a mother) of nations, yea & kynges of people shall spryng of her. 17 But Abraham fell vpon his face, (h) and laughed, and sayde in his heart, Shall (a child) be borne vnto hym that is an hundreth yeres old? And shal Sara that is nintie yeres olde beare? 18 And Abraham sayde vnto God, O that Ismael myght lyue in thy syght. 19 Vnto whom God sayde, Sara thy wife shall beare thee a sonne in deede, and thou shalt call his name Isahac: and I wil establishe my couenaunt with him for an (i) euerlastyng couenaunt (and) with his seede after him. 20 And as concerning Ismael also I haue hearde thee: for I haue blessed hym, and will make hym fruitfull, and wyll multiplie hym exceedingly: Twelue princes shall he beget, and I wyll make a great nation of hym. 21 But my couenaunt wyll I make with Isahac whiche Sara shall beare vnto thee, (euen) this tyme twelue moneth.

23 Abraham toke Ismael his sonne, and suche as were borne in his house, and all that was bought with money, as many as were men chyldren whiche were amongst the men of Abrahams house, and (k) circumcised the flesshe of theyr foreskin in the selfe same day, as God had sayd vnto him. 24 Abraham also hymselfe was nintie yeres olde and nine when the flesshe of his foreskin was circumcised. 25 Ismael his sonne was thirtie yeres olde when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. 26 The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised and Ismael his sonne. 27 And all the men of his house, borne in his house, or bought with money of straungers, were circumcised with hym.

4 I am a straunger and a sojorner amongest you: geue me a possession to bury in with you, that I may bury my corse out of my sight. 5 And the children of Heth aunswered Abraham, saying vnto him, 6 Heare vs my Lord, Thou art a (b) prince of God amongst vs, in the chiefest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shall forbyd thee his sepulchre, but thou mayest bury thy dead (therein.)

And Ephron the Hetthite aunswered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, and of all that (c) went in at the gates of his citie, saying, 11 Not so my Lorde, heare me, The fielde gene I thee, and the cave that therin is gene I thee also, in the presence of the sonnes of my people gene I it thee: bury thy dead. 12 And Abraham bowed him selfe before the people of the lande, 13 And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, If thou wylt (geue it) then I pray thee heare me, I wyll gene siluer for the fielde, take it of me, & I wyl bury my dead therin. 14 Ephron aunswered Abraham, saying vnto him, 15 My Lorde, hearken vnto me: the lande is worth foure hundred (d) sicles of siluer, what is that betwixt thee and me? bury therfore thy dead. 16 And Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and waied him the siluer which he had sayd in the audience of the sonnes of Heth, euen foure hundred siluer sicles of current money amongest marchauntes.

17 And the fielde of Ephron in Machpelah whiche was before Mamre, euen the fielde and the cave that was therin, and all the trees that were in the fielde, and that were in all the borders rounde about, was made sure 18 Vnto Abraham for a possession in the sight of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gates of his citie. 19 After this did Abraham bury Sara his wife in the double cave of the fielde that lieth before Mamre, the same is Hebron in the lande of Chanaan.

aduenture the woman wyll not folowe me. 40 And he answered me, The Lorde before whom I walke, will sende his angel with thee, and prosper thy iourney: and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred, and of my fathers house. 41 Then shalt thou be free from this othe (made) to me, when thou commest to my kinred: and yf they geue not thee (one) thou shalt be free from this othe (made) to me.

42 And so I came this day vnto the well, and sayde, (h) O Lorde the God of my maister Abraham, yf it be so nowe that thou makest my iourney which I go prosperous, 43 Behold, I stande by the well of water: and when a virgin commeth forth to drawe water, and I say to her, Geue me (I pray thee) a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke: 44 And she say to me, Drynke thou, and I wyll also drawe for thy Camelles: let the same be the woman whom the Lorde hath prepared for my maisters sonne. 45 And before I had made an ende of speakyng in myne heart, beholde, Rebecca came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder: and she went downe vnto the wel, and drewe water: and I sayde vnto her, Geue me drynke I praye thee. 46 And she made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher from her (shoulder) and sayde, Drynke, and I wyll geue thy Camelles drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the Camelles drinke also. 47 And I asked her, saying, Whose daughter art thou? She answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nachors sonne, whom Milcha bare vnto hym: and I put the earyng "vpon her face, and the bracelets vpon her handes. 48 And I (i) bowed my selfe, and worshipped the Lorde, and blessed the Lorde God of my maister Abraham, whiche had brought me the ryght way, to take my maisters brothers daughter vnto his sonne. 49 Nowe also yf ye wyll consent to deale mercyfully and truely with my maister, tel me: (k) and if not, tel me also, that I may turne me to the (l) ryght hande, or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, saying, This saying proceedeth of the Lorde: we can not therefore saye vnto thee either good or bad. 51 Beholde, Rebecca (is) before thee, take her, and go, that she may be thy maisters sonnes wyfe, euen as God hath sayde. 52 And when Abrahams seruaunt heard theyr wordes, he worshipped the Lorde, bowyng hym selfe towarde the earth. 53 And the seruaunt toke foorth "iewelles of syluer, and iewelles of golde, and rayment, and gaue them to Rebecca: and to her brother, and to her mother he gaue "costly gyftes.

54 And they did eate and drynke, both he and the men that were with hym, and taryed all nyght: and when they rose vp in the morning, he sayde, Let me depart vnto my maister. 55 Her brother and her mother answered, Let the damsel abide with vs, and it be but ten dayes, and then shall she go. 56 He sayde vnto them, Hinder me not, beholde the Lorde hath prospered my iourney: sende me away therefore, that I may go to my maister. 57 And they sayde, (m) We wyll call the damsell, and enquire "at her mouth. 58 And they called foorth Rebecca, and sayde vnto her, Wylt thou go with this man? And she answered, I wyll go. 59 So they let Rebecca theyr sister go, and her nurse, and Abrahams seruaunt, and his men. 60 And they blessed Rebecca, and sayde vnto her, Thou art our sister, grow into thousande thousandes: and thy seede (n) possesse the gate of his enemies. 61 And Rebecca arose and her damselles, and gat them vp vpon the Camelles, and followed the man: and the seruaunt toohe Rebecca, and went his waye.

62 And Isahac was comming from the way of the well of the lyuyng and seeyng me: for he dwelt in the south countrey. 63 And Isahac was (o) gone out to pray in the feelde at the euentide: and he lift vp his eyes, and sawe the Camelles commyng. 64 And Rebecca lift vp her eyes, and when she sawe Isahac, she lyghted of the Cammell, 65 For she sayde vnto the seruaunt, What man is this that commeth walking against vs in the feeld? And the seruaunt sayde, It is my maister: therefore she toke her (p) bayle, and couered her. 66 And the seruaunt tolde Isahac all thynges that he had done. 67 And Isahac brought her into his mother Saraes tent, and toohe Rebecca, and she became his wyfe, and he loued her: and so Isahac receaued comfort after his mother.

1 Abraham taketh Cetura to wyfe, and begetteth many chyldren. 45 The patrimonie geuen to Isahac, and gyftes to the chyldren of his concubines. 24 The birth of Iacob and Esau.

A Abraham proceeded further, and tooke hym another wyfe, called Cetura, 2 Which bare hym Zimran, and Iocsan, & Medan, & Madian, and Iesbac, and Suah. 3 Iocsan begate Seba & Dedan. And the sonnes of Dedan were Assurim, and Letussim, Leummim. 4 And the sonnes of Madian, Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah: all these were the chyldren of Cetura. 5 And Abraham gaue al his goodes vnto Isahac: 6 But vnto the sonnes of the concubines which Abraham had, he gaue (a) gyftes: and sent them away from Isahac his sonne (whyle he yet lyued) eastwarde, vnto the east countrey. 7 And these are the dayes of the yeres of Abrahams lyfe which he lyued, an hundred threescore and fifteene yeres. 8 And then Abraham waxyng away, dyed in a quiet age, beyng an old man, when he had lined enough, and (b) was gathered to his people. 9 And his sonnes Isahac and Ismael buryed hym in the double caue in the fielde of Ephron the sonne of Zoar the Hethite, before Mamre, 10 Which fielde Abraham bought of the sonnes of Heth: there was Abraham buryed, and Sara his wyfe.

11 After the death of Abraham, God blessed his sonne Isahac, and Isahac dwelled by the well of lyuing and seeing me. 12 These are the generations of Ismael Abrahams sonne, whom Hagar the Egyptian Saraes handmayde bare vnto Abraham. 13 And these are the names of the sonnes of Ismael, according to the names of theyr kinred: The eldest sonne of Ismael, Nabaioth, and Cedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, 14 And Misma, and Duma, & Massa, Hadar, and Thema, 15 Ietur, Naphis, and Cedma. 16 These are the sonnes of Ismael, and these are theyr names by theyr townes & castles, (c) twelue princes of theyr houholdes. 17 And these are the yeres of the life of Ismael, (d) an hundred and thirtie and seuen yeres: and he waxing away, (e) dyed, & was layde vnto his people. 18 And they dwelled from Hauilah vnto Sur, that is by the border of Egypte as thou goest towarde Assur, and he died in the presence of all his brethren. 19 And these are the generations of Isahac Abrahams sonne: Abraham begate Isahac. 20 And Isahac was fourtie yeres olde when he tooke Rebecca to wyfe, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian "of Mesopotamia, and sister to Laban the Syrian.

23 And the Lorde sayde vnto her, There are two maner of people in thy wombe, and two nations shalbe diuided out of thy bowelles: and the one nation shalbe mightier then the other, and the elder shalbe seruaunt vnto the younger. 24 Therefore when her time was come to be delinered, behold, there were two twinnes in her wombe. 25 And he that came out first, was red, and (h) he was all ouer as it were a heary garment: and they called his name Esau. 26 And after hym came his brother out, and his hande holdyng Esau by the heele, and his name was called Iacob: and Isahac was (i) threescore yeres old whe they were borne. 27 And the boyes grewe, and Esau became a cunnyng hunter, and a "wylde man: but Iacob was a "perfect man, and dwelled in tentes. 28 Isahac loued Esau, because he "dyd eate of his veneson: but Rebecca loued Iacob. 29 Iacob sod pottage: & Esau came from the fielde, and was "faynt: 30 And Esau sayde to Iacob, Feede me I pray thee, with that same red pottage: for I am faint. And therefore was his name called Edom. 31 And Iacob sayde, Sell me this day thy byrthright. 32 Esau sayde, Lo, I am at the poynt to dye, and what profite shall this byrthright do me? 33 Iacob aunswered, Sweare to me then this day. And he sware to hym, and solde his byrthryght vnto Iacob. 34 Then Iacob gaue Esau bread, and pottage of "tyse, and he dyd eate and drinke, and rose vp, and went his way: and Esau litle regarded his byrthryght.

The .xxvi. Chapter.

9 Abimelech rebuketh Isaac for callyng his wyfe his sister. 28 The atonement betweene Abimelech and Isaac.

A AND there fell a famine in the lande, besides the first that was in the dayes of Abraham: And Isahac went vnto (a) Abimelech king of the Philistines, vnto Gerar.

2 And the Lorde appeared vnto him, and sayde, Go not downe into Egypt, but abyde in the lande which I shall shewe vnto thee. 3 Sojourne in this lande, and I wyll be with thee, and wyll blesse thee: for vnto thee and vnto thy seede I wyl geue all these countreys, and I wyll performe the othe which I sware vnto Abraham thy father. 4 And wyll make thy seede to multiplie as the starres of heauen, and wyll geue vnto thy seede all these countreys: and in thy seede shall all the nations of the earth be blessed: 5 Because that (b) Abraham hearkened vnto my voyce, and kept my ordinaunce, my commaundementes, my statutes, and my lawes. 6 And Isahac dwelled in Gerar. 7 And the men of the place asked (him) of his wyfe. And he sayde, (c) She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wyfe: lest the men of the place shoulde haue kylled hym because of Rebecca, which was beautifull to the eye.

8 And after he had ben there a long tyme, Abimelech kyng of the Philistines looked out at a wyndowe, and saw Isahac (d) sportyng with Rebecca his wyfe. 9 And Abimelech called Isahac, and sayde, Beholde, she is of a suretie thy wife: and why saydest thou, She is my sister? To whom Isahac answered, Because I thought that I might paraduenture haue died for her sake. 10 Abimelech (e) sayde, Why hast thou done this vnto vs? one of the people myght lightly haue lyne by thy wyfe, and so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs. 11 And so Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife, shal die the death. 12 Then Isahac sowed in that lande, and receaued in the same yere "an hundred folde: and the Lorde "blessed him.

13 And the man waxed myghtie, and went forth, and grewe tyll he was exceedyng great. 14 For he had possion of sheepe, of oxen, and a mightie housholde: and therefore the Philistines had enuie at hym. 15 For the Philistines (f) stopped and fylled vp with earth all the welles whiche his seruauntes had digged in his father Abrahams time. 16 And Abimelech sayde vnto Isahac, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then we a great deale. 17 Therefore Isahac departed thence, & "abode in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. 18 And Isahac returning, digged agayne the welles of water which they digged in the dayes of Abraham his father, whiche the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham, and named them after the same names by the whiche his father had named them. 19 Isahacs seruauntes digged in the valley, and founde a well of "spryngyng water. 20 And the heardmen of Gerar dyd strine with Isahacs heardmen, saying, The water is ours. Then called he the well "contention, because they strone with hym. 21 And they digged another well, and strone for that also: and he called the name of it "enmitie. 22 And then he departed thence, and digged another well, for the which they strone not: Therefore called he it "roomth, saying, The Lorde hath made vs now roome that we may encrease vpon the earth.

23 And he went vp thence to Beersheba. 24 And the Lorde appeared vnto hym the same nyght, and sayde, I am the (g) God of Abraham thy father, feare not, for I am with thee, and will blesse thee, and multiplie thy seed for my seruaunt Abrahams sake.

25 And he builded an (h) aulter there, and called vpon the name of the lord, and pitched his tent: and there Isahacs seruauntes dygged a well.

26 Then (i) came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzah his freende, and Phicol the captaine of his armie. 27 And Isahac sayde vnto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seyng ye hate me, and haue put me away from you? 28 Which aunswered, "We sawe most certaynely that the Lorde was with thee, and we sayde, Let there be nowe an othe betwixt vs, euen betwixt vs and thee, and let vs make a league with thee: 29 That thou shouldest do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothyng but good, and sent thee away in peace: for thou art nowe the blessed of the Lorde.

The. xxvii. Chapter.

Iacob stealeth his fathers blessyng from Esau by his mothers counsel. 41 Esau hateth Iacob. 43 Rebecca sendeth Iacob away into Haran to his vncle Laban.

AND it came to passe, that when Isahac waxed olde, and his eyes were dymme, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest sonne, and sayde vnto hym, My sonne? And he sayd vnto hym, Here am I.
2 And he sayde, Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not the day of my death. 3 Nowe therfore take I pray thee thy weapons, thy quyuer and thy bowe, and get thee to the feelde, that thou mayest take me some vene-
son. 4 And make me well tastyng meates suche as I loue, and bryng it to me, that I may eate, (a) that my soule may blesse thee before that I dye. 5 But Rebecca hearde when Isahac spake to Esau his sonne: And Esau went into the feelde to hunt veneson, and to bryng it. 6 And Rebecca spake vnto Jacob her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talkyng with Esau thy brother, and saying, 7 Bryng me venesons, and make me dayntie meate, that I may eate, and blesse thee before the Lorde afore my death. 8 Nowe therefore my sonne (b) heare my voyce in that which I commaunde thee. 9 Get thee to the flocke, & bryng me thence two good kiddes from the goates, and I will make of them pleasaunt meates for thy father, such as he lo-ueth. 10 And thou shalt bryng it to thy father, that he may eate, and that he may blesse thee before his death.
11 Then sayde Jacob to Rebecca his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is a heary man, and I am smoothe:
12 My father shall peraduenture feele me, and I shall seeme vnto him as though I went about to begulle him: and so shall I bryng a curse vpon me, and not a blessyng. 13 And his mother sayde vnto him, (c) Vpon me be the curse my sonne: only heare my voyce, and go and fetche me them.
14 And Iacob went, and fet them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasaunt meate, such as she knewe his father loued.
15 And Rebecca fet * goodly rayment of her eldest sonne Esau, which were in the house with her, and put them vpon Jacob her younger sonne:
16 And she put the skinnes of the kiddes vpon his handes, and vpon the smoothe of his necke. 17 And she put that pleasaunt meate and bread which she had prepared, in the hande of her sonne Jacob. 18 When he came to his father, he sayde, My father? And he answered, Here am I: who art thou, my sonne? 19 And Jacob sayde vnto his father, (d) I am Esau thy eldest sonne, I haue done according as thou baddest me: aryse I pray thee, sit and eate of my veneson, that thy soule may blesse me.
20 And Isahac sayd vnto his sonne, Howe commeth it that thou hast found it so quickely my sonne? He answered, The Lorde thy God brought it to my handes. 21 Then sayde Isahac vnto Jacob, Come neare, and I will feele thee my sonne, whether thou be my very sonne Esau, or not. 22 The went Jacob to Isahac his father, and he felt him, and sayde, The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Esau. 23 And (e) he knew hym not, because his handes were heary as his brother Esaus handes: and so he blessed hym. 24 And he asked hym, Art thou my sonne Esau? And he sayde, That I am. 25 Then sayde he, Bryng me, and let me eate of my sonnes veneson, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought him, and he ate: and he brought him wine also, and he dranke. 26 And his father Isahac sayde vnto hym, (f) Come neare and kisse me, my sonne.
27 And he went vnto him and kissed hym: and he smelled the sauour of his rayment, and blessed hym, and sayde, See, the smell of my sonne is as the smell of a feelde which the Lord hath blessed. 28 God geue thee (g) of the deawe

And he ſayde, Hast thou kept neuer a bleſſing for me? 37 Iſahac aunſwered, and ſayde vnto Eſau, Beholde, I haue made him thy Lorde, and all his brethren haue I made his ſeruauntes: Moreouer, with corne and wine haue I eſtabliſhed him: what ſhall I do vnto thee nowe my ſonne? 38 And Eſau ſayde vnto his father, Hast thou but that one bleſſyng my father? bleſſe me, I am alſo (thy ſonne) O my father. So lifted vp Eſau his voyce, (i) and wept. 39 Then Iſahac his father aunſwered, and ſayde vnto him, Beholde, (k) thy dwellyng place ſhalbe the fatneſſe of the earth, and of the deawe of heauen from aboue. 40 And thyough thy ſwoorde ſhalt thou lyue, and ſhalt be thy brothers ſeruaunt: and it ſhall come to paſſe, that thou ſhalt get the maſterie, and thou ſhalt looſe his yoke from of thy necke.

41 And Eſau hated Iacob, becauſe of the bleſſyng that his father bleſſed him withall: And Eſau ſayde in his heart, The dayes of ſorowyng for my father are at hande, then wyll I (l) ſlay my brother Iacob. 42 And theſe wordes of Eſau her elder ſonne were tolde to Rebecca: And ſhe ſent, and called Iacob her younger ſonne, and ſayde vnto him, Behold, thy brother Eſau as touchyng thee doth comfort him ſelfe (full purpoſyng) to ſlyll thee.

43 Nowe therfore my ſonne, heare my voyce: make thee redy, and flee to Laban my brother at Haran: 44 And tary with him a whyle, vntyl thy brothers fiercenеſſe be ſwaged: 45 And vntyl thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the thynges which thou haſt done to him: then wyll I ſende and fet thee away from thence: (m) why ſhoulde I be deſolate of you both in one day? 46 And Rebecca ſpake to Iſahac, I am weery of my life (n) for the daughters of Heth: If Iacob take a wyfe of the daughters of Heth, ſuch as theſe (which are) of the daughters of this lande, what good ſhall my life do me?

It is none other but the (g) house of God, and it is the gate of heauen.

18 And Iacob rose vp early in the morning, and tooke the stone that he had layde vnder his head, and pitched it vpon an ende, and powred oyle in the toppe of it. 19 And he called the name of the place Bethel: but the name of the citie was called Luza, before tyme. 20 And Iacob vowed a vowe, saying, Yf God will be with me, and will kepe me in this iourney in which I go, and will geue me bread to eate, and clothes to put on: 21 So that I come agayne vnto my fathers house in safetie, then shall the Lorde be my God: 22 And this stone which I haue set vp an ende shalbe Gods house: and of all that thou shalt geue me, I will surely geue the tenth vnto thee.

The .xxxi. Chapter.

1 Labans chyldren do grudge agaynst Iacobs wealth. 19 Rachel stealeth her fathers goddes. 23 Laban pursueth Iacob.

AND he heardē the wordes of (a) Labans sonnes, saying, Iacob hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers (goodes) hath he gotten all his glorie.

2 And Iacob beheldē the countenaunce of Laban, and beholde, it was not towardes hym "as it was wont to be. 3 And (b) the Lorde sayde vnto Iacob, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinrede, and I wyll be with thee. 4 Therefore Iacob sent, and called Rachel and Lea to the feelde vnto his flocke: 5 And sayde vnto them, I see your fathers countenaunce that it is not towardē me as it was wont to be: but the God of my father hath ben with me.

6 And ye knowe howe I haue serued your father to the best of my power. 7 But your father hath deceaued me, and chaunged my wages (c) ten tymes: but God suffred hym not to hurt me. 8 (d) When he sayd, The spotted shalbe thy wages: then all the sheepe bare spotted. And when he said, The ringstraked shalbe thy rewarde: then bare all the sheepe ringstraked.

9 Thus hath god taken away the increase of your fathers flocke, and geuen it to me. 10 But in rammyng time, I lifted vp mine eyes, and sawe in a dreame, and beheld, the "rammes leaped vpon the sheepe that were ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

11 And the angel of God spake vnto me in a dreame, saying, Iacob? And I answered, Here am I. 12 And he sayde, Lift vp nowe thyne eyes, and see all the rammes leapyng vpon the sheepe that are ringstraked, spotted, and partie: for I haue (e) seene all that Laban doth vnto thee. 13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou annointedst the stone (set vp an ende,) and where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me: nowe therefore arise, and get thee out of this countrey, and returne vnto the lande where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rachel and Lea, and sayde vnto hym, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritaunce in our fathers house? 15 Doth not he count vs euen as straungers? For he hath solde vs, and hath quite deuoured also our money. 16 Therefore all the ryches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours and our childrens: nowe then whatsoeuer God hath said vnto thee, that do. 17 Then Iacob rose vp, and set his sonnes and wiues vp vpon Camelles. 18 And caryed away all his flockes, and all his substaunce whiche he had procured, the increase of his cattell which he had gotten in "Mesopotamia, for to go to Isahac his father vnto the lande of "Iudan Chanaan. 19 But Laban was gone to sheare his sheepe: and Rachel had stolen her fathers (f) images. 20 And Iacob (g) stale away the heart of Laban the Syrian, in that he tolde hym not that he fled. 21 So fled he, and all that he had: and made hym selfe redy, and passed ouer the ryuer, and set his face straight towarde the mount Gilead. 22 Vpon the thirde daye after, was it told Laban that Iacob fled.

23 Then he tooke (h) his brethren with hym, and followed after hym seuen dayes iourney, and ouertoke hym at the mounte Gilead. 24 And (i) god came to Laban the Syrianin a dreame by nyght, and sayde vnto hym, Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought "saue good. 25 And Laban ouertoke Iacob: and Iacob had pitched his tent in the mounte, and Laban with his brethren pitched also vpon the mounte Gilead. 26 And Laban sayde to Iacob, What hast thou done? For thou hast stollen away my heart, and caryed away my daughters as though they had ben taken captiue with the sworde. 27 Wherefore wentest thou away secretly "vnknowen to me, (k) and diddest not tel me, "From that I might haue let thee go thy way with mirth and songes, with tymbrel and harpe? 28 And hast not suffred me to kisse my sonnes and my daughters? Thou wast a foole nowe in so doyng. 29 For it is in (l) my "hande thyough God to do you hurt: But the God of your father spake vnto me yesternyght, saying, Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought saue good. 30 And nowe though thou wouldest nedes be gone away, because thou sore longest after thy fathers house, yet wherfore hast thou stolen my gods? 31 Iacob answered & said to Laban, Because I was afraide, and thought (that) peraduenture thou wouldest take away thy daughters from me. 32 But with whomsoeuer thou fyndest thy gods, let hym dye. before our brethren, ſeke that thinge is by me, and take it to thee: But Jacob wyſt not that Rachel (m) had ſtolen them. 33 Then went Laban into Jacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two mayde ſeruauntes tentes: but founde them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent. 34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the Camelles ſtrawe, & ſate downe vpon them: And Laban tolled vp all the tent, but founde them not.

35 Then ſayde ſhe to her father, My lorde, be not angry that I can not riſe vp before thee: for the cuſtome of women is come vpon me. So ſearched he, but (n) founde not thoſe images.

36 And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban, Jacob alſo anſwered, and ſayde to him, What haue I treſpaſſed? or what haue I offended thee, that thou doeſt ſore purſue after me?

37 Thou haſt tolled vp all my ſtuffe, and what haſt thou founde of all thy houſehoulde ſtuffe? put it here before thy brethren and my brethren, that they may iudge betwixt vs both.

41 Thus haue I ben twentie yeres in thy houſe, and ſerued thee fourteene yeres for thy two daughters, and ſixe yeres for thy cheepe, and thou haſt chaunged my rewarde ten tymes. 42 And except the God of my father, (p) the God of Abraham, and the feare of Iſahac had ben with me, ſurely thou haddeſt ſent me away now all emptie: but God beholde my tribulation & the labour of my handes, and rebuked (thee) yeſternight. 43 And Laban aunſwered, and ſayde vnto Jacob, Theſe daughters are my daughters, and theſe children are my children, and theſe cheepe are my cheepe, and all that thou ſeeſt is myne: and what can I do this day vnto theſe my daughters, or vnto their children which they haue borne? 44 Nowe therfore come on, and let vs make a league I and thou, which may be a witneſſe betweene me and thee.

45 Then toke Jacob a ſtone, and ſet it vp on ende. 46 And Jacob ſayde vnto his brethren, Gather ſtones. And they toke ſtones, and made an heape: and they did eate there vpon the heape. 47 And Laban called it (q) Jegar Sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed. 48 Then ſayde Laban, This heape is witneſſe betweene thee and me this day. Therfore it is called "Galeed, 49 And "Miſpah: for he ſayd, The Lorde loke betweene thee & me when we are departed one from another, 50 If thou ſhalt vexe my daughters, or ſhalt take (r) other wynes beſide my daughters: here is no man with vs, beholde, God (is) witneſſe betwixt me and thee. 51 And Laban ſayde moreouer to Jacob, Beholde this heape, and this ſtone ſet vp on ende, which I haue layde betwixt me and thee. 52 This heape be witneſſe, and alſo this ſtone ſet vp on ende, that I wyll not come ouer this heape to thee, and thou ſhalt not come ouer this heape and this ſtone ſet vp on ende vnto me, to do any harme. 53 The God of Abraham, and the (f) God of Nachor, and the God of their father, be iudge betwixt vs. And Jacob (t) ſware by the feare of his father Iſahac. 54 Then Jacob did ſacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eate bread: and they did eate bread, and taryed all nyght in the hyll. 55 And early in the morowe Laban roſe vp, and kiſſed his ſonnes and his daughters, and (v) bleſſed them: and Laban departyng, went into his place agayne.

6 And the meſſengers came agayne to Iacob, ſaying, We came to thy brother Eſau, and he commeth to meete thee, and hath foure hundred men with him. 7 But Iacob was greatly afrayde, and wiſt not which way to turne him ſelfe: and diuided the people that was with him, and the ſheepe, and oxen, and camelles, into two companies: 8 And ſayde, If Eſau come to the one part and ſmyte it, the other ſhall ſaue it ſelfe. 9 And Iacob ſayde agayne, (b) O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Iſahac, Lorde which ſaydeſt vnto me, Returne vnto thy countrey, and to thy kinrede, and I wyll do well with thee: 10 I am "not worthy of the leaſt of all the (c) mercies and truenes which thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruaunt: for with my ſtaffe came I ouer this Iordane, and nowe haue I gotten two companies. 11 Deliuer me from the hande of my brother Eſau: for I feare him, leſt he wyll come and ſmyte me, (yea) the mother with the children. 12 Thou ſaydeſt, I wyll ſurely do thee good, and make thy ſeede as the ſande of the ſea, which can not be numbred for multitude. 13 And he taryed there that ſame nyght, and toke of that which came to hande, (d) a preſent for Eſau his brother, 14 Two hundred thee goates, and twentie hee goates, two hundred ſheepe, and twentie rammes, 15 Thirtie mylche camelles with their colts, fourtie kine, and ten bulles, twentie thee aſſes, and ten foales: 16 And deliuered them into the handes of his ſeruauntes, euery droue by them ſelues, and ſayde vnto his ſeruauntes, Go foorth before me, and put a ſpace betwixt droue & droue. 17 And he commaunded the formoſt, ſaying, If Eſau my brother meete thee, and aſke thee, ſaying, Whoſe art thou? and whither goeſt thou? and whoſe are theſe (that go before thee?

18 Then ſhalt ſay, They be thy ſeruaunt Iacobs, and it is a preſent ſent vnto my Lorde Eſau: and beholde, he him ſelfe commeth after vs.

19 And ſo commaunded he the ſeconde, and the thirde, and all that followed the droues, ſaying, On this maner ſee that you ſpeake vnto Eſau when ye meete him. 20 And ſay moreouer, beholde, thy ſeruaunt Iacob alſo commeth after vs: for he ſayde, I wyll appeace "his wrath with the preſent that goeth before me, and afterwarde I wyll ſee him my ſelfe, peraduenture he wyll receaue "me to grace. 21 So went the preſent before him: and he taryed all that night in the companie. 22 And he roſe vp the ſame nyght, and toke his two wyues, and his two mayde ſeruauntes, and his eleuen ſonnes, and went ouer the foorde Iaboc.

23 And he toke them, and ſent them ouer the ryuer, and ſent ouer that he had. 24 And Iacob was left him ſelfe (e) alone: and there wraſteled a man with him, vnto the breakyng of the day. 25 And when he ſawe that he coulde not preuayle agaynſt him, (f) he ſmote him vpon the huckelebone of his thygh, and the huckelebone of Iacobs thygh looſed out of ioynt as he wraſteled with him. 26 And he ſayd, Let me go, for the day breaketh. Which aunſwered, I wyll not let thee go except (g) thou bleſſe me. 27 And he ſayd vnto him, What is thy name? Whe aunſwered, Iacob. 28 Whe ſayd, Thy name ſhalbe called no more Iacob, but "Iſrael: For as a prince haſt thou wraſteled with God, and with men, and haſt preuayled. 29 And Iacob aſked him, ſaying, Tell (h) me thy name. And he ſayde, Wherfore doeſt thou aſke after my name? And he bleſſed him there. 30 And Iacob called the name of the place Peniel: For I haue (i) ſeene God face to face, and my lyfe is preſerued. 31 And as he went ouer Peniel, the ſunne roſe vpon him, and he halted vpon his thygh. 32 And therfore it is that the children of Iſrael eate not of the ſinnowe that ſhranke in that place of the thygh, vnto this day: becauſe that he touched the huckelebone of Iacobs thygh, about the ſinnowe that ſhranke.

he diuided the children vnto Lea, and vnto Rachel, and vnto the two handmaydens. 2 And he put the handmaydens and their children formost, and Lea and her children after, and Rachel and (a) Joseph hindermost. 3 And he went before them, and bowed him selfe to the grounde seuen tymes, vntyll he came to his brother. 4 Esau ranne to meete him, and imbraced him, and fell on his necke, and kissed him, and they wept. 5 And he lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the women and the children, and sayde, Whence hast thou these? And he answered, They are the children which God hath geuen thy seruaunt. 6 Then came the handmaydens foorth, and their children, and bowed them selues. 7 Lea also with her children, came and dyd their obeysaunce: And last of all, came Joseph and Rachel, and dyd (b) their obeysaunce. 8 And he sayde, What is all the droue which I met? he answered, That I may fynde grace in the sight of my Lorde.

9 And Esau sayde, I haue inough my brother, kepe that thou hast vnto thy selfe. 10 And Jacob answered, Nay I pray thee: but if I haue founde grace in thy sight, receaue I pray thee my present of my hande: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had (c) seene the face of God, and so thou hast receaued me to grace. 11 Oh take my blessyng that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and I haue inough. And so he compelled him, and he toke it. 12 And he sayde, Let vs take our iourney, and go, I wyll go before thee. 13 Jacob answered him, My lorde, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the small and great cattell with young vnder my handes, which yf men shoulde ouerdryue but euen one day, all the flocke wyll dye. 14 Oh let my lorde go before his seruaunt, and I wyll dryue fayre and softly, according as the cattell that goeth before me, and the childre be able to endure, (d) vntyll I come vnto my lorde vnto Seir. 15 And Esau sayde, I wyll leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needeth it? ¶ The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

1 The rauishing of Dina Iacobs daughter by Sichem the sonne of Hemor. 8 Who requireth her in maryage for his sonne. 13 The sonnes of Iacob do guilefully require the Sichemites to be circumcised. 25 The vvhordome is reuenged by Simeon and Leui Iacobs sonnes. 30 Iacob reproueth his sonnes.

DIna the daughter of Lea, which she bare vnto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the lande. 2 Whom when Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Heuite lorde of the countrey sawe, he toke her, and lay with her, and "defiled her. 3 And his heart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Jacob, and he loued that damsell, and spake "kyndly vnto her. 4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying, Get me this mayden vnto my wyfe. 5 And Jacob hearde that he had defiled Dina his daughter (his sonnes beyng with their cattell in the fielde) and Jacob (a) held his peace vntyll they were come. 6 (b) And Hemor the father of Sichem, went out vnto Jacob to commune with him. 7 And when the sonnes of Jacob (commyng out of the fielde) heard it, it greeued them, and they were not a litle wroth, because he had wrought folly in Jsrael, in that he had lyen with Jacobs daughter, which thyng ought not to be done. 8 And Hemor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Sichem longeth for your daughter: I pray you (c) geue her him to wyfe. 9 And make maryages with vs, and geue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you. 10 And ye shall dwell with vs, and the 15 But in this will we conſent vnto you: yf ye will be as we be, and all the males amongſt you be (f) circumciſed: 16 Then will we geue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and will dwell with you, and be one people. 17 But and yf ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumciſed, then will we take our daughter, and go our wayes.

20 Then Hemor and Sichem his ſonne went vnto the (g) gate of their citie, and communed with the men of their citie, ſaying, 21 Theſe men liue peaceably among vs, and dwel in the lande, and do their occupation therin: and beholde, the lande is large inough for them, we will take their daughters to wyues, and geue them our daughters. 22 Only herein wyl they conſent vnto vs for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, If all the males that are among vs be circumciſed, as they are circumciſed? 23 Shall not their goodes and their ſubſtaunce, and all their cattell (h) be ours? let vs only conſent vnto them, and they will dwell with vs. 24 And vnto Hemor and Sichem his ſonne hearkened all that went out at the gate of the citie: and all the males were circumciſed, whatſoeuer went out at the gate of his citie. 25 And the thirde day whyles they were ſore, two of the ſonnes of Iacob, Simeon and Leui Dinas (i) brethren, toke either of them his ſworde, and went into the citie boldely, and ſlue all the males, 26 And ſlue alſo Hemor and (k) Sichem his ſonne with the edge of the ſworde, and toke Dina out of Sichems houſe, and went their way.

27 And the ſonnes of Iacob commyng vpon "the dead, (l) ſpoyled the citie, becauſe they had defiled their ſiſter. 28 And toke their cheepe, oxen, and their aſſes, and whatſoeuer was in the citie, and alſo in the fieldes. 29 And all their goodes, and all their children, and their wiues, toke they captiue, and made hauocke of all that was in the houſe.

30 But Iacob ſayde to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, and made me to "be abhorred of the inhabitours of the lande of the Chanaanite and the Pherezite: and I beyng fewe in number, they ſhall gather them ſelues together againſt me, and ſlay me, and ſo ſhall I and my houſe be deſtroyed.

(e) And they hated him yet the more because of his dreames, and of his wordes. 9 And he dreamed yet another dreame, and tolde it his brethren, saying, Beholde I haue had one dreame more, And beholde, the sunne, and the moone, and eleuen starres made obeysaunce to me. 10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked hym, and sayde vnto hym, What is this dreame that thou hast dreamed? Shall (f) I and thy mother and thy brethren in deede come to bowe to thee? 11 And his brethren enuied hym: but his father noted the saying. 12 His brethren also went to kepe his fathers cattell in Sichem. 13 And Israel sayd vnto Joseph, Do not thy brethren kepe in Sichem? come, and I wyll sende thee to them. 15 He answered, Here I am. And he sayde vnto hym, Go (I pray thee) see whether it be well with thy brethren and the cattell, and bryng me worde agayne. And so he sent hym out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Sichem. 15 And a certayne man founde hym, and beholde he was wandring out of his way in the fielde, and the man asked hym, What seekest thou? 16 He answered, I seeke my (g) brethren: tell me I pray thee where they kepe (cattell.) 17 And the man sayde, They are departed hence: for I haue hearde them say, Let vs go vnto Dothan. Thus went Joseph after his brethren, and founde them in Dothan. 18 And when they sawe hym a farre of, before he came at them, they tooke counsell against hym (h) for to slea hym: 19 For one sayde to another, Beholde, this "notable dreamer commeth. 20 Come nowe therefore and let vs slay hym, and (i) cast hym into some pit, & we wyll say, some naughtie beast hath deuoured him: and we shall see what wyll come of his dreames. 21 When Ruben heard that, he ryd hym out of their handes, and sayde, Let vs not "kyll hym. 22 And Ruben sayde moreouer vnto them, Shed no blood (but) cast hym into this pit that is in the wyldernesse, and lay no hande vpon hym: (this he sayde) that he might ryd hym out of their handes, and deliuer hym to his father agayne.

23 And when Joseph was come vnto his brethren, they strypt hym out of his coate, his partie coloured coate that was vpon hym. 24 And they toke hym, and (k) cast hym into an emptie pit, wherein was no water.

25 And they sate (l) them downe to eate bread: and as they lyft vp their eyes and looked about, beholde, there came a company of Ismaelites from Gilead: and their camelles laden with spicerie, bawme, and myrrhe, and were goyng downe to cary it to Egypt. 26 And Judas sayde vnto his brethren, What (m) auayleth it if we slay our brother, and kepe his blood secrete? 27 Come on, and let vs sell hym to the Ismaelites, and let not our hande be vpon hym: for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content. 28 Then as the Madianites marchaunt men passed by, they drue and lyft Joseph out of the pit, and solde hym vnto the Ismaelites for twentie peeces of syluer: And they brought Joseph into Egypt. 29 Then Ruben came agayne vnto the pit, and beholde Joseph (was) not in the pit: then he rent his clothes, 30 And went agayne vnto his brethren, saying, The lad is not (yonder) wo is me, whyther shall I go? 31 And they tooke Josephes coate, and hylled a kyd, and dipped the coate in the blood. 32 And they sent that partie coloured coate, and caused it to be brought vnto their father, and sayde, This haue we founde, see whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no. 33 And he knewe it, saying, It is my sonnes coate, a naughtie beast hath

1 Ioſeph is ſolde to Putiphar. 2 God proſpereth Ioſeph, 5 and bleſſeth Putiphar for Ioſephs ſake. 7 Ioſeph doth withſtande the temptation of his miſtres. 13 He is falſely accuſed and caſt into priſon. 21 where God ſheweth hym fauour.

IOſeph was brought vnto Egypt, and Putiphar a Lord of Pharaos, and his chiefe ſtewarde, an Egyptian, bought hym of the Iſmaelites which had brought hym thyther.

2 And God was with Ioſeph, and he became a (a) luckie man, continuyng in the houſe of his maiſter the Egyptian. 3 And his maiſter ſawe that (b) God was with hym, and that God made all that he dyd to proſper in his hande. 4 And Ioſeph founde grace in his maiſters ſight, and ſerued him: And he made hym ouerſeer of his houſe, and put all that he had in his hande. 5 And it came to paſſe from the tyme that he had made hym ouerſeer of his houſe, and ouer all that he had, the (c) Lorde bleſſed the Egyptians houſe for Ioſephs ſake: and the bleſſing of the Lord was vpon al that he had in the houſe and in the feelde.

6 And therfore he left all that he had in Ioſephs hande: and (d) he knewe nothing with him, ſaue only the bread which he did eate. And Ioſeph was (e) a goodly perſon, and a well fauoured. 7 And after this, his maiſters wyfe caſt her eyes vpon Ioſeph, and ſayde, (come) lye with me. 8 But he refuſed, & ſayde vnto his maiſters wyfe, (f) Beholde, my maiſter woteth not what he hath in the houſe with me, and hath committed al that he hath to my hand. 9 There is no man greater in the houſe the I, neither hath he kept any thing from me but only thee, becauſe thou art his wyfe: how then can I do this (g) great wickednes, & ſinne agaynſt (h) God? And after this maner ſpake ſhe to Ioſeph day by day: but he hearkened not vnto her to ſleepe (i) neare her, or to be in her compane. 11 And on a certayne day, Ioſeph entred into the houſe to do his buſyneſs, and there was none of the houſholde by, in the houſe. 12 Then ſhe caught hym by the garment, ſaying, lye with me. And he (k) left his garment in her hande, and fledde, and got him out. 13 And when ſhe ſawe that he hadde left his garment in her hande, and was fled out, 14 (l) She called vnto the men of her houſe, and tolde them, ſaying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrue vnto vs to do vs ſhame: for he came in to me to haue lyen with me, and I began to cry with a loude voyce: 15 And when he hearde that I lyft vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment with me, and fled away, and got hym out.

17 And ſhe tolde hym with theſe wordes, ſaying, This Hebrue ſeruant whiche thou haſt brought vnto vs, came vnto me to do me ſhame.

18 But aſſoone as I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment with me, and fled out. 19 When his maiſter hearde the wordes of his wyfe which ſhe tolde him, ſaying, After this maner dyd thy ſeruant to me: he waxed wroth. 20 And Ioſephes maiſter (m) toke hym, and put hym in priſon, in the place where the kinges priſoners lay bounde: and there continued he in priſon. 21 But the Lorde was with Ioſeph, and ſhewed hym mercie, and gotte hym fauour in the ſight of the Lorde of the priſon.

22 And the keeper of the priſon committed to Ioſephes hande all the priſoners that were in the priſon houſe: and whatſoeuer was done there, that dyd he. 23 And the keeper of the priſon loked vnto nothyng that was vnder his hande, ſeeyng that the Lorde was with hym: For whatſoeuer he dyd, the Lorde made it to proſper.

AND it came to passe after these " thynges, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker, had offended their Lorde the kyng of Egypt. 2 And Pharao was angry agaynst the chiefe butler and the chiefe baker. 3 And put them in warde in his chiefe stewards house, in the prison & place where Ioseph was bound. 4 And the (a) chiefe stewarde gaue Ioseph a charge with them, and he serued them: and they continued a season in warde. 5 And they dreamed either of them in one nyght, both the butler and the baker of the kyng of Egypt, whiche were bounde in the prison house, either of them his dreame, and eche mans dreame of a sundrie interpretation. 6 When Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and loked vpon them, beholde, they were sadde. 7 And he asked Pharaos chiefe officers that were with him in his masters warde, saying, Wherfore loke ye so sadly to day? 8 They answered hym, We haue dreamed a dreame, and haue no man to declare it. And Ioseph sayde vnto them, Do not interpretinges belong to God? tell me I pray you. 9 And the chiefe butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and sayde vnto hym, In my dreame, me thought there stoode a vine before me, 10 And in the vine (were) three braunches, and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot foorth: and the clusters thereof brought foorth ripe grapes. 11 And I had Pharaos cuppe in my hande, and toke of the grapes, & pressed them in Pharaos cuppe, and deliuered Pharaos cuppe into his hande. 12 And Ioseph sayde vnto hym, This is the interpretation of it, The three braunches (b) are three dayes. 13 For within three dayes shall Pharao " lyft (c) vp thyne head, and restore thee into thyne office agayne, & thou shalt deliuer Pharaos cup into his hande after the olde maner when thou wast his butler. 14 But thynke on me when thou art in good case, and shewe mercie I pray thee vnto me, (d) and make mention of me to Pharao, and bryng me out of this house: 15 For I was priuilie by stealth taken away out of the lande of the Hebrues: and here also haue I done nothing at all wherefore they shoulde haue put me into this dungeon. 16 When the chiefe baker sawe that the interpretation was good, he sayde vnto Ioseph, Me thought also in my dreame that I had three " whyte wicker baskets on my head, 17 And in the vpper most basket there was of all manner bake meates for Pharao, and the birdes dyd eate them out of the basket (that was) vpon my head. 18 And Ioseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof, The three baskets, are three dayes: 19 For within three dayes shall Pharao take thy head from thee, and shall hange thee on a tree, and the birdes shal eate thy flesh from of thee. 20 And it came to passe the thirde day, whiche was Pharaos birth day, that he made a feast vnto al his seruauntes: and he " lyfted vp the head of the chiefe butler, & of the chiefe baker among his seruauntes: 21 And restored the chiefe butler vnto his butlership agayne, whiche also reached the cup into Pharaos hande: 22 But he hanged the chiefe baker, as Ioseph (c) had interpreted vnto him. 22 Neither dyd the chiefe butler remember Ioseph, but forgat him.

8 And when the morning came, his spirite was troubled, and he sent and called for all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wyse men thereof: and Pharao tolde them his dreame, but ther was none of them that could interprete it vnto Pharao. 9 Then spake the chiefe butler vnto Pharao, saying, I do remember my faultes this day: 10 Pharao beyng angrye with his seruauntes, put in warde in the chiefe stewardes house, both me, and the chiefe baker. 11 And we dreamed both of vs in one nyght, and eche mans dreame of a sundrie interpretation. 12 And there was with vs a young man, an Hebrue borne, seruaunt vnto the chiefe stewarde: to whom when we tolde them, he declared our dreames to vs, accordyng to eyther of our dreames. 13 And as he declared them to vs, so it came to passe: For he restored me to myne office agayne, and hanged hym.
14 Pharao (b) sent therefore and called Ioseph: and they brought him hastyly out of the dungeon: And he shaued him selfe, and chaunged his rayment, and came vnto Pharao.
15 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interprete it: and I haue hearde say of thee that assoone as thou hearest a dreame thou canst interprete it.
16 Ioseph aunswered Pharao, saying, * Not I: (c) but God shall geue Pharao an aunswere of peace.
17 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, In my dreame me thought I stoode by a riuers side, 18 And there came out of the ryuer seuen fat fleshed and well fauoured kyne, and fedde in a medowe. 19 And then seuen other kyne came out after them, poore, and very yll fauoured, and leane fleshed, such as I neuer sawe in all the lande of Egypt, they were so * yll fauoured.
20 And the seuen leane and yll fauoured kyne, dyd eate vp the first seuen fat kyne, 21 And when they had "eaten them vp, a man could not perceaue that they had eaten them, but they were styll yll fauoured as they were at the begynnyng: and I awoke. 22 And I sawe agayne in my dreame, and beholde, seuen eares * springing out of one stalke, full and faire.
23 And beholde, seuen eares agayne * withered, thinne, and blasted with the east winde, sprang vp after them, 24 And the thynne eares deuoured the seuen good eares: and I haue told the soothsayers, but there was no man that couldе tell what it meaneth.
25 And Ioseph aunswered Pharao: (both) Pharaos dreames are (d) one. God hath shewed Pharao what (e) he is about to do. 26 The seuen good kyne, are seuen yeres: and the seuen good eares, are seuen yeres also: and it is but one dreame. 27 Likewise the seuen thinne and yll fauoured kyne that came vp after them, are seuen yeres: and the seuen emptie and blasted eares with the east wynd, shalbe seuen yeres of famine. 28 This worde which I haue sayde vnto Pharao, is it that (f) God is about to do, and sheweth it vnto Pharao.
29 Beholde, there come seuen yeres of great plentie throughout all the lande of Egypt. 30 And agayne, there shall aryse after them seuen yeres of famyne, and all the plenteousnes shalbe forgotten in the lande of Egypt: and the famine shall consume the lande. 31 Neither shall the plenteousnes be knowen in the lande by reason of that famine that (shall come) after: for it shalbe exceedyng great. 32 And as concernyng that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the second time: behold, the thing is certainely prepared of God, and God wyll (g) shortly bryng it to passe.
33 Nowe therefore (h) let Pharao prouide for a man of vnderstandyng and wysdome, and set hym ouer the land of Egypt. 34 And let Pharao do this also, that he make "officers ouer the lande, and take vp the fift (part) in the lande of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeres. 35 And let (i) them gather all the foode of these good yeres that come: and lay vp corne vnder the hande of Pharao, and let them kepe foode in the cities. 36 And so shall that foode be for store in the lande agaynst the seuen yeres of famine, whiche shall come in the lande of Egypt, that the lande perishe not through famine. 37 And the saying seemed good in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of all his seruauntes.
38 Then sayde Pharao vnto his seruauntes, May there be founde a man suche as this is, in whom the spirite of God is? 39 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, Forasmuche as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding

49 And Ioſeph layed vp corne in ſtore lyke vnto the ſande of the ſea in multitude out of meaſure, vntyl he left numbryng: for it was without number. 50 And vnto Ioſeph were borne two ſonnes before the yeres of famine came: whiche Aſnath the daughter of Potipherah prieſt of On bare vnto hym. 51 And Ioſeph called the name of the firſt ſonne " Manaſſe: for God (ſayde he) hath made me forget all my labour, and all my fathers houſholde. 52 The name of the ſecounde called he " Ephraim: for God (ſayde he) hath cauſed me to be fruitefull in the lande of my trouble. 53 And when the ſeuen yeres of plentcouſneſſe that was in the lande of Egypt, were ended, 54 Then came the ſeuen yeres of dearth, accordyng as Ioſeph had ſayde, and the dearth was in all landes: but in all the land of Egypt was there foode.

55 And when the land of Egypt alſo began to hunger, the people cryed to Pharao for bread. And Pharao ſayde vnto all the Egyptians, Go vnto Ioſeph: and what he ſayth to you, that do. 56 And the dearth was throughout all the lande: and Ioſeph opened all the barnes wherein was corne, and ſolde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed ſore in the land of Egypt. 57 And all countreyes came into Egypt to Ioſeph for to bye (corne) becauſe that the famine was ſo ſore in all landes.

1 Iacob ſendeth Ioſephes brethren into Egypt to bye corne. 7 Ioſeph knoweth them and tryeth them. 24 Simeon remayneth in priſon, 29 the other returne to their father to fetch Beniamin. 39 Iacob is loth to let Beniamin go, but at the laſt he is content.

AND Iacob ſeyng that there was " corne in Egypt, ſayde vnto his ſonnes, Why gape ye one vpon another? 2 And he ſayde, Behold, I haue heard that there is corne in Egypt: get you downe thyther, and bye vs corne from thence, that we maye lyue and not dye. 3 So went Ioſephes ten brethren down to bye corne in Egypt. 4 But Beniamin Ioſephs brother would not Iacob ſende with his other brethren: for he ſayde, Leſt peraduenture deſtruction come vpon him. 5 And the ſonnes of Iſrael came to bye corne among other that came: for there was dearth in the land of Chanaan. 6 And Ioſeph was gouernour in the lande, and ſolde to all the people of the land. And Ioſephes brethren came, and bowed themſelues with their faces downe to the ground before hym. 7 When Ioſeph ſawe his brethren, he knewe them, & made him ſelfe ſtraunge vnto them, and ſpake roughly vnto them, ſaying, Whence come ye? They aunſwered, Out of the lande of Chanaan to bye victayle. 8 And Ioſeph knewe his brethren, but they knewe not hym.

10 And they sayde vnto hym, Naye my Lorde, but to by vttayle thy seruauntes are come. 11 We are all one mans sonnes, and "meane truely, and thy seruauntes are no spyes.

12 And he sayde vnto them agayne, Nay: but (b) to see where the land is weake, is your commyng. 13 And they sayde, We thy seruauntes are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lande of Chanaan: and beholde the youngest is this day with our father, and one no man woteth where he is. 14 And Ioseph sayde vnto them, (c) That is it that I spake vnto you when I sayde, ye are spyes.

15 Hereby ye shalbe proued (by) the lyfe of Pharao, ye shall not go hence except your youngest brother come hither. 16 Sende out one of you, which may fet your brother, and ye shalbe kept in pryson, that your wordes may be proued whether there be any trueth in you: or els, (by) the lyfe of Pharao ye are but spyes.

17 And he put them altogether in warde three dayes. 18 And Ioseph sayde vnto them the thirde day, This do, and lyue: (for) I (d) feare God.

19 If you be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your pryson: and go ye, cary corne (to put away) the famine from your housholde. 20 But bryng your youngest brother vnto me, and so shall your wordes be tryed true, and ye shall not dye. And they did so. 21 And one sayde to another, We haue verely (e) sinned agaynst our brother, in that we sawe the anguishe of his soule, when he besought vs, and we wolde not heare hym: and therefore is this (f) trouble come vpon vs. 22 And Ruben aunswered them, saying, Said I not vnto you, that you shoulde not sinne agaynst the lad, and ye wolde not heare? and see, nowe his blood is required. 23 They were not aware that Ioseph vnderstoode them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned from them and wept: and turned to them agayne and communed with them, and toke out Simeon from amongest them, and bounde hym before their eyes.

25 And Ioseph commaunded to fyll their sackes with corne, and put euery mans money in his sacke, and to geue them vitaile to spende by the waye: and thus dyd he vnto them. 26 And they laded their asses with the corne, & departed thence. 27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to geue his asse prouender in the (g) Inne, he espied his money, for it was in his sackes mouth: 28 And he sayd vnto his brethren, My money is restored to me agayne, for lo, it is in my sacke. And their hart "fayled them, and they were astonied, and sayde one to another, why hath God dealt thus with vs? 29 And they came vnto Iacob their father, vnto the lande of Chanaan, and tolde him all that befell vnto them, saying, 30 The man (who is) the Lorde of the land, spake roughly to vs, and toke vs for spyes of the countrey. 31 And (h) we sayde vnto him, We meane truely, we neuer were spyes. 32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is away, and the youngest is this day with our father in the lande of Chanaan.

33 And the Lorde of the countrey sayde agayne vnto vs, Hereby shall I knowe that ye meane truely: Leaue one of your brethren here with me, & take (foode) to put away the famine from your housholdes, and get you away. 34 And bryng your youngest brother vnto me, that I may knowe that you are no spies, but meane truely: so wyll I deliuer you your brother, and ye shall occupye in the lande.

35 And as they emptied their sackes, beholde, euery mans bundell of money was in his sacke: And when both they and their (i) father sawe the bundelles of money, they were afrayde. 36 And Iacob their father sayde vnto them, (k) Me haue ye robbed of my children: Ioseph is away, and Simeon is away, and ye wyll take Beniamin away: all these thynges are agaynst me. 37 Ruben said vnto his father, Slay my two sonnes, yf I bryng hym not to thee agayne: deliuer hym to my hande, and I wyll bryng him to thee agayne. 38 And he sayde, My sonne shall not go downe with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: yf destruction come vpon him by the way which ye go, ye shal bring my gray head with sorowe vnto the graue.

1 Ioseph with his two sonnes visiteth his sicke father. 3 Iacob rehearseth gods promises.

AFter these deedes, one tolde Ioseph, Beholde, thy father is sicke: And he tooke with hym his two sonnes Manasses and Ephraim. 2 Then this message was declared vnto Iacob, Beholde, thy sonne Ioseph commeth vnto thee. And Israel tooke his strength vnto him, and sate vpon the bed. 3 And (a) Iacob sayde vnto Ioseph, God almightie appeared vnto me at Luz in the lande of Chanaan, and blessed me, and sayde vnto me, 4 Beholde, I wyll make thee fruteful, and cause thee to multiplie, and wyll make a great number of people of thee, and wyll geue this lande vnto thy seede after thee vnto an euerlasting possession. 5 And now thy two sonnes Manasses & Ephraim, whiche were borne vnto thee in the land of Egypt before I came vnto thee into Egypt, are myne, euen as Ruben and Simeon are myne. 6 And the children whiche thou hast gotten after them, shalbe thyne owne, and (b) shalbe called after the names of their brethren in their inheritaunce. 7 And when I came from Mesopotamia, (c) Rachel dyed vpon my hande in the lande of Chanaan by the way, when there was but a feeldes breadth to come vnto Ephratha: and I buried her there in the waye to Ephratha, the same is Bethlehem. 8 And Israel behelde Iosephes sonnes, and sayde, What are these? 9 Ioseph sayde vnto his father, They are my sonnes whiche God hath geuen me here. And he sayde, Oh bryng them to me, & let me blesse them. 10 (And the eyes of Israel were dymme for age, so that he coulde not (well) see) And he brought them to hym, and he kyssed them, and imbraced them. 11 And Israel sayde vnto Ioseph, I had not thought to haue seene thy face: and yet loe, (d) God hath shewed me also thy seede. 12 And Ioseph toke them awaye from his lappe, and he bowed hym selfe with his face towarde the earth.

(a) He perswadeth Ioseph to ioyne him selfe to the holy people, from the which he had ben deuided, and from the which his great glory might alienate him. Gen. xxxv.

19 And his father woulde not, but sayde, (k) I knowe it well my sonne, I knowe it well, he shalbe also a people, and shalbe great: But his younger brother shalbe greater then he, and his seede shall become a great people.

20 And he blessed them that day, and sayde, (l) In thee let Israel blesse and say, God make thee as Ephraim, and as Manasses: And he set Ephraim before Manasses. 21 And Israel sayd vnto Ioseph, Beholde I dye, and God shalbe with you, & bryng you agayne vnto the lande of your fathers.

22 Moreouer, I haue geuen vnto thee a "portion of lande aboue thy brethren, which I gat out of the hande of the Amorite in my swoorde, and in my bowe.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 Moyſes kepeth the ſheepe of Iethro his father in lawe. 2 God appeareth to him in a buſhe. 10 And ſendeth hym to delyuer the children of Iſrael.

MOyſes kept the ſheepe of Iethro his father in lawe prieſt of Madian: and he droue the flocke to the backe ſyde of the deſert, and came to the mountayne of God (a) "Horeb.

2 And the angell of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in a flambe of fyre out of the middes of a buſhe: And he loked, and beholde (b) the buſhe burned with fyre, and the buſhe was not conſumed. 3 Therefore Moyſes ſayde, I will go nowe, and ſee this great ſight, how it commeth that the buſhe burneth not. 4 And when the Lorde ſawe that he came for to ſee, God called vnto hym out of the middes of the buſhe, and ſayde, Moyſes, Moyſes? And he aunſwered, Here am I. 5 And he ſayde, Drawe not nigh hither: (c) put thy ſhoes of thy feete, for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt, is holye grounde. 6 And he ſayde, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Jacob. And Moyſes hyd his face: for he was afrayde to loke vpon god.

7 And the Lorde ſayde, I (d) haue ſurely ſeene the trouble of my people which are in Egypt, and haue hearde their crie from the face of their taſke maſters: for I knowe their ſorowes,

8 And am come downe (e) to deliuer them out of the hande of the Egyptians, and to bryng them out of that lande, vnto a good lande and a large, vnto a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, (euen) vnto the place of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, & Heuites, and of the Iebuſites. 9 Now therefore behold the complaint of the children of Iſrael is come vnto me: and I haue alſo ſeene the oppreſſion wherwith the Egyptians oppreſſed them:

10 Come thou therefore, and I will ſende thee vnto Pharao, that thou mayſt bryng my people the children of Iſrael out of Egypt. 11 And Moyſes ſayde vnto God, (f) what am I to go vnto Pharao, and to bryng the children of Iſrael out of Egypt?

12 And he aunſwered, For I will be with thee: and this ſhalbe a token vnto thee that I haue ſent thee, (g) After that thou haſt brought the people out of Egypt, ye ſhall ſerue God vpon this mountayne. 13 And Moyſes ſayde vnto God, Behold, (when) I come vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſhall ſay vnto them, The God of your fathers hath ſent me vnto you, And yf they ſay vnto me, what is his name? what aunſwere ſhall I geue them? 14 And God aunſwered Moyſes, (h) I am that (i) I am. And he ſaid, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the children of Iſrael, I am, hath ſent me vnto you. 15 And God ſpake further vnto Moyſes, Thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto the children of Iſrael, (k) The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Jacob hath ſent me vnto you: This is my name for euer, and this is my memoriall vnto generation and generation. 16 Go, and gather the elders of Iſrael together, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Jacob appeared vnto me, and ſayde, In "viſityng, haue I viſited you, and knowe that which is done to you in Egypt. 17 And I haue ſayde, I will bryng you out of the tribulation of Egypt, vnto the lande of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, & Pherizites, and Heuites, and Iebuſites, (euen) into a land which floweth with mylke and hony.

18 And they ſhall heare thy voyce: then both thou and the elders of Iſrael ſhall go vnto the kyng of Egypt, and ſay vnto hym, The Lorde God of the Hebrues hath "met with vs, and now let vs go we beſeche thee three dayes iourney into the wilderneſſe, and (l) do ſacrifice vnto the Lorde our God. 19 And I am ſure that the kyng of Egypt wyl not let you go, "no not in a mighte hande. 20 And I wyl ſtretch out my hande, & ſmite Egypt with all my wonders which I wyl do

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 God geueth three signes vnto Moyses, whiche do declare that he was sent of God. 19 Moyses taketh his leaue of his father in lawe.

MOyses answered and saide, (a) See they wyl not beleue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: but wil saye, The Lord hath not appeared vnto thee. 2 And the Lorde saide vnto hym, What is that(which is)in thyne hande? He answered, " A rodde

3 And he sayde, Caste it on the grounde. And he cast it on the grounde, & it became a serpent: and Moyses fled from the sight of it. 4 And the Lorde saide vnto Moyses, Put forth thy hande, and take it by the tayle. And therefore he put forth his hand, and caught it: and it became a roode in his hande.

5 (b) By this thing shall they beleue, that the Lorde God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, & the God of Jacob hath appeared vnto thee. 6 And the Lorde sayd furthermore vnto hym, Thrust thyne hand into thy bosome. And he thrust his hand into his bosome: and when he toke it out agayne behold his hand was leprous as snowe. 7 And he sayde, Put thyne hande into thy bosome agayne. And he put his hand into his bosome agayne: and plucked it out of his bosome, and behold, it was turned agayne as his (other) flesshe.

8 Therefore yf they wyll not beleue thee, neither heare the " voyce of the first signe, yet wyll they beleue for the voyce of the second signe. 9 But and if they wyll not beleue these two signes, neither hearke vnto thy voyce: thou shalt take of the water of the ryuer, and powre it vpon the drye lande, and the water whiche thou takest out of the ryuer, shalbe turned into blood vpon the drye lande. 10 Moyses sayd vnto the Lorde, Oh my Lord, I " am neither yesterday nor yer yesterday a man eloquent, neither sence thou hast spoken vnto thy seruaunt: but I am slowe mouthed, & slowe tounged.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Who hath made mans mouth? or who maketh the dumbe, or deafe, the seeing, or the blynde? Haue not I the Lorde? 12 And nowe go, and I wyll be with thy mouth, & teache thee what thou shalt say. 13 He sayde, Oh my Lorde, sende I pray thee by the hande of hym whom thou wylt send. 14 And the Lorde was angry with Moyses, and sayde, Do not I knowe Aaron thy brother " the Leuite, that he can speake? For lo he commeth forth to meete thee: and when he seeth thee, he wyll be glad in his heart. 15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto hym, and put(c) these wordes in his mouth and I wyll be with thy mouth, and with his mouth: and wyll teache you what you ought to do. 16 And he shalbe thy spokesman vnto the people, and he shalbe (euen) he shalbe to thee in steade of " a mouth, and thou shalt be to hym (d) in steade of God.

17 And thou shalt take this rodde in thy hand, wherwith thou shalt do miracles. 18 Therefore Moyses went and returned to Jethro his father in lawe agayne, and sayde vnto hym, Let me go I pray thee nowe, and turne agayne vnto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet aliue. And Jethro sayd to Moyses, Go in peace. 19 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses in Madian, Go and returne agayne into Egypt: for all the men are dead which went about to " kill thee. 20 And Moyses toke his wyfe, and his sonnes, and put them on an asse, and went agayne to Egypt: And Moyses toke the rodde of God in his hande. 21 And the Lord sayde vnto Moyses, When thou art entred and come into Egypt agayne, see that thou do all the wonders before Pharao which I haue put in thy hande: (e) but I wyll harden his heart, and he shall not let the people go. 22 And thou shalt say vnto Pharao, Thus saith the Lorde, Israel is my sonne (euen) my first borne. 23 And I saide vnto thee, that thou let my sonne go, that he may serue me: and if thou refuse to let hym go, behold, I do slaye thy sonne (euen) thy (f) first borne.

24 And it came to passe by the way in the Inne that the Lorde met hym, and would haue (g) killed hym. 25 And Sephora toke a stone, and cut away the foreskin of her sonne, and cast it at 12 And so were (c) the people scattered abrode throughout all the lande of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steade of strawe. 13 And the taskemaisters hasted them forwarde, saying, Fulfyll your worke, your dayly tasches in their due tyme, as yf you had strawe.

(c) This intollerable labour was layde on the people, that they myght dryue awaye Moyses and Aaron.

The .vi. Chapter.

3 God renueth his promyse concerning the deliueraunce of the Israelites,

THen the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Nowe shalt thou see what I wyll do vnto Pharao: foz in a mightie hande shall he let them go, and in a mightie hande shall he dryue them out of his lande. 2 And God spake vnto Moyses, and sayde vnto him, I am the Lorde. 3 I appeared vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob as an almyghtie God: but in my name Jehouah was I (a)not knowen vnto them. 4 Moreouer, I made a couenaunt with them, to geue them the lande of Chanaan, the lande of their pilgrimage, wherin they were straungers. 5 And therefore I haue also hearde the gronyng of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians kepe in bondage: and haue remembred my couenaunt. 6 Wherefore saye vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, I wyll bryng you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and wyll ryd you out of their bondage, and wyl deliuer you in a stretched out arme, and in great iudgementes. 7 And I wyl take you for my people, and wyl be to you a God: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord your God which bringeth you out from the burdens of the Egyptians. 8 And I wyll bring you into the lande, concerning the which I dyd "lift vp my hand to geue it vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and wyll geue it vnto you for a possession: (for) I am the Lorde. 9 And Moyses tolde the children of Israel euen so: but they (b)hearkened not vnto Moyses for anguishe of spirite, and for cruel bondage. 10 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 11 Go in, and speake vnto Pharao kyng of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his lande. 12 And Moyses spake before the Lorde, saying, Beholde, the children of Israel hearken not vnto me: Howe then shal Pharao heare me, which am of "vncircumcised lippes. 13 And (c) the Lord spake vnto Moyses & vnto Aaron, & gaue them a charge concernyng the children of Israel, and concerning Pharao kyng of Egypt, "that they shoulde bryng the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. 14 These be the heads of their fathers houses. The .vii. Chapter.

1 Moyses and Aaron speake to Pharao. 10 They turne the rodde into a serpent, and the water into blood, and Pharaos sorcerers do the lyke, 13 and Pharaos heart is hardened the more.

(a) God communicateth his authoritie and power with his ministers.

AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaos (a) God: And Aaron thy brother shalbe thy prophete. 2 Thou shalt speake al that I commaund thee, and Aaron thy brother shall speake vnto Pharao, that he sende the children of Israel out of his lande.

3 And I wyl harden Pharaos heart, and multiplie my miracles, & my wonders in the lande of Egypt. 4 But Pharao shall not hearken vnto you, that I may set my hande vpon Egypt, & bring out mine armies and my people the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt (b) in great iudgements.

(b) To strengthen Moyses fayth, god promiseth agayne most sharply to punishe the oppression of his Church.

5 And the Egyptians shal know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth my hand vpon Egypt, & bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 Moyses and Aaron dyd as the Lorde commaunded them (euen) so did they. 7 Moyses was fourescore yeres olde, and Aaron fourescore and three, when they spake vnto Pharao.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying, 9 If Pharao speake vnto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, & cast it before Pharao, that it may be a serpent. 10 Then went Moyses & Aaron in vnto Pharao, and dyd as the Lord had cõmaunded: and Aaron cast forth his rodde before Pharao, and before his seruauntes, and it turned to a serpent.

(c) It seemeth that these were Iannes and Iambres 2. Tim. 3. verse. 8 So euer the wicked maliciously resisteth the trueth of god.

11 Then Pharao called for the wyse men and (c) enchaunters: and those sorcerers of Egypt dyd in lyke manner with their sorcerie. 12 For they cast downe euery man his rodde, and they turned to serpentes: but Aarons rod dyd eate vp their roddes. 13 And he hardened Pharaos heart that he hearkened not vnto them as the Lord had sayde. 14 The Lorde also sayde vnto Moyses, Pharaos heart is * hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

* Stade he wyl, or hardened.

15 Get thee vnto Pharao in the morning, lo, he wyll come vnto the water, and thou shalt stande vpon the * ryuers brincke against he come: and the rodde which was turned to a serpent, shalt thou take in thyne hande: 16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lorde God of the Hebrues hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serue me in the wyldernesse: and beholde, hytherto thou wouldest not heare. 17 Thus sayth the Lorde, In this thou shalt know me that I am the Lorde: beholde, I wyll smyte with the rodde that is in my hande the waters which are in the ryuers, and they shalbe turned to blood. 18 And the fishe that is in the riuer shall dye: and the riuer shal * corrupt, and it shall greue the Egyptians to drynke of the water of the riuer. 19 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and stretche out thyne hande ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers & ponds, and all pooles of water whiche they haue, that they may be blood, and that there may be blood throughout all the lande of Egypt, both in (vessels) of wood, and also of stone. 20 And Moyses and Aaron dyd as the Lorde commaunded: and he lyfte vp the rodde, and smote the (d) waters that were in the riuer in the sight of Pharao, and in the sight of his seruauntes: and all the water that was in the ryuer turned into blood. 21 And the fishe that was in the riuer dyed: and the riuer corrupted, and the Egyptians could not drynke of the water of the riuer, and there was blood throughout all the lande of Egypt.

22 And the enchaunters of Egypt dyd lyke wyse with their sorceries: and he hardened Pharaos heart, neither dyd he hearken vnto them, as the Lorde had sayde. 23 And Pharao turned him selfe, and went agayne into his house, and set not his heart therevnto. 24 And the Egyptians (e) dygged rounde about the riuer for water to drynke: for they could not drynke of the water of the ryuer.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

6 The plague of frogges, whiche dye at the prayer of Moyses. 30 Moyses prayeth agayne, but Pharaos heart is hardened.

A THe Lorde spake vnto Moyses, Go vnto Pharao and tell hym, Thus sayth the Lorde, Let my people go, that they may serue me. 2 And yf thou refuse to let them go, beholde, I wyll smyte all thy borders with frogges: 3 And the ryuer shall sraule with frogges, whiche shall go vp and come into thyne house, and into thy priue chaumber where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed, and into the house of thy seruauntes, and vpon thy people, and into thyne ouens, and vpon al thy "vitailes in store: 4 And the frogges shall come vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruauntes. 5 And the lord spake vnto Moyses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch foorth thyne hande with thy rod ouer the streames, ouer the ryuers, and ouer the ponds: and cause frogges to come vp vpon the lande of Egypt. 6 And Aaron stretched his hande ouer the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the lande of Egypt. 7 And (a) the sorcerers dyd likewyse with theyr sorcerie, and brought frogges vp vpon the lande of Egypt. 8 Then Pharao called for Moyses and Aaron, and sayde, Pray (b) ye vnto the Lord that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people: and I wyll let the people go, that they may do sacrifice vnto the Lorde. 9 And Moyses sayde vnto Pharao, (c) Glory herein because of me, and (appoynt) when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruauntes, and for thy people to dryue away the frogges from thee and thy houses: and they may remayne but in the ryuer only. 10 He sayde, To morowe. And he sayde, Euen as thou hast sayde: That thou mayest knowe that there is none lyke vnto the Lorde our God. 11 And so the frogges shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, from thy seruauntes, and from thy people: and shall remayne in the ryuer only. 12 Moyses and Aaron went out from Pharao, and Moyses cryed vnto the Lorde as touchyng the frogges whiche he had brought agaynst Pharao. 13 And the Lorde dyd accordyng to the saying of Moyses: and the frogges dyed out of the houses, out of the villages and feeldes. 14 And they gathered them together vpon heapes, and the lande "had an euyll smell (through them.)

15 But when Pharao sawe that he had rest geuen hym, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had sayde. 16 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Say vnto Aaron: Stretche out thy rod, and smite the dust of the lande, that it may be (turned) to lyce throughout all the lande of Egypt. 17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hande with his rodde, and smote the dust of the earth, and there were lyce in man and beast: so that all the dust of the lande was lyce throughout all the lande of Egypt. 18 And the enchaunters "assayed lykewise with theyr enchauntmentes to bryng forth lice, (d) but they could not: and the lice were both vpon men and beastes. 19 Then sayde the enchaunters vnto Pharao, This is the finger of God. And Pharaos heart remayned obstinate, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had sayd. 20 And the lord sayde vnto Moyses, Ryse vp early in the mornyng, and stande before Pharao, lo, he wyll come forth vnto the water. ¶ thou shalt say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde, Let my people go that they may serue me.

21 Els, yf thou wylt not let my people go beholde, I wyll sende "all maner of flyes both vpon thee and thy seruauntes, and thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptions shalbe full of flyes, and the ground whereon they are. 22 And the lande of Gosen where my people are, wyll I "cause to be wonderful in that day, so that there shall no flyes be there: whereby thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde in the myddest of the earth. 23 And I wyll put a "diuision betweene my people and thyne: and to (e) morowe shall this miracle be done. 24 And the Lorde dyd so: and (f) there came an intolerable swarme of flyes into the house of Pharao, & into his seruauntes houses, and into all the land of Egypt: and the lande was corrupt with these flies. 25 And Pharao called for Moyses and Aaron, and sayde, Go, and do sacrifice vnto your God in this lande. 26 And Moyses aunswered, It is not meete that

1 The murren of beastes, 10 The plagues of botches and sores. 23 The horrible hayle, thunder, and lyghtnynges.

THE Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Go in vnto Pharao, and thou shalt tell hym, Thus sayth the Lorde God of the Hebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me. 2 If thou refuse to let them go, and wylt holde them styll, 3 Beholde, the hande of the Lorde is vpon thy flocke which is in the feelde, (for) vpon horses, vpon asses, vpon camelles, vpon oxen, and vpon sheepe, there shalbe a myghtie great murrayne. 4 And the Lorde shall do wonderfully betweene the beastes of Israel and the beastes of Egypt, so that there shall nothyng dye of all that pertayneth to the chyldren of Israel. 5 And the Lorde appoynted a tyme, saying, To morowe the Lorde shall fynishe this worde in the lande. 6 And the Lorde did that thing on the morowe, and (a) all the cattell of Egypt dyed: but of the cattell of the chyldren of Israel dyed not one.

7 And Pharao sent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: And the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not let the people go. 8 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses and Aaron, Take your handes full of asshes out of the furnace, and Moyses shall spynkle it vp into the ayre in the sight of Pharao: 9 And it shalbe dust in all the lande of Egypt, and shalbe swellyng sores with blaynes both on man and beast throughout all the lande of Egypt. 10 And they tooke asshes out of the furnace, and stoode before Pharao, and Moyses sprinckled it vp into the ayre: and there were swellyng sores with blaynes, both in men and in beastes: 11 And (b) the sorcerers coulde not stande before Moyses because of the blaynes: for there were botches vpon the enchaunters, and vpon all the Egyptians. 12 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had sayde vnto Moyses.

13 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Ryse vp early in the morning, and stande before Pharao, and thou shalt tell hym, Thus sayth the Lorde God of the Hebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me: 14 Or els I will at this tyme sende all my plagues vpon (c) thyne heart, and vpon thy seruauntes, and on thy people: that thou mayest knowe that there is none lyke me in all the earth. 15 For nowe I wyll stretche out my hande, that I may smyte thee and thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt perysshe from the earth.

16 And in very deede (d) for this cause haue I "kept thee, for to shewe thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the worlde. 17 Yet exaltest thou thy selfe against my people, that thou wilt not let them go? 18 Beholde, to morowe this time I will sende downe a mightie great hayle, suche a one as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was layde, vnto this tyme. 19 Send therfore now, & (e) gather thy beastes, and all that thou hast in the feelde: For vpon all the men and the beastes whiche are founde in the feelde, and not brought home, shall the hayle fall, and they shall dye. 20 And as many as feared the worde of the Lorde amongest the seruauntes of Pharao, made theyr seruauntes and theyr beastes flee into the houses. 21 But he that regarded not the word of the Lorde, left his seruauntes and

16 Pharao confesseth his sinne.
28 Pharao forbiddeth Moyses to come any more in his presence.

AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Go in to Pharao: for I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruauntes, that I might shewe these my signes before hym, 2 And that thou tell (a) in the audience of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne what thynges I haue done in Egypt, and the miracles which I haue done amongest them: that ye maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

(a) Gods miracles be so great, that they ought to be spoken of for euer, and the duetie of parentes is to declare the same to their children.

3 And so Moyses and Aaron came in to Pharao, & said vnto him, Thus sayth the lord God of the Hebrewes: Howe long wilt thou (b) refuse to submit thy selfe vnto me? Let my people go, that they may serue me. 4 Or els if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe wyll I bryng grashoppers into thy coastes: 5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that it can not be seene: and they shall eate the residue which remayneth vnto you and is escaped from the hayle, and they shall eate euery greene tree that beareth you fruite in the feelde.

19 And the Lorde turned a myghtie ſtrong weſt wynde, and it tooke away the graſſhoppers, and caſt them into the red ſea: ſo that there was not one graſſhopper in all the coaſtes of Egypt. 20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, ſo that he woulde not let the chyldren of Iſrael go. 21 And the lord ſaid vnto Moyſes, Stretche out thy hande vnto heauen, that there may be vpon the land of Egypt darkneſſe which may be felt. 22 And Moyſes ſtretched fourth his hand vnto heauen: and there was a "thicke darkneſſe vpon all the lande of Egypt three dayes. 23 No man ſawe another, neither roſe vp from the place where he was by the ſpace of three dayes: But all the chyldren of Iſrael had light where they dwelled. 24 And Pharao called for Moyſes and ſayde, Go, and ſerue the Lorde: onlye let your ſheepe and your oxen abyde, and let your chyldren go with you.

14 And this day shalbe vnto you a remembraunce: and you shall kepe it an holy feast vnto the Lorde throughout your generations, ye shall kepe it holy for an ordinaunce for (d) euer. 15 Seuen dayes shall ye eate vnleauened bread, so that the first day ye put away leauen out of your houses: For who so euer eateth leauened bread from the first day vntyll the seuenth day, that soule shalbe rooted out of Israel. 16 The first day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, and the seuenth day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you: there shalbe no maner of worke done in them, saue about that only which euery man must eate, that only may ye do. 17 And ye shall obserue the feast of vnleauened bread: for this same day haue I brought your armies out of the lande of Egypt, therfore ye shall obserue this day, and all your children after you, by an euerlastyng decree. 18 The first moneth, and the fourteenth day of the moneth, (e) at euen ye shall eate vnleauened bread, vnto the one and twentie day of the same moneth at euen agayne.

(d) Euer, is not here taken for a tyme without end, but for a long season indefinite. as in Gen. 13. d.

(e) The Iewes counted the begynnyng of the day at sunne set, tyl the next day at the same tyme.

19 Seuen dayes shall there be no leauened bread found in your houses: and who so euer eateth leauened bread, that soule shalbe rooted out from the congregation of Israel, whether he be straunger or borne in the lande. 20 (f) Ye shall eate no leauened bread: but in all your habitations shal ye eate vnleauened bread.

(f) By leauen is meant corruption, either of life or doctrine.

21 Then Moyses called for all the elders of Israel, and sayd vnto them, Choose out, and take you to euery housholde of you a lambe, and kill the Passouer. 22 And take a bunche of hysope, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the vpper post of the doore and the two side postes with the blood that is in the bason: and none of you go out at the doore of his house vntyll the morowe.

23 For the Lorde wyll passe ouer to smyte the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the vpper doore post and the two side postes, he wyll passe ouer the doore, & wyll not suffer (g) the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you. 24 Therfore shall ye obserue this thyng for an ordinaunce to thee & to thy sonnes for euer. 25 And when ye be come to the lande which the Lorde wyll gene you, accordyng as he hath promised, ye shal kepe this seruice. 26 And when your children aske you, What maner of seruice is this that ye do? 27 Ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lordes passouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, and he smote the Egyptians, and saued our houses. And the people bowed them selues, and worshipped.

(g) The angell sent of God to destroy the first borne.

28 And the children of Israel went and did as the Lord had commaunded Moyses & Aaron, so did they. 29 And at midnight the Lorde smote the first borne in the lande of Egypt from the first borne of Pharao that sate on his seate, vntyll the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of cattel. 30 And Pharao rose in the night, he & his seruauntes, and all the Egyptians, and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead. 31 And he called vnto Moyses and Aaron by night, saying, Ryse vp, and get you out from amongest my people, both you and also the children of Israel: and go, and serue the Lorde as ye haue sayde. 32 And take your sheepe and your droues with you as ye haue sayde: and depart, and blesse me. 33 And the Egyptians forced the people, that they might sende them out of the lande in haste: for they said, We be all (but) dead men. 34 And the people toke their dowgh before it was sowred, which they had in store, beyng bounde in clothes vpon their shoulders. 35 And the children of Israel did accordyng to the saying of Moyses: and they borowed of the Egyptians iewels of syluer, & iewels of golde, and rayment. 36 And the Lorde gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they "graunted such thinges as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.

37 And the children of Israel toke their iourney from Rameses to Succhoth, (h) sixe hundred thousande men of foote, beside children. 38 And a great multitude of sundrye other nations went also with them, and sheepe and oxen, and exceedyng much cattell. 39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dowgh which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not sowred: For they were thrust out of Egypt, & could not tary, neither had they prepared for them selues any prouision of meate.

40 The dwellyng of the children of Israel which they dwelled in Egypt, was (i) foure hundred & thirtie yeres. 41 And when the foure hundred and thirtie yeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed al the hoastes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

(i) From Abrahams departing from Vr in Chaldea, vnto the departing of the children of Israel out of Egypt were 430. yeres.

42 It is a night to be obserued vnto the Lorde, in the which he brought them out of the lande of Egypt: This is that night of the Lorde, which all the children of Israel must kepe throwout their generations. 43 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses and Aaron, This is the lawe of passouer; there shall no straunger eate thereof. 44 But euery seruaunt that is bought for money, after that thou hast circumcised him, shall eate thereof.

45 A straunger and an hired seruaunt shal not eate therof. 46 In one house shal it be eaten, thou shalt carry none of the flesshe out of the house, neither shal ye breake a bone therof. 47 All the congregation of Israel shall obserue it. 48 If a straunger also dwell among you, and wyll holde passouer vnto the Lorde, let him circumcise all that be males, & then let him come and obserue it, & he shalbe as one that is borne in the lande: for no vncircumcised person shall eate thereof.

49 One maner of lawe shalbe vnto him that is borne in the lande, & vnto the straunger that dwelleth among you. 50 And all the children of Israel did as the Lorde cõmaunded Moyses and Aaron, so did they. 51 And the selfe same day did the Lorde bring the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt with their armies.

¶ The .xiii Chapter.

1 The first borne are sanctified vnto the Lord. 3 Children must be taught howe their fathers were deliuered out of Egypt.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moyses saying, (a) Sanctifie vnto me all the first borne, whatsoeuer openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, aswell of man as of beast, beast: for it is myne. 3 And Moyses sayd vnto the people, Remember this day in which ye came out of Egypt out of the house of "bondage: for through a mightie hande the Lorde brought you from thence: there shall no leauened bread be eaten. 4 This day came ye out, in the month (b) Abid. 5 When the Lord hath brought thee into the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites, & Iebusites, which he sware vnto thy fathers that he would geue thee, a lande wherin mylke & hony floweth: thou shalt kepe this seruice in this same month. 6 Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the seuenth day is the feast of the Lorde. 7 Vnleauened bread shalbe eaten seuen dayes, & there shall no leauened bread be seene with thee, nor yet leauen be seene with thee in al thy quarters. 8 (c) And thou shalt shewe thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lorde did vnto me when I came out of Egypt. 9 (d) And it shalbe as a signe vnto thee vpon thine hande, and as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lordes lawe may be in thy mouth: for in a strong hande the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt. 10 Kepe therfore this ordinaunce in his season from yere to yere. 11 And when the Lorde shall bring thee into the lande of the Chanaanites, which he sware vnto thee & to thy fathers, and shall geue it thee: 12 Then thou shalt appoynt vnto the Lorde all that openeth the matrice, and euery first borne that commeth of a beast which thou hast, yf it be a male, it shalbe the Lordes. 13 And euery first borne of an asse thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: yf thou redeeme him not, thou shalt breake his necke: All the first borne of man amongst thy children also shalt thou (e) bye out. 14 And when thy sonne aske thee in tyme to "come, saying, What is this? Thou shalt say vnto him, With a mightie hande the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 15 And when Pharao was very loth to let vs go, the Lorde slue all the first borne in the lande of Egypt, aswel the first borne of man, as the first borne of beast: Therfore I sacrifice vnto the Lorde all the males that open the matrice: but all the first borne of my children I redeeme. 16 This shalbe as a token vpon thyne hande, and as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt through a mightie hande. 17 It came to passe that when Pharao had let the people go, God caryed them not through the way of the lande of the Philistines, which was the more nygh way: But God sayd, Lest peraduenture the people (f) repent when they see warre, and so turne agayne to Egypt, 18 But God led the people about through the way of the wildernesse of the red sea, and the children of Israel went vp "harnessed out of the lande of Egypt. 19 And Moyses toke the bones of Joseph with him: for he made the children of Israel sweare, saying, God will surely visite you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you. 20 And they toke their iourney from Suchoth, & abode in Etham in the edge of the wildernesse. 21 And the Lorde went before them by day in a pyller of a cloude to leade them the way, and by night in a pyller of fire to geue them light, that they might go both by day and night. 22 (g) The pyller of the cloude departed not by day, nor the pyller of fire by night, out of the sight of the people.

4 Pharaos heart is hardened, 8 and he pursueth the Israelites.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they turne and pitche their tentes before Pi-hahiroth betweene Migdol & the sea, ouer agaynst Baal-sephon: and before that shal they pitche by the sea. 3 For Pharao will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land, the wildernesse hath shut them in. 4 And I will hearden Pharaos heart, that he shall folowe after you, and I will get me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon all his hoast: The Egyptians also shall knowe that I am the Lord. And they dyd so. 5 And it was tolde the kyng of Egypt that the people fledde: And the heart of Pharao and of his seruauntes turned agaynst the people, and they sayde, Why haue we done this, that we haue let Israel go out of our service? 6 And he made redy his charret, and toke his people with him. 7 And toke sixe hundred chosen charretes, rettes, and all the charrets of Egypt, and captaynes vpon euery one of them. 8 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and he folowed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an hie hande: 9 And the Egyptians folowed after them, and all the horses and charrettes of Pharao, and his horsemen, and his hoast ouertoke them pitchyng of their tent by the sea beside Pi-hahiroth before Baal-sephon. 10 And when Pharao drue nygh, the children of Israel lyft by their eyes, and beholde, the Egyptians folowed after them, and they were sore afrayde: and the children of Israel cryed out vnto the Lorde.

11 But they sayde vnto Moyses, (a) Because there were no graues in Egypt, hast thou therfore brought vs away for to dye in the wilderneſſe? Wherfore hast thou serued vs thus, for to cary vs out of Egypt? 12 Dyd not we tel thee this in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that we may serue the Egyptians? For it had ben better for vs to haue serued the Egyptians, then for to dye in the wilderneſſe.

13 (b) And Moyses sayde vnto the people, Feare ye not, stande styll, and beholde the saluation of the Lorde which he wyll shewe to you this day: For ye that haue seene the Egyptians this day, shall see them no more for euer. 14 (c) The Lorde shall fight for you, and ye shall holde your peace.

15 And the Lord sayd vnto Moyses, Wherefore (d) cryest thou vnto me, speake vnto the children of Israel that they go forwarde: 16 But lyft thou vp thy rod, and stretche out thy hande ouer the sea, and diuide it a sunder, and let the children of Israel go on drye grounde through the middes of the sea. 17 And beholde I (euen) I wyll harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they shall folowe after them: and I wyll get me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon all his hoast, and vpon his charrettes, and vpon his horsemen. 18 (e) And the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharao, vpon his charrettes, and vpon his horsemen. 19 And the angell of God which went before the hoast of Israel, remoued and went behynde them: and the pyller of the cloude went from before their face, and stoode behynde them, 20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Israel, & it was a cloude & darkneſſe, and gaue light by night: and all the night long the one came not at the other. 21 And Moyses stretched out his hande ouer the sea, & the Lord caused the sea to go backe by a very strong east wynde all that night, & made the sea drye (lande) and the waters were diuided. 22 And the children of Israel went into the middes of the sea vpon the drye (grounde,) and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hande and on their left hand. 23 And the Egyptians folowed, & went in after them (f) to the middes of the sea, euen all Pharaos horses, his charrettes, and his horsemen. 24 And in the mornyng watche, the Lord loked vnto the hoast of the Egyptians out of the pyller of the fire & of the cloude, and troubled the hoast of the Egyptians. 25 And toke of his charret wheeles, & caryed them away violently: So that the Egyptians sayde, (g) Let vs flee from the face of Israel: for the Lorde fighteth for them agaynst the Egyptians. 26 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Stretche out thyne hande ouer the sea, that the waters may come againe vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charrettes, and vpon their horsemen. 27 And Moyses stretched forth his hande ouer the sea, and it came againe to his course early in the mornyng, & the Egyptians fled agaynst it: and the Lorde ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middes of the sea.

28 And the water returned, & couered the charrettes, and the horsemen, and all the hoast of Pharao that came into the sea after them, so that there remayned not one of them. 29 But the children of Israel walked vpon drye (lande) through the middes of the sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hande of them, and on the left. 30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Israel the selfe same day out of the hande of the Egyptians: and Israel sawe the Egyptians dead vpon the sea side. 31 (h) And Israel sawe that "mightie power which the Lorde shewed vpon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lorde, and beleued the Lorde and his seruaunt Moyses.

The .xv. Chapter.

1 Moyses with the men and women syng prayses vntogod for their deliuerance.

THen Moyses and the chyldren of Israel sang this song vnto the Lorde, and sayde on this maner: I wyll syng vnto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, the horse and hym that rode vpon hym hath he ouerthrowen in the sea. 2 The Lorde is my strength and prayse, and he is become my saluation: he is my God, and I wyll glorifie hym, my fathers God, and I wyll exalt hym. 3 The Lorde is a man of warre, the Lord is his name. 4 Pharaos charets and his hoast hath he cast into the sea, his chosen captaynes also are drowned in the red sea. 5 The deepe waters hath couered them, they sunke to the bottome as a stone. 6 Thy ryght hande Lorde is become glorious in power, thy ryght hande Lorde hath all to dasshed the enemie. 7 And in thy great glorie thou hast ouerthrowen them that rose vp agaynst thee: thou sendest foorth thy wrath, whiche consumed them as stubble. 8 Through the blast of thy nosethrils the waters gathered together, the fluddes stoode styl as an heape, and the deepe water congeled together in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemie sayde, I wyll folowe (on them) I wyll ouertake (them) I wyl diuide the spoyle, and my lust shalbe satisfied vpon them: I wyl drawe my swoorde, myne hande shall destroye them. 10 Thou dyddest blowe with thy wynde, the sea couered them, they sanke as leade in the mightie waters. 11 Who is lyke vnto thee O Lorde amongst the gods? Who is lyke thee, so glorious in holynes, fearefull in prayses, dewyng wonders? 12 Thou stretchedst out thy ryght hande, the earth swalowed them. 13 Thou in thy mercie hast caryed this people which thou hast redeemed, and hast brought them in thy strength vnto thy holy habitation. 14 (a) The nations shall heare, and be afrayde, sorow shal come vpon Palestina. 15 Then the dukes of the Edomites shall be amazed, and the mightiest of the Moabites: trembling shall come vpon them, all the inhabiters of Chanaan shall waxe faynt hearted. 16 Feare and dreade shall fall vpon them, in the greatnes of thyne arme they shalbe as styll as a stone, tyll thy people passe through, O Lorde, whyle this people passe through which thou hast gotten. 17 Thou shalt bryng them in, and plant them in the (b) mountayne of thyne inheritaunce, the place Lorde which thou hast made for to dwell in: the sanctuarie, O Lorde, whiche thy handes haue prepared. 18 The Lord shall raigne for euer and euer. 19 For Pharao on horsebacke went in with his charettes and horsemen into the sea, and the Lorde brought the waters of the sea vpon them: But the chyldren of Israel went on drye (lande) in the middest of the sea. 20 And Marie a prophetisse, the sister of Aaron, toke a trymbzell in her hande, and all the women came out after her with (c) trymbzelles and daunces. 21 And Marie sang before them, Sing ye vnto the Lorde, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his ryder hath he ouerthrowen in the sea.

22 And so Moyses brought Israel from the redde sea, and they went out into the wyldernes of Sur: and they went three dayes in the wildernesse, and founde no waters. 23 And when they came to Marah, they coulde not drynke of the waters of (d) Marah, for they were bitter: therfore the name of the place was called Marah. 25 (e) And the people murmured agaynst Moyses, saying, What shall we drynke? 25 And he cryed vnto the Lorde: and the Lorde "shewed hym a tree, whiche when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweete: There he made them an ordinaunce and a lawe, and there he proued hym, 26 And sayde, If thou wylt heathen vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, and wylt do that whiche is ryght in his syght, and wylt geue eare vnto his commaundements and keepe all his ordinaunces: then wyll I put none of these diseases vpon thee whiche I haue brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lorde that healeth thee. 27 And the chyldren of Israel came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and threescore and ten palme trees: and they pitched their tentes there by the waters.

The .xvi. Chapter.

A

AND they toke their iourney from Elim, and all the congregation of the chyldren of Israel came to the wyldernes of Sin, which is betweene Elim and Sinai, the fifteenth day of the seconde moneth after their departyng out of the lande of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the chyldren of Israel murmured agaynst Moyses and Aaron in the wildernes.

3 And the chyldren of Israel sayd vnto them, Would to God we had dyed by the hande of the Lorde in the lande of Egypt, when we sate (a) by the fleshe potres, and whan we dyd eate bread our bellyes full: for ye haue brought vs out into this wyldernes, to kill this whole multitude with hunger.

(a) So harde a thing it is to the fleshe, not to murmure agaynst God, when the belly is punished.

4 Then sayde the Lorde vnto Moyses, Beholde, I wyll rayne bread from heauen to you: and the people shall go out, and gather a certayne rate euery day, that I may proone them whether they wyll walke in my lawe or no.

5 The fyft day they shall prepare for them selues that which they wil bring in, and let it be twyse as much as they gather in dayly. 6 And Moyses and Aaron sayd vnto all the chyldren of Israel, At euen ye shall knowe that it is the Lorde whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt. 7 And in the morning ye shall see the glorie of the Lorde, because he hath (b) hearde your grudgynges agaynst the Lorde: And what are we, that ye haue murmured agaynst vs? 8 And Moyses sayde, At euen shall the Lorde geue you flesh to eate, and in the morning bread inough: for the Lord hath heard your murmurynges whiche ye murmure agaynst hym: for what are we? your murmuryngs are not agaynst vs, but agaynst the Lorde. 9 And Moyses spake vnto Aaron, Say vnto all the congregation of the chyldren of Israel, Come forth before the Lord: for he hath hearde your grudgynges.

(b) He gaue them not Manna because they murmured, but for his promise sake

10 And as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they loked towarde the wildernesse, and beholde the glorye of the Lorde appeared in the cloude.

11 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 12 I haue hearde the murmurynges of the chyldren of Israel, tel them therefore and say, At euen ye shall eate flesh, and in the morning ye shalbe filled with bread: (c) and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde your God. 13 And at euen the quailes came vp and couered the tentes: and in the morning the deawe lay rounde about the hoast. 14 And when the deawe was gone, beholde, vpon the grounde in the wyldernesse there lay a small rounde thing, as small as the hoare frost on the ground.

(c) God weyeth all that he doth for this end, that the knowledge of him may sticke deepelier in our mynde.

15 And when the chyldren of Israel sawe it, they sayde euery one to his neighbour, it is "Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moyses sayde vnto them, This is the bread whiche the Lorde hath geuen you to eate. 16 This is the worde which the Lorde had commaunded: (d) gather of it euery man for hym selfe for to eate, a gomer full for euery man, accordyng to the number of your soules, and take euery man for them whiche are in his tentes. 17 And the chyldren of Israel dyd so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

(d) Hauing receaued gyftes at gods hande, we haue neede of lawes for the due vse of the same, lest we abuse them to our destruction.

18 And when they dyd meate it with a gomer, vnto hym that gathered much, remayned nothyng ouer, and vnto hym that had gathered litle was there no lacke: euery man gathered sufficient for his eatyng. 19 And Moyses sayde vnto them, (e) See that no man let ought remayne to the morning. 20 Notwithstandyng, they hearkened not vnto Moyses: but some of them left of it vntyll the morning, and it waxed (f) full of wormes, and corrupted: and Moyses was angry with them. 21 And they gathered al morninges euery man as much as sufficed for his eatyng: and assoone as the heate of the sunne came, it mouit. 22 And the fyft day they gathered twyse as much bread, two gomers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and tolde Moyses. 23 He sayde vnto them, This is that whiche the Lorde hath sayde, To morowe is the rest of the holye Sabbath vnto the Lorde, bake that which you wyl bake to day, and seethe that ye wyll seethe, & that which remayneth lay vp vntil the morning. 24 And they layed it vp tyll the morning as Moyses bad: and it dyd not corrupt, neither bred there any worme therein. 25 And Moyses sayde, Eate that to day, for it is the Sabbath

30 And the people rested the seuenth day. 31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was lyke (g) coriander seede, and whyte: and the taste of it was lyke wafers made with honye. 32 And Moyses sayde, This is that whiche the Lorde commaundeth. Fyll a gomer of it, whiche may be kept for your chyldren after you, that they may see the bread wherwith I haue fed you in the wylderne, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt. 33 And Moyses spake vnto Aaron. Take a pot, & put a gomer full of Manna therin, and lay it vp before the Lorde, to be kept for your children after you. 34 As the Lord commaunded Moyses, so Aaron layde it vp before the testimonie to be kept. 35 And the chyldren of Israel dyd eate Manna fourtie yeres, vntyll they came to a lande inhabited, and so they dyd eate Manna, vntyll they came vnto the borders of the lande of Chanaan.

The .xvii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites come into Raphidim. 11 Moyses holdeth vp his handes in prayer, & the Amalekites are ouercome.

AND all the congregation of the chyldren of Israel went on their tourneys from the wylderneſſe of Sin after the commaundement of the Lorde, and pitched (a) in Raphidim, there was no water for the people to drinke. 2 And the people dyd chyde with Moyses and sayde, Geue vs water to drinke. Moyses sayd vnto them, Why chyde you with me? Wherefore do ye tempt the Lorde? 3 There the people thirsted for water, and the people murmured agaynst Moyses, and sayd, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kyll vs and our chyldren, & our cattell with thyrst?

4 And Moyses cryed vnto the lorde, saying, What shal I do vnto this people, they be almost redy to stone me? 5 And the Lord sayde vnto Moyses, Go before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rodde wherewith thou smotest the riuer take it in thyne hande, and go.

6 Beholde, I wyl stande before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, and thou shalt smyte the rocke, and there shall come water out thereof, that the people may drinke. And Moyses dyd so before the eyes of the elders of Israel. 7 And he called the name of the place (b) Massah and Meribah, because of the chyding of the chyldren of Israel, and because they tempted the Lord, saying, Is the lord amongst vs, or not? 8 Then came Amelec and fought with Israel in Raphidim.

9 And Moyses said vnto "Iosua: Choose vs out men, & go fight with Amelec: and to morowe I wyll stande on the toppe of the hill and the rodde of god shalbe in my hande. 10 Iosua dyd as Moyses bad hym, and fought with Amelec: and Moyses & Aaron, and Hur went vp to the toppe of the hyll. 11 And it came to passe, that when Moyses helde vp his hande, (c) Israel had the better: and when he let his hande downe, Amelec had the better. 12 But Moyses handes were heauy, & therefore they toke a stone & put it vnder hym, and he sate downe thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his handes, the one on the one syde, and the other on the other syde: And his handes remayned stedy vntyll the goyng downe of the sunne. 13 And Iosua discomfyted Amelec and his people with the edge of the swoorde. 14 And the Lord said vnto Moyses, Write (d) this for a remembraunce in a booke, and commit it into the eares of Iosua: for I wyll vtterly put out the remembraunce of (e) Amelec from vnder heauen.

15 And Moyses made an aulter, and called the name of it, "The Lorde is he that worketh miracles for me.

16 For he sayde, The () hande is on the seate of God, the Lord wyll haue warre with Amelec from generation to generation.

The .xviii. Chapter.

IEthro the priest of Madian Moyses father in lawe heard of all that God had done for Moyses, and for Israel his people, and that the Lorde had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Therefore he toke Sephora Moyses wyfe, after he had (a) sent her backe, 3 And her two sonnes, of which the one was called Gerchom: for he sayd, I haue ben an aliaunt in a straunge land: 4 The name of the other was Eliezer: for the god of my father (sayd he) was myne helpe, & deliuered me from the swoorde of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moyses father in law, came with his two sonnes, and his wyfe, vnto Moyses into the wildernesse, where he abode by the (b) mount of God. 6 And (c) he sayde vnto Moyses, I thy father in lawe Iethro am come to thee, and thy wyfe also, and her two sonnes with her.

7 And Moyses went out to meete his father in lawe, and dyd obeysance, and kyssed hym: and eche asked other of his " health, and they came into the tent. 8 And Moyses tolde his father in lawe all that the Lorde had done vnto Pharao and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trauayle that had " come vpon them by the way, and howe the Lorde deliuered them. 9 And Iethro reioyced ouer all the goodnes whiche the Lorde had done to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of the handes of the Egyptians. 10 And Iethro said, (d) Blessed be the Lorde whiche hath deliuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hande of Pharao, whiche hath also deliuered his people from the hande of the Egyptians. 11 Nowe I knowe that the Lorde is greater then all gods: for in the thyng whereby they dealt proudely with them, (e) (were they destroyed them selues). 12 And Iethro Moyses father in lawe toke whole burnt offringes and sacrifices, to offer to God: and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eate bread with Moyses father in lawe before God.

13 And on the morowe Moyses sate to iudge the people: and the people stoode about Moyses from morowyng vnto euen. 14 And when Moyses father in law sawe all that he dyd vnto the people, he sayde, What is this that thou doest vnto the people? Why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stande about thee from morowyng vnto euen? 15 And Moyses sayde to his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto me to seeke (counsell) of God. 16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man and his neyghbour, and shewe them the ordinaunces of God and his lawes.

17 And Moyses father in lawe said vnto hym, It is not (f) well that thou doest. 18 Thou both weeryest thy selfe, and this people that is with thee: For this thing is of more waight then thou art able to perfourme thy selfe alone. 19 Heare therefore nowe my voyce, and I will geue thee counsell, and God shalbe with thee: Be thou vnto the people (g) to godward, that thou maist bryng the causes vnto God: 20 And thou shalt teache them ordinaunces and lawes, & shewe them the way wherein they must walke, and the worke that they must do. 21 Moreouer, thou shalt seeke out among all the people men of courage (and) such as feare God, true men hating couetousnes, and place (of these) ouer the (people) rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundredes, rulers of fyfties, and rulers of tennes, 22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: and euery great matter that commeth, let them bryng vnto thee, but let them iudge all small causes themselues: and so shall it be easier for thy selfe, and they shall beare a (burthen) with thee. 23 If thou shalt do this thyng, & god charge thee withal, thou shalt be able to endure, & yet the people shall come to their place in peace. 24 (h) And so Moyses obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, & dyd all that he had sayde. 25 And Moyses chose men of courage out of al Israel, and made them as heades ouer the people, rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fyfties, and rulers of tennes, 26 And they iudged the people at all seasons: but brought the harde causes vnto Moyses, and iudged al small matters them selues. 27 And Moyses (i) let his father in lawe depart: and he went into his owne lande.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 The people are commaunded to be sanctified.

IN the thirde moneth when the children of Israel were gone out of the lande of Egypt, the same day came they into the wyldernesse of Sinai.

2 For

2 For they were departed from Raphidim, and were come to the desart of Sinai, and had pitched their tentes in the wyldernes, and there Israel camped before the mount. 3 But Moyses went vp vnto God, and the Lorde called vnto hym out of the mountayne, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel, 4 Ye haue seene what I dyd vnto the Egyptians, and toke you vp vpon (a) Eagles wynges, and haue brought you vnto my selfe. 5 Nowe therfore if ye will heare my voyce in deede, and kepe my couenaunt, ye shalbe (as) a deare" treasure vnto me aboue all nations: for all the earth is myne. 6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a priestly kyngdome, and an holy people. And these are the wordes which thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel, 7 Moyses came and called for the elders of the people, and layde before their faces all these wordes whyche the Lorde commaunded hym. 8 And the people aunswered altogether, and sayde, All that the Lorde hath sayde, we wyll do. And Moyses brought the wordes of the people vnto the Lorde. 9 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare me talking with thee, and beleue thee for euer. Moyses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the Lorde. 10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Go vnto the people, and (b) sanctifie them to day and to morowe, and let them washe their clothes. 11 And be redy agaynst the thirde day: for the thirde day " the Lorde wyl come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai.

12 (c) And thou shalt set boundes vnto the people rounde about, and say, Take heede to your selues that ye go not vp into the mount, or touche the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the mount, shall surely dye. 13 There shall not an hande touche it, els be shalbe stoned, or shot through: whether it be beast, or man, it shall not lyue: when the " trumpet bloweth long, then may they come vp into the mountayne. 14 And Moyses went downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them, and they washed their clothes. 15 And he said vnto the people, Be redye agaynst the thirde day, & come not at (your) wiues.

16 And the thirde day in the morning there was thunder and lyghtning, and a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the voyce of the trumpet exceedynge loude, so that all the people that was in the hoast was afrayde. 17 And Moyses brought the people out of the tentes to meete with God, and they stoode at the neather part of the hyll.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lorde descended downe vpon it in fyre, and the smoke thereof ascended vp as the smoke of a furnace, and all the mount (d) quaked exceedyngly. 19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blewe long, & waxed lowder and lowder, Moyses spake, and God aunswered hym by a voyce. 20 And the Lord came downe vpon mount Sinai in the top of the hyll: and when the Lorde called Moyses vp into the top of the hyll, Moyses went vp. 21 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Go downe, charge the people, lest they breake out from their boundes to see the Lord, and so many of them perish. 22 And let the priests also which come to the Lorde sanctifie them selues, lest the lord destroy them. 23 And Moyses said vnto the Lord, The people can not come vp into the mount Sinai, for thou chargest vs, saying, Set boundes about the hyll, and sanctifie it. 24 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Away, and gette thee downe, and thou shalt come vp, thou and Aaron with thee: but let not the (e) priestes and the people presume for to come vp vnto the Lorde, lest he destroy them. 25 And so Moyses went downe vnto the people, and told them.

24 An aulter of earth thou shalt make vnto me, and thereon offer thy whole burnt offeringes, and thy peace offeringes, thy sheepe, and thyne oxen: In all places where I shall put the remembraunce of my name, thyther I wyll come vnto thee, and blesse thee.

25 And yf thou wylt make me an aulter of stone, see thou make it not of hewen stone: els if thou lyft vp thy toole vpon it, thou hast polluted it.

AND take thou vnto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sonnes with him from among the children of Israel, that Aaron may minister vnto me in the priestes office, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aarons sonnes. 2 And thou shalt make holy rayment for Aaron thy brother, glorious and beautifull. 3 And thou shalt speake vnto all that are wise hearted, whom I haue filled with the spirite of wisdome, that they make Aarons rayment (a) to consecrate him, that he may minister vnto me in the priestes office. 4 These are the garmentes which they shall make, a brestlap & an ephod, a tunicle, a brodered coate, a mytre, and a girdle, these holy garmentes shal they make for Aaron thy brother & his sonnes, that they may minister vnto me in the priests office. 5 And let them take golde, blew silke, purple, scarlet, & whyte twined silke, 6 They shal make the ephod of gold, blewe silke purple, scarlet, and whyte twined silke, with brodered worke. 7 The two sides shal come together, & be closed vp in the two edges therof. 8 And the girdle of the ephod shalbe of the same workmanship, & of the same stuffe euen of golde blewe silke, purple, scarlet, & whyte twined silke. 9 And thou shalt take two Onyx stones, & graue in them the names of the childre of Israel. 10 Sixe names of them in one stone, and the other sixe in the other stone, accordyng to their birth. 11 After the worke of a stone grauer & of him that graueth signets shalt thou graue the two stones with the names of the children of Israel, & shalt make them to be set in ouches of golde. 12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the two shoulders of the ephod (that they may be) (b) stones of remembraunce vnto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembraunce. 13 And thou shalt make ouches of golde: 14 And two chaynes of fine gold of a certayne length linke worke and wreathed, and fasten the wreathed chaynes to the ouches. 15 And thou shalt make the (c) brestlap of iudgement with brodered worke: euen after the worke of the ephod thou shalt make it (namely) of golde blewe silke, purple, scarlet, & whyte twined silke. 16 Foure square it shalbe & double: an hande breadth long, and an hande breadth brode. 17 And thou shalt fyl it with foure rowes of stones: in the first rowe shalbe a Sardius, a Topas, & Smaragdus, 18 In the second rowe, a Rubi, Saphir & Diamonde. 19 In the thirde, a Lyncurius, an Achat, & an Amethyst. 20 In the fourth, a Turcas, an Onyx, & a Jaspis: & they shalbe set in golde in their inclosers. 21 And the stones shalbe grauen as signets be grauen with the names of the children of Israel, with twelue names, euery one with his name accordyng to the twelue tribes. 22 And thou shalt make vpon the brestlap two fastenyng chaynes of pure golde and wreathen worke. 23 And thou shalt make likewise vpon the brestlap two ringes of golde, and put them on the edges of the brestlap. 24 And put the two wreathen chaynes of golde in the two ringes which are in the edges of the brestlap. 25 And the other two endes of the chaines thou shalt fasten in the two close ouches, and put them vpon the shoulders of the ephod on the foreside of it. 26 And thou shalt yet make two ringes of golde, which thou shalt put in the two edges of the brestlap (euen) in the borders therof, towarde the inside of the ephod ouer agaynst it. 27 And yet two (other) ringes of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the ephod beneath ouer agaynst the brestlap, alowe where the sides are ioyned together vpon the brodered girdle of the ephod. 28 And they shall bynde the brestlap by his ringes, vnto the ringes of the ephod with a lase of blew silke, that it may lye close aboue the brodered girdle of the ephod, and that the brestlap be not loosed from the ephod. 29 And Aaron shall (d) beare the names of the children of Israel in the brestlap of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembraunce before the Lord alway. 30 And thou shalt put in the brestlap of iudgement (e) the Urim and the Thummim, and they shalbe (euen) vppon Aarons heart when he goeth in before the Lorde: and Aaron shall beare

(a) Which is, to seperate him from the rest.

(b) That Aaron might remember the Israelites to godwarde.

(c) It was so called because the hie priests could not geue sentence in iudgement without that on his brest,

(d) Aaron shall not enter into the holye place in his owne name, but in the name of all the children of Israel.

(e) Urim and Thummim signifie light and perfectnesse, out of the which it pleased god to geue aunsweres, oracles, and iudgement: but what they were, it doth not wel appeare vnto any writer. They were placed in the pr[illegible] brest to admonish him that he ought to Thine and to be perfect in conuersation of life.

the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lorde alway. 31 And thou shalt make the tunicle vnto the Ephod altogether of blewe silke. 32 And there shalbe an hole for the head in the middest of it, hauyng a bonde of wouen worke rounde about the coller of it, as it were the coller of a partlet, that it rent not. 33 And beneath vpon the hemme, thou shalt make pomgranates of blewe silke, and of purple, and of scarlet, rounde about the hemme, and belles of golde betweene them rounde about. 34 And let there be euer a golden bell and a pomgranate: a golden bell and pomgranate rounde about vpon the hemme of the tunicle. 35 And Aaron shall haue it vpon him when he ministreth, and the sounde shalbe heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out: and he shall not (b) dye. 36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue theron as signettes are grauen, The holinesse of the Lorde. 37 And put it on a blewe silke lase to be vpon the mytre, euen vpon the forefront of it. 38 And it shalbe vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may (c) beare the sinne of the holy thinges which the children of Israel halowe in al their holy giftes: and it shalbe alwayes vpon his forehead, for the reconcilyng of them before the Lorde. 39 And thou shalt make a coate of whyte silke, embrodered with knottes, and thou shalt make a mytre of whyte silke, and a girdle of needle worke. 40 And thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes also coates, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonettes shalt thou make for them, glorious and beautifull.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him: and shalt annoynt them, (d) and fyll their handes, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto me in the priestes office. 42 And thou shalt make them linnen sloppes to couer their priuities: from the loynes vnto the thighes they shall reache.

43 And they shalbe vpon Aaron and his sonnes when they come into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come vnto the aulter to minister in holinesse: (e) that they beare not sinne, and there dye. And it shalbe a lawe for euer vnto Aaron and his seede after him.

(b) As who should say, he shoulde dye, yf he ministred not so apparelled as god hath here appointed.

(c) All the sinnes that might be committed in their offeringes, shall be pardoned through the chiefe priest which represented Iesus Christe.

(d) That is, consecrate them. For the ceremonie of consecrating priestes, was to put part of the sacrifices into the handes of them that shoulde be made priestes for to sacrifice and to offer.

(e) Lest yf they be otherwayes apparelled they sinne, and therfore be punished with death.

1 The maner of the consecratyng of priestes. 38 Of the two lambes of one yere olde dayly to be offered.

THis thyng also shalt thou do vnto them, when thou halowest them to be my priestes. Thou shalt take one young calfe, and two rammes that are without blemishe: 2 And vnleauened bread, and cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, and wafers vnleauened annoynted with oyle: of wheaten floure shalt thou make them. 3 And thou shalt put them in a maunde, and bryng them in the maunde with the calfe and the two rammes. 4 And bryng Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and washe them with water. 5 And take the garmentes, and put vpon Aaron, the coate, the tunicle of the Ephod, and the Ephod it selfe, and the brestlap, and girde them to him with the broidered girdle whiche is in the Ephod. 6 And put the mytre vpon his head: and put the holy crowne vpon the mytre. 7 Then shalt thou take the annoyntyng oyle, and powre it vpon his head, and annoynt him,

8 And bryng his sonnes, and put coates vpon them: 9 And girde them with girdles, aswell Aaron as his sonnes, & put the bonettes on them, and the priestes office shalbe theirs for a perpetuall lawe, and thou shalt fil the handes of Aaron, & the handes of his sonnes. 10 And thou shalt cause a calfe to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sonnes shall (a) put their handes vpon the head of the calfe. 11 And thou shalt kyll him before the Lorde, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 12 And take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter with thy fynger: and powre all (the rest) of the blood beside the bottome of the aulter. 13 And take all the fat that coureth the inwardes, and the kall (that is) on the liuer, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is vpon them, and burne them vpon the aulter. 14 But the fleshe of the calfe, and his skinne, & his doung, shalt thou burne with fire without the hoast: it is a sinne offeryng.

15 Thou shalt also take one Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their their handes vppon the head of the Ramme. 16 And when thou haſt ſlayne the Ramme, thou ſhalt take his blood, and ſprincle it rounde about vpon the aulter: 17 And cut the Ramme in peeces, and waſche the inwardes of hym, & his legges, and put them vnto the peeces, and vnto his head. 18 And then burne the whole Ramme vpon the aulter: (for) it is a whole burnt offering vnto the Lorde for a ſweete ſauour, a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde. 19 And take the other Ramme, and Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal put their handes vpon his head. 20 Then ſhalt thou kyll hym, & take of his blood and put it vppon the typ of the ryght eare of Aaron, & vppon the typ of the right eare of his ſonnes, and vppon the thombe of their ryght handes, & vpon the great toe of their right foote, & ſprincle the blood vpon the aulter rounde about. 21 And thou ſhalt take of the blood that is vpon the aulter, and of the anoyntyng oyle, and ſprincle it vpon Aaron and his veſtmentes, and vpon his ſonnes and vpon their garmentes with hym, and he ſhalbe halowed and his clothes, and his ſonnes and their clothes, with hym. 22 And thou ſhalt take the fat of the Ramme, and his rumpe, and the fat that coūereth the inwardes, and the kall of the lyuer, and the two kydneyes, and the fat that is vppon them, and the ryght ſhoulder, for that Ramme is a (b) full offering: 23 And a ſimnel of bread, and a cake of oyled bread, and a wafer out of the baſket of vnleauened bread that is before the Lorde. 24 And put all vpon the handes of Aaron, and on the handes of his ſonnes, and * waue them for a (c) waue offering before the Lorde. 25 And againe, thou ſhalt take it from of their handes, & burne it vpon the aulter for a whole burnt offering, to be a ſauour of ſweetnes before the lord: for it is a ſacrifice by fyre vnto the lord. 26 And thou ſhalt take the breſt of the Ramme of Aarons conſecration, & waue it for a waue offering before the lord and it ſhalbe thy part. 27 And thou ſhalt ſanctifie the breſt of the waue offering, & the ſhoulder of (d) the heaue offering, whiche is waued and heaued vp of the Ramme of the cōſecration for Aaron & for his ſonnes. 28 And it ſhalbe Aaron & his ſonnes by a ſtatute for (e) euer from the chyldren of Iſrael, for it is an heaue offering: and it ſhalbe an heaue offering from the chyldren of Iſrael of the ſacrifice of their peace offeringes euen their heaue offering (ſhall it be) vnto the Lorde. 29 And the holy garmentes of Aaron ſhalbe his ſonnes after hym, to be anoynted therin, & to * fyll their handes therin. 30 And that ſonne that is preſt in his ſtede after hym ſhal put them on ſeuen dayes, when he commeth into the tabernacle of the congregation to miniſter in the holy place. 31 And thou ſhalt take the Ramme of the conſecration, and ſeethe his fleſhe in the holy place. 32 And Aaron and his ſonnes ſhall eate the fleſhe of the Ramme & the bread that is in the baſket, by the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregatiō. 33 And they ſhall eate the, becauſe the attonement was made therewith, to fill their handes and to conſecrate them: but a ſtraunger ſhall not eate thereof, becauſe they are holy. 34 And yf ought of the fleſh of the conſecration or of the bread, remayne vnto the mornyng, thou ſhalt burnt it with fyre: and it ſhall not be eaten, becauſe it is holy. 35 Therfore ſhalt thou do vnto Aaron and his ſonnes, accordyng to all thynges whiche I haue commaunded thee: ſeuen dayes ſhalt thou fyll their handes. 36 And thou ſhalt offer euery day a calfe for a ſinne offeryng for (f) to reconſile withall: and thou ſhalt clenſe the aulter when thou haſt offered vpon it the ſacrifice of expiation, and thou ſhalt annoynt it, to ſanctifie it. 37 Seuen dayes thou ſhalt reconcile the aulter, and ſanctifie it, & it ſhalbe an aulter moſt holy: and whatſoeuer toucheth the aulter, ſhalbe holye. 38 This is that which thou ſhalt * offer vpon the aulter, two lammes of one yere olde day by day continually: 39 The one thou ſhalt offer in the mornyng and the other at euen. 40 And with the one lamme a tenth deale of flowre mingled with the fourth part of an (h) hin of beaten oyle: and the fourth part of an hin of wyne for a drynke offeryng. 41 And the other lamme thou ſhalt offer at euen: and ſhalt do therto accordyng to the meate offering and drinke offeryng in the mornyng, to be an odour of a ſweete ſauour, and a ſacrifice by fyre vnto the Lorde. 42 And let this be a continuall whole burnt offering

7 And Aaron shall burne thereon sweete incense euery morning when he dresseth the lampes, then shall he burne it. 8 And lykewyse at euen when he setteth vp the lampes he shal burne incense, and this incensing shall be perpetually before the lord throughout your generations. 9 Ye shall offer no (b) straunge incense theron, nor whole burnt sacrifice, nor meate offeryng, neither powre any drynke offeryng thereon. 10 And Aaron shall * reconsile vpon the hornes of it once in a yere, with the blood of the sinne offering of reconsilling, euen once in the yere shall he reconsile vpon it throughout your generations: it is most holy vnto the Lorde. 11 And the lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 12 If thou takest the summe of the children of Israel (c) after their number, they shall geue euery man * a reconsiling of his soule vnto the Lord when thou numbrest them, that there be no plague amongst them when thou numbrest them. 13 And thus muche shall euery man geue that goeth into the number: halfe a sicle after the sicle of the sanctuarie. A sickle is twentie * gerahs: an halfe sicle shalbe the heaue offering of the Lorde. 14 All that are numbred from twentie yeres olde and aboue, shall geue a heaue offering vnto the Lorde. 15 The riche shal not passe, & the poore shall not go vnder halfe a sicle, but ye shall geue an heaue offering vnto the Lord, that he may haue mercie on your soules.

(b) After any other sort then is here prescribed by gods worde.

* Make reconciliation.

16 And thou shalt take the reconciling money of the children of Israel, and shalt put it vnto the vse of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be a memoriall vnto the children of Israel before the Lord, that he may haue mercie vpon your soules.

17 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 18 Thou shalt make a lauer of brasse, and his foote also of brasse, to washe withall, and shalt put it betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and put water therein. 19 For Aaron and his sonnes shall (d) washe their handes and their feete therein. 20 When they gointo the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they go in to the aulter to minister and to burne the lordes offering, they shal washe themselues with water, lest they dye.

21 Likewyse they shall washe their handes and their feete, lest they dye: and it shalbe an ordinance vnto them for euer, both vnto him and his seede, throughout their generations.

22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 23 Take vnto thee principall spices, of the most pure Myrrhe fiue hundred (e) sicles, of sweete Synamond halfe so much, euen two hundred and fiftie sicles, of sweete Calamus two hundred and fiftie sicles.

31 And thou shalt speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, saying, This shalbe an holy oynting oile vnto me throughout your generations. 32 Vpon mans flesshe shall it not be powred, neither shall ye make any other after the making of it: for it is holy, and shalbe holy vnto you. 33 Whosoeuer maketh lyke that, or whosoeuer putteth any of it vpon a straunger, shal perishe from amongst his people. 34 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Take vnto thee sweete spices, Storte, Onycha, sweete Galbanum: these spices with pure Frankensence, of eche a lyke wayght: 35 And make of them sweete smellyng incense, after the craft of the appotecarie, mingled together, pure and holy. 36 And beate it to powder, and put of it before (the arke) of the testimonie in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meete with thee: it shalbe vnto you most holy. 37 And you shal not make to your selues, after the making of that incense which thou shalt make: it shalbe vnto you holy for the Lorde.

13 The Sabbath day is the signe of our sanctification.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Behold, I haue called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Juda, 3 And I haue filled him with the (a) spirite of God, in wisdome and vnderstandyng, in knowledge, and in all maner worke, 4 To finde out wittie deuises, and to worke in golde, siluer, and in brasse, 5 And in the craft to set stones, and to carue in timber, & to worke in all maner workmanship.

6 And beholde, I haue geuen him to be his companion Ooliab the sonne of Achisamec, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heartes of all that are wyse hearted I haue put wisdome, to make all that I haue commaunded thee:

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, the arke of the testimonie, and the mercie seate that is thereupon, and al the "furniture of the tabernacle:

8 And the table & his furniture, and the pure candelstiche with all his furniture, and the aulter of incense:

9 And the aulter of whole burnt of feryng and all his furniture, & the lauer with his foote, 10 The vestmets to minister in, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, & the garmentes of his sonnes to minister in: 11 And the annoyntyng oyle, and sweete incense for the sanctuarie: accordyng to al that I haue commaunded thee, shal they do. 12 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 13 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say, In any wyse see that ye (b) keepe my Sabbathes: for it is a signe betweene me and you in your generations, for to knowe that I the Lorde am he that doth sanctifie you. 14 Kepe my Sabbath therfore, for it is holy vnto you. Ye that defileth it shalbe put to death: for whosoeuer worketh therein, the same soule shalbe rooted out from amongst his people. 15 Six dayes shal men worke, and in the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the holye rest of the Lorde: whosoeuer doth any worke in the Sabbath day shall dye the death.

16 Wherefore let the children of Israel kepe the Sabbath, that they obserue the Sabbath throughout their generations: it is a perpetuall couenaunt. 17 For it is a signe betweene me and the children of Israel for euer: for in sixe dayes the Lorde made heauen and earth, and in the seuenth day he rested and (c) was refreshed.

18 And when the Lorde had made an end of communing with Moyses vpon the mount Sinai, he gaue him two tables of witnesse, euen tables of stone, written with the finger of god.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites worshippe the golden calfe. 11 Moyses prayeth for the sinne of the people.

Aaron and sayde vnto hym, Vp, make vs gods to go before vs: for we wote not what is become of this Moyses the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt. 2 And Aaron sayde vnto thē, (a) Plucke of the golden earynges which are in the eares of your wyues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bryng them vnto me.

(a) Thinking that they would rather forgue idolatrie then to forsake their most precious iewels.

3 And all the people pluckt of the golden earynges whiche they had in their eares, and brought them vnto Aaron. 4 And he receaued them of their handes, and fashioned it with a grauer, and made of it a (b) calfe of molten mettel: and they sayde, These be thy gods O Israel, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. 5 And when Aaron sawe that, he made an aulter before it, and Aaron made proclamation, saying, To morowe is the holye day of the Lord. 6 And they rose vp in the mornyng, and offered whole burnt offeringes, and brought peace offeringes also: and the people satte them downe to eate and drynke, and rose vp agayne to play. 7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Go get thee downe, thy people whiche thou broughtest out of the lande of Egypt hath marred all. 8 They are turned quickely out of the way which I commaunded them, for they haue made them a calfe of molten mettell, and haue worshipped it, and haue offered therevnto, saying, These be thy gods O Israel, which haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. 9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, I haue seene this people, and beholde, it is a stifnecked people. 10 And now (c) suffer me, that my wrath may ware whot agaynst them, and consume them: and I wyll make of thee a mightie people.

(b) They smelled of the idolatrie of Egypt where they sawe the image of calues, oxen, and serpents worshipped.

(c) God sheweth that the prayers of the godly stayeth punishment.

11 And Moyses besought the Lorde his God, and sayde, O Lorde, why doth thy wrath ware whot against thy people whiche thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt with great power, & with a mightie hand? 12 Wherfore should the Egyptians speake and say, For a mischiefe dyd he bring them out, euen for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turne from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this euyll agaynst thy people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isahac, and Israel thy seruaunces, to whom thou swarest by thy owne selfe, and saydst vnto them, I wyll multiplie your seede as the starres of heauen: and all this lande that I haue spoken of wyll I geue vnto your seede, and they shall inherite it for euer. 14 And the Lorde repented hym selfe from the euyll which he sayde he would do vnto his people.

15 And Moyses turned, his backe and went downe from the hyl, and the two tables of the testimonie were in his hande. 16 And the same tables were written in both theleaues, (euen) on the one side and on the other were they writte: And these tables were the worke of God, and the wryting was the wryting of God, grauen in the tables. 17 And when (d) Iosuah heard the noyse of the people as they shouted, he sayde vnto Moyses, (There is) a noyse of warre in the hoast. 18 And he aunswered, It is not the crie of them that haue the masterie, nor of them that haue the worse: (but) I do heare the noyse of them that syng.

(d) Iosuah accompanied Moyses the mount, although there was not lyke reuelation to hym as to Moyses.

19 And assoone as he came nigh vnto the hoast, he sawe the calfe, and the daunsing: and Moyses wrath ware whot and he cast the tables out of his handes, and brake them beneath the hyll. 20 And he toke the calfe whiche they had made, and burned it in the fyre, and stamped it into powder, and strawed it in the water, and made the chyldren of Israel (e) drynke of it.

(e) Partly in despite then of their idolatrie, and partly that they should haue no occasion to the members afterwards.

21 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron, What dyd this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them? And Aaron aunswered, Let not the wrath of my Lord ware fierce: thou knowest the people that they are set on mischiefe. 23 For they sayde vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs, for we wote not what is become of Moyses, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

24 And I sayde vnto them, Let them that haue golde, plucke it of: And they brought it vnto me, and I dyd cast it into the fyre, and thereof came out this calfe. 25 Moyses therefore saw that the people (f) were naked (and that Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame, amongest their enemies.) 26 And Moyses stoode in the gate of the hoast and sayde, Who (pertayneth) to the Lorde, (let hym come) vnto me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered them selues together vnto hym. 27 And he said vnto them, Thus saith the lord God of Israel, Put euery man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout 28 And the children of Leui dyd as Moyses had saide: And there fell of the people the same day about three thousande men. 29 And Moyses saide, " Fill your handes vnto the Lorde this day, euery man vpon his sonne, and vpon his brother, and that there may be geuen you a blessing this day. 30 And on the morowe Moyses sayde vnto the people, Ye haue sinned a great sinne: And now I wyll go vp vnto the Lorde, peraduenture I may purchase an attonement for your sinne. 31 Moyses therefore went agayne vnto the Lord, and said, (h) Oh, this people hath sinned a great sinne, and haue made them goddes of gold. 32 And now forgeue them their sinne: or yf thou wylt not, wype me I pray thee out of thy (i) booke whiche thou hast written. 33 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, (k) I wil put him out of my booke that hath sinned agaynst me. 34 And nowe go thou, bring the people vnto the place which I sayde vnto thee. Beholde, myne angell shall go before thee: Neuertheless, in that day when I visite, I wyl visite their sinne vpon them. 35 And the Lorde plagued the people, because they made the calfe which Aaron made.

1 The lorde sendeth an angell before his people. 3 The people sorowe because the lorde denieth to go vp with them.

AND the Lord said vnto Moyses, Depart, and go vp hence thou and the people which thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt, vnto the lande whiche I sware vnto Abraham, Isahac and Jacob, saying, Vnto thy seede wyll I geue it. 2 And I wil sende an angell before thee, and I wyl cast out the Chanaanites, the Amorites, and the Herthites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Jebusites: 3 Vnto a lande that floweth with (a) mylke and hony. For I wyl not go amongst you my selfe: for ye are a stifnecked people, lest I consume thee in the way. 4 And when the people hearde this euyll tidynges, they sorowed: and no man dyd put on his best rayment. 5 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses, Say vnto the chyldren of Israel, Ye are a stifnecked people: I must come once sodaynely vpon you, and make an ende of you: Therefore nowe put thy goodly rayment from thee, that I may wyt what to do vnto thee. 6 And the children of Israel layde their goodly rayment from them by the mount Horeb. 7 And Moyses take the tabernacle, and pitched it without the hoast a farre of from the hoast, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation: And (so it came to passe) that euery one whiche would pray vnto the Lorde, went out vnto the tabernacle of the congregation which was without the hoast.
8 And when Moyses went out vnto the tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stode euery man at his tent doore, and loked after Moyses, vntyll he was gone into the tabernacle. 9 And assoone as Moyses was entred into the tabernacle, the cloudy piller descended, & stoode at the doore of the tabernacle, and he talked with Moyses.

And he turned agayne into the hoast: but the young man Josuah his seruaunt the sonne of Nun, departed not out of the tabernacle.
12 And Moyses said vnto the Lord, See, thou sayest vnto me, Leade this people forth: and thou hast not shewed me whom thou wylt sende with me. And thou hast sayde moreouer, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. 13 Now therefore, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, then I pray thee shewe me thy (c) way, that I may knowe thee, & that I may finde grace in thy syght, and consider also that this nation is thy people. 14 And he sayde, My presence shall go with thee, and I wyl geue thee rest. 15 He said vnto hym, If thy presence go not with me, cary vs not hence. 16 For how shall it be knowen here that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy sight, but in that thou goest with vs? If thou goest with vs, shall not I and thy people haue preeminence before all the people that are vppon the face of the earth? 17 And the Lord said vnto Moyses, I wyll do this also that thou hast sayde, for thou hast founde grace in my sight, & I knowe thee by name.

AND the Lorde saide unto Moyses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and I wil write upon these tables, the wordes that were in the first tables whiche thou brakest. 2 And be redye in the morning, & come up early unto the mount of Sinai, and thou shalt * stande there for me in the top of the mount.

3 There shall no man come up with thee, neither let any man be seene throughout all the mount, neither let sheepe nor oxen feede before the hyl. 4 And Moyses hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and rose up early in the morning, and went up unto the mount Sinai as the Lorde had commaunded hym, and toke in his hande the two tables of stone. 5 And the Lord descended in the cloude, & stoode with hym there: and proclaymed the name of the Lorde. 6 And the Lorde passed by before hym, and cryed, Lord, Lorde * God mercyfull and gracious, long suffering, and abundaunt in goodnes and trueth, 7 And keping mercie in store for thousandes, forgeuing wickednes, transgression and sinne, and not * leauyng one innocent, visiting the wickednes of the fathers upon the children, and upon the childrens children, unto the thirde and fourth generation. 8 And Moyses made haste, and bowed him selfe to the earth and worshipped. 9 And sayde, If I have founde grace in thy syght, O Lorde, then let my Lorde I pray thee go in the middest of vs, for it is a stifnecked people: & thou shalt haue mercie upon our wickednes, and our sinne, and shalt take vs for thyne inheritaunce. 10 And he sayde, Beholde, I make a couenaunt before all thy people, and I will do marueyles, such as have not ben done in all the worlde, neither in all nations: and al the people amongest which thou art shall see the worke of the Lorde; for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee. 11 Kepe diligently those thinges that I commaunde thee this day: Beholde, I cast out before thee, the Amorites, Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites. 12 Take heede to thy selfe, lest thou make any compact with the inhabitours of the land whyther thou goest, lest they be cause * of ruine amongst you: 13 But ouerthrowe their aulters, & breake their images, and cut downe their groues. 14 Thou shalt worship no straunge God: for the Lorde is called (b) ielous, because he is a ielous God. 15 Lest if thou make any agreement with the inhabitours of the lande, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods: they call thee, and thou eate of their sacrifice.

28 And he was there with the Lord fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes, and dyd neither eate bread, nor drinke water: and he wrote vpon the tables the wordes of the couenaunt, the ten commaundementes. 29 And when Moyses came downe from mount Sinai, the two tables of testimonie were in Moyses hande: when he came downe from the mount, Moyses wyst not that the shynne of his face shone, whyle he talked with () hym. 30 And Aaron and all the chyldren of Israel looked vpon Moyses: and beholde, the shynne of his face shone. and they were afrayde to come nye hym. 31 And when Moyses had called them, Aaron and al the chiefe of the congregation came vnto hym: and Moyses talked with them.

A No Besaleel wrought & Ooliab, & all wyse hearted men, to whom the Lorde gaue wysdome and vnderstandyng to knowe howe to worke all maner of worke for the seruice of the sanctuarie, and all that the Lorde had commaunded. 2 And Moyses called Besaleel, Ooliab, and all the wyse hearted men, and such as the Lorde had geuen wysdome vnto, and as many as their hearres couraged to come vnto that worke, to worke it.

3 And they receaued of Moyses all the heaue offering which the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruice of the sanctuarie, to make it withal. And besides that, they brought free offringes vnto it euery day in the morning. 4 And al the wyse men that wrought al the holy worke, came euery man from his worke whiche they made: 5 And they spake vnto Moyses, saying, The people bring to much, and more then enough for the seruice and worke which the Lord hath commaunded to be made: 6 And then Moyses gaue commaundement, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the hoast, saying, See that neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for the heaue offering of the sanctuarie; & so the people were forbidden to bring. 7 For the stuffe they had, was sufficient for al the worke to make it, and to much. 8 All the wyse hearted men therfore and they that wrought for the tabernacle, made ten curtaynes of white twined silke, blew silke, purple, and scarlet, with Cherubims of brodied worke made he them.

17 And he made fiftie loopes along by the border of the vttermoste couplyng curtayne, and fiftie in the edge of the other couplyng curtayne.
18 And he made fiftie taches of brasse, to couple the tent together, that it myght be one. 19 And he made a couering vpon the tent of Rammes skinnes red, and yet another of Taxus skinnes aboue that. 20 And he made standyng boordes for the tabernacle of Sittim wood. 21 The length of a 24 And fourtie sockettes of siluer vnder the twentie boordes: two sockettes vnder one boorde for his two tenons, and two sockettes vnder another boorde for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle whiche is towarde the north, he made twentie boordes, 26 And their fourtie sockets of siluer: two sockets vnder one boorde: and two sockettes vnder the other boorde. 27 And towarde the "west ende of the tabernacle he made sixe boordes. 28 And two other boordes made he in the corners of the tabernacle, for either syde.
29 And they were ioyned close beneath and aboue with a ring: and thus they dyd to both the corners.
E 30 And there were eyght boordes, and sixteene sockettes of siluer: vnder euery boorde two sockettes. 31 And he made barres of Sittim wood: fiue for the boordes of the tabernacle in the one syde, 32 And fiue for the boordes of the tabernacle in the other side, and fiue barres for the boordes of the tabernacle in the west ende.
33 And he made the middest barre to shut through the boordes, from the one ende to the other. 34 And ouerlaide the boordes with gold, and made rynges of golde to thrust the barres through, and couered the barres with golde. 35 And he made a vayle of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke: with Cherubims made he it of broodered worke. 36 And he made therevnto foure pillers of Sittim wood, and ouerlayde them with gold: their knoppes were also of gold, & he cast for them foure sockettes of siluer. 37 And he made an hangyng for the tabernacle doore of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke of needle worke: 38 And the fiue pillers of it, with their knoppes: and ouerlayde the knoppes of them, and the hoopes with golde: they fiue sockettes also were of brasse.

8 And he made the lauer of brasse, and the foote of it also of brasse of the (a) glasses of the women assemblyng, whiche came together at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

B (a) Rabbi Kimhi sayth that the women brought their looking glasses, which were of brasse or of some metrall, and offered them to the vse of the tabernacle.

9 And he made the court on the south syde, full south: and the hangynges of the court were of white twined silke, hauing a hundred cubites,

10 Their pyllers were twentie, and their brasen sockettes twentie: but the knoppes of the pillers and their hoopes hoopes were of siluer. 11 And on the northside the hanginges were an hundred cubites, their pillers were twentie, and their sockettes of brasse twentie: but the knoppes and the hoopes of the pillers were of siluer. 12 On the west syde were hanginges of fiftie cubites, ten pillers, and their ten sockettes: but the knoppes and the hoopes of the pillers were of siluer.

13 And towarde the east syde full east, were hangynges of fiftie cubites.

14 The hangynges of the one syde of the gate were fifteene cubites longe, with three pillers and three sockettes.

15 And of the other syde of the court gate, were hangynges also of fifteene cubites long, with three pillers and three sockettes. 16 All the hanginges of the court rounde about, were of white twined silke: 17 But the sockettes of the pillers were of brasse, and the knoppes and the hoopes were of siluer. & the couerynge of the heades was of siluer: and all the pillers of the court were hooped about with siluer. 18 And the hangyng of the gate of the court was needle worke, of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and whyte twyned silke: twentie cubites longe, and fiue in heyght and breadth, ouer agaynst the hangynges of the court.

19 And their pillers were foure, and their foure sockettes of brasse, and the knoppes of siluer, & the heades ouerlayde with siluer, and hooped about with siluer. 20 And all the (b) pinnes of the tabernacle & of the court round about, were of brasse. 21 This is the (c) summe of the tabernacle (euen) of the tabernacle of witnesse, as it was counted accordyng to the commaundement of Moyses, for the office of the Leuites by the hande of Ithamar, sonne to Aaron the priest.

22 And Besaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iuda made all that the Lorde commaunded Moyses: 23 And with hym was Aholiab sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a cunnyng workman, an embroderer, and a worker of needle worke, in blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and whyte twyned sylke. 24 All the golde that was occupyed for all the worke of the holy place, was the golde of the waue offeryng, twentie and nine talentes, and seuen hundred and thirtie sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie. 25 And the summe of siluer of them that were numbred in the congregation, was an hundred talentes, and a thousande seuen hundred and three score and fifteene sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie. 26 For euery man an halfe waight, euen halfe a sicle after the sicle of the sanctuarie for all them that went to be numbred, from twentie yeres old and aboue, euen for sixe hundred thousand, and three thousand, and fiue hundred and fiftie men.

27 And of the hundred talentes of siluer were cast the sockets of the sanctuarie, and the sockets of the vaile: an hundred sockettes of the hundred talentes, a talent to euery socket.

28 And of the thousande seuen hundred seuentie and fiue sicles, he made knops to the pillers, & ouerlayde the heades, and hooped them. 29 And the brasse of the wane offering was three score and ten talentes, & two thousand and foure hundred sicles. 30 And therwith he made the sockettes to the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen aulter, and the brasen grediron for it, with all the vessels of the aulter, 31 And the sockets of the court rounde about, & the sockets for the court gate, and all the pinnes of the tabernacle, and all the pinnes of the court rounde about.

The .xxxix. Chapter.

1 The apparell of Aaron & his sonnes, all that the Lorde commaunded was done and finished. 43 Moyses blesseth the people.

AND of the blewe silke, purple, and scarlet, they made vestmentes of ministration to do seruice in the holy place: & made the holy garmētes for Aaron, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 2 And he made the Ephod of gold, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke. 3 And they dyd beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wyers to worke it in the blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and in the fine white with brodered worke.

4 And they made two sydes for it, to close them vp by the two edges.

5 And the broderyng of the girdle that was vpon it, was of the same stuffe, & after the same worke, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twined white silke, as the Lord commaunded Moyses. 6 And they wrought Onyx stones closed in ouches of golde, and grauen as signettes are grauen with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, that they should be stones for a remembraunce of the children of Israel, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 8 And he made the brestlap of brodered worke like the worke of the Ephod, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twined white silke. 9 It was foure squate:

and they made the brestlap double, an hande breadth long, and an hande breadth brode. 10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The first rowe, a Sardius, a Topazius, and a Smaragdus. 11 The seconde rowe, a Rubie, a Saphire, and a Diamond.
12 In the thirde rowe, a Lyncurius, an Achates, and an Amathyste.
13 In the fourth rowe, a Turcas, an Onyx, and a Jaspis: and they were closed in ouches of golde in their in-closers. 14 And the twelue stones were grauen as signets, with the names of the chyldren of Israel, euery C stone with his name, according to the twelue tribes. 15 And they made vppon the brestlap two fastening chaines of wrethen worke of pure golde.
16 And they made two ouches of golde, and two golde ringes: and put the two ringes in the two corners of the brestlap. 17 And they put the two chaines of gold in the two ringes in the corners of the brestlap. 18 And the two endes of the two chaines they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, vpon the forefront of it. 19 And they made two ringes of golde, and put them on the two corners of the brest-lap vpon the edge of it (which was) on the inside by the Ephod. 20 And they made two golden ringes, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the forside of it, and ouer against his felowe, aboue vppon the brodering of the Ephod. 21 And they stained the brestlap by his ringes vnto the ringes of the Ephod with a lase of blewe silke, that it myght be vpon the brodery ng of the Ephod, and that the brestlap should not be loosed D from of the Ephod, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 22 And he made the tunicle vnto the Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blewe sylke: 23 And there was a hole in the middest of the tunicle, as the coller of a partlet, with a bande rounde about the coller, that it should not rent. 24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with pomgranates of blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twyned sylke.
25 And they made litle belles of pure golde, and put them amongst the pomgranates rounde about vpon the edge of the tunicle. 26 A bell and a pomgranate, a bell and a pomgranate round about the hemmes of the tunicle to minister in, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
27 And they made coates of fine white silke of wouen worke for Aaron and his sonnes. 28 And a mitre of fine white silke, and goodly bonnettes of fine white silke, and linnen sloppes of twyned white silke.
29 And a gyrdle of twyned white silke, blew, purple, and scarlet, euen of needle worke, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 30 And they made the plate of the holy crowne of fine gold, and wrote vpon it with grauen worke as signets are grauen. The holynesse of the Lorde. 31 And he tyed vnto it a lase of blewe silke, to fasten it an hye vpon the mitre, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 32 Thus was all the worke of the tabernacle (euen) of the tabernacle of the congregation finished: And the chyldren of Israel did according to al that the Lord commaunded Moyses, so did they.
33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moyses (euen) the tabernacle and all his furniture, his taches, his boordes, his barres, his pyllers, and his sockettes. 34 The couering of rammes skynnes red, and the cou-ering of Tacus skynnes, and the hangyng vayle, 35 The arke of the testi-monie, and the barres therof, and the mercie seate, 36 The table and all the vesselles thereof, and the shewe bread, 37 The pure candelsticke with the lampes thereof, euen with the lampes to be prepared, and al the vesselles thereof, and the oyle for lyght, 38 The golden aulter, and the annointyng oyle, and the sweete incense, and the hangyng of the tabernacle doore, 39 And the brasen aulter with his grediron of brasse, his barres and all his vesselles, the lauer and his foote, 40 The curtaynes of the court with his pillers and sockettes, the hanging to the court gate and his pynnes and cordes, and all the vessel of the service of the tabernacle, euen of the tabernacle of the congregation. 41 The mi-nistryng vestmentes to serue in the holy place, and the holy vestmentes for Aaron the priest, and his sonnes raymentes to minister in, in the priestes

prieſtes office: 42 Accordyng to all that the Lord commaunded Moyſes, ſo the children of Iſrael made all the worke. 43 And Moyſes dyd loke vpon all the worke: and beholde, they had done it as the Lorde had commaunded, euen ſo had they done it: and Moyſes bleſſed them.

1 The tabernacle is reared vp. 34 The glorie of the Lorde appeareth in a cloude coueryng the tabernacle.

A And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying, 2 In the firſt day of the firſt (a) moneth ſhalt thou ſet vp the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation. 3 And put therin the arke of the teſtimonie, & couer the arke with the vayle: and thou ſhalt bryng in the table, and order it accordyng to the appoyntment therof: 4 And thou ſhalt bryng in the candleſticke, and lyght his lampes, 5 And ſet the incenſe aulter of golde before the arke of the teſtimonie, and put the hangyng at the dooze of the tabernacle. 6 And ſet the whole burnt offering aulter before the dooze of the tabernacle (euen) of the tabernacle of the congregation: 7 And ſet the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and put water therein. 8 And make the court rounde about, and hang vp the hangyng at the court gate. 9 And thou ſhalt take the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynt the tabernacle, and all that is therin, and halowe it with all the veſſels therof: and it ſhalbe holy. 10 And thou ſhalt annoynt the aulter of the whole burnt offeryng and all his veſſels, and ſanctifie the aulter: and it ſhalbe an aulter moſt holy. 11 And thou ſhalt alſo annoynt the lauer and his foote, and ſanctifie it. 12 And thou ſhalt bryng Aaron and his ſonnes vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, & waſhe them with water. 13 And thou ſhalt put vpon Aaron the holy veſtmentes, and annoynt him, and ſanctifie him, that he may miniſter vnto me in the prieſtes office. 14 And thou ſhalt bryng his ſonnes, and clothe them with gramentes. 15 And annoynt them as thou diddeſt annoynt their father, that they may miniſter vnto me in the prieſtes office: For their annoyntyng ſhalbe an euerlaſting prieſthood vnto them throughout all their generations. 16 And Moyſes did accordyng to all that the Lorde commaunded him, ſo did he. 17 Thus was the tabernacle reared vp the firſt day in the firſt moneth, in the (b) ſeconde yere. 18 And Moyſes reared vp the tabernacle, and faſtened his ſockettes, and ſet vp the boordes therof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillers. 19 And ſpread abrode the tent ouer the tabernacle, and put the coueryng of the tent an hye aboue it, as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes. 20 And he toke the (c) teſtimonie, and put it in the arke, and ſet the barres to the arke, and put the mercie ſeate an hye vpon the arke. 21 And he brought the arke into the tabernacle, and hanged vp the vayle, & couered the arke of the teſtimonie, as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes. 22 And he put the table in the tabernacle of the congregation in the north ſide of the tabernacle without the vayle, 23 And ſet the bread in order before the Lorde, as the Lorde had commaunded Moyſes. 24 And he put the candleſticke in the tabernacle of the congregation, ouer againſt the table towarde the ſouth ſide of the tabernacle, 25 And ſet vp the lampes before the Lorde, as the Lord commaunded Moyſes. 26 And he put the golden aulter in the tabernacle of the congregation before the vayle, 27 And burnt ſweete incenſe theron, as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes. 28 And he hanged vp the hangyng at the dooze of the tabernacle: 29 And ſet the whole burnt offeryng aulter by the entryng in of the tabernacle (that is) the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered whole burnt offerynges, and meate offerynges thereon, as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes. 30 And he ſet the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and powred water therein, to waſhe withall. 31 And Moyſes, Aaron, and his ſonnes, waſhed their hands and their feete thereat, 32 When they went into the tabernacle of the congregation, & when they went to the aulter they waſhed them ſelues, as the Lord commaunded Moyſes. 33 And he reared vp the court rounde about the tabernacle and the aulter, and ſet vp an hangyng at the court gate: and ſo Moyſes finiſhed the worke. 34 And the cloude couered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glorie of the Lorde fylled the tabernacle. 35 And Moyses coulde not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, because the cloude abode theron, and the glorie of the Lorde fylled the tabernacle. 36 And when the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle, the children of Israel toke their iourneys throughout theire armies: 37 And when the cloude was not taken vp, they tourneyed not tyll it was taken vp. 38 For the (d) cloude of the Lord was vpon the tabernacle by day, and fire by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their armies.

(d) Thus the presence of god preserued & guided them both day and night, tyll they came to the lande of promise.

This booke is so named, because that in the same is chefely entreated of the Leuiticall sacrifices, & other ceremonies of the lawe, vnto the which the Leuites were committed and ordeyned by the Lorde.

¶ 2 Of whole burnt offeringes for particuler persons. 3 The maner to offer whole burnt offeringes aswell of bullockes as of sheepe and birdes.

AND the Lorde (a) called vnto Moyses, and spake vnto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any (b) of you bryng a (c) sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shal bring your sacrifice from among the cattell, euen from among the beeues and the (d) sheepe. 3 If his sacrifice be a whole burnt offeryng of beeues, let him offer a male without blemishe, and bryng him of his owne voluntarie wyll, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde. 4 And he shall put his (e) hande vpon the head of the whole burnt sacrifice, and it shalbe accepted for him to be his attonement. 5 And he shall kyll the bullocke before the Lorde: And the priestes Aarons sonnes shall bryng the blood, and sprinkle it rounde about vpon the aulter that is by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 6 And then shall he flay the whole burnt offeryng, and hewe him in peeces. 7 And the sonnes of Aaron the priest shall put fire vpon the aulter, and put wood vpon the fire. 8 And the priestes Aarons sonnes shall lay the partes euen the head and the fat vpon the wood that is on the fire in the aulter. 9 But the inwardes and the legges therof shal he washe in water, and the priest shall burne all in the aulter, that they may be a whole burnt sacrifice, an offeryng made by fire for a sweete odour vnto the Lorde. 10 And yf his sacrifice be of flockes, namely of the sheepe or goates, let him bryng a male without blemishe for a whole burnt offeryng: 11 And let him kyll it on the north syde of the aulter before the Lorde: And the priestes Aarons sonnes, shall sprinckle the blood rounde about vpon the aulter. 12 And he shall cut it into his peeces, euen with his head & his fat: and the priest shall put them vpon the wood that lyeth vpon the fire in the aulter. 13 But he shall washe the inwardes and the legges with water, and the priest shall bryng altogether, and burne it vpon the aulter for a whole burnt offeryng, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde. 14 If the whole burnt offeryng for the sacrifice of the Lorde be of fowles, he shall bryng his sacrifice of turtle doues, or of the young pigeons. 15 And the priest shall bryng it vnto the aulter, and

(c) That the Leuitical sacrifices were preachinges of the passion and death of Christe, and of his gospell, which should afterwarde be published through all the worlde, men hath not dreamed it, but the holy ghost hath taught it, and hath confirmed it by many testimonies aswel of the olde testament as of the newe. ¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1 The order of meate offeringes, 13 All meate offeringes must be seasoned with salt.

1 THe soule that wyll offer a meate offeryng vnto the Lorde, his offeryng shalbe of fine floure: and he shall poure oyle vpon it, and put frankensence theron: 2 And shall bryng it vnto Aarons sonnes the priestes: And he shall take therout his handfull of the flowre, and of the oyle with all the frankensence, and the priest shall burne it for a memoriall of him vpon the aulter, to be an offeryng made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord. 3 And the remnaunt of the meate offeryng shalbe Aarons & his sonnes, a thyng most(a) holy of the sacrifices of the Lorde, made by fire. 4 If thou bring also a meate offeryng that is baken in the ouen, let it be an vnleauened cake of fine flowre myngled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer annoynted with oyle. 5 If thy meate offeryng be baken in the frying pan, it shalbe of vnleauened flowre myngled with oyle. 6 And thou shalt part it in peeces, and powre oyle theron: that it may be a meate offeryng. 7 And if thy meate offeryng be a thing broyled vpon the gredyron, let it be of flowre myngled with oyle. 8 And thou shalt bryng the meate offeryng that is made of these thinges vnto the Lord, and shalt deliuer it vnto the priest, that he may offer it vpon the aulter. 9 And the priest shall take from the meate offeryng a memoriall thereof, and shall burne it vpon the aulter: that it may be a burnt offeryng for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde. 10 And that which is left of the meate offeryng, shalbe Aarons and his sonnes: It is a thyng most holy of the offerynges of the Lorde made by fire. 11 All the meate offerynges which ye shall bryng vnto the Lorde, shalbe made without leauen: For ye shall neither burne leauen nor (b) hony in any offeryng of the Lorde made by fire. 12 In the oblation of the first fruites ye shall offer them vnto the Lorde: but they shall not be burnt vpon the aulter for a sweete sauour. 13 All the meate offeringes also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the couenaunt of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offeryng: but vpon all thyne offerynges thou shalt bryng (c) salt. 14 And if thou offer a meate offering of the first fruites vnto the Lorde, thou shalt offer for the meate offering of thy first fruites, eares of corne dryed by the fire (euen) beaten wheate, of full eares. 15 And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lay frankensence theron: that it may be a meate offeryng. 16 And the priest shall burne part of the beaten corne, and part of that oyle with all the frankensence, for a remembraunce: and it shalbe a sacrifice vnto the Lord made by fire.

(a) Because it doth remayne of that which was burnt in the honour of god, and therefore might not be eaten but of the holy, that is, the priestes.

(b) That is, all maner of fruite as sweete as hony: as figges, dates, & such like. Of these nothing might be burned, but kept onlye to be offered before god.

(c) By this ceremonie is the nature of Christe set forth, which is figured in all sacrifices. For Christe is the true & heauenly salt, by whō all that beleue in him, be made sauourie and pleasaunt vnto god the father, so that they shall neuer so putrifie that they shall perish.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1 The order of peace offeringes. 6 Of sheepe. 7 Of lammes. 12 Of goates.

AND yf his sacrifice be a(a) peace offeryng, and he take it from among the droues, whether it be a male or female, he shall bryng such as is without blemishe before the Lorde. 2 And put his hande vpon the head of his offeryng, and kyll it at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And Aarons sonnes the priestes shall sprinkle the blood vpon the aulter rounde about. 3 And he shal offer b) somewhat of the peace offeryng, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde: euen the fat that coūereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes: 4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the hall with the liuer shall he take away with the kidneys. 5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne them on the aulter with the whole burnt sacrifice which is vpon the wood that is on the fire, to be a burnt sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.

(a) That is, a sacrifice of thankesgeuing offered for peace & prosperitie, either generally or particularly.

(b) One part was burnt, another appoynted to the priestes, and the third to him that offered.

6 If he bryng a peace offeryng vnto the Lorde from of the flocke, let him offer male or female, but without blemithe. 7 (And) yf he offer a lamme for his sacrifice, he shall bryng it before the Lorde, 8 And put his hande vpon his offerynges head, and kyll it before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood therof rounde about the aulter. 9 And of the peace offering let him bring a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, the fat therof, and the rumpe altogether, which they shall take of harde by the backe bone: & the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes, 10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the hall that is vpon the liuer shal he take away with the kidneys. 11 And the priest shall burne them vpon the aulter, to be the foode of a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde. 12 If his offeryng be a goate, he shall bryng it before the Lorde, 13 And put his hande vpon the head of it, and kyll it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sonnes of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the aulter rounde about. 14 And he shall bryng therof his offeryng, euen (c) a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, the fat that coueredth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

(c) In the whole burnt offering all was consumed, but in the offering made by fire, only the inwardes were burnt.

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the hall vpon the liuer shall he take away with the kidneys. 16 And the priest shall burne them vpon the aulter, for the foode of the sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour: All the fat is the Lordes.

17 Let it be a perpetuall statute for your generations throughout your dwellynges, that ye eate neither fat nor blood.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1 The offering for the sinnes, 3 of the priest, 13 of the congregation, 22 the princes, 27 the priuate persons done by ignorance.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If a soule shall sinne through ignorance in any of the commaundementes of the Lord which ought not to be done, but shall do contrary to any of them: 3 As yf the priest that is annoynted, do sinne accordyng to the (a) sinne of the people, let him bryng for his sinne which he hath sinned, a young bullocke without blemithe vnto the Lorde for a sinne offeryng.

(a) By conuersation or doctrine to do any thing wherby the people sinne, or els yf the people sinne through the priests fault, their sinne is required at his hande.

4 And he shall bryng the young bullocke vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde, and shall put his hande vpon the young bullockes head, and (b) kyll the young bullocke before the Lorde.

(b) Hereby confessing that he deserued the same punishment which the beast suffered.

5 And the priest that is annoynted shall take of the young bullockes blood, and bryng it into the tabernacle of the congregation. 6 And the priest shall dippe his fynger in the blood, and sprinckle therof seuen tymes before the Lorde, before the vayle of the sanctuarie. 7 And the priest shall put some of the blood before the Lorde, vpon the hornes of the aulter of sweete insence, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall powre all the blood of the young bullocke vnto the bottome of the aulter of the whole burnt offering, which is at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 8 And he shal take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offeryng, the fat that coueredth the inwardes, & all the fat that is about the inwardes, 9 And the two kidneys, & the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flanckes, and the hall vpon the liuer shall he take away with the kidneys, 10 As it was taken away in the bullocke of the peace offerynges: and let the priest burne them vpon the aulter of the whole burnt offeryng. 11 But the skinne of the young bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head & his legges, with his inwardes and his doung, (shall he beare out,) 12 And cary the whole bullocke altogether out of the hoast vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred out, and burne him there on wood in the fire: by the place where the asshes are cast out, shall he be burnt. 13 If the whole congregation of Israel sinne through ignorance, and the thyng be hyd from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done somewhat against any of the commaundementes of the Lorde which should not be done, and haue offended:

Exod. 29.

14 When the sinne which they haue sinned is knowen, the congregation shall bryng a young bullocke for the sinne, and bryng him before the tabernacle of the congregation, 15 And the the elders of the multitude shall put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lorde: and the bullocke shalbe slayne before Lorde.

16 And the priest that is annoynted, shall bryng of the bullockes bloode into the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seuen tymes before the Lorde, euen before the vayle. 18 And shall put of the blood vpon the hornes of the aulter whiche is before the Lorde, in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shal powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the aulter of the whole burnt offering, which is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take his fat from hym, and burne it vpon the aulter,

20 And shall do with this bullocke as he dyd with the bullocke for sinne, so shal he do with this: And the priest shall make an attonement for them, and it shalbe forgeuen them. 21 And he shall bryng this bullocke without the heast, & burne hym as he burned the first bullocke: For it is an oblation for the sinne of the congregation.

22 When a lorde sinneth, and committeth through ignorance any of these thinges whiche the Lorde his God hath forbidden to be done in his commaundementes, and hath offended: 23 And if his sinne be(b) shewed vnto hym which he hath done, he shal bryng his offering (euen) an hee goate without blemiche, 24 And lay his hand vpon the head of the hee goate, and kyll it in the place where the whole burnt offering is vsed to be killed before the Lorde: For it is a sinne offering. 25 And let the priest take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering aulter, and powre his blood vnto the bottome of the whole burnt offering aulter, 26 And burne all his fat vpon the aulter, as the fat of the peace offeringes: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym as concerning his sinne, and it shalbe forgeuen hym.

27 If one of the common people of the lande sinne through ignorance, and commit any of the thinges which the Lorde hath forbidden in his commaundementes to be done, & so hath trespassed: 28 If his sinne whiche he hath sinned come to his knowledge, he shall bryng for his offering a shee goate from among the flockes without blemiche for his sinne which he hath sinned, 29 And lay his hand vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slay the sinne offering in the place of the whole burnt offerings. 30 And the priest shall take of the blood therof with his finger and putte vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering aulter, and powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the aulter, 31 And shall take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offering is taken away: And the priest shall burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde, and the priest shall make an attonement for hym, and it shalbe forgeuen hym. 32 And if he bryng a sheepe for a sinne offering, he shall bryng a female without blemith, 33 And lay his handes vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slea it for a sinne offering in the place where they kyl the whole burnt offering. 34 And the priest shal take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering aulter, and shall powre the blood therof vnto the bottome of the aulter. 35 And he shall take away all the fat therof, as the fat of the sheepe of the peace offering is wont to be taken away: And the priest shall burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be the Lordes burnt sacrifice, and the priest shall make an attonement for his sinne that he hath committed, and it shalbe forgeuen hym.

The .v. Chapter.

1 Of othes. 2 The cleansyng of hym that toucheth vncleane thynges. 6 The purgation of an oth, 15 And of sinne done by ignorance.

IF a soule sinne and heare the voyce (a) of swearing, and is a witnesse whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if he do not vtter it, he shal beare his sinne. 2 Either if a soule touche any vncleane thing, whether it be the carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattell, or a carion of vncleane creeping thinges, and is not ware of it: behoilde, he is vncleane, and hath offended. 3 Either if he touch any vncleannesse of man, whatsoeuer vncleannesse it be that a man is wont to be defiled withall, and is not ware of it, and commeth to the knowledge of it, he hath trespassed.

4 Either if a soule sweare, and pronounceth with his lippes to do euyll

(b) Other by knowledging him selfe to haue sinned & confessing his fault, or some other hath reuealed it vnto hym.

Leuit. iii. d.

(a) This is diuerslye expounded, because the Hebrewe word hath a doumble signification: this is the sense as some thinketh. If a Iudge doth minister an othe to any priuate man, to declare the trueth of any thing that he hath seene, and do it not, he sinneth: other this. If any man see his neighbour commit any sinne, which is by the law of God execrable or detestable, and did cōsile it, and not open it as much as in him dyd lye, he dyd sinne: some other taketh it thus. All such as dyd heare any man curse, banne, and abuse the name of god, and did not open it vnto the magistrate, dyd sinne: the first sense is best lyked.

or to do good, whatsoeuer it be that a man shal pronounce with an othe and the thing be hyd from hym, and commeth to the knowledge of it, and hath offended in one of these: 5 When he hath sinned in one of these thinges, he shall confesse that he hath sinned in that thing. 6 Therfore shall he bring his trespasse offering vnto the Lorde for his sinne whiche he hath sinned, a female from the flocke, a lambe or a thee goate, for a sinne offering: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym concerning his sinne. 7 And if he be not able to bryng a sheepe, he shall bryng for his trespasse which he hath sinned, two turtle doues, or two young pigeons vnto the Lorde: one for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering. 8 And he shal bryng them vnto the priest, whiche shall offer the sinne offering first, and wryng the necke a sunder of it, but pluche it not cleane of. 9 And he shal sprincle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the aulter, and the rest of the blood shal he powre by the bottome of the aulter: for it is a sinne offering. 10 And he shall offer the seconde for a whole burnt offering as the maner is: and so shall the priest make an attonement for hym for the sinne whiche he hath sinned, and it shalbe forgeuen hym. 11 And if he be not able to bryng two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, then he that hath sinned shall bryng for his offering the tenth part of an Epha of fine floure for a sinne offering: but put none oyle thereto, neither put any frankensence theron: for it is a sinne offering. 12 Then shall he bryng it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it for a remembraunce thereof, and burne it vpon the aulter, to be a sacrifice for the Lorde made by fire: for it is a sinne offering. 13 And the priest shall make an attonement for hym as touching his sinne that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shalbe forgeuen hym: and the remnaunt shalbe the priestes, as a meate offering. 14 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 15 If a soule trespasse and sinne throwe ignoraunce in thinges that are consecrated vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng for his trespasse vnto the Lord a Ramme without blemish out of the flockes, valued in money at two sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie, that it may be for a trespasse offering. 16 And he shall make amendes for the harme that he hath done in the holy thing, and let hym put the fift part more therto, and geue it vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for him with the Ramme that is for the trespasse, and it shalbe forgeuen him. 17 If a soule sinne, and commit any of these things whiche are forbydden to be done by the commaundementes of the Lorde, and (b) wyst it not, and hath offended, and beare his sinne: 18 Then shall he bryng a Ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed to be worth a trespasse offering, vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym concerning his ignoraunce, wherin he erred and wist not ware: and it shalbe forgeuen hym. 19 This is a trespasse offering, for the trespasse committed against the Lorde.

(b) And doth afterwarde knowledge hym selfe to haue offended and thinketh him selfe to be gylty of that sinne.

The. vi. Chapter.

The offering for sinnes whiche are done willingly. 20 The offering of Aaron and his sonnes.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 If a soule sinne and trespasse against the Lorde, and denye vnto his neighbour that which was taken hym to kepe, or that was put into his handes, or doth violent robberie or wrong vnto his neighbour, 3 Or if he haue founde that whiche was lost, and denieth it, and sweareth falsely vpon whatsoeuer thing it be that a man doth, and sinneth therein: 4 If he haue so sinned and trespassed, he shall restore agayne that he toke violently away, or the wrong which he did, or that which was deliuered hym to kepe, or the lost thing whiche he founde: 5 And all that about whiche he hath swoorne falsely, he shall restore it agayne in the whole summe, and shall adde the fifth part more thereto, and geue it vnto hym to whom it appertayneth, the same day that he offereth for his trespasse. 6 And let hym bryng for his trespasse vnto the Lorde a Ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed worth a trespasse offering vnto the priest. 7 And the priest shall make an attonement for hym before the Lorde, and it shalbe forgeuen hym whatsoeuer thing it be that he hath done and trespassed therin. 8 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 9 Commaunde Aaron place, for it is most holy. 7 As the sinne offering is, so is the trespasse offering, one law serueth for both: that wherwith the priest shal make attonement, shalbe his. 8 And the priest that offereth any mans whole burnt offering, shall haue the skinne of the whole burnt offering whiche he hath offred. 9 And all the meate offering that is baken in the ouen, and that is dressed in the panne, and in the frying panne, shalbe the priestes that offereth it. 10 And euery meate offering that is mingled with oyle, and that is dry, shall pertayne vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, and one shall haue as much as another. 11 This is the lawe of the peace offering, whiche he shall offer vnto the Lorde. 12 If he offer it to geue thankes, he shall bryng vnto his (b) thanke offering vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers annointed with oyle, & cakes mingled with oyle of fine floure fried. 13 He shall bryng his offering, with cakes of vnleauened bread for his peace offerynges, to geue thankes:

19 And the flesche that toucheth any vncleane thyng, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: and of this flesche all that be cleane, shall eate thereof.

20 But if any soule eate of the flesh of the peace offering that pertayneth vnto the Lorde, hauing his vncleanesse vpon hym: the same soule shall be cut of from among his people.

22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 23 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say, ye shall eate no maner fat of beeues, of sheepe, and of goates. 24 Neuertheleße, the fat of the beast that dyeth alone, & the fat of that whiche is torne with wylde beastes, shalbe occupied in any maner of vse: but ye shall in no wyse eate of it. 25 For whosoeuer eateth the fat of the beast, of whiche men vse to bryng an offering made by fire vnto the Lorde: that soule that eateth it, shall be cut of from his people. 26 Moreouer, ye shall eate no maner of bloud, whether it be of soule or of beast, in any your dwellinges.

27 Whatsoeuer soule it be that eateth any maner of bood, the same soule shall be cut of from his people.

28 And the Lorde talked with Moyses, saying. 29 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say, He that bringeth his peace offering vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng his gyft vnto the Lorde of his peace offering:

30 Let his owne handes bryng the offerynges of the Lorde made by fire: euen the fat with the brest shall he bryng, that the brest may be waued for a wauie offering before the Lorde.

31 And the priest shall burne the fat vpon the aulter, and the brest shalbe Aarons and his sonnes. 32 And the right shoulder shall ye geue vnto the priest for an heaue offering of your peace offerynges. 33 The same that offereth the bloud of the peace offerynges and the fat among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part: 34 For the wauie brest and the heaue shoulder haue I taken of the chyldren of Israel of their peace offerynges, and haue geuen them vnto Aaron the priest, and vnto his sonnes, by a statute for euer from among the chyldren of Israel.

35 This is the annoynting of Aaron, and the annoynting of his sonnes concerning the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, in the day when he offred them to be priestes vnto the Lorde: 36 And these be the (portions) whiche the Lorde commaunded to be geuen them in the day

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Take Aaron and his sonnes with hym, and the vestures, and the annoyntyng oyle, and a bullocke for a synne offeryng, and two Rammes, & a basket of vnleauened bread: 3 And gather thou al the congregation together vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 4 And Moyses dyd as the Lorde commaunded him: and the people were gathered together vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 5 And Moyses sayde vnto the congregation, This is the thyng which the Lorde commaunded to be done. 6 And Moyses brought Aaron and his sonnes, & washed them with water, 7 And put vppon hym the coate, and girded hym with a girdle, and put vpon hym the robe, and put the Ephod thereon, whiche he girded with the brodered garde that was in the Ephod, and bounde it vnto hym therewith. 8 And he put the brestplate thereon, and put in the brestplate the Urim and the Thummim. 9 And he put the cap of estate vpon his head, and put vppon the cap, euen vpon the forefront, the golden plate, (a) the holy crowne, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 10 And Moyses toke the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynted the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them. 11 And sprinckled thereof vpon the aulter seuen tymes, and annoynted the aulter and al his vessels, the lauer and his foote, to sanctifie them. 12 And he powred of the annoyntyng oyle vpon Aarons head, and annoynted hym, to sanctifie hym. 13 And Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vppon them, and gyrded them with girdles, and put bonettes vpon their heades, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

14 And he brought the Bullocke for the synne offeryng: and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vppon the head of the Bullocke for the synne offeryng. 15 And Moyses (b) slew hym, and toke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde about with his finger, and purified the aulter, and powred the blood at the bottome of the aulter, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it. 16 And he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the hall of the liuer, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moyses burned it vpon the aulter.

(b) Moyses dyd this, because that the priestes were not yet established in their office.

17 But the Bullocke, and his hyde, his flesshe, and his dounge he burnt with fyre without the hoast, as the Lord commaunded Moyses. 18 And he brought the Ramme for the whole burnt offeryng, and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vppon the head of the Ramme, 19 Which Moyses kylled, and sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.

20 And Moyses cut the Ramme into peeces, and burnt the head, the peeces, and the fat. 21 And washed the inwardes and the legges in water, and Moyses burnt the Ramme euery whit vpon the aulter: for it was a whole burnt sacrifice for a sweete sauour, and an offering made by fyre vnto the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 22 And he brought the other Ramme, the Ramme of consecrations: and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, 23 Which Moyses slewe, and toke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the tip of Aarons right eare and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vppon the great toe of his right foote. 24 And Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the tippe of the right eare of them, and vpon the thumbes of their right handes, and vppon the great toes of their right feete: and Moyses sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter round about. 25 And he toke the fat, and the rumpe, and al the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the hall of the liuer, and the two kydneys with their fat, and the right thoulder. 26 And out of the basket of vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, he toke one vnleauened

31 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Boyle the flesshe at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and there eate it with the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commaunded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shal eate it.
32 And that which remayneth of the flesshe and of the bread, shall ye burne with fyre. 33 And ye shall not depart from the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation seuen dayes, vntyll the dayes of your consecrations be at an ende: for seuen dayes " shall he fyl your hande. 34 As he dyd this day, so the Lorde hath commaunded to do, to make an attonement for you.
35 Therefore shall ye abide at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation day & nyght seuen dayes long, and kepe the watch of the Lorde, and ye shal not dye: for so I am commaunded. 36 And so Aaron & his sonnes, dyd all thinges which the Lorde commaunded by the " hande of Moyses.

8 The first offerynges of Aaron. 22 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glorie of the Lorde is shewed.

NOw in the eyght day, Moyses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the elders of Israel. 2 And he sayd vnto Aaron, Take thee a young Calfe for a sinne offeryng, and a Ramme for a whole burnt offeryng, both without blemishe, and bryng them before the Lorde. 3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take ye an hee Goate for a sinne offeryng, and a Calfe and a Lambe both of a yere olde without blemishe for a whole burnt sacrifice.
4 Also a Bullocke and a Ramme for peace offerynges to offer before the Lorde, and a meate offeryng mingled with oyle: for to day the Lord wyl appeare vnto you. 5 And they brought that which Moyses commaunded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation came and stoode before the Lord. 6 And Moyses sayde, This is the thing which the Lorde commaunded that ye shoulde do, and the glory of the Lorde shal appeare vnto you. 7 And Moyses said vnto Aaron, Go vnto the aulter, and offer the sacrifice for thy sinne, and thy whole burnt offering, and make an attonement for thee and for the people: and thou shalt offer the offering of the people, and make an attonement for them, as the Lorde commaunded.
8 Aaron therfore went vnto the aulter, and slewe the Calfe of the sinne offering, which was for him selfe.
9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the blood vnto hym, and he dypt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter, and powred the blood at the bottome of the aulter.
10 But the fat and the two kydneys, and the hall of the liuer of the sinne offeryng he burnt vpon the aulter, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
11 The flesshe and the hyde he burnt with fyre without the hoast. 12 And he slewe the whole burnt offeryng, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, whiche he sprinckled round about vpon the aulter. 13 And they brought the whole burnt offeryng vnto him with the peeces thereof and the head: and he burnt (them) vpon the aulter. 14 And he dyd washe the inwardes and the legges, & burnt them vpon the whole burnt offering in the aulter. 15 And then he brought the peoples offering, taking the Goate which was the sinne offeryng for the people, and slewe it, and offered it for sinne, as he dyd the first, 16 And brought the whole burnt offeryng, and offered it as the maner was.
17 And he brought the meate offeryng, and filled his hande thereof, and burnt it vpon the aulter, beside the whole burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 Ye slewe also the Bullocke and the Ramme for the peace offering which was for the people: and Aarons sonnes brought vnto hym the blood, which he sprinckled vpon the aulter rounde about: 19 And the fat of the Bullocke, and of the Ramme, the rumpe, & that coureth the inwardes, and the kydneyes, and the mall of the lyuer. 20 And they put the fat vpon the brestes, and he burnt the fat vpon the aulter: 21 But the brestes and the ryght shoulder Aaron waued for a waue offeryng before the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

22 And Aaron lyft vp his hande ouer the people and blessed them, and came downe from offeryng of the sinne offeryng, the whole burnt offeryng, and peace offerynges. 23 And Moyses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glorye of the Lorde appeared vnto all the people. 24 And there came (a) a fyre out from before the Lorde, and consumed vpon the aulter the whole burnt offeryng and the fat: Which when all the people sawe, they gaue thankes, and fell on their faces.

(a) This miracle was done to this purpose, to signifie that the Lord did allowe this kynde of sacrifices by Aaron.

The .x. Chapter.

1 Nadab and Abihu are slayne. 6 Israel mourneth for them. 9 The priestes are forbidden wine.

A Leuit. xbi. a Exod. xcv. b

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, tooke eyther of them his censar, and put fyre therein, and put cense thereupon, and offered (a) straunge fyre before the Lorde, which he commaunded them not. 2 And there went a fyre from the Lorde, and (b) consumed them, and they dyed before the Lord. 3 Then Moyses saide vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nye me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron helde his peace. 4 And Moyses called Misael & Elsaphan the sonnes of Oziel, the vncle of Aaron, and saide vnto them, Come neare, carry your brethren from before the sanctuarie, out of the hoast. 5 And they went to them, and caryed them in their coates out of the hoast, as Moyses had said.

(a) Not taken of the aulter, whiche fire was kindled from heauen, and endured to the captiuitie of Babylon.

(b) This terrible punishment doth declare, that vnlawfull seruice of god, though it seeme to be done of good deuotion, displeaseth God.

6 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, Vncouer not your heades, neither rent your clothes, lest ye dye, and lest wrath come vpon all the people: But let your brethren the whole house of Israel bewayle the burnyng which the Lord hath kyndled. 7 And go not ye out from the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye dye: for the annoyntyng oyle of God is vpon you. And they dyd as Moyses sayde. 8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, saying, 9 Thou shalt not (c) drynke wine nor strong drynke, thou nor thy sonnes that are with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye dye: Let it be a lawe for euer throughout your generations: 10 And that ye may put difference betweene holye and vnholye, betweene vncleane and cleane:

(c) Some thynke that Nadab and Abihu beyng ouercome with drynke, dyd not their seruice lawfully, Wherupon they thynke that this lawe of forbidding of wine and strong drink to priestes was made.

11 And that ye may teache the chyldren of Israel all the statutes whiche the Lorde hath spoken vnto them by the hande of Moyses. 12 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes that were left, Take the meate offering that remayneth of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, and eate it without leauen beside the aulter: for it is most holy. 13 Ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie and thy sonnes duetie of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre: for so I am commaunded. 14 And the waue breast and heaue shoulder shall ye eate in a cleane place, thou and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee: For they be thy duetie, and thy sonnes duetie geuen out of the peace offerynges of the chyldren of Israel. 15 The heaue shoulder and the waue breast shall they bryng in with the sacrifices made by fyre of the fat, to waue it for a waue offeryng before the Lorde: and it shalbe thyne and thy sonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lorde hath commaunded. 16 And Moyses sought the Goate that was offered for sinne, and see, it was burnt. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron which were left alyue, saying, 17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place? seing it is most holy, and God hath geuen it you to beare the sinne of the congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lorde.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought in within the holye place: ye shoulde haue eaten it in the holye place, as I commaunded.

19 And

19 And Aaron sayde vnto Moyses, Beholde, this day haue they offered their synne offeryng, and their whole burnt offeryng before the Lorde: (b) and such thinges are come vnto me: if I had eaten the synne offeryng to day, shoulde it haue ben accepted in the sight of the Lorde? 20 And when Moyses heard that, he was content.

(b) I haue not left this vndone of any contempt or negligece, but both my children be dead: & how coulde I be merie in such a woful and lamentable case of my children.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 Of beastes, fishes, and birdes: which be cleane, and which be vncleane.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, 2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say, These are the beastes which ye shall eate among all the beastes that are on the earth.

A Gen.vii.a. Deut.xiiii.a Actes.x.c.

3 Whatsoeuer (a) parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and chaweth cud among the beastes, that shall ye eate.

(a) He noteth foure sortes of beastes, some chewe the cud only, and some haue only the foote cloue, others neither chewe the cud, nor haue the foote cloue: the fourth both chewe the cud and haue the hoofe cloue. This last only may be eaten.

4 Neuertheles, these shall ye not eate of them that chawe the cud, (only) & of them that diuideth the hoofe: (only) as is the Camell, whiche chaweth cud, but he diuideth not the hoofe, therefore is he vncleane vnto you.

5 Euen so the Connie whiche chaweth the cudde, but diuideth not the hoofe, he is vncleane vnto you.

6 And the Hare, though he chaweth the cud, yet because he diuideth not the hoofe, he is therefore vncleane to you. 7 And agayne the swyne, though he diuide the hoofe, & is clouen footed, yet he chaweth not the cud, he is vncleane to you. 8 Of their flesche shall ye not eate, and their carcasse shall ye not touche: but let them be vncleane to you. 9 These shall ye eate of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and scales in the waters, seas, and ryuers, that shal ye eate. 10 And [illegible] that haue not finnes nor scales in the sea & ryuers, of all that moue and lyue in the waters, let them be abhomination vnto you. 11 They I say, shalbe an abhomination vnto you: ye shall not eate of their flesche, but abhorre their carcasses. 12 Let all that haue no finnes nor shales in the waters, be abhominable vnto you. 13 These are they whiche ye shall abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to be eaten, for they are an abhomination: The Egle the Sothauke, and the Ospray, 14 The Vulture, and the kyte after his kynde, 15 And all Rauens after their kynde, 16 The Estrich, the nyght Crowe, the Cockowe, and the Hauke after his kynde, 17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle, 18 The Bache, the Pellicane, the Pye, 19 The Storke, the Jay after his kinde, the Lapwyng, and the Swalowe. 20 Let all foules that C creepe and go vpon al foure, be an abhomination vnto you. 21 Yet these may ye eate, of euery creepyng thing that hath wynges, and go vpon foure (feete:) euen those that haue not bowinges aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth. 22 Euen these of them ye may eate: the Arbe after his kynde, the Selaam after his kynde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kynde. 23 All (other) foules that creepe and haue foure feete, shalbe abhomination vnto you. 24 In suche ye be vncleane: and whosoeuer toucheth the carcasse of them, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen: 25 And whosoeuer beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.

26 And euery beast that hath hoofe, and is not clouen footed, nor chaweth cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery D one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane. 27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes, among all maner beastes that go on all foure (feete) such are vncleane vnto you: and who so doth touche their carkasse shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. 28 And he that beareth the carkasse of them, shal washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: for such are vncleane vnto you. 29 And let these also be vncleane to you among the thinges that creepe vpon the earth: the Weasel, and the Mouse, and the Toade after their kynde: 30 The Hedhogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Mole. 31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doth touche them when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. 32 And whatsoeuer any of the dead carkasses of them doth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessel of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke, or whatsoeuer vessell it be E that any worke is wrought in: and it must be plunged in the water, and it shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen, and so shall it be cleansed.

to any of them falleth, shalbe vncleane, with all that therein is, and it shalbe Leuit. vi.d. broken. 34 All maner meate also that is vsed to be eaten, yf any suche water come vpon it, shalbe vncleane: And all maner drynke that is vsed to be dronke in all maner suche vesselles, shalbe vncleane. 35 And euery thing that their carcasse falleth vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be ouen or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.
F 36 Neuertheles, yet the fountaines and welles, & collections of waters, shalbe cleane styll: but that whiche toucheth theyr karkasses, shalbe vncleane. 37 If the dead karkasse of any suche fall vpon any seede vsed to sowe, it shall yet be cleane styll:
38 But and yf any water be powred vpon the seede, and a dead karkasse fal theron, it shalbe vncleane vnto you.
39 If any beast of whiche ye maye eate, die, and any man touche the dead carkasse therof, he shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. 40 He that eateth of the dead carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: And he also that beareth the karkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
G 41 Let euery creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth be an abhomination, and not be eaten. 42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the brest, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon foure, or that hath mo feete among all creeping thynges that creepe vpon the earth: of that see ye eate not, for they are abhominable.
43 Ye shall not make your soules abhominable with nothyng that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, that ye shoulde be defyled therby. 44 For I am the lord
1. Pet. i. ber. 15. your God: Be sanctified therfore, and ye shalbe holy, for I am holy: and ye shall not defyle your soules with any maner of creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth: 45 For I am the Lorde that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: ye shalbe holy therefore, for I am holy.
H 46 This is the lawe of beastes and Leuit. b.c. fowles, and of euery lyuyng creature that moueth in the waters, and of euery creature that creepeth vpon the earth, 47 That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane & cleane, and betweene the beast that maye be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

The .xii. Chapter.

2 A lawe how women should be purged after theyr deliuerance.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Speake vnto the A children of Israel, & say, If a woman hath conceaued seede, and borne a man childe, she shalbe vncleane seuen dayes: according to the dayes of the separation of her infirmitie shall she be vncleane. 3 And in the eyght day the flesh of the childes foreskinne Gen. xvii.b shalbe cut away. 4 And she shall then Luk. ii.d. continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirtie dayes: She shal touch no halowed thyng, nor come into the sanctuarie, vntyl the tyme of her purifying be out. 5 If she beare a mayde B childe, she shalbe vncleane two weekes according as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three score and sixe dayes. Luk. ii.d.
6 And when the dayes of her purifying are out, whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter, she shall bringe a lamme of one yere olde for a whole burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle done for a sinne offeryng, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, vnto the priest: 7 Whiche shall offer them before the Lorde, and make an atonement for her, and Leuit. b.b.
she shalbe purged of the issue of her C blood. And this is the lawe for her Luk. ii.d.
that hath borne a male or female.
8 But and if she be not able to bryng a lamme, she shall bryng two turtles or two young pigeons, the one for the whole burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering: And the priest shal make an atonement for her, and she shalbe cleane.

The .xiii. Chapter.

1 The priestes must haue a consideration, and iudge who are lepers.
47 Of the leperous garmentes.

AND the lord spake vnto Moyses A & Aaron saying, 2 The man that shall haue in the skinne of his flesh a swelling, either a scab, or a glistring white, and the plague of leprosie be in the skinne of his flesche, he shalbe brought vnto Aaron the priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the priestes.
3 And the priest shall looke on the sore in the skynne of his flesshe: and when the heere in the sore is turned to whyte, and the sore also seeme to be lower then the skinne of his flesche,

it is a plague of lepʒosie: & the preestes shall looke on him and iudge him vncleane. 4 If there be a whyte spotte in the skinne of his flesche, and seeme not to be lower then the skinne, nor the heere therof is turned vnto white, the priest shall shut vp (hym that hath) the plague seuen dayes. 5 And the priest shal looke on him agayne the seuenth day: and if the plague seeme to him to abide still, and the plague grow not in the skinne, the priest shall shut vp (hym that hath) the plague, seuen dayes mo. 6 And the preeste shall looke on him agayne the seuenth day: Then if the plague be darker, and not growen in the skinne, the priest shall iudge him cleane, for it is but a scabbe: And he shall washe his clothes and be cleane. 7 But if the scabbe growe in the skinne after that he is seene of the priest and iudged cleane, he shall be seene of the preeste agayne. 8 If the priest see that the scabbe be growen abrode in the skin, the priest shall pronounce hym (a) vncleane: (for) it is a lepʒosie. 9 When the plague of the lepʒosie is in a man, he shalbe brought vnto the priest. 10 And the priest shal see hym: And if the swellyng be white in the skinne, and haue made the heere white, and there be rawe flesche in the swelling: 11 It is an olde lepʒosie in the skinne of his flesche, and the priest shall pronounce hym vncleane, and shall not shut hym vp, seyng he is vncleane. 12 If a lepʒosie breake out abrode in the skinne, and couer all the skin from his head to his foote whersoeuer the priest looketh: 13 Then the preeste shall consider: and if the lepʒosie haue couered all his flesche, he shall iudge the plague to be (b) cleane, because it is al turned into whyteneſs, and he shalbe cleane. 14 But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seene, he shalbe vncleane. 15 And the priest shall see the rawe flesche, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe flesh is vncleane, seeyng it is a lepʒosie. 16 Or if the rawe flesche turne agayne and chaunge vnto whyte, he shall come vnto the priest: 17 And the priest shall see hym, and beholde, if the sore be chaunged vnto whyte, the preeste shall iudge the plague cleane, and he shalbe cleane. 18 The flesh also in whose skinne there is a byle, and is healed, 19 And in the place of the byle there appeare a whyte rysing either a shinyng whyte and somewhat reddish he, it shall be seene of the priest. 20 And if when the priest seeth hym it appeare lower then the skinne, and the heere therof be chaunged vnto whyte, the preeste shall (c) iudge hym vncleane: for it is a plague of lepʒosie, broken out of the byle. 21 But if the priest looke on it, and there be no whyte heeres therein, and if it be not lower then the skinne, but be darker, the priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes. 22 And if it spreade abrode in the skynne, the priest shall pronounce him vncleane, seeyng it is a sore. 23 But if the spot stand stil and growe not, it is a scarre of a byle, and therfore the priest shall declare him to be cleane. 24 If there be any flesche in whose skinne there is a hotte burning, & the quicke flesche that burneth haue a whyte spot somewhat reddishe or whyte, 25 The preeste shall looke vpon it: and if the heere in that bright spot be chaunged to whyte, and it appeare lower then the skynne, it is a lepʒosie broken out of the burnyng, and therfore the priest shall iudge hym vncleane, seeyng it is the plague of lepʒosie. 26 But if the priest looke on it, and there be no whyte heere in the bright spot, and be no lower then the other skinne, but be darker, the preeste shall shut hym vp seuen dayes.

27 And the priest shall looke on him the seuenth day: and if it be growen abrode in the skinne, the priest shall iudge hym vncleane, seeyng it is the plague of lepʒosie. 28 And if the spot stande styll in it, and growe not in the skynne, but is darke, it is a rysyng of the burnyng, and the priest shall therefore declare hym cleane, seeyng it is a scarre of the burnyng. 29 If man or woman hath a sore vpon the head or the bearde, 30 The priest shall see the sore: and if it appeare lower then the skinne, and there be in it a yelowe heere and thynne, the priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing that the same freeyng is a token of lepʒosie vpon the head or bearde. 31 And if the priest loke on the sore of the fret, & it seeme not lower then the skynne, and that the heere is not blacke, the priest shall shut vp (hym that hath) the fretting sore seuen dayes. 32 And in the seuenth day the priest shall loke on the sore: & if the fret be not growen, and there be in it no yelowe heere, and the fret seeme not lower then the skynne, 33 He shall be shauen, but the frette shall

(a) As touching his bodyly desease, for his desease was not imputed to hym for sinne before god: yet it was the punishment, for sinne.

(b) For it is not that contagious lepre that infecteth but a kinde of scurffe which maketh not the flesh rawe as the lepʒosie doth.

(c) None were exempted, but if the priest iudged him vncleane he was put out from among the people, as appeareth by Mary the prophetisse, Num. 12. ver. 14. and by kyng Ozias, 2. Chro. 26. ver. 20.

shall he not shane: and the priest shall shut vp (hym that hath) the fret seuen dayes mo. 34 And in the seuenth day the priest shal looke on the fret: and yf the fret be not growen in the skynne, nor seeme lower then the other skin, the priest shall clense him: and he shall washe his clothes, and be cleane.
35 But if the feette growe in the skinne after his clensyng. 36 The priest shal loke on him: and if the fret be growen in the skynne, the priestе shal not seeke for yelowe heere, for he is vncleane. 37 But if he see the fret stand still, & that there is blacke heere growen vp therin, the fret is healed, and he shalbe cleane, & the priest shall declare him to be cleane. 38 If there be many white spottes in the skynne of the flesshe of man or woman, 39 The priest shal looke vpon it: and yf the spottes in the skynne of theyr flesshe be somewhat darke and whyte withall, it is a freckell growyng in the skynne, therefore he is cleane.
40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head, he is bauld, yet cleane.
41 And he that hath his heere fallen of on the parte of his head towarde his face, is forehead bauld, yet cleane.
42 If there be in the baulde head or bauld forehead a whyte reddishe sore, there is leprosie sprong vp in his baulde head or baulde forehead.
43 And the priest shal loke vpon him: and if the rysing of the sore be whyte reddishe in his baulde head or baulde forehead, after the maner of leprosie whiche is in the skynne of his flesshe, 44 Then is he a leprous man and vncleane: And the priest shall pronounce him vncleane, for the plague therof is in his head. 45 The leper in whom the plague is, shal haue his (d) clothes rent, and his head bare, and shal put a couering vpon his lippes, & shal crye, Vncleane, vncleane. 46 And as long as the disease lasteth vpon hym, he shall be defyled and vncleane: he shall dwell alone, euen without the campe shal his habitation be. 47 The garment also that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linnen garment, 48 Whether it be in the warpe or woofe of linnen or of wollen, either in a skynne, or any thyng made of skynne: 49 If the disease be lyght greene, or somwhat reddishe in the garment or skinne, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thyng that is made of skynne, then it is a plague of leprosie, and shalbe shewed vnto the priestе.
50 The priest therefore shall see the plague, and shut it vp seuen dayes.
51 And he shal loke on the plague the seuenth day: which, if it be increased in the garment, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or in a skynne, or in any thyng that is made of skinne, it is the leprosie of a fretting sore, it is vncleane. 52 And he shall burne that garment, either warpe or woofe, whether it be wollen or lynnen, or any thyng that is made of skynne wherin the plague is, for it is a frettyng leprosie, it shalbe burnt in the fyre.
53 If the priest see that the plague is not growen in the garment, either in the warpe or woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be, 54 The priestе shall commaunde them to washe the thing wherin the plague is, and he shal shut it vp seuen dates mo. 55 And the priestе shall looke on the plague againe after that it is washed: and yf the plague haue not chaunged his colour, and is spread no further abrode, it is vncleane, thou shalt burne it in the fyre: for it is fret inwarde, whether it be bare behynde or before.
56 And if the priest see that the plague is darker after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment or out of the skinne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe. 57 And yf it appeare still in the garment, either in the warpe or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skin: it is a spreading plague, thou shalt burne that wherein the plague is with fyre. 58 Moreouer, the garment, either warpe or woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be whiche thou hast washed, yf the plague be departed therfrom, it shalbe washed once againe, and then it shalbe cleane.
59 This is the law of the plague of leprosie in a garment whether it be wollen or lynnen, either in the warpe or woofe, or in any thynge of skins, to declare it cleane or vncleane.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

3 The clensyng of the leper. 34 and of the house that he is in.

AND the lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 This is the law of the leper in the day of his clensyng: he shalbe brought vnto the priest, A Mat. 8. a. Mar. 1. a.
3 And the priestе shall go out of the campe, and the priestе shall looke vpon hym, and yf the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper,

4 Then

(d) In signe of sorowe & lamentation. Num. b. a. 4. Reg. 15. a.

4 Then shall the priest commaunde to take for hym that is cleansed, two lyue birdes and cleane, & cedar wood, and a scarlet (lace) and hysope. 5 And the priest shall commaunde that one of the birdes be kylled in an earthen vessell, and vpon runnyng water.

6 And he shall take the lyuyng birde, with the cedar wood, the scarlet (lace) and the hysope, and shal dip them and the lyuyng birde in the blood of the slayne birde vpon the runnyng water.

E 7 And he shall sprynckle vppon hym that must be clensed of his leprosie seuen tymes, and clense hym, and shall let the liuing birde go free into the feelde. 8 And he that is clensed shal washe his clothes, and shaue of all his heere, and washe hymselfe in water, that he may be cleane: And after that shall he come into the hoast, and shall tary without his tent seuen dayes.

9 But in the seuenth daye, he shall shaue of all his heere of his head, his bearde, and his browes, all his heere shalbe shauen of: And he shall washe his clothes, and also washe his flesshe in water, and he shalbe cleane. 10 In the eyght day he shall take two hee lammes without blemishe, and an ewe lamme of a yere olde without blemishe, and three tenth deales of fine flowre for a meate offering myngled with oyle, and a (a) logge of oyle.

(a) This measure in Hebrew called logge, is the quantitie of sixe egges full,

11 And the priest that maketh hym cleane, shal bryng the man that is to be made cleane, and those thynges, before the lord at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation. 12 And the priest shall take one lamme, and offer hym for a tresspasse offeryng, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lozde.

13 And he shall slea the lamme in the place where the sinne offering and the whole burnt offeryng are slayne, in the holy place: for as the sinne offeryng is the priestes, so is the tresspasse offering, seeyng it is most holy.

15 The priest shall take of the logge of oyle, and powre it into the paulme of his left hande: 16 And he shal dip his ryght fynger in the oyle that is in his left hande, and sprynckle of the oyle with his finger seuen tymes before the Lozde. 17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hande, shall the priest put vpon the tippe of the ryght eare of hym that is for to be clensed, & vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote, euen vpon the blood of the tresspasse offeryng. 18 And the remnaunt of the oyle that is in the priestes hande, he shall powre vpon the head of him that is for to be clensed: and the priest shall make an atonement for hym before the Lozde.

19 And the priest shall offer the sinne offering, and make an atonement for hym that is to be clensed from his vncleannesse, and then shall he kill the whole burnt offeryng. 20 And the priest shall offer the whole burnt offeryng and the meate offeryng vpon the aulter: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, & he shalbe cleane.

D 21 If he be poore and can not get so much, he shall take one lamme for a tresspasse offeryng, to waue it for his atonement, and a tenth deale of fyne flowre mingled with oyle for a meate offering, and a logge of oyle, 22 And two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, suche as he is able to get: whereof the one shalbe for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a whole burnt offeryng. 23 And he shall bring them the eight day for his clensyng vnto the priest before the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lozde. 24 And the priest shall take the lamme that is for the tresspasse offering, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lozde. 25 And he shall kyll the lamme for the tresspasse offeryng, and the priest shal take of the blood of the tresspasse offeryng, and put it vpon the tip of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote. 26 And the priest shall powre of the oyle into the paulme of his owne left hand: 27 And the priest shall with his ryght finger, sprynckle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seuen tymes before the Lozde. 28 And the priest shall put of the oyle that is in his hande vpon the tip of the ryght eare of him that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, in the place where the blood of the tresspasse offeryng was put.

29 And the rest of the oyle that is in the the prieſtes hande, he ſhall put vpon the head of him that is to be cleanſed, that he may make an attonement for him before the Lorde. 30 And he ſhall offer one of the turtle dones or of the young pigeons, ſuch as he can get: 31 Such (I ſay) as he is able to get, the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a whole burnt offeryng, with the meate offring: And the prieſt ſhall make an attonement for him that is to be clenſed before the Lorde.

32 This is the lawe of him in whom is the plague of Leproſie, and whoſe hande is not able to get that which pertayneth to his clenſyng. 33 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes and Aaron, ſaying, 34 When ye be come vnto the lande of Chanaan, which I geue you in poſſeſſion, and if I put the plague of leproſie in a houſe of the lande of your poſſeſſion: 35 He that owerth the houſe ſhall come, and tell the prieſt, ſaying, Me thinke that there is as it were a plague in the houſe. 36 Then the prieſt ſhall commaunde them to empтie the houſe before the prieſt go into it to ſee the plague, that all that is in the houſe be not made vncleane: and then muſt the prieſt go in, to ſee the houſe. 37 And he ſhall ſee the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the houſe, and that there be hollowe ſtrakes, greeniſhe or reddiſhe, which ſeeme to be lower then the wall it ſelfe:

38 Then the prieſt ſhall go out of the houſe to the dooze of the houſe, & ſhut vp the houſe ſeuen dayes. 39 And the prieſt ſhall come agayne the ſeuenth day, & if he ſee that the plague be increaſed in the walles of the houſe, 40 Then the prieſt ſhall commaunde them to take away the ſtones in which the plague is, and let them caſt them into a foule place without the citie, 41 And he ſhall commaunde the houſe to be ſcraped within round about, & powze out the duſt that they ſcrape of, without the citie into a foule place. 42 And they ſhall take other ſtones, & put them in the place of thoſe ſtones, and other mozter to plaſter the houſe withall. 43 And if the plague come agayne, & breake out in the houſe after that he hath taken away the ſtones & ſcraped the houſe, and after that he hath plaſtered the houſe, 44 Then the prieſt ſhal come & ſee it: and if that the plague hath growen further in the houſe, it is a frettyng leproſie in the houſe, it is therefore vncleane. 45 And he ſhall breake downe the houſe, & the ſtones of it, and the timber therof, and all the mozter of the houſe: and he ſhall cary them out of the citie into a foule place. 46 Moreouer, he that goeth into the houſe all the whyle that it is ſhut vp, ſhalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. 47 He alſo that ſleepeth in the houſe, ſhal waſhe his clothes: he likewiſe that eateth in the houſe, ſhall waſhe his clothes. 48 And if the prieſt come & ſee that the plague hath ſpread no further in the houſe after that it is newe plaſtered: the prieſt ſhall iudge that houſe cleane, becauſe the plague is healed. 49 And let him take to clenſe the houſe withall two birdes, Cedar wood, and a ſcarlet (laſe) and hyſope. 50 And he ſhall kyll one of the birdes in an earthen veſſel, and vpon runnyng water: 51 And take the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, and the ſcarlet (laſe) with the liuyng birde, & dip them in the blood of the ſlayne birde, and in the runnyng water, and ſprinkle the houſe ſeuen tymes.

52 And he ſhall clenſe the houſe with the blood of the birde, and with the runnyng water, with the liuyng birde, with the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, and the ſcarlet (laſe.) 53 But he ſhal let the liuyng birde flee out of the towne into the brode fieldes, and ſo make an attonement for the houſe, and it ſhalbe cleane. 54 This is the lawe for all maner plague of leproſie and fret, 55 And of the leproſie of garment & houſe. 56 For a ſwellyng, for a ſcabbe, and for a ſhynyng whyte, 57 To teache when it is vncleane, & cleane: this is the lawe of leproſie.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

2. 19 The maner of purging the vncleanneſſe both of men and women.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes and Aaron, ſaying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer hath a runnyng iſſue out of his fleſhe, is vncleane by reaſon of that iſſue. 3 And this ſhalbe his vncleanneſſe in his iſſue: if his fleſhe runne, or if his fleſhe be ſtopped from his iſſue, then it is vncleanneſſe. 4 Euery bed wherevpon he lyeth that hath the iſſue, is vncleane: and euery thyng wherevpon he ſitteth is vncleane. 5 Whoſoeuer toucheth his bed, ſhall waſhe his clothes and bath him ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. 6 And he that sitteth on any thyng wheron he sate that hath the issue, shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen. 7 He that toucheth the flesche of him that hath the issue, shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen. 8 If he also that hath the issue, spyt vpon him that is cleane, he shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, & be vncleane vntyll the euen. 9 And 35 what saddle soeuer he rydeth vpon that hath the issue, shalbe vncleane.

10 And whosoeuer toucheth any thyng that was vnder him, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen: And he that beareth any such thinges shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
11 And whosoeuer he toucheth that hath the issue, and haue not washed his handes in water, shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, Leuit. 6. d. & be vncleane vntyl the euen. 12 The vessel of earth that he toucheth which hath the issue, shalbe broken: and all vessels of wood shalbe rensed in water.
13 When he also that hath an issue, is clensed of his issue, he shall number him seuen dayes for his clensyng, and washe his clothes, and bath his flesche in runnyng water, and so shall he be cleane. 14 And the eyght day he shall take to him two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, & come before the Lord vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, and geue them vnto the priest: 15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a synne offeryng, and the other for a whole burnt offeryng: and the priest shall make an attonement for him before the Lorde, as concernyng his issue. 16 If any mans seede depart from him in his sleepe, he shall washe all his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. 17 And euery garment, and euery skinne, wherin is such seede of sleepe, shalbe washed with water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen. 18 And if he that hath such an issue of seede, do lye with a woman, they shall both washe them selues with water, and be vncleane vntyl the
C euen. 19 Also yf a woman shall haue an issue, (and) her issue in her flesche shalbe blood, she shalbe put apart seuen dayes: whosoeuer toucheth her, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.

20 And all that she lyeth vpon in the tyme of her seperation shalbe vncleane: like as euery thyng also that she sitteth vpon is vncleane. 21 Whosoeuer toucheth her bed, shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe with water, & be vncleane vntyll the euen.
22 And whosoeuer toucheth any thyng that she sate vpon, shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.
23 So that whether he touche her bed, or any vessell wheron she hath sitten, he shalbe vncleane vntyll the euenyng. 24 And if any man lye with Leuit. 18. c. her, & her seperation come vpon him, he shalbe vncleane seuen dayes: and all the bed wheron he lyeth shalbe vncleane. 25 Also if a woman haue an issue of her blood many dayes out of the tyme of her seperation, or if it runne beyonde her seperation, let all the dayes of the issue of her vncleanesse, be euen as the dayes of her seperation: (for) she is vncleane.
26 Euery bedde wheron she lyeth as long as her issue lasteth, shalbe vnto her as the bed of her seperation: and what soeuer she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane as the vncleannesse of her seperation. 27 And whosoeuer toucheth any of these shalbe vncleane, and shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen. 28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, she shal count her seuen dayes: and after that she shalbe cleane. 29 And in the eyght day, she shal take vnto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bryng them vnto the priest, before the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation. 30 And the priest shal offer the one for a synne offeryng, and the other for a whole burnt offeryng, and make an attonement for her before the Lorde, as concernyng the issue of her vncleanesse. 31 Thus shall ye seperate the children of Israel from their vncleannesse, that they dye not in their vncleannesse: yf they defile my tabernacle that is among them. 32 This is the lawe of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seede runneth from him in his sleepe, and is defiled therin: 33 Also of her that for her seperation is put apart, and of whosoeuer hath a runnyng issue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lyeth with her which is vncleane.

Leuit. .x.a.

ND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they offered before the Lorde, and dyed. 2 And the Lord sayd vnto Moyses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all tymes into the holy place within the vayle before the mercie seate which is vpon the arke, that he dye not: For I wyll appeare in the cloude vpon the mercie seate. 3 But with this thyng shall Aaron come into the holy place: euen with a young bullocke for a sinne offeryng, & with a ramme for a whole burnt offeryng.

4 He shall put the holy linnen coate vpon him, and shall haue linnen breeches vpon his flesche, & shalbe girded with a linnen girdle, and with a linnen cap shall he be attired. These are holy garmentes: therfore shall he washe his flesche in water when he doth put them on. 5 And he shal take of the congregation of the children of Israel, two hee goates for a sinne offeryng, and a ramme for a whole burnt offeryng. 6 And Aaron shall offer his bullocke for his sinne offeryng, and make an attonement for him and for his house. 7 And he shal take the two hee goates, and present them before the Lorde at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lottes ouer the two goates: one lot shalbe for the Lorde, and the other for the (a) scape goate. 9 And Aaron shall bryng the goate vpon which the Lordes lot fell, and offer him for a sinne offeryng.

(a) In Hebrue it is called Azazel, which some say is a mountayne nere Synai, whither this goate was sent, but rather it is called the scape goate, because he was not offered, but sent into the desart. 22 vers. 2.

10 But the goate on which the lot fell to be the scape goate, shalbe set aliue before the Lorde to reconcile with, & to let him go as a scape goate into the wildernesse. 11 And Aaron shall bryng the bullocke for his sinne offeryng, and reconcile for him selfe and for his house, and shall kyll the bullocke for his sinne offring. 12 And he shall take a censer full of burnyng coales from of the aulter before the Lorde, and shall fyll his hande full of sweete incense beaten smal, and bring them within the vayle. 13 And put the incense vpon the fire before the Lorde, that the cloude of the incense may couer the mercie seate that is vpon the witnesse, & he shall not dye. 14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and sprinkle it with his fynger vpon the mercie seate eastwarde: and before the mercie seate shal he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seuen tymes. 15 Then shal he kyll the goate that is the peoples sinne offeryng, and bryng his blood within the vayle, & do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullocke, sprinklyng it vpon the mercie seate, and before the mercie seate.

16 And he shall reconcile the holy place from the vncleannesses of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses in all their sinnes: And so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that is set among them, euen among their vncleannesses.

17 And let there be no body in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an attonement in the holy place, vntyl he come out, and haue made an attonement for him selfe, & for his houshold, and for all the congregation of Israel. 18 And he shall go out vnto the aulter that is before the Lorde, & reconcile vpon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullocke, & of the blood of the goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde about. 19 So shal he sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seuen tymes, & cleanse it, and halowe it from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel. 20 And when he hath made an ende of reconcilyng the holy place, & the tabernacle of the congregation, & the aulter, he shall bryng the

(b) Here in this goate is a true signe of Iesus Christ, who beareth the sinnes of the people. Esai. 53. vers. 5.

22 And the goate shal beare vpō him all their misdeedes vnto the lande of seperation, and he shal let the goate go into the wildernesse. 23 After, Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and put of the linnen clothes which he put on when he went in into the holy place, and leaue them there. 24 And let him washe his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his owne rayment, & then come out, and offer his whole burnt offering and the whole burnt offering of the people, and make an attonement for him selfe, & for the people.

25 And the fat of the ſinne offeryng ſhal he burne vpon the aulter. 26 And he that caryed foorth the goate for the ſcape goate, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bath his fleſhe in water, and then come into the hoaſt. 27 And the bullocke for the ſinne offeryng, and the goate for the ſinne offeryng whoſe blood was brought in to cleanſe the holy place, ſhall one cary out without the hoaſt to be burnt in the fire, with their ſkinnes, their fleſhe, and their doung. 28 And he that burneth them ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bath his fleſhe in water, and then come into the hoaſt. 29 And this ſhalbe an ordinaunce for euer vnto you: that in the tenth day of the ſeuenth moneth ye humble your ſoules, & do no worke at all, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a ſtraunger that ſoiourneth among you. 30 For that day ſhall the prieſt make an attonement for you to cleanſe you, and that ye may be cleane from all your ſinnes before the Lorde. 31 Let it be a ſabbath of reſt vnto you, & ye ſhall humble your ſoules by an ordinaunce for euer.

32 And the prieſt whom he ſhall annoynt, and whom he ſhall conſecrate to miniſter in his fathers ſteade ſhall make the attonement, and ſhal put on the linnen clothes, & holy veſtiments:

33 And ſhall reconcile the holy ſanctuarie, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhall cleanſe the aulter, and make an attonement, for the prieſtes, and for all the people of the congregation. 34 And this ſhalbe an euerlaſtyng ordinaunce vnto you, to make an attonement for the children of Iſrael for all their ſinnes once a yere. And he dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes.

1 They that geue of their seede to Moloch must dye. 6 Against such as seeke after sorcerers.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying. 2 This shalt thou say to the children of Israel: whosoeuer he be of the children of Israel, or of the straungers that dwell in Israel, that geueth of his children vnto

Moloch, let hym be slayne: the people of the lande shal ouerwhelme him with stones. 3 And I wyll (a) set my face against that man, and wyll cut hym of from among his people, because he hath geuen his chyldren vnto Moloch, for to defile my sanctuarie, and to pollute my holy name.

(a) That is, I wyll bende myne anger against that man.

4 And though that the people of the lande hyde their eyes from the man that geueth his chyldren vnto Moloch, and kyll hym not: 5 I wyll put my face against that man, and against his kynred, and wil cut hym of, and all that go a whoring after hym to commit whoredome with Moloch, from among their people. 6 If a soule turne hym selfe after suche as worke with spirites, and after soothsayers, to go a whoring after them, I wyll put my face against that soule, and wyll cut hym of from among his people. 7 Sanctifie your selues therefore and be holy: for I am the Lorde your God. 8 Kepe ye myne ordinaunces, and do them: I am the Lorde which sanctifie you. 9 Whosoeuer he be that curseth his father or his mother, let hym dye: for that he hath cursed his father and mother, his blood be vpon hym. 10 And the man that breaketh wedlocke with another mans wyfe, euen he that breaketh wedlocke with his neighbours wife, let both the adulterer and the adultresse be slayne. 11 And the man that lyeth with his fathers wyfe, and vncouereth his fathers nakednesse, let them both dye, their blood be vpon them. 12 If a man lye with his daughter in law, let them dye both of them: they haue wrought abhomination, their blood be vpon them.

13 If a man also lye with mankinde after the maner as with women kinde, they haue both committed an abhomination: let them dye, their blood be vpon them. 14 And if a man take a wyfe, and her mother also, it is wickednesse: They shal burne with fire both hym and them, that there be no wickednesse among you.

15 And if a man lye with a beast, let hym dye, and ye shall slea the beast also. 16 If a woman go vnto any beast, and lye downe therto, thou shalt kyll the woman and the beast also: let them dye, their blood be vpon them.

17 If a man take his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and see her nakednesse, and she his nakednesse, it is a wicked thing, they shalbe cut of in the sight of their people: he hath vncouered his sisters nakednesse, he shall beare his sinne. 18 If a man lye with a woman hauing her naturall disease, and vncouer her nakednesse, and open her fountayne, and she also open the fountayne of her blood, they shall both be cut of from among their people. 19 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister: for he that doth so, hath vncouered his next kyn, they shall beare their misdoyng. 20 If a man lye with his vncles wyfe, and vncouer his vncles nakednesse, they shall beare their sinne, and shall dye childlesse. 21 If a man take his brothers wyfe, it is an vncleane thing: he hath vncouered his brothers nakednesse, they shalbe childlesse. 22 Ye shall kepe therfore al mine ordinaunces, and all my iudgementes, and do them: that the land whyther I bryng you to dwell therein, spewe you not out. 23 Ye shall not walke in the maners of this nation, whiche I cast out before you: For they committed all these thinges, and therefore I abhorre them. 24 But I haue sayd vnto you, ye shall enherite their lande, and I will geue it vnto you to possesse it, a lande that floweth with mylke and hony: I am the Lorde your God which haue seperated you from other nations. 25 And therefore shall ye put difference betweene cleane beastes & vncleane, betweene vncleane foules and cleane: ye shall not defile your soules in beastes and foules, and in al maner creepyng thinges that the grounde bryngeth foorth, whiche I haue seperated from you as vncleane.

26 Therefore shall ye be holy vnto me: for I the Lord am holy, and haue seuered you from other nations, that ye shoulde be myne. 27 If there be a man or woman that worketh with a spirit, or that is a soothsayer, let them dye: Men shall ouerwhelme them with stones, their blood be vpō them.

At what funeralles the prieſtes may be preſent. 6 Howe pure the prieſtes ought to be touching them ſelues and their families.

AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes, Speake vnto the prieſtes the ſonnes of Aaron, and ſay vnto vnto them, Let none (a) be defiled by the dead among their people: 2 But by his kynſman that is nye vnto hym, (that is) by his mother and his father, by his ſonne and his daughter, and his brother, 3 And by his ſiſter a mayde that is (b) nye vnto hym, whom no man hath knowen: for her ſhall he " be defiled. 4 But he ſhall not be defiled vppon hym that hath " auctho-ritie among his people, to pollute him ſelfe. 5 Let them not make baldnes vpon their head, nor ſhaue of the lockes of their beard, nor make any cuttynges in their fleſhe. 6 They ſhalbe holy vnto their God, and not pollute the name of their God, for the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, (and) the bread of their God they do offer, therefore they ſhalbe holy.

7 Let them not take a wyfe that is an whore, or (c) polluted, nor put from her huſbande: for ſuch a one is holye vnto his god. 8 Thou ſhalt ſanctifie hym therefore, for he offereth vp the bread of thy God: he ſhall therefore be holy vnto thee, for I the Lord which ſanctifie you, am holy. 9 If a prieſtes daughter fall to play the whore, ſhe polluteth her father, therfore muſt ſhe be brent with fyre. 10 He that is the hye prieſt among his brethren, vppon whoſe head the annoyntyng oyle was powred, and that conſecrated his hand to put on the veſtments, ſhal not (d) vncouer his head, nor rent his clothes: 11 Neither go to any dead body, nor make him ſelfe vncleane by his father or his mother.

12 Neither ſhall he go out of the ſanctuarie, nor pollute the holy place of his God, for the crowne of the annoyntyng oyle of his God, is vpon hym: I am the Lorde. 13 He ſhall take a virgin vnto his wyfe. 14 But a wy-dow, a deuorſed woman, or a polluted, or a harlot, theſe ſhall he not marrie: but ſhall take a virgin of his owne people to wyfe. 15 Neither ſhall he defile his ſeede among his people: for I am the Lorde which ſanctifie hym.

16 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying, 17 Speake vnto Aaron, and ſay, Whoſoeuer of thy ſeede in their generations hath any blemiſhe, let hym not preaſe for to offer bread vnto his God: 18 For whoſoeuer hath any blemiſhe, ſhall not come neare: as if he be blynde or lame, or that hath a " bruſed noſe, or that hath any miſſhapen member: 19 Or is broken footed, or broken handed.

20 Or is croake backt, or blere eyed, or haue a webbe or other blemiſhe in his eyes, or be ſhurnie, or ſhabbed, or hath his ſtones broken: 21 No man that hath a blemiſhe, & is of the ſeede of Aaron the prieſt, ſhall come nye to offer the ſacrifices of the lord made by fyre: When he hath a blemiſhe, let him not preaſe to offer the bread of his God. 22 Let him eate the bread of his God, both of the moſt holy, and of the holy: 23 Only let hym not go in vnto the vayle, nor come nye the aul-ter, becauſe he is deformed, that he pollute not my ſanctuarie: for I am the Lorde that ſanctifie them. 24 And Moyſes tolde it vnto Aaron & to his ſonnes, and vnto all the children of Iſrael.

26 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying: 27 When a bullocke, or a ſheepe or a goate is brought forth, it ſhalbe ſeuen dayes vnder the dam: and from the eyght day and thence forth it ſhalbe accepted for a burnt ſacrifice vnto the Lorde. 28 And whether it be cowe or ewe, ye ſhal not kyll it and her young both in one day.

1 The oyle for the lampes. 15 He that blasphemeth must be stoned. 17 He that killeth shalbe killed. &c.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses saying, 2 Commaunde the children of Israel that they bring vnto thee pure oyle olyue beaten for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually, 3 Without the vayle of witnesse in the tabernacle of the congregation shal Aaron dresse them both euenyng and mornyng before the lord alwayes: Let it be a lawe for euer in your generations. 4 He shall dresse the lampes vpon the pure candelstiche before the Lorde perpetually. 5 And thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes therof, two tenth deales shalbe in one cake. 6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes: sixe on a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lorde.

7 And put pure frankensence vpon the rowes, that they may be bread of remembraunce, and an offeryng made by fyre vnto the Lord. 8 Euery Sabbath he shall put them in rowes before the Lorde euermore, of the children of Israel (shall they be offered) for an euerlastyng couenaunt. 9 And they shalbe Aarons and his sonnes, whiche shall eate them in the holye place: For they are most holy vnto hym of the offeringes of the Lorde made by fyre by a perpetuall statute.

10 And the sonne of an Israelitishe wyfe, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this sonne of the Israelitishe wyfe & a man of Israel stroue together in the hoast. 11 And the Israelitishe womans sonne blasphemed the name of the Lord, and cursed, and they brought hym vnto Moyses: His mothers name was Selomith, which was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. 12 And they put hym in warde, that the minde of the Lorde might be shewed them. 13 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying,

14 Bryng the cursed speaker without the hoast, and let all that heard hym put their handes vpon his head, and let all the multitude stone hym.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying. Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall beare his sinne. 16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the Lorde, let hym be slayne, and all the multitude shal stone him to death: Whether he be borne in the lande, or a straunger, when he blasphemeth the name of the Lorde let hym be slayne.

17 And he that killeth any man, let him dye the death. 18 And he that killeth a beast, let him make him good, beast for beast. 19 And if a man cause a blemiche in his neighbour: as he hath done, so shal it be done to hym.

20 Breache for breache, eye for eye, and toothe for toothe: euen as he hath blemished a man, so shall he be blemished agayne. 21 And he that killeth a beast, let him restore it: and he that killeth a man, let hym dye.

22 Ye shall haue one maner of lawe euen for the straunger as well as for one of your owne countrey: for I am the Lorde your God.

23 And Moyses tolde the children of Israel,

Israel, and they brought hym that had cursed out of the hoast, and stoned hym with stones: and the chyldren of Israel dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

The .xxv. Chapter.

2 The sabbath of the seuenth yere.
8 and the yere of iubilee.

AND the lord spake vnto Moyses in mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye come into the lande which I gene you, the lande shall rest and kepe sabbath vnto the Lorde.
3 Sixe yeres thou shalt sowe thy feelde, & sixe yeres thou shalt cut thy vineyarde, and gather in the fruite therof. 4 But the seuenth yere shalbe a sabbath of rest vnto the lande, the Lordes sabbath it shalbe: thou shalt neither sowe thy feelde, nor cut thy vineyard. 5 That which groweth of the owne accorde of thy harnest thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left behinde: for it is a yere of rest vnto the lande.
6 And the rest of the land shalbe meate for you, euen for thee, for thy seruaunt, and for thy mayde, for thy hyred seruaunt, and for the straunger that sojourneth with thee: 7 And for thy cattell, and for the beastes that are in thy lande, shall all the increase therof be meate. 8 And thou shalt number seuen sabbathes of yeres vnto thee, euen seuen tymes seuen yeres, & the space of the seuen sabbathes of yeres wilbe vnto thee nine and fourtie yeres. 9 And then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the (a) Jubilee in the tenth daye of the seuenth moneth, euen in the day of attonement shall ye make the trumpe blowe throughout al your lande. 10 And ye shall halow that yere, euen the fiftieth yere, & proclayme libertie throughout all the lande vnto all the inhabiters therof: for it shall be a Jubilee vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, & euery man vnto his kinred agayne. 11 A yere of Jubilee shall that fiftieth yere be vnto you: ye shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes that are left, 12 For that yere of Jubilee shalbe holy vnto you: but ye shall eate of the increase therof out of the feelde. 13 In the yere of this Jubilee ye shal returne euery man vnto his possession agayne. 14 If thou sellest ought vnto thy neighbour, or byest ought of thy neyghbours hande, ye shall not oppresse one another. 15 But according to the number of yeres after the Jubilee yere thou shalt bye of thy neyghbour: and accordyng vnto the number of yeres of the fruites he shal sel vnto thee. 16 Accordyng to the multitude of yeres he shall increase the price therof, and according to the fewenesse of yeres he shall minishe the price of it: for the (b) number of fruites doth he sell vnto thee. 17 Oppresse not ye therfore euery man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: For I am the Lorde your God. 18 Wherefore ye shal do after mine ordinaunces, and kepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the lande in safetie.
19 And the land shall gene her fruite, and ye shall eate your fyll, and dwell therin in safetie. 20 And if ye shall saye, What shall we eate the seuenth yere? for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase: 21 I wyll sende my blessing vpon you in the sixt yere, and it shall bryng foorth fruite for three yeres. 22 And ye shal sowe the eight yere, and eate yet of olde fruite vntyll the ninth yere: vntil her fruites come ye shall eate of olde stoze. 23 The lande shall not be solde to (c) waste: for the lande is myne, and ye be but straungers and sojourners with me.
24 In al the lande of your possession ye shall (d) graunt a redemption for the lande. 25 If thy brother be waxed poore, and hath solde away of his possession and if any of his kinne come to redeeme it, let him bye out that which his brother solde. 26 And yf he haue no man to redeeme it, and his hande hath gotten and founde as muche as may be sufficient to bye it out agayne:
27 Then let hym count howe long it hath ben solde, and deliuer the rest vnto the man to whom he sold it, that he maye returne to his possession agayne. 28 But and if his hande can not get sufficient to restore to the other agayne, then that whiche is solde shall remaine in the hand of hym that hath bought it, vntyll the yere of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall come out, and he shall returne vnto his possession agayne. 29 And yf a man sell a dwellyng house in a walled citie, he may by it out agayne within a whole yere after it is solde: within a yere may solde vnto thee, thou shalt not compel hym to serue as a bonde seruaunt: 40 But as an hired seruaunt, and as a sojourner he shalbe with thee, and shal serue thee vnto the yere of Jubilee. 41 And then shal he depart from thee, both he and his children with hym, and shall returne vnto his owne kynred agayne, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne.

42 For they are my seruauntes, whiche I brought out of the lande of Egypt: and shall not therefore be solde as bondemen. 43 Thou shalt not rule ouer hym cruelly, but shalt feare thy God. 44 Thy bondeseruaunt and thy bondemayde whiche thou shalt haue, shalbe of the heathen that are rounde about you: of them shall ye purchase seruauntes and maydes.
45 Moreouer, of the chyldren of the straungers that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye bye, and of theyr families that are with you, which they begat in your lande: these shalbe your possession. 46 And ye shall take them as inheritaunce for your chyldren after you, to possesse them for an inheritaunce: they shalbe your bondmen for euer: but ouer your brethren the chyldren of Israel, ye shal not rule one ouer another cruelly.

one of his brethren may redeeme him:

yere of Jubilee: and the price of his tyme of an hired seruaunt shall he be raunce of the money that he was bought for. 52 If there remayne but fewe yeres vnto the yere of Jubilee, let hym count with hym agayne: and according vnto his yeres, geue hym againe for his redemption. 53 And he shalbe with him yere by yere as an hired seruaunt: and the other shall not rule cruelly ouer hym in thy syght.

54 If he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the yere of Jubilee, both he and his children with hym:

are seruauntes, they are my seruantes which I brought out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lorde your God.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

3 They are blessed that kepe the commaundementes of God. 14 And cursed are they that kepe them not.

YE shall make you no idols nor A vp a pyller, neither shall ye set vp any image of stone in your lande to

Lorde

Lorde your God. 2 Ye shall kepe my sabbathes, and reuerence my sanctuarie: for I am the lord. 3 If ye walke in my ordinaunces, and kepe my commaundementes, and do them, 4 I will sende you rayne in due seasan, and the lande shall yeelde her increase, and the trees of the feelde shall gene theyr fruite: 5 And your (a) threshing shall reache vnto the vintage, and the vintage shal reach vnto the sowyng time: and ye shall eate your bread in plenteousnes, and dwell in your land safely.

(a) There shalbe such plentie, that corne harnest can scarcely be inned before wine harnest, and wine harnest scarcely ended before sowyng time Josu. xxiii.

6 And I will sende peace in the land, and ye shal sleepe, and none shal make you afrayde: and I will tidde euyll beastes out of the lande, and there shal no swoorde go throughout your lande.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you vpon the swoorde. 8 And fiue of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousande to flyght: and your enemies shall fall before you vpon the swoorde. 9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you increase, and multiplie you, and set vp my couenaunt with you. 10 And ye shall eate olde store, and cary out olde because of the newe. 11 And I will make my dwelling place amongst you, and my soule shall not lothe you.

12 I will walke among you, and will be your god, and ye shalbe my people. 13 I am the Lorde your God whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the chaynes of your yoke, & made you go vpryght.

Deut. 28. b. Mala. ii. a.

14 But and if ye wil not hearken vnto me, nor will not do after these commaundementes: 15 And yf ye shall dispise myne ordinances, either yf your soule abhorre my lawes, so that ye will not do all my commaundementes, but breake my couenaunt: 16 I also will do this vnto you, I will bryng vpon you fearefulnesse, consumption, and the burnyng ague to consume your eyes, and gender sorowe of heart: And ye shall sowe your seede in vayne, for your enemies shal eate it. 17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall fall before your enemies: they that hate you shal raigne ouer you, and ye shall flee when no man followeth you.

Prou. 28. a.

18 And yf ye will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, then will I punish you seuen times more for your sinnes: 19 And will breake the pryde of your [illegible] your heauen as as brasse. 29 And [illegible] spent in vayne: for your [illegible] shall not gene her increase, neyther shall the trees of the lande gene theyr fruites. 21 And yf ye walke contrary vnto me, and wil not hearken vnto me, I will bryng seuen tymes mo plagues vpon you accordyng to your sinnes. 22 I will also send in wylde beastes vppon you, which shall robbe you of your chyldren, and destroy your cattell, and make you fewe in number, and cause your hye wayes to be desolate. 23 And if ye may not be reformed by these thynges, but shall walke contrary vnto me: 24 Then will I also walke contrary vnto you, and will punisthe you yet seuen tymes for your sinnes. 25 And I will sende a swoord vpon you, that shall auenge my conenaunt: And when ye are gathered together within your cities, I wil sende the pestilence among you, and ye shall be deliuered into the hande of the enemie. 26 And when I haue broken the (b) staffe of your bread (c) ten wimes shal bake your bread in one ouen, and they shall deliuer you your bread agayne by wayght: ye shall eate, and not be satisfied. 27 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, but walke agaynst me: 28 I will walke contrary vnto you also in indignation, and will chastise you seuen tymes more for your sinnes. 29 And ye shal eate the flesche of your sonnes, and the flesche of your daughters shall ye deuour. 30 I will destroy your hye places, and cut away your images, and cast your barkasses vppon the bodyes of your idols, and my soule shall abhorre you. 31 And I will make your cities desolate, and bryng your sanctuarie vnto naught, and will not smell the sauour of your sweete odours. 32 I will bryng the lande vnto a wylderneste, and your enemies whiche dwell therein shall wonder at it.

Ezechiel. 4. ber. 16.

(b) He speaketh thus, because that man is sustayned and strengthened by the bread that he eateth, lyke as a person is sustayned by the staffe that he leaneth vnto.

(c) The scarsitie shalbe so great, that one litle ouen shall serue for ten housholdes.

33 And I will strowe you among the heathen, and will drawe out a swoorde after you: and your lande shalbe waste, and your cities desolate. 34 Then shall the lande enioy her Sabbathes as longe as it lyeth voyde, and ye shall be in your enemies lande: euen then shall the lande rest and enioy her Sabbathes.

1 Of dyuers vowes and redemption of the ſame. 31 All tythes are due to the Lorde.

AND the Lo⁹de ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying, 2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, If any man wyll make a (a)ſingu-ler bowe of a perſon vnto the lo⁹d by thy eſtimation: 3 Then thy eſti-mation ſhalbe (thus): Of the male from twentie yeres olde vnto ſixtie, ſhalbe by thy eſtimation fiftie ſicles of ſil-uer, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie:
4 And if it be a female, then thy va-luation ſhalbe thirtie ſicles. 5 And from fyue yeres to twentie, thy valua-tion ſhalbe of the male twentie ſicles, and of the female ten ſicles. 6 And from a(b)moneth vnto fyue yeres, thy eſtimation ſhalbe of the male at fyue ſicles of ſilver, and the female at three ſicles of ſilver. 7 And from ſixtie yeres olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy pryce ſhalbe fifteene ſicles, and for the female ten ſicles. 8 But if he be poo⁹er then thou haſt eſtee-med hym, he ſhall preſent hym ſelfe before the prieſte, and the prieſte ſhall value hym: according as the hande of hym that vowed is able to get, euen ſo ſhall the prieſt value him. 9 If it be a beaſt of which men bryng an offe-ring vnto the Lo⁹de, all that any man geueth of ſuche vnto the Lo⁹de ſhalbe holy. 10 He ſhall not alter it, nor chaunge it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: And if he chaunge beaſt for beaſt, then both the ſame beaſt and it alſo wherewith it was chaunged ſhall be(c)holy. 11 If it be any maner of vncleane beaſt, of whiche men do not offer a ſacrifice vnto the Lo⁹de, he ſhal ſet the beaſt before the prieſt: 12 And the prieſt ſhall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as the prieſt ſetteth it, ſo ſhall it be. 13 But if he will bye it agayne, he ſhall geue the fift parte more aboue that it was ſet at. 14 If any man dedicate his houſe to be holy vnto the Lo⁹de, the prieſt ſhall ſet it whether it be good or bad: and as the prieſt hath ſet it, ſo ſhall it ſtande.
15 And when he that ſanctified it wyll redeeme his houſe, let hym geue the fift part of the money that it was iudged at therefo, and it ſhalbe his.

17 If he halowe his fielde immediatly from the yere of Jubilee, it shalbe worth accordyng as thou doest esteeme it. 18 But and if he halowe his field after the Jubilee, the priest shal recken vnto him the money accordyng to the number of the yeres that remayne vnto the yeres of Jubilee folowyng, & it shalbe abated by thy estimation. 19 If he that consecrated the fielde wyll redeeme it agayne, let him put the fift part of the price that thou didst value it at therunto, and it shalbe his. 20 And if he wyll not redeeme the fielde, but selleth the field to another man, he (that vowed) may redeeme it no more: 21 But when the fielde goeth out in the yere of Jubilee, it shalbe holy vnto the Lorde, as a fielde seperate from common vses, and it shalbe the priestes possession.
22 If a man sanctifie vnto the Lorde a fielde which he hath bought, and is not of the grounde of his inheritaunce: 23 The priest shal recken vnto him what it is worth vnto the yere of Jubilee, & he shal geue the price that it is set at the same day, as a thyng consecrate vnto the Lorde. 24 And in the yere of Jubilee the fielde shall returne vnto him of whom it was bought, to him whose inheritaunce of lande it was. 25 And all thy valuation shalbe accordyng to the sicle of the sanctuarie: One sicle contayneth twentie gerahs. 26 But the firstborne of the beastes that is the Lordes first borne, may no man sanctifie, whether it be ore or sheepe, for it is the Lordes alredy. 27 If it be an vncleane beast, he shall redeeme it as thou shalt set it at, and geue the fift part more therto: Or if it be not redeemed, it shalbe solde accordyng to thy estimation. 28 Notwithstandyng, nothyng seperate from the common vse that a man doth seperate vnto the Lorde of all that he hath, whether it be man or beast, or lande of his inheritaunce, may be solde or redeemed: for euery thyng seperat from the common vse, is most holy vnto the Lorde. 29 Nothyng seperate from the common vse, which shalbe seperate from man, shalbe redeemed, but dye the death. 30 Euery tithe of the lande also, both of the seede of the lande, and of the fruite of the trees, is the Lordes, and is sanctified vnto the Lorde. 31 And if a man wyll redeeme ought of his tithes, let him adde the fift part therto. 32 And euery tithe of ore and of sheepe, and of euery beast that goeth vnder the (b) rod, euen euery tenth shalbe holy vnto the Lord.
33 He shall not loke if it be good or bad, nor chaunge it: els if he chaunge it, both it and that it was chaunged withall, shalbe halowed, and may not be redeemed. 34 These are the commaundementes which the Lord commaunded by Moyses vnto the children of Israel in mount Sinai.

2 The leprous and polluted persons shalbe put out of the tentes. 6 The satisfaction for sinne. 12 The lawe of gelousie.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Commaunde the children of Israel that they put out of the hoast euery leper, and euery one that hath an issue, and whosoeuer is defiled by the dead: 3 Both male and female shal ye put out, euen out of the hoast shall ye put them, that they defile not their (a) tentes among which I dwell. 4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out of the hoast: as the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, so did the children of Israel. 5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 6 Speake vnto the children of Israel: When a man or a woman shal commit any sinne that men commit, and trespasse agaynst the Lord: when that person shall trespasse, 7 Then they shal knowledge their sinne which they haue done, and let him restore agayne the hurt that he hath done, with his principall, and put the fist part of it more therto, and gene it vnto him whom he hath trespassed agaynst. 8 But if the man haue no kinseman to restore the hurt vnto, let the trespasse be made good vnto the Lorde, and it shalbe the priestes, beside the Ramme of the attonement wherby an attonement shalbe made for him. 9 And euery heaue offeryng that is made of the holy thinges of the children of Israel which they bryng vnto the priest, shalbe his. 10 And euery mans halowed thinges shalbe his: what soeuer any man geueth the priest, it shalbe his. 11 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 12 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any mans wyfe go aside, and trespasse agaynst him, 13 So that another man lye with her fleshly, and it be hyd from the eyes of her husbande, and is kept close that she is defiled, and there is no witnesse agaynst her, neither she taken with the maner, 14 And the spirite of gelousie commeth vpon him, so that he is gelous ouer his wife which is defiled: or yf the spirite of gelousie come vpon him, so that he is gelous ouer his wife which is yet vndefiled: 15 Then let the man bryng his wyfe vnto the priest, and bryng her offeryng with her, the tenth part of an (b) Epha of barly meale: but let him put no oyle vpon it, nor put frankensence theron, for it is an offeryng of gelousie, an offeryng for a remembrance, causyng the sinne to be thought vpon. 16 And the priest shall bryng her, and set her before the Lorde. 17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessell, and of the dust that is in the floore of the tabernacle the priest shal take it, and put it into the water: 18 And let the priest set the woman before the Lorde, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offeryng of memorial in her handes, which is the gelousie offeryng: and the priest shall haue bytter and cursed water in his hande. 19 And the priest shall charge her by an othe, and say vnto the woman, If no man haue lyen with thee, neither hast gone aside to vncleannes without thy husbande, then haue thou no harme of this bytter and cursed waters. 20 But and if thou hast gone aside from thine husbande, and art defiled, and some man hath lyen with thee beside thine husbande: 21 (Then the priest shal charge the woman with an othe of cursyng, and the priest shall say vnto the woman) The Lord make thee accursed and detestable for the othe among thy people, when the Lord doth make thy thygh to rot, and thy belly swell, 22 These cursed waters go into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly swell, and thy thygh to rot. And let the woman say, Amen, Amen. 23 And let the priest write these curses in a booke, and shal blot them out with the bytter waters: 24 And gene the woman those bitter & cursed waters to drinke, that those cursed and bitters waters may enter into her. 25 And then the priest shall take the gelousie offeryng out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bryng it vnto the aulter. 26 And the priest shal take (an handfull) of the offeryng for a memorial, & burne it vpon the aulter, and then make the woman drinke the waters: 27 And when he hath made the woman drinke the waters, if she be defiled & haue trespalled against her husbande, then shall the cursed and bitter waters go into her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shalbe a curse among her people. 28 And if the woman be not defiled, but is cleane, she shall haue no harme, but shall conceaue and beare.

(a) There were three sortes of tentes among the Hebrues. The tent of the Lorde, that is, the tabernacle, the tent of the Leuites, and the tent of Israel. The lepers were excluded from them all: the impure by an issue, from the two first, and the defiled by the dead only from the tabernacle of the congregation.

(b) Ephacontaineth three bus shels. The tenth deale of an Ephacontey neth only so much as.xl. egge shelles can cõprise. An Hin is a measure of things liquid conteining as much as.xii. logges, eche logge holdeth as much as.6. eg shelles can hold. But Omer, or Gomer, whiche is also called Corus in Latine, conteineth the measure of 3. Ephaes, that is as much as a thousande two hundred fourescore and ten egge shelles can conteyne.

29 This is the lawe of gelousie when a wyfe goeth a syde from her husband, and is defiled: 30 Or when the spirit of gelousie commeth vpon a man, and he beyng gelous ouer his wyfe, doth bryng her before the Lord, and the priest shal do to her accordyng vnto all this lawe: 31 And the man shalbe gyltlesse, and this woman shall beare her sinne.

The .vi. Chapter.

2 The lawe of consecration of the Nazarites. 24 Howe the priestes shall blesse the people.

AND the lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When either man or woman doth separate them selues to vowe a vowe of (a) a Nazarite, to separate them selues vnto the Lorde: 3 He shall separate him selfe from wine & strong drynke, and shall drynke no vineger of wine or of strong drynke, nor shall drynke whatsoeuer is pressed out of grapes, and shall eate no fresshe grapes, neither yet dryed. 4 As long as his abstinence endureth shall he eate nothyng that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huske of the grape. 5 And as long as he voweth and is separated there shall no rasor come vpon his head, vntyll his dayes be out in the which he separateth him selfe vnto the Lorde, he shalbe holy, & shall let the lockes of his heere grow. 6 As long as he separateth him selfe vnto the Lorde, he shall come at no dead body. 7 He shall not make him selfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother or sister: because that the consecration of his god is vpon his head. 8 All the dayes of his separation he is holy vnto the Lorde. 9 And if any man dye sodenly before him or he be ware, the head of his consecration shalbe defyled: and he shall shaue his head the day of his clensyng, the seuenth day shal he shaue it. 10 And the eyght day he shall bring two turtles or two young pigeons to the priest, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sinne offering and the other for a whole burnt offering: and make an attonement for him as concernyng that he sinned by the dead, and shall halowe his head the same daye.

12 And he shall consecrate vnto the Lorde the tyme of his separation, and shall bryng a lamme of a yere old for a trespasse offering: but the dayes that were before are lost, because his consecration was defiled. 13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite: when the time of his consecration is out, he shalbe brought vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation: 14 And he shal bring his offering vnto the Lord, an he lamme of a yere olde without blemishe for a whole burnt offeryng, and a thee lamme of a yere olde without blemishe for a sinne offering, and a ramme without blemish also for peace offerings, 15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, cakes of fine flowre mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread annoynted with oyle, with theyr meate offeringes and drynke offerynges. 16 And the priest shall bring them before the Lorde, and offer his sinne offeryng and his whole burnt offeryng. 17 And shall prepare the ramme for a peace offeryng vnto the Lorde, with the basket of vnleauened bread: and the priest shall make also his meate offeryng and his drynke offeryng. 18 And the Nazarite shall shaue the head of his consecration at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shal take the heere of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire whiche is vnder the peace offeryng. 19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the basket, and one vnleauened wafer also, and put them vppon the handes of the Nazarite after he hath shauen his consecration. 20 And the priest shall waue them before the lord: And these holy thynges shall be the priestes, with the waue brest and the heaue shoulder: and then the Nazarite may drinke wine. 21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite whiche hath vowed his offeryng vnto the Lorde for his consecration, besydes those thinges that his hande can get: accordyng to the vowe which he vowed, so he must do after the lawe of his consecration. 22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 23 Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, saying, On this wyse ye shall blesse the children of Israel and say vnto them, 24 The lord blesse thee, and kepe thee: 25 The Lorde make his face shyne vppon thee, and be mercifull vnto thee:

17 For all the first borne of the chyldren of Israel are mine, both man and beast: since the day that I smote euery first borne in the lande of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe,

The. ix. Chapter.

1 What tyme the cleane, and what time the vncleane ought to kepe the paſſouer. 15 The cloude coueryng the tabernacle, leadeth the Iſraelites through the wilderneſſe.

AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moyſes in the wilderneſſe of Sinai, in the firſt moneth of the ſeconde yere after they were come out of the lande of Egypt, ſaying, 2 Let the chyldren of Iſrael celebrate the paſſouer at the tyme appoynted therunto. 4 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at euen ye ſhall kepe it in his ſeaſon: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies therof, ſhall ye kepe it. 4 And Moyſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde celebrate the paſſouer. 5 And they kept the paſſouer the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth at euen in the wyldernelle of Sinai: according to all that the Lord commaunded Moyſes, ſo did the chyldren of Iſrael. 6 And certayne men were defyled by a dead man, that they myght not kepe the paſſouer the ſame day, and they came before Moyſes and Aaron the ſame day, 7 And thoſe men ſayde vnto him, We are defyled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offeryng vnto the Lorde in due ſeaſon among the chyldren of Iſrael? 8 And Moyſes ſayde vnto them, Stande ſtyll, and I wyll heare what the lord wyll commaunde concerning you. 9 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying,

10 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, If any man of you or of your poſteritie, ſhalbe vncleane by the reaſon of a coarſe, or be in a way farre diſtaunt from you, he ſhall kepe the paſſouer vnto the Lorde. 11 The fourteenth day of the ſeconde moneth at euen let them kepe it: and eate it with vnleauened bread, and ſowre herbes. Exod. xii. Ioh. xix. 12 Let them leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: But according to all the ordinaunce of the paſſouer let them kepe it. 13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to kepe the paſſouer, the ſame ſoule ſhalbe cut of from his people: becauſe he brought not the offering of the Lorde in his due ſeaſon, that man ſhall beare his ſinne. 14 And yf a ſtraunger dwell among you, and wyll kepe the paſſouer vnto the Lorde: according to the ordinaunce of the paſſouer and maner therof ſo ſhall he do. Ye ſhall haue one lawe both for the ſtraunger, and for him that was borne in the ſame lande. Exod. xii. 15 And the ſame day that the tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the tabernacle (namely) the tabernacle of the teſtimonie: and at euen there was vpon the tabernacle as it were the appearaunce of fire, vntyll the morning. 16 So it was alway: the cloud couered it by day, and the appearaunce of fyre by night. 17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the tabernacle, then the chyl-

The. x. Chapter.

1 The trumpets of siluer, and their vse.
30 Obab refuseth to go with Moyses.

AND the lord spake vnto Moyses, saying. 2 Make thee two trumpettes of siluer: of an whole peece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest vse them to call the congregation together, and when the campe shall tourney. 3 And when they shal blow with them, all the multitude shall resort to thee before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. 4 And if they blowe but one trumpet, then the princes which are heades ouer the thousandes of Israel shall come vnto thee. 5 But if ye blowe an alarme, the hoastes that lye on the east partes shall go forwarde. 6 And if ye blowe the alarme the seconde time, the hoast that lyeth on the south syde shall take their tourney: for they shall blowe an alarme when they take theis tourneies. 7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, they shall blowe without an alarme. 8 And the sonnes of Aaron the priestes shall blowe with theyr trumpettes, and ye shall haue them as a lawe for euer in your generations. 9 And if ye go to warre in your lande against your enemies that vexe you, ye shall blowe an alarme with the trumpettes, and ye shalbe remembred before the Lorde your God, to be saued from your enemies. 10 Also in the day of your gladnesse, and in your feast dayes, and in the beginning of your monethes ye shall blowe the trumpettes ouer your whole burnt sacrifices and peace offerynges, that they may be a remembraunce for you before your God: I am the Lorde your God. 11 And it came to passe the twenteth day of the seconde moneth in the seconde yere, that the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle of the testimonie.

12 And the chyldren of Israel tooke their iourney out of the desart of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wylderneese of Pharan. 13 And they first toke theyr iourney at the mouth of the Lorde by the hande of Moyses.

14 In the first place went the standerde of the hoast of the chyldren of Juda according to theyr armies, whose captayne was Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab. 15 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the chyldren of Issachar was Nathanael the sonne of Zuar. 16 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the chyldren of Zabulon was Eliab the sonne of Helon. 17 And the tabernacle was taken downe, and the sonnes of Gerson and Merari went forth bearyng the tabernacle. 18 And the hoast of Ruben went forth with theyr standerde & armies, whose captaine was Elizur the sonne of Sedeur. 19 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Salamiel the sonne of Surisaddai. 20 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the chyldren of Gad was Eliasaph the sonne of Duel. 21 The Caathites also went forwarde and bare the sanctuarie & the other did set vp the tabernacle against they came. 22 And the standerde of the hoast of the chyldren of Ephraim went forth according to their armies, whose captaine was Elisama the sonne of Ammiud. 23 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasse was Gamaliel the sonne of Pedazur, Pedazur. 24 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the sonnes of Beniamin was Abidan the sonne of Gedeon.

25 And the standerde of the hoaste of the children of Dan came fourth (gathering al the hoast together) throughout theyr armies, whose captayne was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammisaddai.
26 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the childre Aser was Pagiel the sonne of Ochran. 27 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the children of Nepthali was Ahira the sonne of Enan.
28 These are the iourneyes of the chyldren of Israel throughout theyr armies, & thus the hoastes remoued.
29 And Moyses said vnto Hobab the sonne of Raguel the Madianite, which was Moyses * father in lawe: We go vnto the place of which the lord sayd, I wyll geue it you. Come thou therefore with vs, and we wil do thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israel. 30 And he answered hym, I will not go, but wyll depart to myne owne lande, and to my kinred. 31 He sayde, Oh nay, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our mansions in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to vs in stead of * eyes. 32 And if thou go with vs, looke what goodnesse the Lorde sheweth vnto vs, the same wyll we shewe vnto thee. 33 And they departed from the mount of the Lorde three dayes iourney, and the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde went before them in the three dayes' iourney, to searche out a resting place for them. 34 And the cloude of the Lorde was vpon them by day when they went out of the campe. 35 And when the arke went forth, Moyses sayde, Rise vp Lorde, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee.
36 And when the arke rested, he sayd, Returne O Lorde vnto the many thousandes of Israel.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 The people murmureth. 4 They desire flesshe. 6 Thy lothe Manna. 31 It prayneth quayles. 33 The flesshe eaters are punyshed.

AND when the people * did impatiently, it was a displeasure in the eares of the Lorde: And when the Lorde hearde it his countenaunce was prouoked to wrath, and the fyre of the Lorde burnt among them, and consumed them that were the vttermost of the hoast. 2 And the people cryed vnto Moyses: and when Moyses made intercession vnto the Lorde, the fire quenched. 3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the Lorde burnt among them. 4 And a number of people that was among (a) them fel a lusting, and turned them selues, and wept (as did also the children of Israel) and sayde, who shall geue vs flesshe to eate?
5 We remember the fishe whiche we did eate in Egypt freely, and the cucumbers, and melones, leekes, onions and garlek. 6 But nowe our soule is dryed away: for we can see nothyng els but Manna. 7 And Manna was as coriander seede, and to see to lyke (b) Bdellion. 8 And the people went about and gathered it, & grounde it in milles, or beat it in mortars, and bahed it in pannes, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was lyke vnto the taste of a freshe oyle (cake.) 9 And when the deawe fell downe vppon the hoast in the nyght, Manna fell * vppon it.
10 And when Moyses heard the people weepe throughout theyr households, euery man in the dooze of his tent, the wrath of the Lord was kyndled exceedingly, & it greeued Moyses also. 11 And Moyses sayde vnto the Lorde, Wherefore hast thou troubled thy seruaunt? And wherefore haue I not founde fauour in thy sight, seeyng that thou puttest the waight of al this people vpon me? 12 Haue I conceaued al this people? or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Cary them in thy bosome as a nurse beareth the sucking chylde, vnto the lande whiche thou swarest vnto theyr fathers? 13 Where should I haue flesshe to geue vnto all this people, which weepe before me saying, Geue vs flesshe that we may eate. 14 I am not able to beare al this people alone, seeyng it is to heauy for me. 15 If thou deale thus with me, kyll me I pray thee, yf I haue founde fauour in thy syght, that I see not my wretchednesse. 16 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Gather vnto me threescore and ten men of the elders of Israel, whiche thou knowest that they are the elders of the people and officers ouer them: and thou shalt bryng them vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they maye stande there with thee:

17 And I wil come downe, and talke with thee there, & (b) take of the spirite whiche is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burthen of the people with thee, lest thou be constrayned to beare it alone.

18 And say thou vnto the people, Be halowed against to morowe, and ye shall eate flesshe: for your whyning is in the eares of the Lorde, saying ye sayde, Who shall geue vs flesshe to eate? we were well in Egypt: Therefore the Lorde wyll geue you flesshe, and ye shal eate. 19 Ye shall not eate one day nor two, nor fiue dayes, neither ten, nor twentie dayes: 20 But a whole moneth, vntyll it come out at the nostrels of you, and it shalbe lothsome vnto you, because that ye haue cast the Lorde aside whiche is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we thus out of Egypt?

21 And Moyses sayde, Sixe hundred thousande footemen are there of the people among whiche I am: and thou hast sayd, I wil geue them flesshe, that they may eate a whole moneth.

22 Shall the sheepe and the oxen be slayne for them, to finde them? either shall all the fishe of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffise them?

23 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Is the lordes hande waxed short? Thou shalt see nowe whether my worde shall come to passe vnto thee, or not. 24 And Moyses went out and told the people the saying of the lord, and gathered the threescore and ten elders of the people, and set them rounde about the tabernacle. 25 And the Lord came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto hym, & toke of the spirite that was vpon hym, and gaue it vnto the threescore and ten elders: And when the spirite rested vpon them, (c) they prophesied, and dyd not ceasse.

26 But there remayned two of the men in the hoast, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirite rested vpon them, (& they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the tabernacle) and they prophesied in the hoast. 27 And there ran a yong man, and tolde Moyses, and sayde, Eldad and Medad do prophesie in the hoast.

28 And Josuah the sonne of Nun the seruaunt of Moyses, one of his yong men aunswered, and sayde, My Lorde Moyses, forbyd them. 29 And Moyses sayd vnto hym, Enuiest thou for my sake? Woulde God that al the Lordes people coulde prophesie, and that the Lorde woulde put his spirite vpon them. 30 And Moyses gate hym into the hoast, he and the elders of Israel. 31 And there went foorth a wynde from the Lorde, and brought quayles from the sea, and let them fall about the hoast, euen a dayes iourney rounde about on euery syde of the hoast, and (they did flee in the ayre) as it were two cubites hye ouer the earth. 32 And the people stoode vp all that day, & all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered quayles: And he that gathered litle, gathered ten Homers full: And they spread them abroade for them vse rounde about the hoast. 33 And whyle the flesshe was yet betweene their teeth, and yer it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against the people, and the lord smote the people with an exceedyng great plague. 34 And he called the name of the place, The graues of lust: because there buried the people that lusted there. 35 And the people toke their iourney from the graues of lust vnto Haseroth, and abode at Haseroth.

(b) That is, I wyll distribute my spirite among them as I haue done to thee.

And the Lorde hearde it. 3 (But Moyses was a very meeke man, aboue all the men of the earth.) 4 And the Lorde spake at once vnto Moyses, vnto Aaron, & to Mari, Come out ye three vnto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out all three. 5 And the Lorde came downe in the pyller of the cloude, and stoode in the doore of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Mari: and they went out both of them. 6 And he sayde, Heare my wordes: If there be a prophete of the Lorde among you, I wyll be knowen of him in a vision, and will speake vnto hym in a dreame. 7 My seruaunt Moyses is not so, which is faythfull in

2. Par. 26. D

11 And Aaron sayde vnto Moyses, Alas my Lorde, I beseech thee put not the sinne vpon vs which we haue foolishly committed and sinned. 12 Oh, let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesche is halfe consumed when he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 And Moyses cryed vnto the Lorde, saying, Heale her nowe O God I beseche thee. 14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, If her father had (a) spit in her face, shoulde she not be ashamed seuen dayes? Let her be shut out of the hoast seuen dayes, and after that let her be receaued in agayne. 15 And Mari was shut out of the hoast seuen dayes: and the people remoued not tyll Mari was brought in agayne. 16 And afterwarde the people remoued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wyldernesse of Pharan.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1 Certaine men are sent to searche the lande of Chanaan. 24 They bryng of the fruite of the lande.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Sende men out to searche the lande of Chanaan, whiche I geue vnto the chyldren of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shall ye sende a man, and let them all be suche as are rulers among them.

3 And Moyses at the commaundement of the Lorde sent foorth out of the wyldernesse of Pharan, such men as were all heades of the chyldren of Israel. 4 Their names are these. Of the tribe of Ruben, Sammua the sonne of Zacur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Saphat the sonne of Hori. 6 Of the tribe of Juda, Caleb the sonne of Jephune.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Joseph. 8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Osea the sonne of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu. 10 Of the tribe of Zabulon, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi. 11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely of the tribe of Manasse, Gaddi the sonne of Susi. 12 Of the tribe of Dan, Amiel the sonne of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Aser, Sethur the sonne of Michael. 14 Of the tribe of Nephthali, Nahabi the sonne of Vaphsi. 15 Of the tribe of Gad, Guel the sonne of Machi. 16 These are the names of the men whiche Moyses sent to spye out the lande: And Moyses called the name of Osea the sonne of Nun, Josuah. 17 And Moyses sent them foorth to spie out the lande of Chanaan, and sayde vnto them, Get you vp this way southwarde, that ye may go vp into the hye countrey, 18 And see the land what maner thing it is, and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weake, either fewe or many:

19 And what the lande is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad, and what manor of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tentes or walled townes: 20 And what manor of lande that is, whether it be fat or leane, and whether there be trees therein or not. Be of good courage, and bryng of the fruite of the lande: And it was about the tyme that grapes are first rype. 21 And so they went vp, and searched out the lande from the wildernesse of Zin, vnto Rehob, as men come to Hemath. 22 And they ascended vnto the south, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Sesai, and Thalmai, the sonnes of Anac. Hebron was buylt seuen yeres before Zoan in Egypt. 23 And they came vnto the riuer of Escol, and cut downe there a braunche with one cluster of grapes, and twayne bare it vpon a staffe: and (they brought) also of the pomgranates, and of the figges.

24 And the place was called the riuer Escol, because of the cluster of grapes whiche the chyldren of Israel cut downe thence. 25 And they turned backe agayne from searching of the lande after fourtie dayes. 26 And they went, and came to Moyses and Aaron, and vnto all the multitude of the chyldren of Israel in the wyldernesse of Pharan to Cades: and brought them worde, and also vnto al the congregation, and shewed them the fruite of the lande.

27 And they tolde hym, and sayde,

We came vnto the land whyther thou sendedst vs, & surely it floweth with mylke and hony, and here is of the fruite of it. 28 Neuertheleſſe, the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreouer, we sawe the chyldren of Anac there. 29 The Amalechites dwell in the south countrey: and the Hethites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaynes: and the Chanaanites dwell by the sea, & by the coast of Jordane. 30 And Caleb stylled the people before Moyses, saying, Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it, for we be able to ouercome it. 31 But the men that went vp with hym, sayde, We be not able to go vp against the people, for they are stronger then we. 32 And they brought vp an euyll report of the lande which they had searched, saying vnto the chyldren of Israel, The land which we haue gone through to search it out, is a lande that (b) eateth vp the inhabitours therof, and the people that we sawe in it, are men of a great stature. 33 And there we sawe also gyauntes the chyldren of Anac (which come) of the gyauntes: and we seemed in our sight as it were grashoppers, and so we dyd in their sight.

(b) The gyauntes were so cruel, that they spoyled & kylled one another, and those that came vnto them.

The. xiii. Chapter.

2 The people murmure against Moyses and Aaron. 10 They would haue stoned Caleb and Josuah.

AND all the multitude of the people cryed out, and wept throughout that night. 2 And all the chyldren of Israel murmured against Moyses and Aaron: and the whole congregation sayd vnto them, Would God that we had dyed in the lande of Egypt, either that we had died in this wylderneſſe. 3 Wherfore hath the Lorde brought vs vnto this lande to fall vpon the swoorde, and that our wyues and our chyldren shoulde be a pray? Were it not better that we returne vnto Egypt agayne? 4 And they sayde one to another, Let vs make a captayne, and returne vnto Egypt agayne. 5 Then Moyses and Aaron fell (a) on their faces before al the assembly of the congregation of the chyldren of Israel. 6 And Josuah the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Jephune (whiche were) of them that searched the lande, rent their clothes: 7 And spake vnto all the company of the chyldren of Israel, saying, The lande whiche we walked through to searche it, is a very good lande. 8 If the Lorde haue a loue to vs, he wyl bryng vs into this lande and gene it vs, which is suche a lande as floweth with mylke and hony. 9 But in any wise rebell not ye against the Lord, neither feare the people of the lande, for they are but (b) bread for vs: Their shielde is departed from them, and the Lorde is with vs: feare them not therefore.

10 But all the congregation bad stone them with stones: and the glorie of the Lord appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the chyldren of Israel. 11 And the Lorde said vnto Moyses, Howe long do this people prouoke me, and howe long wyll it be yer they beleue me for all the signes whiche I haue shewed among them? 12 I will smyte them with the pestilence and destroy them, and wyll make of thee a greater nation and mightier then they. 13 And Moyses sayde vnto the Lorde, Then the Egyptians shal heare it, (for thou bronghrest this people in thy might from among them.) 14 And it wyll be told to the inhabiters of this land also: for they haue hearde likewise, that thou Lorde art among this people, and that thou Lorde art seene face to face, and that thy cloude standeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them by day tyme in a pyller of a clonde, and in a pyller of fire by night.

15 If thou shalt kyll all this people as they were but one man: then the nations whiche haue hearde the fame of thee, wyll say, 16 Because the Lord is not able to bryng in this people into the lande which he sware vnto them, therfore he hath slayne them in the wylderneſſe. 17 And now I beseche thee, let the power of my Lorde be great, accordyng as thou hast spoken, saying, 18 The Lorde is long yer he be angry, and of great mercy, and forgeueth iniquitie and sinne, and "leaueth no man innocent, and visiteth the righteousneſſe of the fathers vpon the chyldren in the thirde and fourth generations. 19 Be mercyfull I beseche thee vnto the sinne of this people accordyng vnto thy great mercy, as thou hast forgeuen this people from Egypt, euen vntill now.

20 And the Lorde sayde, I haue forgeuen it, accordyng to thy request.

9 Let hym bryng with a bullocke a meate offering of three tenth deales of floure mingled with halfe an hin of oyle. 10 And thou ſhalt bryng for a drinke offering halfe an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

11 After this maner ſhall it be done for a bullocke, or for a ramme, or for a lamme, or a kid, 12 Accordyng to the number that ye ſhall prepare, ſo ſhall ye do to euery one, accordyng to their number. 13 All that are borne of the countrey, ſhal do theſe thynges after this maner, to offer an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde. 14 And if a ſtraunger ſoiourne with you, or whoſoeuer be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord: as ye do, ſo he ſhall do. 15 One ordinaunce ſhalbe both for you of the congregation, and alſo for the ſtraunger that C dwelleth (with you:) It ſhalbe an ordinaunce for euer in your generations: as ye are, ſo ſhall the ſtraunger be before the Lorde. 16 One lawe and one maner ſhall ſerue both for you and for the ſtraunger that ſoiourneth with you. 17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying,

'A Ecclc. 45. c. AND Corah the sonne of Isaar, the sonne of Caath, the sonne of Leui, went a part with Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth the sonne of Ruben: 2 And they rose vp before Moyses, with certayne of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie, which were captaynes of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of great renoume. 3 And they gathered them selues together against Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, Ye take to much vpon you, seing (a) all the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is among them: Why lift you your selues vp aboue the congregation of the Lorde? 4 And when Moyses hearde it, he fell vpon his face, 5 And spake vnto Corah and vnto all his company, saying, To morowe the Lorde wyll shewe who are his, who (b) is holy, and who ought to approche nye vnto him: and whom he hath chosen, he wyll cause to come neare vnto him. 6 This do therfore: Take you ' fire panns, both Corah and all his companie, 7 And put fire therin, and put incense in them before the Lorde to morowe: And the man whom the Lorde doth choose, the same shalbe holy: Ye take to much vpon you ye sonnes of Leui.
8 And Moyses sayde vnto Corah, Heare I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui, 9 Seemeth it but a small thyng vnto you, that the God of Israel hath seperated you from the multitude of Israel, and brought you to him selfe, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the Lorde, and to stande before the multitude, and to minister vnto them? 10 He hath taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee: and seke ye the office of the priest also? 11 For which cause both thou and all thy companie are gathered together against the Lorde: And what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him? 12 And Moyses sent, and called Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: which sayde, We wyll not come vp. 13 Is it a small thyng that thou hast brought vs out of the lande that floweth with mylke and hony, to kyl vs in the wilderne: except thou make thy selfe lorde and ruler ouer vs also? 14 Moreouer, hast thou brought vs vnto a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, and geuen vs inheritaunce of fieldes and vineyardes? Wylt thou (c) put out the eyes of these men? We wyll not come vp. 15 And Moyses waxed very angry and sayde vnto the Lorde, Turne not thou vnto their offeryng: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them. 16 And Moyses sayde vnto Corah, Be thou & all thy companie before the Lorde, both thou, they, and Aaron, to morowe. 17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bryng ye before the Lord euery man his censer, two hundred and fiftie censers: thou also & Aaron, euery one his censer. 18 And they toke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and layde incense theron, and stoode in the doore of the tabernacle of the congregration with Moyses and Aaron. 19 And Corah gathered all the congregation against them vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto all the congregation. 20 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying,
21 Seperate your selues from among this congregation, that I may consume them at once. 22 And they fell vpon their faces, and sayde, O God,

(a) All are a like holy, therfore none ought to be preferred a bone other: thus the wicked, as Anabaptistes and such lyke, reason against gods ordinance.

the God of spiestes of all flesshe, hath not one man sinned? Wylt thou be wroth with all the multitude? 23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 24 Speake vnto the congregation, and say, Get you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram. 25 And Moyses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Israel folowed him. 26 And he spake vnto the congregation, saying, Depart I pray you from the tentes of these wicked men, and touche nothyng of theirs, lest ye perishe in all their sinnes. 27 And so they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, on euery side: And Dathan and Abiram came out, and stoode in the doore of their tentes, with their wiues, their sonnes, and their litle children. 28 And Moyses sayde, Hereby ye shall knowe that the Lorde hath sent me to do all these workes: for I haue not done them of myne owne mynde. 29 If these men dye the common death of all men, or yf they be visited after the visitation of all men, then the Lorde hath not sent me: 30 But and yf the Lorde make a(d) newe thyng, and the earth open her mouth, and swallowe them vp with all that they haue, and they go downe quick into the pit: then ye shall vnderstande that these men haue prouoked the Lorde. 31 And assoone as he had made an ende of speakyng all these wordes, the grounde cloue a sunder that was vnder them: 32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed them vp, and their houses, and all the men that were with Corah, and all their goodes. 33 And they and all that they had went downe aliue vnto the pit, and the earth closed vpon them: and they perished from among the congregation. 34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the crye of them: and they sayde, Lest the earth swalowe vs vp also. 35 And there came out a fire from the Lorde, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offred incense. 36 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burnyng, and scatter the fire here and there, for they are halowed: 38 The censers of these sinners (e) agaynst their owne soules: let them make of them brode plates for a coueryng of the aulter: For they offered them before the Lorde, and therfore they are halowed, and they shalbe a signe vnto the children of Israel. 39 And Eleazar the priest toke the brasen censers which they that were burnt had offred, and made brode plates for a (f) coueryng of the aulter, 40 To be a remembraunce vnto the children of Israel, that no straunger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neare to offer incense before the Lorde, that he be not like vnto Corah and his companie, as the Lorde sayde to him by the hande of Moyses.

41 But on the morowe, all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured agaynst Moyses and Aaron, saying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lorde. 42 And when the multitude was gathered agaynst Moyses and Aaron, they loked towarde the tabernacle of the congregation: and beholde, the cloude couered it, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared. 43 And Moyses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 45 Get you from among this congregation, that I may consume them quickly. And they fell vpon their faces. 46 And Moyses sayd vnto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therin out of the aulter, & powre on incense, and go quickly vnto the congregation, and make an attonement for them: For there is wrath gone out from the Lorde, and there is a plague begunne. 47 And Aaron toke as Moyses commaunded him, and ranne into the middes of the congregation: and beholde, the plague was begunne among the people, and he put on incense, and made an attonement for the people. 48 And when he stoode betweene the dead and them that were aliue, the plague was stayed. 49 They that dyed in the plague, were foureteene thousande and seuen hundred, beside them that dyed about the conspiracie of Corah.

50 And Aaron went agayne vnto Moyses before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

AND the Lorde sayde vnto Aaron, Thou and thy sonnes, and thy fathers house with thee shall (a) beare the iniquitie of the sanctuarie: and thou and thy sonnes with thee shall beare the iniquitie of your priestes office. 2 And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui and of thy fathers householde thou shalt bryng with thee, that they may be ioyned vnto thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee (shall minister) before the tabernacle of witnesse. 3 They shall kepe thy charge, the charge of all the tabernacle: only let them not come nye the vessels of the sanctuarie and the aulter, that they and ye also dye not. 4 And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and kepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation for all the seruice of the tabernacle: and let no straunger come nye vnto you. 5 Therfore shall ye kepe the charge of the sanctuarie, and the charge of the aulter, that there fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel. 6 Beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, which as a gyft of yours are geuen vnto the Lorde, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation. 7 Therefore shalt thou and thy sonnes with thee kepe your priestes office for all thynges that pertayne vnto the aulter and within the vayle: and ye shall serue, for I haue geuen your priestes office vnto you as a gyft, and therefore the straunger that commeth nye, must be slayne. 8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, Beholde, I haue geuen thee the kepyng of myne heaue offerynges, of all the halowed thynges of the children of Israel, (euen) vnto thee I haue geuen them for the annoyntyng, and to thy sonnes for an ordinaunce for euer. 9 This shalbe thyne of the most holy thynges (reserued) from the fire (of the aulter:) all their sacrifices for all their meate offerynges, sinne offerynges, or trespasse offerynges, which they bryng vnto me, that shalbe most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes. 10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it, & all that are males shal eate of it: let it be holy vnto thee.

11 And this also is thine: the heaue offeringes of their gyftes, throughout all the waue offeringes of the children of Israel: I haue geuen them vnto thee, and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: and all that are cleane in thy house shall eate of it. 12 All the (b) fat of the oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shall offer vnto the Lorde for first fruites, the same haue I geuen vnto thee. 13 And whatsoeuer is first rype in their lande which they bryng vnto the Lorde shalbe thyne, and all that are cleane in thyne house, shall eate of it. 14 All thinges seperate from the common vse in Israel, shalbe thyne. ℂ 15 All that breaketh the matrice in all flesche that men bring vnto the Lorde, whether it be of men or beastes, shalbe thine: Neuertheless, the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of vncleane beastes shalt thou redeeme. 16 Those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeeme from the age of a moneth, according to thine estimation, for the money of fiue sicles after the sicle of the sanctuarie, which is twentie gerahs. 17 But the first borne of a cowe, sheepe, and goate shalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therefore thou shalt sprinkle their blood vpon the aulter, and shalt burne their fat as a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde. 18 And the flesche of them is thine, as the waue brest and the right shoulder: these are thyne. 19 All the heaue offeringes of holy thynges which the children of Israel offer vnto the Lorde, haue I geuen thee and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it be a (c) salted couenaunt for euer before the Lord, both vnto thee, & to thy seede with thee. 20 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue no inheritaunce in their lande, neither shalt thou haue any part among them: I am thy part & thy inheritaunce among the children of Israel. 21 Beholde, I haue geuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israel to inherite, for the seruice which they serue in the tabernacle of the congregation. 22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nie the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they beare sinne, and dye. 23 But the Leuites shall do the seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, and beare their sinne: It shalbe a law for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse no inheritaunce. 24 But the tithes of the children of Israel which they pay as an heaue offeryng vnto the Lord, I haue geuen the Leuites to inherite: and therfore I haue sayd vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shal possesse no inheritaunce. 25 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying, 26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and say vnto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I haue geuen you of them for your inheritaunce, ye shall take an heaue offeryng of that same for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tithe. 27 And this your heaue offeryng shalbe reckened vnto you, as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulnesse of the wine presse. 28 Of this maner ye shall therfore offer an heaue offering vnto the Lorde of all your tithes which ye receaue of the children of Israel, & ye shall geue therof the Lordes heaue offeryng to Aaron the priest. 29 Of all your gyftes ye shal offer all the Lordes heaue offeryng, euen all the fat of the same, (to wit) the holy thinges therof. 30 Therfore thou shalt say vnto them, When ye haue taken away the fat of it from it, it shalbe counted vnto the Leuites as if it were the encrease of the corne floore, or the increase of the wine presse. 31 And ye shall eate it in all places, both ye & your houholdes: for it is your rewarde for your seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation. 32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offred from it the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy thinges of the children of Israel, lest ye dye.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, and bring them vp into mount Hor. 26 And cause Aaron to put of his garmentes, and put them vppon Eleazar his sonne: and Aaron shalbe gathered vnto his people, and shal dye there. 27 And Moyses dyd as the Lord commaunded: and they went vp into mount Hor in the sight of al the multitude. 28 And Moyses tooke of Aarons clothes, and put them vppon Eleazar his sonne, and Aaron dyed

7 Therfore the people came to Moyses, and sayde, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the lord & against thee: make intercession to the Lorde that he take away the serpentes from vs. And Moyses made intercession for the people. 8 And the Lord sayd vnto Moyses, Make thee a fyrie (a) serpent, and set it vp vpon a pole: that as many as are bitten, may loke vpon it and lyue. 9 And Moyses made a serpent of brasse, and set it vpon a pole: and when a serpent had bitten any man, he beheld the serpent of brasse and lyued. 10 And the chyldren of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth. 11 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched at the heapes of Abarim, in the wildernesse which is before Moab on the east syde. 12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Zared.

And from the wyldernes they went to Mathana: 19 And from Mathana to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 And from Bamoth of the valley that is in the feeld of Moab, vnto the toppe of the hyll that looketh towarde Jesimon.

5 Kyng Balac sendeth twyse for Balaam to curse the Israelites. 12 The lord forbiddeth hym to go. 21 The angel rebuketh hym. 28 And Balaams asse speaketh.

A Nd the chyldren of Israel departed and pitched in the feeldes of Moab, on the other syde of Jordane from Jericho. 2 And Balac the sonne of Ziphor sawe all that Israel had done to the Amorites. 3 And the Moabites were sore afrayde of the people, because they were many, and they were stricken with feare of the chyldren of Israel. 4 And Moab said vnto the elders of Madian, Nowe shall this companie "liche vp all that are rounde about vs, as an oxe licheth vp the grasse of the feeld. And Balac the sonne of Ziphor was kyng of the Moabites at that tyme. 5 He sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor to Pethor, which is by the riuer of the land of the chyldren of his folke, to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and beholde they couer the face of the earth, and dwell (a) ouer agaynst me. 6 Come nowe therefore I pray thee, and curse me this people, for they are to myghtie for me, so it may be I shall be able to smyte them, and to dryue them out of the land: For I wote that he whom thou blessest, is blessed, and whom thou cursest is cursed. 7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Madian departed, hauyng the (rewarde) of the sooth saying in theyr hande: And they came vnto Balaam, and tolde hym the wordes of Balac. 8 He aunswered them, Tary here this nyght, and I will bryng you worde, as the Lorde shall say vnto me. And the lordes of Moab abode with Balaam. 9 And God came vnto Balaam, & said, What men are these with thee? 10 And Balaam sayde vnto God, Balac the sonne of Ziphor king of Moab hath sent vnto me (saying,) 11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: come nowe therefore, and curse them for my sake, so it may be that I shalbe able to ouercome them in battayle, and to dryue them out. 12 And God sayde vnto Balaam, Go not thou with them, neither curse the people: for they are blessed. 13 And Balaam rose vp in the mornyng, and said vnto the lordes of Balac, Get you vnto your land: for the lord will not (b) suffer me to go with you. 14 And the lordes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balac and sayde, Balaam woulde not come with vs. 15 And Balac sent agayne a greater companie of lordes, & more honourable then they. 16 Which came to Balaam, and told hym, Thus sayth Balac the sonne of Ziphor, Oh let nothing let thee, but come vnto me: 17 For I will greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and will do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come I pray thee curse this people for my sake. 18 And Balaam aunswered and sayde vnto the seruauntes of Balac, If Balac woulde geue me his house full of syluer and gold, I can not go beyond the word of the Lorde my god, to do lesse or more: 19 Nowe therefore I pray thee, tarie ye here this nyght, that I may wit what the lord (c) will say vnto me more. 20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayd vnto hym, If the men come to call thee, ryse vp and go with them: but loke what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do. 21 And Balaam rose vp early, and sadled his asse, and (d) went with the lordes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kyndled, because he went: and the angel of the Lorde stoode in the waye to be agaynst him as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruauntes were with hym. 23 And when the asse sawe the angel of the Lorde stande in the way, and hauing his swoorde drawen in his hande, the asse turned aside out of the way and went out into the feeld: And Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way. 24 But the angel of the Lorde stoode in a path betweene the vineyardes, and there was a wall on the one syde, and another on the other. 25 And when the asse sawe the angel of the Lorde, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and crushy Balaams foote agaynst the wall: and he smote her agayne. 26 And the angel of the Lorde went further, and stoode in a narowe place where was no way to turne either to the right hand, or to the left. 27 And when the asse sawe the angel of the Lorde, she fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaams was wroth and smote the asse with a staffe.

Was I euer wont to do so vnto thee? He sayde, nay. 31 And the Lorde opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the angell of the Lord standyng in the way, hauing his swoorde drawen in his hande: he bowed him selfe therefore, and fell flat on his face. 32 And the angell of the Lorde saide vnto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thyne asse these three tymes? Beholde, I came out to withstande thee, because (thyne heart) hath declyned out of the way before me. 33 And the asse sawe me, and turned from me nowe three tymes: or els yf she had not turned fro me, I had surely slayne thee, and saued her alyue. 34 Balaam said vnto the angell of the Lorde, I haue sinned, for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way agaynst me: Nowe therefore if it displease thee, I wyll turne home agayne. 35 The angell of the Lorde sayde vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. And so Balaam went with the lordes of Balac. 36 And when Balac heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meete hym vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, in the vtmost coast. 37 And Balac sayde vnto Balaam, Dyd I not sende for thee to call thee: and wherefore camest thou not vnto me? Am I not able in deede to promote thee vnto honor?

38 And Balaam made answere vnto Balac, Lo, I am come vnto thee: & can I nowe say any thing at all? The woorde that God putteth in my mouth that shall I speake. 39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came vnto a citie (c) of streetes. 40 And Balac offered oxen and sheepe, & sent (thereof) to Balaam, and to the lordes that were with hym. 41 And on the morowe Balac toke Balaam, and brought him vp into the hye places of Baal, that thence he might see the vtmost part of the people.

Geue vnto vs therefore a poſſeſſion among the (b) brethren of our father. 5 And Moyses brought their (c) cause before the Lorde. 6 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 7 The daughters of Zalphaad speake ryght: thou shalt geue them a poſſeſſion to inherite among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritaunce of their father vnto them. 8 And thou shalt speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, saying, If a man dye and haue no sonne, ye shall turne his inheritaunce vnto his daughter. 9 If he haue no daughter, ye shall geue his inheritaunce vnto his brethren. 10 If he haue also no brethren, ye shall geue his inheritaunce vnto his fathers brethren. 11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye shall geue his inheritaunce vnto hym that is next to hym of his kinred, and he shall poſſeſſe it: And this shalbe vnto the chyldren of Israel (d) a law of iudgement, as the Lord hath commaunded Moyses. 12 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Get thee vp into this mount Abarim, and beholde the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto the chyldren of Israel: 13 And when thou "hast seene it, thou shalt be (e) gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye were disobedient vnto my mouth in the desert of Zin in the ſtrife of the congregation, neither did ye sanctifie me in the (f) waters before their eyes: That is, the water of ſtrife in Cades in the wylderneſſe of Zin. 15 And Moyses spake vnto the Lord, saying: 16 Let the Lord God of the spirites of all fleshe set a man ouer the congregation, 17 Whiche may go (g) out and in before them, and leade them out and in, that the congregation of the Lorde be not as sheepe whiche haue no sheephearde. 18 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses, Take thee Iosuah the sonne of Nun, a man in whom is the spirite, and put thyne handes vpon hym, 19 And set hym before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: and geue hym a charge in their sight. 20 And put thy (h) honour vpon hym, that all the companie of the chyldren of Israel may be obedient. 21 And he shall stande before Eleazar the priest, whiche shall aske counsell for hym after the (i) iudgement of Urim before the Lorde: And according vnto his worde shall they go out and in, both he and all the chyldren of Israel with hym, and all the congregation. 22 And Moyses dyd as the Lorde commaunded hym: and he toke Iosuah, and set hym before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation. 23 And put his handes vpon hym, and gaue hym a charge, as the Lorde commaunded through the hande of Moyses.

The. xxx. Chapter.

2 Of vowes, when they shalbe kept, and when not.

AND Moyses spake vnto the heades of the tribes concerning the chyldren of Israel, saying, This is the thing whiche the Lorde hath commaunded. 2 If a man vow a vowe vnto the Lorde, or sweare an othe to bynde his soule: he shall not go backe with his worde, but shall fulfill all that is proceeded out of his mouth. 3 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and bynde her selfe being in her fathers house in the tyme of her youth: 4 And her father heare her vowe and bonde which she hath made vpon her soule, and holde his peace thereto: then all her vowes and bondes whiche she hath made vpon her soule, shall stande in effect. 5 But if her father disalowe her the same day that he heareth all her vowes and bonds which she hath made vpon her soule: they shall not be of value, and the Lorde shall forgeue her, because her father (a) disalowed her. 6 If she had an husband when she vowed or pronounced ought out of her lippes, wherwith she bound her soule: 7 And her husband heard it, and helde his peace therat the same day he hearde it: then her vowes shal stande, and her bondes wherewith she bounde her soule, shal stande in effect. 8 And if her husbande disalowe her the same day that he heard it, then he shall make her bowe whiche she hath vpon her, & the opening of her lippes wherewith she bounde her soule, of none effect, and the Lorde shall forgeue her. 9 But euery vowe of a widowe, and of her that is deuorced, that they haue bounde their soule withall, shal stand in effect with them.

(a) Agree not to her vowe.

10 If she vowed in her (b) husbandes house, or bounde her soule with an othe: 11 And her husbande hearde it, and helde his peace concerning her, and disalowed her not: then all her vowes shall stande, and euery bonde wherwith she bounde her soule, shall stand. 12 But if her husband disanulled them the same day that he hearde them: then nothing that proceedeth out of her lippes in vowes & bondes wherewith she bounde her soule, shall stande in effect: for her husband hath disannulled them, and the Lorde shall forgeue her. 13 All bowes & othes that bynde to (c) humble the soule, may her husbande stablishe or breake. 14 But if her husbande holde his peace from (d) one day to another, then he stablisheth all her bowes and bondes whiche she had vpon her: he confirmeth them, because he helde his peace concerning her the same day that he hearde them. 15 But (e) if he breake them, after that he hath heard them, he shall beare her sinne hym selfe. 16 These are the ordinaunces which the Lorde commaunded Moyses betweene a man and his wyfe, and betweene the father and his daughter, beyng yet a damsell in her fathers house.

Num. xxv. d

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 2 Auenge the chyldren of Israel of the Madianites, and afterward shalt thou be gathered vnto thy people. 3 And Moyses spake vnto the folke, saying, Harnesse some of you vnto warre, and let them go vpō the Madianites, and auenge the Lorde of the Madianites. 4 Of euery tribe a thousande, throwout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye sende to the warre. 5 And there were deliuered out of the thousandes of Israel, twelue thousande prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thousand. 6 And Moyses sent them to the warre, a thousande of euery tribe, and

10 And they burnt all their cities wherin they dwelt, and all their goodly dwellinges with fire: 11 And they woke all the spoyle, and all the bootie, both of men and beastes. 12 And they brought the captiues, and that which they had taken, and the spoyle, vnto Moyses and Eleazar the priest, and vnto the company of the chyldren of Israel, euen vnto the hoast that were in the fieldes of Moab by Jordane, ouer against Jericho: 13 And Moyses and Eleazar the priest, and all the lordes of the congregation went out of the hoast to meete them.

14 And Moyses was angrie with the officers of the hoast, with the captaynes ouer thousandes, and ouer hundredes, whiche came from the warre and battayle. 15 And Moyses sayde vnto them, Haue ye saued all the (b) women aliue? 16 Beholde, these caused the chyldren of Israel through the counsell of Balaam, to commit trespasse against the Lorde in the busynesse of (c) Peor, and there folowed a plague among the congregation of the Lorde. 17 Now therfore slay all the men children and kill the women that haue lien with men fleshly. 18 But all the women children that haue not lien with men carnally, kepe aliue for your selues.

19 And ye shall remayne without the hoast seuen dayes, all that haue kylled any person, and all that haue touched any dead body, and purifie both your selues and your prysoners the thirde day and the seuenth. 20 And purifie all your rayments, and that is made of skinnes, and all woorke of goates heere, and all thinges made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the priest sayde vnto the men of warre whiche went to the battayle, This is the ordinaunce of the lawe which the Lorde commaunded Moyses: 22 As for golde, siluer, brasse, and iron, tinne, and lead, 23 And all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: Neuertheles, it shalbe purified with water of seperation: And all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall make go through the water:

24 And washe your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane, and afterwarde come into the hoast.

25 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying, 26 Take the summe of the pray that was taken, both of the persons & of the cattell, thou & Eleazar the priest, and the chiefe fathers of the congregation: 27 And diuide the pray into two partes, betweene them that toke the warre vpon them and went out to battayle, and all the congregation. 28 And take a tribute vnto the Lorde of the men of warre whiche went out to battayle: one soule of fiue hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeues, and of the asses, and of the sheepe. 29 And ye shall take it of their halfe, and geue it vnto Eleazar the priest, as an heaue offering of the Lorde. 30 And of the halfe of the chyldren of Israel, thou shalt take one portion of fifte, of the persons, and of the beeues, of the asses, and of the sheepe, and of all maner of beastes, and geue them vnto the Leuites whiche wayte vpon the charge of the tabernacle of the Lorde.

31 And Moyses and Eleazar the priest, dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. 32 And the bootie, and the rest of the pray whiche the men of warre had caught, was fiue hundred thousande, and threescore and fiftcene thousande sheepe, 33 And threescore and twelue thousande of beeues,

The. xxxii. Chapter.

Moyses geueth to the Rubenites, Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasses their portion of their inheritaunce beyonde Iordane.

THe chyldren (a) of Ruben and the chyldren of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: And when they sawe the lande of Jazer, and the lande of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell, 2 The chyldren of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad, came and spake vnto Moyses & Eleazar the priest, and vnto the lordes of the congregation, saying, 3 The lande of Ataroth and Dibon, Jazer and Nemrah, Hesbon and Elealeh, Sabam, and Nebo, and Beon:

4 Which countrey the lord smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land meete for cattell, and we thy seruauntes haue cattell. 5 Wherefore sayd they, If we haue founde grace in thy sight, let this lande be geuen vnto thy seruauntes to possesse, and bring vs not ouer Iordane. 6 And Moyses sayde vnto the chyldren of Gad and of Ruben, Shall your brethren go to warre, and ye shall sit here?

7 Wherefore discourage ye the heart of the chyldren of Israel, that they shoulde not go ouer into the lande whiche the Lorde hath geuen them? Num. xiii. v

8 Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Cades Barnea to see the lande. 9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eschol, and saw the lande, they discouraged the heart of the chyldren of Israel, that they shoulde not go into the lande whiche the Lorde had geuen them. 10 And the Lordes wrath was kindled the same tyme, and he sware, saying:

11 None of the men that came out of Egypt, from twentie yeres old and aboue, shall see the lande whiche I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they haue not wholly followed me: 12 Saue Caleb the sonne of Jephune the Kenesite, and Josuah the sonne of Nun: for they haue constantly followed the Lorde.

13 And the Lorde was very angry with Israel, and made them wander in the wyldernesse fourtie yeres, vntyll all the generation that had done euyll in the sight of the Lorde, were consumed. 14 And beholde, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade, as an increase of sinnefull men, to augment the fierce wrath of the Lorde towarde Israel. 15 For if ye turne away from after hym, he wyll yet agayne leaue the people in the wyldernesse, (b) and ye shall destroy all this folke.

16 And they went neare hym, and

(b) Ye shall be the cause that they shall perish.

sayde, We wyll buylde sheepe folded here for our sheepe and for our cattell, and (walled) cities for our chyldren:
17 But we our selues wyll go redy armed before the chyldren of Israel, vntyll we haue brought them vnto (c) their place: and our chyldren shall dwell in the fensed cities, because of the inhabiters of the lande. 18 We wyll not returne vnto our houses, vntyll the chyldren of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritaunce:
19 Neither wyll we inherite with them on yonder side Iordane forward, because our inheritaunce is fallen to vs on this side Iordane eastwarde.
20 And Moyses sayde vnto them, If ye wyll do this thing, and go harnessed (d) before the Lorde to warre, 21 And wyl go all of you in harnesse ouer Iordane before the Lorde, vntill he haue cast out his (e) enemies from his sight, 22 And vntyll the lande be subdued before the Lorde: then ye shall returne, and be without sinne (f) before the Lorde and before Israel, and this lande shalbe your possession before the Lorde. 23 But and if ye wyll not do so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lord: and be sure (g) your sinne wyll finde you out. 24 Nowe therfore, buylde cities for your chyldren, and foldes for your sheepe, and do that ye haue spoken. 25 The chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben spake vnto Moyses, saying, Thy seruauntes wyll do as my Lord commaundeth. 26 Our chyldren, our wiues, our sheepe, and our cattell, shal remayne here in the cities of Gilead:
27 But thy seruauntes wyll go all harnessed for the warre, and vnto battayle before the Lorde, as my Lorde saith. 28 And for their sakes Moyses commaunded Eleazar the priest, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the chyldren of Israel, 29 And Moyses sayde vnto them, If the chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben wyll go with you ouer Iordane, all armed to fight before the Lorde, then when the lande is subdued before you, ye shall geue them the lande of Gilead to possesse:
30 But if they (h) will not go ouer with you in harnesse, they shall haue their possessions among you in the land of Chanaan. 31 And the chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben answered, saying, As the Lorde hath sayde vnto thy seruauntes, so wyll we do: 32 We wyll go harnessed before the Lorde into the lande of Chanaan, that the possession of our inheritaunce may be geuen vs on this side Iordane. 33 And Moyses gaue vnto the chyldren of Gad, and to the chyldren of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Ioseph, the kyngdome of Sehon kyng of the (i) Amorites, and the kyngdome of Og kyng of Basan, the lande with the cities therof, in the coastes and cities of the countrey round about. 34 And the chyldren of Gad buylt Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Sophan, Iaaser, & Iogbea, 36 Bethnimra, and Betharan, fensed cities: and they buylt foldes for the sheepe.
37 And the chyldren of Ruben buylt Hesbon, Eleali, Kiriathaim, 38 Nebo, Baalmeon, & turned their names, and Sibama also: and gaue other names vnto the cities whiche they builded. 39 And the chyldren of Machir the sonne of Manasse went to Gilead & toke it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein. 40 And Moyses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, & he dwelt therin. 41 And Iair the sonne of Manasse went and toke the small townes therof, and called them (k) Hauoth Iair.
42 And Nobah went & toke Kenath, and the townes longing therto, & called it Nobah, after his owne name.

citie of the east syde, two thousande cubites: and of the south syde, two thousande cubites: and of the west syde, two thousande cubites: and of the north side, two thousande cubites also, ¶ the citie shalbe in the middes: and these shalbe the suburbes of their cities. 6 And from among the cities which ye shall geue vnto the Leuites, there shalbe sixe cities for refuge, which ye shall appoynt (to that intent) that he which killeth, may flee thyther: And to them ye shall adde fourtie and two cities mo. 7 So that all the cities which ye shall geue the Leuites, may be fourtie and eyght, them (shall ye geue) with their suburbes.

8 And these cities which ye shal geue, shalbe out of the possession of the children of Israel. They that haue many, shall geue many: but of them that haue fewe, ye shall take fewe. Euery one shall geue of his cities vnto the Leuites, accordyng to the inheritance which he inheriteth. 9 And the lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying,

Deut.xix.a. Josu.xx.a.

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come ouer Jordane into the lande of Chanaan: 11 ye shall appoynt you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he whiche sleeth a person vnwares, may flee thyther. 12 And these cities shalbe vnto you a refuge from the (a)auenger of blood: that he which killeth, dye not, vntyll he stand before the (b) congregation in iudgement. 13 And of these cities whiche ye shall geue, sixe cities shall ye haue for refuge. 14 Ye shal geue three(c)on this syde Jordane, ¶ three in the lande of Chanaan, which shalbe cities of refuge. 15 And these sixe cities shalbe a refuge both for the children of Israel, and for the straunger, and for hym that dwelleth among you: that al they which kyll any person vnwares, may flee thyther. 16 And if any man smite another with an instrument of iron that he dye, then is he a murtherer, and the murtherer shall dye for it. 17 If he smyte hym with throwyng a stone that a man may dye with, and yf he dye, he that smote him is a murtherer: let the same murtherer be slayne therefore. 18 Or yf he smite hym with a hande weapon of wood that a man may dye with, then yf he dye, he is a murtherer: let the same murtherer be slayne therefore.

Deod.xxi.b.

19 The(d)reuenger of blood him selfe shall slay the murtherer: when he meeteth hym, he shall slay him.

(d) He that is next to kinne to him that is murthered.

20 But yf he thrust hym of hate, or hurle at hym by laying of wayte, that he dye, 21 Or smite him with his hande of enmitie that he dye: he that smote hym shall dye the death, for he is a murtherer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murtherer when he meeteth hym. 22 But if he pusshed him vnaduisedly, and not of hate, or cast vpon hym any thyng, and not in laying of wayte, 23 Or any maner of stone that a man may dye with, and sawe hym not, and he caused it to fall vpon hym, and he dye, and was not his enemie, neither sought him any harme: 24 Then the congregation shall iudge betweene the slayer and the reuenger of blood accordyng to these lawes. 25 And the congregation shall deliuer the slayer out of the hande of the reuenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore hym to the citie of his refuge whyther he was fled: and he shall abide there vnto the death of (e)the hye priest, which was annoynted with the holy oyle.

(e) This was a figure of Christe, by whose death our sinnes are pardoned.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of his citie of refuge whyther he was fled: 27 And the reuenger of blood finde hym without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood kyll the slayer, he shalbe giltlesse: 28 Because he should haue bydden in the towne of his refuge vntyll the death of the hye priest: and after the death of the hye priest, the slayer shoulde returne vnto the lande of his possession.

29 So these thinges shalbe (f)a lawe of iudgement vnto you throughout your generations, in all your dwellynges. 30 Whoso kylleth any person, the(Iudge)shall put the murtherer to death through witnesses: but one wytnesse shall not testifie agaynst any person, to cause hym to dye.

(f) That is, to iudge wilfull or casuall murtherers.

31 Moreouer, ye shall take no recompence for the lyfe of the murtherer which is worthy to dye: but he shalbe put to death. 32 And ye shall take no recompence for hym that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he shoulde come agayne & dwell in the lande before the death of the hie priest. 33 So ye shall not pollute the lande which ye shall dwell in, for blood defileth the land: and the land can not be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of hym that shed blood.

34 Defile not therefore the lande which ye shall inhabite, for I am in the middes thereof: (euen) I the Lorde dwell among the children of Israel.

The .xxxvi. Chapter.

1 An order for the mariage of the daughters of Zelaphead. 7 The inheritaunce coulde not be geuen from one tribe to another.

AND the chiefe fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the sonne of Machir the sonne of Manasse, of the kinred of the sonnes of Joseph, came foorth and spake before Moyses, and before the princes the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel, 2 And sayde, The Lorde commaunded (a) my Lorde to geue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Israel: and my Lorde was commaunded by the Lorde to geue the inheritaunce of Zelaphead our brother vnto his daughters. 3 If they be maryed to any of the sonnes of (b) the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritaunce be taken from the inheritaunce of our fathers, and shalbe put to the inheritaunce of the tribe which they are receaued into, and so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritaunce. 4 And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritaunce be put vnto the inheritaunce of the tribe whereinto they are receaued, and so shal their inheritaunce be taken away from the inheritaunce of the tribe of our fathers. 5 And Moyses commaunded the children of Israel accordyng to the worde of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph hath (c) saide well. 6 This therefore doth the Lorde commaunde the daughters of Zelaphead, saying, Let them be wyues to whom they them selues thinke best: only to the familie of the tribe of their father shal they marry. 7 So shall not the inheritaunce of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the children of Israel shall ioyne him selfe to the inheritaunce of the tribe of his fathers. 8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritaunce (d) in any tribe of the children of Israel, shalbe wyfe vnto one of the kinred of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enioy euery man the inheritaunce of his father.

9 Neither ought the inheritaunce to go from one tribe to another: but euery one of the tribes of the children of Israel shalbe ioyned to his owne inheritaunce. 10 And as the Lorde commaunded Moyses, so dyd the daughters of Zelaphead: 11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, and Noa the daughters of Zelaphead, were maryed vnto their fathers brothers sonnes. 12 They were wyues vnto the families of the sonnes of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, and so their inheritaunce remayned in the tribe of the kinred of their father.

13 These are the (e) commaundementes and lawes whiche the Lorde commaunded by the hand of Moyses vnto the children of Israel in the feeldes of Moab by Jordane (toward) Jericho.

(a) He meaneth Moyses.

(b) To anye of another tribe then of Manasses.

32 Moyses reproueth the people for their incredulitie.

THese be the wordes whiche Moyses spake vnto all Israel on (a) the other side Jordane in the wyldernesse, in the playne ouer against the red sea, betweene Pharan and Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. 2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from Horeb, by the way of mount Seir vnto Chades Barnea. 3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtie yere, that Moyses spake vnto the children of Israel accordyng vnto all that the Lorde had geuen him in commaundement vnto them:

4 After he had slayne Sehon the king of the Amorites whiche dweit in Hesbon, and Og king of Basan whiche dweit at Astaroth in Edrai. 5 On the other other syde Jordane in the land of Moab began Moyses to declare this law, saying, 6 The Lorde our God spake vnto vs in (b) Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long inough in this mount:

(b) In the seconde yere, and seconde moneth. Num. 10. vers. 15.

7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto all the places nye therevnto, both vnto the playne, and hilles, and dales, to the south, to the seas syde, to the lande of Chanaan, and vnto Libanon, vnto the great ryuer, the ryuer Euphrates. 8 Beholde, I haue set the lande before you: Go in and possesse the lande which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, to geue vnto them, and to their seede after them. 9 And (c) I spake vnto you in the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone: 10 For the Lorde your God hath multiplied you, so that you be this day as the starres of heauen in number. 11 (The Lorde God of your fathers make you a thousande tymes so many mo as ye are, & bl esse you as he hath promised you.)

Gen. xv. d. (c) By the counsell of Iethro my father in law Exod. 18. vers. 19.

12 How can I my selfe alone (d) beare your cumbraunce, your charge, & your stryfe that is (among you?) 13 Bring you men of wisdome and of vnderstanding, and expert, accordyng to your tribes, and I will make them rulers ouer you. 14 And ye aunswered me, and sayde, That which thou hast spoken, is good for vs to do. 15 And so I out of your tribes (e) I toke the chiefe men of wysdome, & that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaynes ouer thousandes, & captaynes ouer hundredes, captaynes ouer fiftes, and captaynes ouer tens, & officers among your tribes. 16 And I charged your Iudges that same tyme, saying, Heare the cause of your brethren, and iudge righteously betweene euery man and his brother and the straunger that is with hym. 17 Ye shal haue no respect of any person in iudgement, but you shall heare the small as well as the great: You shall not feare the face of any man, for the iudgement is Gods: And the cause that is to harde for you, referre it vnto me, and I will heare it.

18 And I commaunded you the same season all the thinges which ye should do. 19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wylderneſſe, as ye haue seene by the way of the mountayne of the Amorites, as the Lorde our God commaunded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea. 20 And (f) I sayde vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountayne of the Amorites, which the lord our God doth geue vnto vs. 21 Beholde, the Lorde thy God hath set the lande before thee: go vp and possesse it, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath said vnto thee, Feare not, neither be discouraged. 22 And ye came vnto me euery one, and sayde, We wyl sende men before vs, to searche vs out the lande, and to bryng vs worde agayne what way we must go vp by, and vnto what cities we shal come. 23 And the saying pleased me well: and I toke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one.

Our brethren haue discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller then we, the cities are great, and walled vp to heauen, and moreouer we haue seene the sonnes of the (k) Anakims there. 29 Then I sayde vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them:

35 There shall not one of these men, and of this frowarde generation see that good land which I sware to geue vnto

vnto your fathers: 36 Saue Caleb the sonne of Iephune, he shall see it, and to hym wyll I geue the lande that he hath troden vppon, and to his chyldren, because he hath folowed the lord. 37 Also the Lorde was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thyther. 38 But Iosuah the sonne of Nun which (l) standeth before thee, he shal go in thyther. Encourage him therefore: for he shall cause Israel to inherite the lande.

41 Then ye answered and saide vnto me, We haue sinned agaynst the lord: (n) we wyl go vp, and fight accordyng to all that the Lord our God cõmaunded vs. And when ye had gyrde on euery man his weapons of warre, ye were redie to go vp into the hyll. 42 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Say vnto them, Go not vp, neither fight, for (o) I am not among you: lest ye fall before your enemies. 43 And I tolde you these thynges, and you would not heare, but disobayed the worde of the Lorde, and went presumptuously vp into the hyll. 44 And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountayne came out agaynst you, & chased you as bees vse to do, and destroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Horma. 45 And ye came agayne, & wept before the Lord: but the Lorde (p) would not heare your voyce, nor hearken vnto you. 46 And so ye abode in Cades a long season, accordyng vnto the tyme that ye remayned (before.)

The .ii. Chapter.

7 A rehearsall of the benefites of God bestowed vpon his people. 9 Israel is forbidden to fight agaynst the Edomites, Moabites, and Ammonites. 33 Sehon king of Hesbon is discomfited.

Then we turned our face, and toke our iourney into the (a) wyldernesse by the way of the red sea, as the Lorde spake vnto me: and we compassed mount Seir a long tyme. 2 And the Lorde spake vnto me, saying, 3 Ye haue compassed this mountayne long inough, turne you nor thwarde. 4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shall go through the (b) coast of your brethren the chyldren of Esau which dwell in Seir, and they shalbe afrayde of you. 5 Take ye good heede vnto your selues therfore: Ye shall not prouoke them, for I wyll not geue you of their lande, no not so much as a foote breadth, because I haue geuen mount Seir vnto Esau to possesse. 6 Ye shal bye meate of them for money to eate, and ye shall procure water of them for money to drynke:

7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thy hand, and (c) knoweth thy walking through this great wyldernes, and this fourtie yeres the Lord thy God hath ben with thee, so that thou hast lacked nothyng.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the " wyldernesse from Elath, and from Ezion gaber, we turned & went by the way of the wyldernes of Moab. 9 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Thou shalt not fight agaynst the Moabites, neither prouoke them to battayle: For I wyll not geue thee of their lande to possesse, because I haue geuen Ar vnto the children of Lot to possesse. 10 The (d) Emims dwelt therein in tymes past, a people great, many, and tall, as the (e) Anakims, 11 Whiche also were taken for giauntes as the Anakims, whom the Moabites call Emims. 12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before tyme, whom the children of Esau chased out, and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their steade, as Israel dyd vnto the land of his possession which the Lorde gaue them. 13 Nowe rise vp (saide I) and get you ouer the ryuer Zared: and we went ouer the ryuer Zared. 14 The space in which we came from Cades Barnea, vntyll we were come ouer the ryuer Zared, was thirtie and eyght yeres, vntyll all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoast, as the Lorde sware vnto them.

15 For in deede the hande of the lord was agaynst them to destroye them from among the (f) hoast, tyl they were consumed. 16 And so it came to passe, that all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people.

19 And when thou comest nye vnto the children of Ammon, thou shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre agaynst them: For I wyll not geue thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession, but I haue geuen it vnto the children of Loth to possesse. 20 That also was taken for a lande of giauntes, and giauntes dwelt therein in olde tyme, whom the Ammonites call (i) Zamzummims.

21 A people that was great, many, and tall as the Anakims: But the Lorde destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritaunce, and dwelt in their steade: 22 As he dyd for the children of Esau whiche dwelt in Seir, for whom he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their steade vnto this day. 23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazarim, euen vnto Azza, the (k) Caphthorims which came out of Caphthor, destroyed them and dwelt in their steade. 24 Ryse ye vp therefore, and take your iourney ouer the ryuer Arnon: Beholde, I haue geuen into thy hande Sehon the Ammorite king of Hesbon and his lande: begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battayle. 25 This day wyll I beginne to sende the feare and dread of thee vppon all nations that are vnder all heauen, so that they whiche heare speake of thee, shall tremble and quake before thee. 26 And so I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth vnto Sehon king of Hesbon with wordes of peace, saying, 27 Let me passe through thy lande, I wyll go along by the hye way, I wyll neither turne vnto the ryght hand, nor to the left. 28 Thou shalt sell me meate for money for to eate, and geue me water for money for to drynke: Only I wyll go through on my feete, 29 As the (l) children of Esau which dwell in Seir, & the Moabites whiche dwell in Ar dyd vnto me, vntyll I be come ouer Iordane into the lande which the Lorde our God geueth vs.

30 But Sehon the king of Hesbon would not let vs passe by him: for the Lorde thy God hardened his spirite, and made his heart obstinate, because he woulde deliuer him into thy hande, as it is come to passe this day.

31 And the Lorde saide vnto me, Beholde, I haue begunne to geue Sehon and his lande before thee: begynne to possesse and inherite his lande.

32 Then both Sehon and all his people came out agaynst vs to fight at Iasa. 33 And the Lorde set hym before vs, and we smote him, and his sonnes, and all his people. 34 And we toke all his cities the same season, and slue the men, women, and children of al the cities, and let nothyng remayne, 35 Sane the cattell onlye we caught vnto our selues, and the spoyle of the cities which we toke. 36 From Aroer which is by the brynke of the ryuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is in the ryuer, vnto Gilead, there was not one citie to strong for vs: the Lorde our God deliuered all (m) vnto vs.

37 Only vnto the lande of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto euery place of the ryuer Jaboc, nor vnto the cities in the mountaynes, nor vnto whatsoeuer the lorde our God forbad vs.

THen we turned & went vp the way to Basan: and Og the king of Basan came out agaynst vs, he and al his people to fight at Edrai. 2 And the Lorde saide vnto me, Feare hym not: for I wyl deliuer him, and all his people, and his lande, into thy hande, and thou shalt do vnto him as thou dyddest vnto Sehon king of the Amorites which dwelt at Hesbon. 3 And so the Lorde our God deliuered into our handes Og also the king of Basan, and all his folke: and we smote hym vntyll none was left hym alyue.

4 And we toke all his cities the same season: neither was there a citie which we toke not from them, threescore cities throughout the region of Argob of the kyngdome of Og in Basan.

5 All these cities also were made strong with hie walles, gates, & bars, beside vnwalled townes a great many.

out of the hande of two kinges of the Amorites, the lande that was on the other side Iordane, from the ryuer of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon:

Nine cubites doth the length therof conteyne, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a(c) man. 12 And so we conquered this lande the same tyme from Aroer, which is by the ryuer of Arnon, vnto halfe mount Gilead, and the cities therof gaue I vnto the Rubenites and Gadites. 13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Basan of the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasse: euen all the region of Argob, with all Basan which is called the lande of giauntes. 14 Iair the sonne of Manasse toke all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Gessuri & Maachati, and called them after his owne name, Basan Hauoth Iair, (d) vnto this day. 15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir. 16 And vnto the Rubenites and Gadites I gaue Gilead vnto the ryuer of Arnon, halfe the valley and beyonde, euen vnto the riuer (e) Jaboc which is the bozder of the childzen of Ammon: 17 The (f) playne also, and Iozdane, and the coast therof, from (g) Cenereth, vnto the sea which is in the playne, euen the salt sea vnder the sprynges of the hyll, eastward 18 And I commaunded you the same time, saying, The Lozd your God hath geuen you this lande to enioy it: ye shall go harnessed before your brethren the childzen of Israel, all that are meete for the warre.

19 Your wiues only, your childzen, and your cattell (for I knowe that ye haue much cattell) shall abide in your cities which I haue geuen you, 20 Vntyll the Lozde haue geuen rest vnto your brethren as well as vnto you, and vntyll they also possesse the lande which the Lozde your God hath geuen them beyonde Iozdane: and then shal ye returne agayne euery man vnto his possession which I haue geuen you. 21 And I commaunded Iosuah him selfe the same tyme, saying, Thyne eyes haue seene all that the Lozde your God hath done vnto these two kinges: so shall he do vnto all kingdomes whyther thou goest. 22 Ye shall not feare them: for the Lozde your God he shall fight for you. 23 And I besought the Lozde the same tyme, saying, 24 O Lozde God, thou hast begunne to shewe thy seruaunt thy greatnesse and thy mightie hande: for where is there a(h) God in heauen or in earth that can do after thy workes, and lyke to thy power?

25 I pray thee let me go ouer, and see the good lande that is beyonde Iozdane, that goodly (i) mountayne and Libanon. 26 But the Lozde was angry with me for your sakes, and would not heare me: and the Lozde sayde vnto me, Be content, speake no more vnto me of this matter. 27 Get thee vp into the top of " the hyll, and lyft vp thyne eyes westwarde, northwarde, southwarde, and eastwarde, and beholde it with thyne eyes: for thou shalt not go ouer this Iozdane.

27 But charge Iosuah, and encourage him, and bolden him: For he shall go before this people, and he shall diuide vnto them the lande which thou shalt see. 29 And so we abode in the valley ouer agaynst the " house of Peor.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

An exhortation to obserue the lawe without addyng therto or diminishing. 9 We must teache the lawe to our children. 15 We ought to make no image whereby we might be induced to idolatrie.

NOwe therfore hearken O Israel Ā vnto the ordinaunces and lawes which I teache you for to do them, that so ye may lyue, and go in and possesse the lande which the Lozd God of your fathers geueth you. 2 Ye shall put nothyng vnto the word which I commaunde you, neither shal you take ought from it, that ye may (a) kepe the commaundements of the Lozde your God which I commaunde you. 3 (b) Your eyes haue seene what the Lozde dyd agaynst Baal Peor: for all the men that folowed Baal Peor, the Lozde thy God hath destroyed from among you. 4 But ye that cleaue vnto the Lozde your God, are aliue euery one of you this day. 5 Beholde I haue taught you ordinaunces and lawes, such as the Lozde

my God commaunded me, that ye shoulde do so in the lande whyther ye go to possesse it. 6 Kepe them therfore and do them, for that is (c) your wisedome and understanding in the sight of the people, that they may heare all these ordinaunces, and say, Surely it is a wise and understanding people, it is a great nation. 7 For what other nation is so great that gods come so nye vnto, as the Lorde our God is nye vnto vs in all thinges as oft as we call vnto him?
8 Yea, and what nation is so great, that hath ordinaunces and lawes so righteous, as all this lawe which I set before you this day? 9 Take heede to thy selfe therfore, and kepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the thynges which thyne eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thy heart all the dayes of thy life: but teache them thy sonnes and thy sonnes sonnes. 10 Specially the day that thou stodest before the Lorde thy God in Horeb, when the Lorde sayde vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall lyue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children. 11 Ye came and stoode also vnder the mountayne, and the mountayne (d) burnt with fire vnto the mid-des of heauen, and there was darke-nesse, cloudes, and mist. 12 And the Lorde spake vnto you out of the mid-des of the fire, and ye hearde the voyce of the wordes: but saw no similitude, saue heearde a voyce only. 13 And he declared vnto you his couenaunt which he commaunded you to do, (euen) ten commaundementes, which he wrote vpon two tables of stone.
14 And the Lorde commaunded me that same season that I should teache you ordinaunces and lawes, which ye ought to do in the lande whither ye go to possesse it. 15 Take therfore good heede vnto your selues as pertayning vnto your soules, (e) (for ye saw no maner of image in the day that the Lorde spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of fire.) 16 Lest ye marre your selues, and make you a grauen image, & picture of any maner of figure, whether it be the likenesse of man or woman, 17 The likenesse of any maner of beast that is on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner fethered foule that flieth in the ayre, 18 Or the likenesse of any maner worme that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner fishe that is in the waters beneath the earth:
19 Yea, and lest thou lyft vp thyne eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne, the moone, and the starres, with all the hoast of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worshyp them, and serue them, and shouldest worship and serue the thinges which the Lord thy God hath made to serue all nations vnder the whole heauen. 20 But the Lord hath taken you, and brought you out of the (f) iron furnace, euen out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people and inheritaunce, as ye be this day.
21 Furthermore the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and swore that I should not go ouer Iordane, and that I should not go in vnto that good lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee to inheritaunce. 22 But I must dye in this lande, and shall not go ouer Iordane: but ye shall go ouer and possesse that good lande. 23 Take heede vnto your selues that ye forget not the appoyntment of the Lorde your God which he made with you, and that ye make you no grauen (g) image or likenesse that the Lorde thy God hath forbidden thee. 24 For the Lorde thy God is a (h) consuming fire, and a (i) ielous God. 25 When thou shalt beget children, and thy children beget children, and shalt haue remayned long in the lande, ye do wickedly, and make any maner of grauen image, and worke euyll in the sight of the Lorde thy God, to prouoke him to anger: 26 I call heauen and earth to recorde agaynst you this day, that ye shall shortly perishe from of the lande whereunto you go ouer Iordane to possesse it; ye shall not prolong your dayes therin, but shall vtterly be destroyed: 27 And the Lorde shall scatter you among the people, and ye shal-be left fewe in number among the nations whither the Lorde shall bring you. 28 And there ye shall serue gods which are the worke of mans hande, wood and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eate, nor smell.
29 If from thence thou shalt seke the Lorde thy God, thou shalt fynde him, yf thou seke him with all thy heart, and with all thy soule.

5 Moyses is the meane betweene god and the people. 6 The lawe is repeated. 23 The people were afrayde at gods voyce. 29 The Lorde wisseth that the people woulde feare him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hande, nor lest.

AND Moyses called all Israel and sayde vnto them, Heare O Israel the ordinaunces & lawes which I speake in your eares this day, that ye may learne them, and fulfyll them in deede. 2 The Lorde our God made a couenaunt with vs in Horeb. 3 The (a) Lorde made not this couenaunt with our fathers, but with vs: but with vs which are all here alyue this day. 4 The Lorde talked with you (b) face to face in the mount out of the middes of the fire: 5 And I stoode betweene the Lorde and you the same tyme, and shewed you the worde of the Lorde: For ye were afrayde at the sight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount, and he sayde, 6 (c) I am the Lorde thy God which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt from the house of bondage. 7 Thou shalt haue none other gods in my presence.

8 Thou (d) shalt make thee no grauen image, or any likenesse of that which is in heauen aboue, or that is in earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth. 9 Thou shalt neither bowe thy selfe vnto them, nor worship them: for I the Lorde thy God am a ielous God, visityng the wickednesse of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the thirde and fourth generation among them that hate me: 10 And shewe mercie vpon thousandes among them that loue me, and kepe my commaundementes. 11 Thou shalt not take the name of the Lorde thy God in vayne: for the Lorde will not holde him giltelesse that taketh his name in vayne. 12 Kepe the Sabbath day, that thou sanctifie it as the Lorde thy God hath commaunded thee. 13 Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and do all that thou hast to do:
14 But the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the Lorde thy God: thou shalt not do any worke, thou nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man ser-uaunt, nor thy mayde, nor thine oxe, nor thine asse, nor any of thy cattell, nor the straunger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruaunt, and thy mayde may rest as well as thou.
15 Remember that thou wast a ser-uaunt in the lande of Egypt, and howe that the Lorde thy God brought thee out thence through a mightie hande and a stretched out arme: For which cause the Lorde thy God commaunded thee to kepe the Sabbath day. 16 Honour thy (e) father and thy mother, as the Lorde thy God hath commaunded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee in the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee.
17 Thou (f) shalt not kyll. 18 Thou shalt not commit adulterie. 19 Thou shalt not steale. 20 Thou shalt not beare false witnesse agaynst thy neyghbour. 21 Thou shalt not lust after thy neyghbours wyfe, thou shalt not couet thy neyghbours house, his fielde, his seruaunt, or his mayde, his oxe, his asse, or ought that thy neygh-bour hath. 22 These wordes the Lorde spake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the middes of the fire, of the cloude, & of the darknesse, with a great voyce, and added no more (therto:) and wrote them in two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me.
23 And it came to passe, that when ye hearde the voyce out of the middes of the darknesse (for the mountayne dyd burne with fire) then ye came vnto me, with the captaines of your tribes, and your elders, 24 And ye sayde, Beholde, the Lorde our God hath shewed vs his glorie and his great-nesse, and we haue heard his voyce out of the middes of the fire: we haue seene this day that God doth talke with man, and he yet liueth. 25 Now therfore why should we dye? that this great fire shoulde consume vs: If we heare the voyce of the Lorde our God any more, we shall dye. 26 For what flesche hath it ben that euer heard the voyce of the liuing God speakyng out of the middes of the fire (as we haue done) and yet did liue? 27 Go thou and heare all that the Lorde our God saith, and tell thou vnto vs all that the Lorde our God saith vnto thee, and we wyll heare it, and do it.
28 And the Lorde heard the voyce of your wordes when ye spake vnto me, and the Lorde sayde vnto me, I haue heard the voyce of the wordes of this people which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue well sayde all that they haue spoken. 29 Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would feare me, and kepe all my commaundementes alway, that it might go well with them, and with their children for euer? 30 Go and say vnto them, Get you into your tentes agayne: 31 But stande thou here by me, and I wyll tell thee all the commaundementes, ordinaunces, & lawes which thou shalt teache them, that they may do them in the lande which I geue them to possesse.
32 Take heede therfore that ye do in deede as the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, and (g) turne not aside either to the right hande, or to the left: 33 But walke in all the wayes which the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, that ye may liue, and that it may go well with you, and that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande which ye shall possesse.

Moyses putteth the Israelites in remembraunce of all the benefites which god bestowed vpon them, and the afflictions which god sent them in the wildernes, 19 lest the forgetfulnes therof shoulde bring them to destruction.

ALL the commaundementes which I commaunde thee this day, shall ye kepe for to do them, that ye may liue, and multiplie, and go in, and possesse the lande which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers. 2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lorde thy God led thee this fourtie yeres in the wildernesse, for to humble thee, and to (a) prone thee, and to knowe what was in thine heart,

(a) Which declared affliction whether by god ence, or by grudging against gods visitation.

whether thou wouldest kepe his commaundementes, or no. 3 He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with Manna, which neither thou nor thy fathers knewe of: to make thee knowe that a man doth not lyue by bread only, but by euery (worde) that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lorde, doth a man liue. 4 Thy rayment wared not olde vpon thee, neither dyd thy foote (b) swell these fourtie yeres. 5 This also shalt thou consider in thyne heart: that as a man chastiseth his sonne, so the Lorde thy God chastiseth thee. 6 Therefore shalt thou kepe the commaundementes of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and feare him. 7 For the Lorde thy God bryngeth thee into a good lande, a lande in the which are riuers of water, and fountaynes and deapthes that spryng out of valleys and hylles: 8 A lande wherein is wheate and barlie, vineyardes, figge trees, and pomgranates, a lande wherein is oyle olme and hony:

9 A lande wherein thou shalt eate bread without scarcenesse, neither shalt thou lacke any thyng: a lande whose (c) stones are iron, and out of whose hylles thou shalt digge brasse.

10 When thou hast eaten therefore and fylled thy selfe, thou shalt blesse the Lorde thy God for the good lande which he hath geuen thee. 11 Beware that thou forget not the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not kepe his commaundementes, his lawes, and his ordinaunces, which I commaunde thee this day: 12 Yea, and when thou hast eaten and fylled thy selfe, and hast buylt goodly houses and dwelt therein: 13 And when thy beastes and thy sheepe are waxen many, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is encreased: 14 Then beware lest thyne (d) heart ryse, and thou forget the Lorde thy God whiche brought thee out of the land of Egypt and from the house of bondage: 15 And whiche was thy guyde in the great and terrible wylderneſſe (wherin were fierie serpentes, scorpions, and drouth without any water: But he brought out water for thee out of the rocke of flint: 16 He fedde thee in the wilderneſſe with Manna, whiche thy fathers knewe not, for to humble thee, and to proue thee, and that he myght so do thee good at the latter ende, 17 Lest thou shouldest say in thine heart, My power (e) and the myght of myne owne hande hath prepared me this aboundance: 18 But remember the Lorde thy God, for it is he which geueth thee power to get (f) substaunce, for to make good the promise which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And yf thou forget the Lorde thy God, and walke after straunge gods, and serue them, and worship them: I testifie (g) vnto you this day that ye shall surely perishe. 20 As the nations which the Lorde destroyed before your face, so ye shall perishe, because ye would not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God.

¶ The .ix. Chapter.

4 God is not good to them for their owne righteousnesse, but for his owne sake. 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moyses prayeth for the people.

HEare O Israel, thou passest ouer Jordane (a) this day, to go in and possesse nations greater and mightier then thy selfe, cities great and walled vp to heauen: 2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims which thou knowest of, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stande before the children of Anac? 3 Vnderstande therfore this day, that the Lorde thy God is he which goeth ouer before thee as a consumyng (b) fire, he shall destroy them, and he shall bryng them downe before thy face: So thou shalt cast them out, and bryng them to naught quickly, as the Lorde hath sayde vnto thee. 4 Speake not thou in thyne heart, after that the Lorde thy God hath cast them out before thee, saying. For my righteousnesse the Lorde hath brought me in to possesse this lande: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lorde hath cast them out before thee. 5 Ie is not for thy righteousnesse sake, or for thy right heart that thou goest to possesse their lande: But for the wickednesse of these nations the Lorde thy God doth cast them out before thee, to performe the worde which the Lorde thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob. 6 Vnderstande therfore that it is not for thy righteousnesse sake that the Lorde thy God doth geue thee this good lande to possede it, seyng thou art a(c)stifnecked people. 7 Remember, (d) and forget not howe thou prouokedst the Lorde thy God to anger in the wildernesse: since the day that thou diddest depart out of the lande of Egypt, vntyl ye came vnto this place, ye haue rebelled agaynst the Lorde.

8 Also in * Horeb ye prouoked the Lorde to anger, so that the Lorde was wroth with you to haue destroyed you, 9 When I was gone vp into the mount, to receaue the tables of stone, the tables of the couenaunt which the Lorde made with you, and I abode in the mount fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes, when I neither dyd eate bread nor drynke water.

10 And the Lorde deliuered me two tables of stone written with the (e) finger of God, and in them were contayned all the wordes which the Lord spake vnto you in the mount out of the middes of fire, in the day when ye came together. 11 And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes were ended, the Lorde gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables of the couenaunt. 12 And the Lorde spake vnto me, Arise, and get thee downe quickly from hence, for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt haue (f) marred all: they are turned at once out of the way which I commaunded them, and haue made them a molten image. 13 Furthermore, the Lorde spake vnto me, saying, I haue seene this people, and beholde it is a stifnecked people. 14 (g) Let me alone that I may destroy them, and put out the name of them from vnder heauen, and I wyll make of thee a mightie nation, and greater then they be.

15 And I turned me, and came downe from the hyll, euen from the hyll that burnt with fire, and the two tables of the couenaunt were in my handes. 16 And I loked, and beholde ye had sinned agaynst the Lorde your God, and had made you a molten calfe, and had turned atonce out of the way which the Lorde had commaunded you. 17 And I toke the two tables and cast them out of my two handes, and brake (h) them before your eyes.

18 And I fell downe flat before the Lorde as at the first tyme, and fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes I dyd neither eate bread nor drynke water, because of al your sinnes which ye sinned in doyng wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, in that ye prouoked him vnto wrath. 19 (For I was afrayde, that for the wrath and fiercenes wherwith the Lorde was moued agaynst you, he would haue destroyed you) But the Lorde hearde me at that tyme also.

20 The Lorde was very angry with Aaron also, to haue (i) destroyed him: and I made intercession for Aaron also the same tyme. 21 And I toke your sinne, the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him, and grounde him very small, euen to dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the broke that descended out of the (k) mount. 22 Also at the burnyng place, at the place of tempting, and at the sepulchres of lust, ye prouoked the Lord to anger. 23 Likewise when the Lorde sent you from Cades Barnea, saying, Go vp & possesse the land which I haue geuen you: you rebelled agaynst the worde of the Lorde your God, and neither beleued him, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

24 You haue ben rebellious vnto the Lorde since the day that I knewe you.

25 And I fell downe flat before the Lord fourtie dayes & fourtie nightes, as I fell downe before: for the Lorde sayd he would destroy you. 26 I made intercession therfore vnto the Lorde, & sayde, O Lorde God, destroy not thy people and thyne inheritaunce which thou hast deliuered through thy great goodnesse, & which thou hast brought out of Egypt through a mightie hand.

27 (l) Remember thy seruauntes Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and loke not vnto the stubbernesse of this people, nor to their wickednes and sinne: 28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest them, say, The Lord is not able to bring them into the lande which he promised them, and because he hated them, therfore hath he caryed them out to slay them in the wildernesse. 29 Beholde, they are thy people, and thyne inheritaunce which thou broughtest out in thy mightie power, and in thy stretched out arme.

4 And he wrote in the tables accordyng to the first wryting, the ten commaundementes which the lord spake vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire in the day when (b) you were gathered together: and the Lorde gaue them vnto me. 5 And I departed, and came downe from the hil, and put the tables in the arke whiche I had made, and there they be, as the Lorde commaunded me.

1 An exhortation to loue god and alwayes to be myndfull of his lawes and to kepe them.

THerefore thou shalt (a) loue the Lorde thy God, and kepe his obseruaunces, his ordinaunces, his lawes and his commaundementes alway. 2 Knowe you this day, (for I speake not to your chyldren whiche haue neither knowen nor seene) the chastisement of the lord your God, his greatnesse, his mightie hande, and his stretched out arme, 3 His miracles and his actes which he did in the middes of Egypt, euen vnto Pharao the king of Egypt, and vnto all his land: Exod.14.f

4 And what he dyd vnto the hoast of Egypt, vnto their horses and charets: howe he brought the water of the red sea vpon them as they pursued you behynde, and howe the Lorde hath brought them to naught vnto this day: 5 And what he did vnto you in the wyldernesse, vntill ye came vnto this place: 6 And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab the sonne of Ruben: howe the earth opened her mouth & swalowed them Num.16.a.

them, with theyr housholdes and their tentes, and all theyr substaunce that was in theyr possession in the middes of Israel. 7 Doubtlesse, youre eyes haue seene all the great actes of the Lorde which he dyd. 8 Therfore shall ye kepe all the commaundementes which I commaund you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possesse the lande whyther ye go to possesse it: 9 And that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande whiche the Lorde sware vnto youre fathers to geue vnto them and to theyr seede, a lande that floweth with mylke and honie. 10 For the lande whyther thou goest to possesse it, is not as the lande of Egypt that ye came out of, where thou sowedst thy seede, & (b) watereddst it with thy feete, as a garden of herbes. 11 But the lande whyther ye go ouer to possesse it, is a land that hath hylles and valleyes, and drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This lande dothe the Lord thy god care for, and the eyes of the Lorde thy God are alwayes vpon it, from the begynnyng of the yere, vnto the ende of the yere. 13 If you shall hearken therfore vnto my commaundementes which I commaunde you this daye, that ye loue the Lorde your God, and serue hym with all your heart, and with all your soule: 14 I also wyll geue rayne vnto your lande in due season, the (c) first rayne and the later, that thou mayest gather in thy corne, thy wine, and thyne oyle. 15 And I wyl sende grasse in thy feeldes for thy cattell, that thou mayest eate and fyll thy selfe. 16 But beware that your (d) heart deceaue you not, and ye turne aside, and serue straunge gods, & worship them: 17 And then the lord beyng wroth agaynst you, shut vp the heauen that there be no rayne, & that your lande yeelde not her fruite, and lest ye perishe quickely from of the good land which the lord geueth you.

18 Therfore shall ye put vp these my wordes in your heart, & in your soule, and binde them for a signe vpon your hande, that they may be as a frontler betweene your eyes. 19 And ye shall teache them your chyldren, that they may talke of them when thou sittest in thyne house, and when thou walkest by the waye, when thou lyest downe, and when thou ryssest vp. 20 Yea, and thou shalt wryte them vpon the doore postes of thyne house, and vpon thy gates: 21 That your dayes may be multiplied, and the dayes of your chyldren, in the lande which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers to geue them as long as the dayes of heauen last vpon the earth.

22 For if ye kepe all these commaundementes whiche I commaunde you, so that ye do them: (namely) that ye loue the Lorde your God, and walke in all his wayes, and cleaue vnto him: 23 Then wyll the Lorde cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall be the heyres of great nations, and of them that are myghtier then your selues. 24 All (e) the places whereon the soles of your feete shall treade, shalbe yours: from the wyldernesse, and from Libanon, and from the ryuer Euphrates, vnto the vttermost sea shall your (f) coast be. 25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall cast the feare and dread of you vpon all the lande that ye shall treade vpon, as he hath sayde vnto you. 26 Beholde, I set before you this day, a blessyng and a curse: 27 A blessyng, if ye obey the commaundementes of the Lord your God whiche I commaunde you this day: 28 And a curse, if ye wyll not obay the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, but turne out of the way whiche I commaunde you this day, to go after straunge gods whiche ye haue (g) not knowen. 29 When the Lorde thy God thee fore hath brought thee into the lande whither thou goest to possesse it, thou shalt put the blessyng vpon mount Gartzim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal. 30 Are not these mountaynes on the other syde Jordane on that part of the way where the sunne goeth downe in the land of the Chanaanites, which dwel in the playne ouer agaynst Gilgal beside the grone of Moreh? 31 For ye shall passe ouer Jordane, to go in and possesse the lande whiche the Lorde your God geueth you, and ye shall possesse it, & dwell therein. 32 Take heede therfore that ye do all the commaundementes and lawes whiche I set before you this day.

1 The false prophetes, 5 and the inticers to Idolatrie must be put to death.

IF there aryse among you a prophete or a dreamer of dreames, and geue thee a signe or a wonder,

2 And that signe or wonder which he hath sayde come to passe, and then say, Let vs (a) go after straunge gods (which thou hast not knowen) and let vs serue them: 3 Hearken not thou vnto the wordes of that prophete or dreamer of dreames: For the Lorde thy God proueth you, to knowe whether ye loue the Lorde your God with all your heart and with all your soule. 4 Ye shall walke after the Lorde your God, and feare hym, kepe his commaundementes, and hearken vnto his voyce, you shall serue hym, and cleaue vnto hym. 5 And that prophete or dreamer of dreames shall (b) die because he hath spoken to turne you away from the Lorde your God which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lorde thy God commaunded thee to walke in,) and therfore thou shalt put the cupll away from thee. 6 If (c) thy brother the sonne of thy mother, or thyne owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wyfe that lyeth in thy bosome, or thy frende whiche is as thyne owne soule vnto thee, entice thee secretly, saying, Let vs go and serue straunge gods (which thou hast not knowen, nor yet thy fathers) 7 And they be any of the gods of the people which are rounde about you: whether they be nye vnto thee or farre of from thee, from the one ende of the earth vnto the other:

(a) He declareth who be the false prophetes: euen those that woulde turne vs from God.

(b) After that he hath ben conuicted by witnesse, & had sentence of death pronounced on him by the Iudge.

(c) Gods glorie must be preferred before naturall affection.

Deut.17.b.

(d) Thou shalt cast the first stone at him.

8 Thou shalt not consent vnto him, nor hearken vnto him, thyne eye shall not pitie him, neither shalt thou haue compassion on him, nor kepe him secrete: 9 But cause him to be slaine: (d) Thyne hande shalbe fyrste vpon hym to kill him, & then the handes of al the people. 10 And thou shalt stone hym with stones that he dye: because he hath gone about to thrust thee away from the Lorde thy God which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall heare & feare, & shall do no more any suche wyckednesse as this is among you. 12 If thou shalt heare say in one of thy cities whiche the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee to dwell in, 13 That certaine men being the children of * Belial are gone out from among you, & haue moued the inhabiters of their citie, saying, Let vs go and serue straunge gods which ye haue not knowen: 14 Then thou must seeke, and make search, and enquire diligently: and behold, if it be true, and the thyng of a suretie that suche abhomination is wrought among you: 15 Then thou shalt smyte the dwellers of that citie with the edge of the swoorde, and destroy it vtterly, and all that is therein, and the beey cattell thereof, with the

17 And(g) there shal cleaue naught of the damned thing in thine hande, that the Lorde may turne from the fiercenesse of his wrath, and shew thee mercy, and haue compassion on thee, and multiplie thee, as he hath swoorne vnto thy fathers. 18 Therefore shalt thou hearken vnto the voyce of the lord thy god, to kepe al his commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee this day, that thou do that whiche is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

YE are the children of the Lorde your God: ye shall not cut your selues, nor make you any bladnes betweene your (a) eyes for the dead. 2 For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a seuerall people vnto him selfe aboue al the nations that are vpon the earth. 3 Thou shalt eate no maner of abhommination.

The forgeuenes of debtes in the seuenth yere. 7 To helpe the poore is commaunded. 12 The freedome of seruauntes.

A AT the terme of seuen yeres thou shalt make a freedome.

2 And this is the maner of the freedome, Whosoeuer (a) lendeth ought with his hande vnto his neighbour, may not aske agayne (that which he hath lent) of his neyghboure or of his brother, because it is called the Lordes free yere: 3 yet of a straunger thou mayest call it home agayne: but he that is thy brother, him shall thyne hande remit. 4 In any wyse there (b) shalbe no begger among you: for the Lorde shall blesse thee in the lande whiche the Lorde thy God geueth thee for an inheritaunce *:

5 So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to obserue and do all these commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee this daye:

6 For the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt lende vnto many nations, but thou thy selfe shalt not borowe: and thou shalt raigne ouer many nations, and they shall not raigne ouer thee. 7 If one of thy brethren among you be poore within any of thy gates in thy lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee: thou shalt not harden thyne heart, nor shut to thyne hande from thy poore brother:

8 But thou shalt open thyne hande vnto him, and lende him sufficient for his neede which he hath. 9 Beware that there be not a wicked thought in thyne heart, that thou wouldest say, The seuenth yere, the yere of freedom is at hande: and therefore it greeueth thee to looke on thy poore brother, and geuest hym naught, and he then crye vnto the Lorde agaynst thee, and it be sinne vnto thee. 10 Thou shalt geue him, and let it not greeue thyne heart to geue vnto hym: because that for this thyng the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thyne hande vnto. 11 The lande shall neuer be without (c) poore: therefore I commaund thee, saying, Thou shalt open thyne hande vnto thy brother that is needy and poore in thy lande.

12 If thy brother an Hebrewe sell hym selfe to thee, or an Hebrewe woman, and serue thee sixe yeres, in the seuenth yere thou shalt let hym go free from thee. 13 And when thou sendest hym out free from thee, thou shalt not let hym go away emptie:

14 But (d) shalt geue hym liberally of thy sheepe, of thy corne, and of thy wine, and geue hym of that wherewith the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee. 15 And remember that thou wast a seruaunt in the land of Egypt, and the Lorde thy God deliuered thee thence: and therefore I commaunde thee this thyng to day. 16 And yf he say vnto thee, I will not go awaye from thee: because he loueth thee and thyne house, and is well at ease with thee: 17 Then shalt thou take an aule, and naile his eare to the doore therwith, and let him be thy seruaunt for euer: and vnto thy mayd seruaunt thou shalt do likewyse. 18 And let it not greeue thine eye when thou lettest hym go out free from thee, for he hath ben worth a double hyred seruaunt to thee in his seruice sixe yeres: and the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in all that thou doest. 19 All the first males that come of thy cattell and of thy sheepe, thou shalt hallowe vnto the Lorde thy God: thou shalt do no worke with the first borne bullocke, nor sheare the first borne of thy sheepe. 20 Thou shalt eate it before the Lord thy God yere by yere, in the place which the Lorde shall choose, both thou and thy household.

21 If there be any blemishe therein: as if it be lame, or blinde, or haue any other euyll fauouredneslle, thou shalt not offer it vnto the Lorde thy God:

22 But shalt eate it within thyne owne gates, the vncleane and cleane person shall eate it alyke, as the Roe and the Hart. 23 Only eate not the blood therof: but powre it vpon the grounde as water.

1 Of Easter, 10 Whitsontide, 13 and the feast of tabernacles, 18 what officers and iudges ought to be ordeyned, 21 Idolatrie is forbidden.

OBserue (a) the moneth of *newe corne, that thou mayest offer the passouer vnto the Lord thy god: For in the moneth when corne beginneth to type the lord thy god brought thee out of Egypt by nyght. 2 Thou shalt therfore offer the passouer vnto the Lord thy God (of sheepe and oxen) in the place whiche the Lorde shall choose to put his name there.

3 Thou shalt eate no leauened bread with it: but seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleauened bread therwith, euen the (b) bread of tribulation (for thou camest out of the lande of Egypt in haste) that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest out of the land of Egypt, all the dayes of thy lyfe.

4 And there shalbe no leauened bread seene in all thy coastes seuen dayes long, neither shall there remaine any thyng of the flesshe which thou offerest the first daye at euen vntyll the morowe nyng. 5 Thou mayest not offer the passouer within any of thy gates which the lord thy God geueth thee:

6 But in the place which the Lorde thy God shall choose to set his name in, there thou shalt offer the passouer at euen, about the goyng downe of the sunne, in the season that thou camest out of Egypt. 7 And thou shalt roste and eate it in the place which the Lorde thy God hath chosen, and thou shalt returne on the morowe, and go vnto thy tentes. 8 Sixe dayes thou shalt eate sweete bread, and the seuenth day shalbe a solempne assemblie before the Lorde thy God: thou shalt do no worke therein. 9 Seuen weekes shalt thou (c) number vnto thee, and beginne to number the seuen weekes when thou beginnest to put the sicle to the corne: 10 And kepe the feast of weekes vnto the Lord thy God, with a free wyll offeryng of thyne hande, whiche thou shalt geue vnto the Lorde thy God, accordyng as the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee.

11 And thou shalt reioyce before the Lorde thy God, thou, and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruaunt, and thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within thy gates, and the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the widdowe that are among you, in the place whiche the Lorde thy God hath chosen to put his name there. 12 And remember that thou wast a seruaunt in Egypt: and thou shalt obserue and do these ordinaunces. 13 Thou shalt also obserue the (d) feast of tabernacles seuen dayes, after that thou hast gathered in thy corne and thy wine.

14 And thou shalt reioyce in thy feast, thou and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruaunt, and thy mayde, the Leuite, the straunger, and the fatherlesse, and the widdowe that are within thy gates. 15 Seuen dayes shalt thou kepe a solempne feast vnto the Lorde thy God in the place which the Lorde shall choose: for the Lorde thy God shal blesse thee in all thy fruites, and in al the workes of thine handes, therfore shalt thou be glad. 16 Three tymes in a yere shall all thy males appeare before the Lorde thy God in the place whiche he shall choose, in the feast of vnleauened bread, in the (e) feast of weekes, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appeare before the (f) Lorde (g) emptie.

17 Euery man shall geue (h) accordyng to the gyfte of his hande, and accordyng to the blessyng of the Lorde thy God which he hath geuen thee.

18 Iudges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy cities which the Lorde thy God geueth thee throughout thy tribes, and they shall iudge the people with iust iudgement.

19 Wrest not thou the law, nor know any person, neither take any reward: for gyftes do blinde the eyes of the wyse, and peruert the wordes of the righteous. 20 That which is iust and right shalt thou folowe, that thou mayst lyue, and inioy the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee.

The exhortation of the priest when the Israelites go to battayle. 10 Peace must first be proclaymed. 19 The trees that beare fruite must not be destroyed.

Deut. 1. d.

When thou goest out to battayle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and charrettes, and people mo then thou, be not afrayde of them: for the Lorde thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. 2 And when ye are come nye vnto battayle, the priest shall come foorth to speake vnto the people, 3 And shall say vnto them, Heare O Israel, you are come this day vnto battayle against your enemies, let not your hartes faynt, neither feare, nor be amazed, nor a dread of them: 4 For the Lorde (a) your God goeth with you to fight for you against your enemies, and to saue you. 5 And let the officers speake vnto the people, saying, If any man haue built a newe house, and (b) haue not dedicate it: let him go and returne to his house, lest he dye in the battayle, and another man dedicate it. 6 And yf any man haue planted a vineyarde, and haue not made it common: let him go and returne agayne vnto his house, lest he dye in the battayle, and another make it common. 7 And yf any man be betrothed vnto a wyfe, and haue not taken her: let him go and returne agayne vnto his house, lest he dye in the battayle, and another man take her. 8 And let the officers speake further vnto the people, and say, If any man feare and be faynt hearted, let him go and returne vnto his house, lest he make his brothers heart faynt as well as his. 9 And when the officers haue made an ende of speakyng vnto the people, they shall make captaynes of the armie to gouerne the people. 10 When thou commest nye vnto a citie to fyght against it, offer them peace. 11 And yf they (c) aunswere thee agayne peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is founde therin, be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee.

12 And yf they wyll make no peace with thee, but make warre against thee, thou shalt besiege it. 13 And when the Lorde thy God hath deliuered it into thine handes, thou shalt smyte all the males thereof with the edge of the swoorde. 14 But the women, and the children, and the cattell, and all that is in the citie, and all the spoyle therof shalt thou take vnto thy selfe, and eate the spoyle of thyne enemies, which the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee. 15 Thus shalt thou do vnto all the cities which are a great way of from thee, which are not of the cities of (d) these nations.

16 But of the cities of these nations which the Lorde thy God shall geue thee to inherite, thou shalt saue alyue nothyng that breatheth: 17 But shalt destroy them without redemption,

And the blood shalbe forgeuen them. 9 And so shalt thou put (c) innocent blood from thee, when thou shalt haue done that which is ryght in the syght of the Lorde. 10 When thou goest to warre agaynst thyne (d) enemies, and the Lorde thy God hath delyuered them into thine handes, and thou hast taken them captiue, 11 And seest among the captiues a beautifull woman, and hast a desire vnto her, that thou wouldest haue her to thy wyfe: 12 Thou shalt bryng her home to thyne house, & she shall (e) shaue her head, and pare her nayles, 13 And put her rayment that she was taken in from her, and let her remayne in thine house, and (f) beweepe her father and her mother a moneth long: and after that shalt thou go in vnto her, and (g) mary her, and she shalbe thy wyfe. 14 And yf thou haue no fauour vnto her, then let her go whyther she lusteth, and sell her not for money, nor * make marchaundize of her, because thou hast (h) humbled her. 15 If a man haue two wyues, one beloued, and another hated, and they haue borne him children, both the loued and also the hated: If the first borne be the sonne of the hated: 16 Then when the tyme commeth that he deuideth his goodes among his children, he may not make the sonne of the beloued first borne, * before the sonne of the hated, which is in deede the first borne: 17 But he shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, and geue him (i) dowble portion of all that he hath: For he is sonne of the (k) first of his strength, & to him hated doth belongeth the ryght of the first borne.

¶ The. xxii. Chapter.

1 He commaundeth to haue care of our neighbours goodes. 13 Of the wife not being founde a virgin. 22 The puniſhment of adulterie.

(a) Charitie muſt be ſhewed to thy brother aſwell farre abſent, as preſent.

THou ſhalt not ſee thy brothers oxe or ſheepe go aſtray, and withdrawe thy ſelfe from them: but ſhalt bryng them agayne vnto thy brother. 2 And if thy brother be not (a) nie vnto thee, or yf thou knowe him not, then bryng it vnto thine owne houſe, and it ſhall remayne with thee vntyll thy brother aſke after them, and then deliuer him them agayne. 3 In like maner ſhalt thou do with his aſſe, and ſo ſhalt thou do with his rayment: and with all loſt thynges of thy brother which he hath loſt and thou haſt found, ſhalt thou do likewiſe, and thou mayeſt not hyde it from them.

(b) This ſheweth, that order is to be kept in naturall comelineſſe for diſtinction of perſons.

4 Thou ſhalt not ſee thy brothers aſſe or oxe fall downe by the way, and withdrawe thy ſelfe from them: but ſhalt helpe him to heaue them vp agayne. 5 The woman ſhall not (b) weare that which parteyneth vnto the man, neither ſhall a man put on womans rayment: For all that do ſo, are abhomination vnto the Lorde thy God. 6 If thou chaunce vpon a birdes neſt by the way, in whatſoeuer tree it be, or on the grounde, whether they be young or egges, & the damme ſittyng vpon the young, or on the egges: thou ſhalt (c) not take the dam with the young: 7 But ſhalt in any wiſe let the damme go, & take the young to thee, that thou mayeſt proſper, and prolong thy dayes. 8 When thou buildeſt a newe houſe, thou ſhalt make a battlement on the rooke, that thou lade not thyne houſe with blood yf any man fall from thence. 9 Thou ſhalt not ſowe thy vineyarde with (d) diuers ſeedes: leſt the fruite of the ſeede which thou haſt ſowen, and the fruite of thy vineyarde, be defyled.

(c) For that match is not a like in ſtrength, declaryng that curteſie, humanitie, and charitie ſhoulde be in man, not to ouermatch his neyghbour.

10 Thou ſhalt not plowe with an oxe and an (e) aſſe together. 11 Thou ſhalt not weare a garment made of wooll and linnen together. 12 Thou ſhalt make thee gardes vpon the foure quarters of thy veſture wherwith thou couereſt thy ſelfe. 13 If a man take a wife, and when he hath lyen with her, hate her, 14 And lay ſhamefull thynges vnto her charge, & bryng vp an euyll name vpon her, and ſay, I toke this wife, & when I came to her I found her not a mayde: 15 Then ſhall the father of the damſel & the mother, bryng foorth the tokens of the damſels virginitie vnto the elders of the citie in the gate, 16 And the damſels father ſhal ſay vnto the elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this man to wyfe, & he hateth her: 17 And lo, he layeth ſhamefull thynges vnto her charge, ſaying, I founde not thy daughter a mayde: and yet theſe are the tokens of my daughters virginitie. And they ſhall ſpreade the veſture before the elders of the citie. 18 And the elders of that citie ſhall take that man, and chaſtiſe him, 19 And mearſe him in an hundred ſicles of ſiluer, and geue them vnto the (f) father of the damſel, becauſe he hath brought vp an euyll name vpon a mayde of Iſrael: And ſhe ſhalbe his wyfe, and he may not put her away all his dayes. 20 But and yf the thyng be of a ſuretie that the damſell be not founde a virgin:

21 They ſhall bryng the damſel to the doore of her fathers houſe, & the men of that citie ſhal ſtone her with ſtones to death, becauſe ſhe hath wrought folly in Iſrael to play the whore in her fathers houſe: and ſo thou ſhalt put euyll from among you. 22 If a man be founde lying with a woman that hath a wedded huſbande, they ſhall both dye, both the man that lay with the wyfe, and alſo the wyfe: and ſo thou ſhalt put away euyll from Iſrael. 23 If a mayde be betrothed vnto an huſbande, and then a man finde her in the towne, and lye with her: 24 Ye ſhall bryng them both out vnto the gates of the ſame citie, and ſhall ſtone them with ſtones to death: the damſell, becauſe ſhe cryed not beyng in thee citie: and the man, becauſe he hath (g) humbled his neyghbours wyfe: and thou ſhalt put away euyll from thee. 25 But yf a man fynde a betrothed damſell in the feelde, and force her, and lye with her: then the man that lay with her, ſhall dye alone.

(g) Defiled

26 But vnto the damſel thou ſhalt do no

no harme: because there is in the damsell no cause (k) of death. For as when a man ryseth agaynst his neighbour and slayeth hym: euen (l) so is this matter. 27 For he founde her in the feelde: and the betrothed damsell cryed, and there was no man to succour her. 28 If a man finde a mayde that is not betrothed, and take her, and lye with her, and they be founde: 29 Then the man that lay with her, shall geue vnto the damsels father fifte sicles of siluer, and she shall be his wyfe, because he hath humbled her: and he may not put her away all his dayes. 30 No man shall take his fathers wyfe, nor vnheale his fathers couering.

2 When a man hath taken a wyfe and marryed her, yf she fynde no fauour in his eyes, because he hath spyed some vncleanneſſe in her: (a) then let him write her a byll of deuorcement, and put it in her hande, and sende her out of his house:

2 And when she is departed out of his house, let her go and be another mans wyfe. 3 And yf the seconde husbande hate her, let him write her also a letter of deuorcement, and put it in her hande, and sende her out of his house: Or yf the seconde man dye which toke her to wyfe, 4 Her first man which sent her away, may not take her agayne to be his wyfe after that she is defyled: For that is abhomination in the sight of the Lorde, and (b) thou shalt not cause the lande to sinne which the Lorde thy God shall geue thee to inherite. 5 When a man taketh a newe wife, he shal not go a warfare, neither shalbe charged with any businesse: but shalbe free at home one yere, and reioyce with his wyfe which he hath taken. 6 No man shall take the (c) neather or the vpper mylstone to pledge: for he hath layde his lyfe to pledge to thee. 7 If any man be founde stealyng any of his brethren the children of Israel, and abuseth him, or selleth him: the theefe shal dye, and thou shalt put cuyll away from the middes of thee. 8 Take heede to thy selfe as concernyng the plague of leprosie, that thou obserue diligently, and do accordyng to all that the priestes the Leuites shall teache you: as I commaunded them, so ye shall obserue to do. 9 Remember what the Lorde thy God dyd vnto Mari by the way, after that ye were come out of Egypt. 10 When thou doest lende thy brother any thyng, thou (d) shalt not go into his house to fetche a pledge from thence: 11 But shalt stande without, and the man that borowed it of thee, shall bryng the pledge out of the doores vnto thee. 12 Furthermore, if it be a poore body, thou shalt not sleepe with his pledge: 13 But delyuer him the pledge againe when the sunne goeth downe, that he may sleepe in his owne rayment, and bleſſe thee: and it shalbe (e) righteouſneſſe vnto thee before the Lorde thy God. 14 Thou shalt not oppreſſe an hyred (f) seruaunt that is needy and poore, whether he be of thy brethren, or of the straungers that are in thy lande within thy gates: 15 But shalt geue him his hire the same day, and let not the sunne go downe thereon, for he is needy, and therwith sustayneth his life: lest he crye agaynst thee vnto the Lorde, and it be sinne vnto thee. 16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children for the fathers: but euery man shalbe put to death for his owne sinne.

17 Thou shalt not peruert the ryght of the straunger, (g) nor of the fatherleſſe, nor take a widowes rayment to pledge: 18 But remember that thou wast a seruaunt in Egypt, and howe the Lorde thy God delyuered thee thence: and therefore I commaunde thee to do this thyng. 19 When thou cuttest downe thyne harueſt in thy feelde, and hast forgot a sheafe in the feelde, thou shalt not go agayne to fet it: But it shalbe for the straunger, the fatherleſſe, and the widowe: that the Lorde thy God may bleſſe thee in all the workes of thyne hande.

20 When thou beatest downe thyne olyue tree, thou shalt not beate ouer the boughes agayne: but it shalbe for the straunger, the fatherleſſe, and the widowe. 21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyarde, thou shalt not gather the grapes cleane after thee: but leaue them for the straunger, the fatherleſſe, and the widowe. 22 And remember that thou also wast a seruaunt in the lande of Egypt: and therfore I commaunde thee to do this thyng.

6 Ye haue eaten no (b) bread, nor dronke wine or strong drynke: that ye myght knowe howe that I am the lord your God. 7 And ye came vnto this place: and Sehon the king of Hesbon, and Og the king of Basan came out agaynst vs vnto battayle, and we smote them. 8 And toke their lande, and gaue it for an inheritaunce vnto the Rubenites and Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasse. 9 Kepe therfore the wordes of this conenant, and do them, that ye may vnderstande all that ye ought to do. 10 Ye stande this day euery one of you before the (c) Lorde your God: your captaynes, your tribes, your elders, your officers, & al the men of Israel: 11 your children also, your wynes, & the straunger that is in thyne hoast, from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water: 12 That thou shouldest go into the (d) couenaunt of the lorde thy God, and into his oth which the lorde thy God maketh with thee this day: 13 For to make thee a people vnto hym selfe, and that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hath sayde vnto thee, and as he hath swoine vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob. 14 I make not this bonde and this oth with you only: 15 But both with hym that standeth here with vs this day before the lord our God, and also with him that is (e) not here with vs this day. 16 For ye knowe howe we haue dwelt in the lande of Egypt, and how we came through the middes of the nations which ye passed by:

17 And ye haue seene their abhominations, and their idols, wood and stone, siluer and golde, whiche were among them. 18 Lest there be among you man or woman, kinrede or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lorde our God, to go and serue the gods of these nations: and lest there be among you some (f) roote that beareth gall and wormewood.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, he " blesse hym selfe in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, I wyll walke in the meanyng of myne owne heart: " to put the dronken to the thirstie. 20 And so the Lorde wyll not consent to be mercyfull vnto hym, but then the wrath of the Lorde and his gelousie shall smoke agaynst that man: and all the curses that are written in this booke shall lyght vpon hym, and the Lorde shall do out his name from vnder heauen. 21 And the Lorde shal separate hym vnto euyll out of all the tribes of Israel, accordyng vnto al the curses of the couenaunt that are written in the booke of this lawe.

22 So that the generation to come of your chyldren that shall ryse vp after you, and the straunger that shall come from a farre land, shall say: when they see the plagues of that lande, and the diseases wherewith the lorde hath smytten it, 23 Howe all the lande is burnt vp with brimstone and salt, and that it is neither sowen, nor beareth, nor any grasse groweth therein, lyke as in the place of the ouerthrowyng of Sodome, Gomor, Adama, and Zeboim, whiche the lorde ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger. 24 Then shall all nations say, Wherefore hath the lorde done on this fashion vnto this lande? O howe fierse is this great wrath? 25 And men shall say, Because they haue forsaken the couenaūt of the lorde God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt. 26 For they went and serued straunge gods, and worshipped them, gods which they knewe not, and " which had geuen them nothyng.

27 And the wrath of the lorde waxed hot agaynst this lande, to bryng vpon it all the curses that are written in this booke. 28 And the lorde cast them out of their land in anger, wrath, and great indignation, and cast them into a straunge lande, as this day beareth witnes. 29 The (g) secretes of the lorde our God are opened vnto vs, and to our chyldren for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this lawe.

6 And the Lorde thy God wyl(c) circumcise thyne heart, and the heart of thy seede, that thou mayst loue the Lorde thy God with all thyne heart, and all thy soule, that thou maist liue.

7 And the Lorde thy God wyl put al these curses vpon thyne enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee. 8 But thou shalt turne, and hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and do all his commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee this day: 9 (And the Lorde thy God wyll make thee plenteous in all the workes of thyne hande, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of thy lande, for thy wealth: For the Lorde wil turne agayne and (d) reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers: 10 If thou hearken only vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to kepe his commaundementes and his ordinaunces which are written in the booke of this lawe, and if thou turne vnto the Lorde thy God with al thine heart and all thy soule:)

19 I call heauen and earth to recorde this day agaynst you, that I haue set before you lyfe and death, blessyng and cursyng: therefore (g) choose life, that both thou and thy seede may liue:

20 That thou mayst loue the Lorde thy god, and be obedient to his voyce, and cleaue vnto hym: For he is thy lyfe, and the length of thy dayes, that thou mayst dwell vpon the earth, which the Lorde sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to gene them.

7 And Moyses called vnto Iosuah, and sayde vnto hym in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of good courage: for thou must go with this people vnto the lande whiche the Lorde hath sworne vnto their fathers to geue them, and thou shalt geue it them to inherite. 8 And the Lord he doth go before thee, he shalbe with thee, he shal not faile thee, neither forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomfited.
9 And(d) Moyses wrote this lawe, and deliuered it vnto the priestes the sonnes of Leui whiche bare the arke of the testament of the lord, and vnto all the elders of Israel. 10 And Moyses commaunded them, saying, Euery(e) seuenth yere, in the solempnitie of the free yere, in the feast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appeare before the Lorde thy god in the place whiche he hath chosen: thou shalt reade this lawe before all Israel, that they may heare it.
12 Gather the people together, men, women, and children, and the straunger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and learne, and feare the lord your God, and kepe and obserue all the wordes of this lawe, 13 And that their children which * knowe (f) nothing, may heare, & learne to feare the lorde your God, as long as ye liue in the lande whither ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it. 14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Beholde, thy dayes are come that thou must dye: call Iosuah therefore, and stande ye in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may geue him a charge. And Moyses & Iosuah went and stood in the tabernacle of the congregation. 15 And the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle in the piller of the cloude: and the piller of the cloude stoode ouer the doore of the tabernacle. 16 And the Lord said vnto Moyses, Behold, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people wyll rise vp, and go (g) a whoryng after straunge gods of the land whither they go, and wil forsake me, & breake the appointment which I haue made with them.
17 And then my wrath wyl ware hot agaynst them in that day, and I wyll forsake them, and wyll (h) hide my face from them, and they shalbe consumed, and much aduersitie and tribulations shal come vpon them, so that then they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because god is not with me?
18 And I also wyll surely hyde away my face in that day, for all the euyls sake which they shall haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto straunge gods. 19 Nowe therfore wryte ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouthes, that this song maye be my witnes agaynst the children of Israel.
20 For I wyll bryng them into the lande whiche I swore vnto their fathers, that floweth with mylke and honye: and they shall eate and fyll them selues, and ware fat, & turne vnto straunge gods, & serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenaunt.
21 And when muche mischiefe and tribulation is come vpon them, this song shall (i) answere them as a witnesse: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their seede: for I knowe their imagination, which they go about euen nowe before I haue brought them into the lande whiche I swore. 22 Moyses therefore wrote this song the same daye, and taught it the children of Israel. 23 And he gaue Iosuah the son of Nun a charge, and sayde, Be bolde and strong: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the lande whiche I swore vnto them: and I wil be with thee. 24 And when Moyses had made an ende of wryting the wordes of this lawe in a booke, vntyll he had finished them,
25 Moyses commaunded the Leuites which bare the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, saying, 26 Take ye the booke of this lawe, and put it in the (k) side of the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a witnesse agaynst thee. 27 For I knowe thy rebellion and thy stiffe necke: whyle I am yet alyue with you this day, ye haue ben disobedient vnto the Lorde, and howe much more after my death? 28 Gather vnto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I maye speake these wordes in their eares, and call heauen and earth to recorde agaynst them. 29 For I am sure, that after my death ye wyll vtterly be corrupt, and turne from the way which I haue commaunded you: and tribulation wyll come vpon you in the latter dayes, because ye shall haue wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, to prouoke hym through (l) the workes of your handes. 30 And Moyses

The. xxxii. Chapter.

7 The song of Moyses concerning gods benefites towarde the people. 48 God forewarneth Moyses of his death.

HEare O ye (a) heauens, and I shall speake, and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth. 2 My doctrine shall drop as doth the raine: and my speache shall flowe as doth the deawe, as the shoure vpon the herbes, and as the droppes vpon the grasse. 3 For I wil publish the name of the Lorde: ascribe ye honour vnto our God. 4 Perfect is the worke of the most mightie "God, for all his wayes are iudgement: He is a God of trueth, without wickednesse, righteous and iust is he. 5 Frowardly haue (b) they done against him by their (c) vices, not beyng his owne children, but a wicked and frowarde generation. 6 Do ye so rewarde the Lorde, O foolishe nation and vnwyse? Is not he thy father that hath bought thee? Hath he not made thee and ordeyned thee? 7 Remember the dayes of the worlde that is past, consider the yeres of so many generations: Aske thy father, and he will shewe thee, thy elders, and they will tell thee. 8 When the most hyest diuided to the nations their inheritaunce, and when he separated the sonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the nations accordyng to the number of the children of Israel:

9 For the Lordes part is his people, and Jacob is the portion of his inheritaunce. 10 He founde hym in a desart lande, in a voyde grounde, and in a () roarynge wylderneſſe: he led him about, he gaue hym vnderstandyng, and kept him as the apple of his eye. 11 As an Egle that stirreth vp her nest, and flitteretb ouer her young, and spreadeth her wynges, taketh them, and beareth them on her wynges:

12 The Lorde alone was his guyde, and there was no straunge God with hym. 13 He caryed hym vp to the high places of the earth, that he might eate the increase of the feeldes, and he fed him with hony out of the rocke, and with oyle out of the most harde stone: 14 With butter of kine, and mylke of the sheepe, with fat of the lambes, and fat of rammes and bee goates, with the fat of the most plenteous wheate, and that thou mightest drynke the most pure blood of the grape. 15 But he that was vpryght, when he waxed fat, () spurned with his heele: Thou art well fed, thou art growen thicke, thou art laden with fatnesse: And he forsoke God his maker, and regarded not the God of his saluation. 16 They prouoked him to anger with straunge gods, with abhominations prouoked they hym.

17 They offered vnto deuils, and not to God: to gods whom they knewe not, to newe gods that came newely vp, whom their fathers feared not. 18 Of god that begat thee thou art vnmindful, and hast forgotten God that made thee. 19 The Lorde therefore saw it, and was angry: because of the prouokyng of his sonnes (d) and his daughters, 20 And he sayde, I wyll hide my face from them, and wyll see what they ende shalbe: For they are a very frowarde generation, children in whom is no fayth. 21 They haue angred me with that which is no god, and prouoked me with their vanities: And I also wyll prouoke them with those whiche are no people, I wyll anger them with a foolyshe nation.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, & burneth vnto the bottome of hell, and hath consumed the earth with her increase, & set a fire the bottomes of the mountaynes. 23 I wyll heape mischiefes vpon them, and wyll destroye them with mine arrowes. 24 They shalbe "burnt with hunger, & consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: I wil also sende the teeth of beastes vpon them, with the furiousnesse of serpentes in the dust. 25 Outwardly shall the swoorde rob them of their children, & in the chaumber feare, both young men and young women, and the sucklinges, with the men of gray heades. 26 I haue sayde, I wyll scatter them abroade, and make the remembraunce of them to ceasse from among men: 27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemie, lest their aduersaries shoulde (e) ware proude, and lest they shoulde saye, Our hygh hande hath done all this, and not the Lorde.

28 For it is a nation voyde of counsayle, neither is there any vnderstanding in them. 29 O that they were wyse, and vnderstoode this, that they would consider their latter ende.

47 And let it not be a vayne woorde vnto you: for in it is your lyfe, and through this woorde ye shall prolong your dayes in the lande whither ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it. 48 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses the same day, saying, 49 Get the vp into this mountayne Abarim, vnto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab ouer against Iericho, and beholde the lande of Chanaan which I gene vnto the chyldren of Israel to possesse:

50 And dye in the mount which thou goest vnto, and thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother dyed in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people: 51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of strife at Cades in the wylderneſſe of Zin: for ye sanctified me not among the chyldren of Israel. 52 Thou shalt therefore see the land before thee, and shalt not go thyther vnto the lande whiche I geue the chyldren of Israel.

23 And vnto Nephthali he sayde, O Nephthali satisfied with Gods fauour, and full with the blessing of the Lorde, possesse thou the west and the south. 24 And to Aser he sayde, Aser shalbe blessed with chyldren, he shalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and shal dyp his foote in oyle. 25 Thy shoes shalbe iron and brasse, & thy strength shall continue as long as thou lyuest. 26 There is none lyke vnto the God of Israel, whiche though he sit vppon the heauen as vpon an horse, yet is he thyne helper, whose glorie is in the "celestiall places.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 The Lorde incourageth Iosuah to inuade the lande of promise. 5 The Lorde promiseth to assist Iosuah yf he obey his worde. 11 Iosuah commaundeth the people to prepare them selues to passe ouer Iordane, 12 and exhorteth the Rubenites to execute their charge.

AFter the (a) death of Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde, it came to passe that the Lorde spake vnto Iosuah the sonne of Nun Moyses (b) minister, saying, 2 Moyses my seruaunt is dead: nowe therefore aryse, go ouer this Iordane, thou & al this people, vnto the lande the whiche I to them the children of Israel do (c) geue. 3 Al the places that the soles of your feete shall treade vpon, haue I geuen you, as I said vnto Moyses. 4 From the (d) wyldernesse and this Libanon, vnto the great riuer "Euphrates, all the lande of the (e) Hethites, euen vnto the (f) great sea towarde the going downe of the sunne, shalbe your coast.

5 There shall not a man be able to withstande thee all the dayes of thy life: for as I was with Moyses, so will I be with thee, and wil not faile thee, nor forsake thee. 6 Be strong therfore & bolde: for vnto this people shalt thou diuide the lande for inheritaunce, whiche I sware vnto their fathers to geue them. 7 Only be thou strong, & of a stoute courage, that thou mayst obserue and do accordyng to all the lawe which Moyses my seruaunt commaunded thee: turne from the same neither to the ryght hande, nor to the left, that thou mayst do wysely in all that thou takest in hande.

8 Let not the booke of this lawe depart out of thy mouth, (g) but occupie thy minde therein day and night, that thou mayst obserue and do accordyng to all that is written therin: for then shalt thou make thy way (h) prosperous, and then thou shalt do wysely. 9 Haue not I commaunded thee that thou shouldest be strong and hardie, and not feare nor be faint hearted? For I the Lorde thy God am with thee, whyther soeuer thou goest.

10 Then Iosuah commaunded the officers of the people, saying, 11 Go through the middes of the hoast, and commaunded the people, saying, Prepare you vitailes: for after (i) three dayes ye shall passe ouer this Iordane, to go in and enioye the lande whiche the Lorde your God geueth you to possesse it. 12 And vnto the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses spake Iosuah, saying, 13 Remember the worde which Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde commaunded you, saying, The Lorde your God hath geuen you rest, and hath geuen you this (k) lande.

14 Your wyues, your chyldren, and your cattell shall remayne in the land which Moyses gaue you on (l) this side Iordane: but ye shall go before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, and helpe them: 15 Vntill the Lorde haue geuen your brethren rest as he hath you, and vntyll they also haue obteyned the lande whiche the Lorde your God geueth them: and then shall ye returne vnto the lande of your possession, and enioy it, which (lande) Moyses the Lordes seruaunt gaue you on this side Iordane towarde the sunne rysing. 16 And they aunswered Iosuah, saying, All that thou hast commaunded vs we wyl do: and whyther soeuer thou sendest vs, we wyll go. 17 Accordyng as we obeyed Moyses in all thinges, so wyll we obey thee; only the Lorde thy God be with thee, as he was with

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

9 Rahab acknowlegeth the God of Israel to be the highest God.

AND Iosuah the sonne of Nun sent out of (a) Sittim two men to spye secretly, saying, Go, and viewe the land, and also Jericho. And they went, and came into an " harlotes house, named Rahab, and lodged there. 2 And it was tolde the kyng of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hyther to nyght of the chyldren of Israel, to spie out the countrey. 3 And the kyng of Jericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, (b) Bryng forth the men that are come to thee, and whiche are entred into thyne house: for they be come to searche out all the lande. 4 And the woman toke the two men, and hydde them, and sayde thus, In deede there came men vnto me, but I (c) wist not whence they were. 5 And about the time of the shutting of the gate when it was darke, the men went out, whyther the men went I wote not: folow ye after them quickly, for ye shall ouertake them. 6 But she had brought them vp to the rooffe of the house, and hyd them with the stalkes of flaxe whiche she had lying abrode vpon the rooffe. 7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordane vnto the fourdes: and assoone as they whiche pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 And or euer they were a sleepe, she came vp vnto them vppon the rooffe, 9 And sayde vnto the men, I knowe that the Lorde hath geuen you the lande, for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and the inhabitantes of the lande faint at the presence of you: 10 For we haue heard how the Lord dryed vp the water of the red sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you dyd vnto the two kinges of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordane, Sehon and Og, whom ye vtterly destroyed. 11 And assoone as we had hearde these thinges, our heartes dyd " faynt, and there remayned no more " courage in any man at the presence of you: for the (d) Lorde your God he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneath. 12 Nowe therefore I pray you sweare vnto me by the Lorde, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye shall also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and geue me a true token: 13 And that ye shal saue alyue both my father & my mother, my brethren and my sisters, and all that they haue, and that ye shall deliuer our " soules from death.

14 And the men answered her, (e) Our lyues for you to dye, yf ye vtter not this our businesse. And when the Lorde hath geuen vs the lande, we wyl deale mercifully and truely with thee. 15 And then she let them downe by a corde through a window: for her house was vppon the towne wall, and she dwelt vppon the towne wall. 16 And she sayde vnto them, Get you into the (f) mountayne, lest the pursuers meete you, and hide your selues there three dayes, vntyll the pursuers be returned, and then shall ye go your owne way. 17 And the men sayde vnto her, (g) We wyll be blameles of this thy oth which thou hast made vs sweare: 18 Beholde, when we come into the lande, thou shalt bynde this corde of red threde in the wyndowe which thou dydst let vs downe by: and thou shalt bryng thy father and thy mother, thy brethren, and all thy fathers houshold into thyne house. 19 And then whosoeuer doth go out at the doores of thy house into the streete, (h) his blood shalbe vpon his owne head, and we wyl be giltlesse: and whosoeuer shalbe with thee in the house, his blood shalbe on our head yf any mans hand touche him. 20 And yf thou vtter these our wordes, we wyl be quite of thy oth whiche thou hast made vs sweare. 21 And she sayde, According vnto your wordes, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bounde the " red corde in the windowe. 22 And they departed, and came into the mountayne, and there abode three dayes, vntyll the pursuers were returned: And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but founde them not. 23 And the two men returned, and descended from the mountayne, and passed (i) ouer, and came to Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and tolde him all that came vnto

The .iii. Chapter.

1 Iosuah commeth with the people vnto Iordane. 7 God sheweth by miracles that he is with Iosuah, and that he guydeth the people.

AND Iosuah rose early, and they remoued from Sittim, and came to(a) Iordane, he and all the children of Israel: and lodged there before they went ouer. 2 And after (b) three dayes, the officers went throughout the hoast, 3 And commaunded the people, saying, When ye see the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde your God, and the priestes that are Leuites bearyng it, ye shall depart from your place, and go after it.

4 So yet that there shalbe a space betweene you and it, about two thousande cubites by measure: and ye shall not come nye vnto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye haue not gone this way in times past. 5 And Iosuah sayde vnto the people, Sanctifie your selues, for to morowe the Lord shal do wonders among you. 6 And Iosuah spake vnto the priestes, saying, Take vp the arke of the couenaunt, and go ouer before the people. And they toke vp the arke of the couenaunt, & went before the people. 7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, This day will I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may knowe howe that as I was with Moyses, so will I be with thee. 8 And thou shalt commaunde the priestes that beare the arke of the couenaunt, saying, When ye are come to the edge of the waters of Iordane, ye shall stand still in (c) Iordane. 9 And Iosuah sayde vnto the children of Israel, Come hyther, and heare the wordes of the Lorde your God. 10 And Iosuah sayde, (d) Hereby ye shall knowe that the liuing god is among you, and that he will without fayle cast out before you the Chanaanites, and the Hethites, the Hiuites, the Pherezites, the Gergesites, the Amorites, and the Iebusites. 11 Beholde, the arke of the couenaunt of the Lord of all the worlde, goeth before you into Iordane. 12 Nowe therefore take from among you (e) twelue men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euery tribe a man. 13 And assoone as the soles of the feete of the priestes that beare the arke of the Lord the gouernour of all the worlde treade in the waters of Iordane, the waters of Iordane shalbe diuided: and the waters that come from aboue, shall stande still vpon an heape. 14 And so when the people were departed from their tentes to go ouer Iordane, the priestes bearing the arke of the (f) couenaunt, went before the people. 15 And assoone as they that bare the arke came vnto Iordane, and the feete of the priestes that bare the arke were dypped in the brim of the water (for Iordane vseth to fill all his (g) banckes all the tyme of haruest) 16 The waters also that came downe from aboue, dyd ryse vp vpon an heape, and departed farre from the citie of Adam that was beside Zarthan: and the waters that were beneath towarde the sea of the wildernesse, (euen) the salt sea, fayled and were cut of: and the people went right ouer agaynst Iericho. 17 And the priestes that bare the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde stoode drye within Iordane, redy (h) prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer throwe the drye, vntyll all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iordane.

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 Twelue stones out of the chanell be erected for a signe of the drying of Iordane.

AND so when the people were all gone ouer Iordane, the Lorde spake vnto Iosuah, saying,

2 Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euery tribe a man:

3 And commaunde you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordane, out of the place where the priestes feete stoode in a redinesse, twelue stones, whiche ye shall take away with you, and leaue them in the (a) lodging where you shall lodge this night. 4 Then Iosuah called the twelue men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery tribe a man: 5 And Iosuah sayde vnto them, Get you before the arke of the Lorde your God through the middes of Iordane, and take vp euery man of you a stone vppon his shoulder, according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

21 And he spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If your children aske their fathers in tyme to come, and say, What (meane) these stones?
22 Ye shall shew your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iordane on drye lande. 23 For the Lord your God dryed vp the waters of Iordane before you vntill ye were gone ouer, as the Lorde your God dyd the redde sea, which he dryed vp before vs tyll we were gone ouer: 24 That all the people of the (h) worlde may knowe the hande of the Lorde howe mightie it is, and that ye might feare the lord your God for euer.

AND when all the kinges of the (a) Amorites whiche are beyonde Iordane westwarde, and all the kinges of the Chananites whiche were by the sea, heard howe the Lord had dryed vp the waters of Iordane before the children of Israel vntyll they were gone ouer, their heartes faynted for feare, and there was no spirite in them any more for the presence of the children of Israel.
2 That same time the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Make thee sharpe knines, and go to (b) agayne and circumcise the children of Israel the seconde tyme. 3 And Iosuah made him sharpe knines, and circumcised the children of Israel in the(c) hill of the foreskinnes. 4 And this is the cause why Iosuah circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt: because that all the men of warre dyed in the wyldernesse by the way after they came out of Egypt.
5 For all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wyldernesse, by the way after they came out of Egypt were not (d) circumcised. 6 For the children of Israel walked fourtie yeres in the wyldernesse, till all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they

8 And when they had circumcised all the people, they abode in their places in the campe, tyl they were whole.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, This day haue I taken away the (e) shame of Egypt from you. Wherefore the name of the same place is called Gilgal vnto this day. 10 And the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and helde the feast of Passouer the fourteenth day of the (f) moneth at euen, in the plaine of Iericho. 11 And they dyd eate of the corne of the lande on the morowe after the Passouer sweete cakes & parched corne, in the selfe same day. 12 For the Manna ceassed on the morowe after they had begun to eate of the corne of the land, neither had the children of Israel Manna any more, but dyd eate of the fruite of the lande of Chanaan that yere. 13 And when Iosuah was nye to Iericho, he lyft vp his eyes, and loked: and beholde, there stoode a man agaynst him, hauing a sworde drawen in his hande: and Iosuah went vnto him, and sayde vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries? 14 And he sayde, Naye, but as a captayne of the hoast of the Lorde am I nowe come. The. vi. Chapter.

1 God geueth the citie of Iericho vnto Iosuah. 20 Iericho is taken. 22 Rahab is saued. 26 The builder agayne of Iericho is cursed.

AND Iericho was shut vp and closed because of the children of Israel, neither might any man go out, or in. 2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Beholde, I haue geuen into thyne hande Iericho, and the king thereof, and the strong men of warre. 3 And ye shall compasse all the citie, all ye that be men of warre, and go rounde about it once: and so shall you do sixe dayes. 4 And seuen priestes shal beare before the arke seuen trumpettes of (a) rammes hornes: and the seuenth day ye shall compasse the citie seuen tymes, and the priestes shall blowe with the trumpets. 5 And when they make a long blast with the rammes horne, and ye heare the sounde of the horne, all the people shal shoute with a great shoute: and then shall the wall of the citie fall downe, and the people shall assende vp euery man straight before him. 6 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun called the priestes, and sayd vnto them, Take vp the arke of the couenaunt, and let seuen priestes beare seuen trumpettes of rammes hornes before the arke of the Lorde. 7 And he sayde vnto the people, (b) Go, and compasse the citie, and let him that is harnessed go before the arke of the Lorde. 8 And when Iosuah had spoken vnto the people, the seuen priests bare the seuen trumpettes of rammes hornes, and went foorth before the arke of the Lorde, and blewe with the trumpettes: and the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde folowed them.

when the seuenth day came, they rose early with the dawnyng of the day, and compassed the citie after the same maner (f) seuen times: only that day they compassed the citie seuen times. 16 And at the seuenth time when the priestes blewe with the trumpettes, Iosuah sayde vnto the people, Shoute, for the Lorde hath geuen you the citie. 17 And the citie shalbe (g) accursed, and all that are therein vnto the Lorde: only Rahab the harlot shall lyue, and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. 18 And in any wyse be ye ware of the accursed thinges, lest ye make your selues accursed, and take of the accursed thinges, and make the hoast of Israel accursed, and trouble it. 19 But all the siluer, golde, vessels of brasse and iron, shalbe (h) consecrated vnto the Lorde, and all shall come into his treasurie. 20 And the people shouted, and blewe with trumpettes: and when the people heard the sounde of the trumpe, they shouted with a great shoute, and the wall fell downe flat, so that the people went vp into the citie euery man straight before him, and toke the citie: 21 And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, both man and woman, young and olde, oxe, sheepe, and asse, with the edge of the swoorde. 22 But Iosuah had sayde vnto the two men that had spyed out the countrey, Go into the harlottes house, and bryng out thence the woman and all that she hath, as ye sware vnto her. 23 And the young men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: and they brought out all her kynred, and put them (i) without the hoast of Israel. 24 And they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onlye the siluer and the golde, the vessels of brasse and iron they put into the treasurie of the (k) house of the Lorde. 25 And Iosuah saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers houshold, and all that she had: and (l) she dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because she hyd the messengers whiche Iosuah sent to spye out Iericho. 26 And Iosuah sware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lorde that ryseth vp and buildeth this citie Iericho: he shall lay the (m) foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, and in his youngest sonne shall he set vp the gates of it.

27 And so the Lorde was with Iosuah, and his fame was noysed throughout all landes.

BVt yet the children of Israel trespassed in the (a) cursed thing: for Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zareth of the tribe of Iuda, toke of the cursed thing: and the wrath of the Lorde waxed hot agaynst the children of Israel. 2 And Iosuah sent men from Iericho to (b) Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on the east side of Bethel, and spake vnto them, saying, Get you vp, and viewe the countrey. And the men went vp, and viewed Ai. 3 And returned to Iosuah, and sayde vnto him, Let not all the people go vp: but let as it were two or three thousand men go vp, and smite Ai: and make not all the people to labour thither, for they are but fewe. 4 And so there went vp thyther of the people about three thousande men, and they fled before the men of Ai. 5 And the men of Ai (c) smote of them vpon thyrtie and sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate euen vnto Sebarim, and smote them in the going downe: Wherefore the heartes of the people for feare melted away lyke water.

6 And Iosuah (d) rent his clothes, and fel to the earth vpon his face before the arke of the Lorde vntyll the euentide, he and the elders of Israel, and put earth vpon their heades.

7 And Iosuah sayde, Alas, O Lorde Lorde, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Iordane, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? Would to God we had ben content, and dwelt on the other (e) side Iordane. 8 Oh Lorde what shal I say, when Israel turneth their backes before their enemies?

9 Surely the Chanaanites, and all the inhabitaunts of the lande shall heare of it, and shall conspire agaynst vs, and destroy the name of vs out of the earth: and what wylt thou do vnto thy mightie name? 10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Get thee vp, wherefore lyest thou thus vppon thy face? 11 Israel hath sinned, and they

17 And he brought the kynredes of Iuda, and toke the kinred of the Zarehites: and he brought the kynred of the Zarehites man by man, and Zabdi was caught. 18 And he brought his houshold man by man, and Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zared of the tribe of Iuda was caught.

19 And Iosuah saide vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseche thee geue glory to the lord god of Israel, and (i) make confession vnto him, and shewe me what thou hast done, hyde it not from me. 20 And Achan aunswered Iosuah, and sayde, Of a trueth I haue sinned against the Lorde God of Israel, and thus and thus haue I done. 21 I sawe among the spoyles a goodly babilonishe garment, and two hundred sicles of siluer, and a tongue of golde of fifte sicles wayght, and I coueted them, and toke them, and beholde they lye hyd in the earth in the middest of my tent, and the siluer is there vnder. 22 And so Iosuah sent messengers: which when they ranne vnto his tent, beholde they were hyd in his tent, and the siluer there vnder.

And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, & ouerwhelmed them with stones. 26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lorde turned from the wrath of his indignation. 3 The siege, 19 and winning of Ai, 29 The king thereof is hanged. 30 Iosuah setteth vp an aulter. 32 He writeth the lawe vpon stones. 35 And readeth it to all people.

AND the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Feare not, neither be thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee, and vp, and get thee to Ai: Beholde, I haue geuen into thy hande the king of Ai, and his people, his citie, and his lande:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king, as thou dyddest vnto Iericho and her king: neuertheles, the spoile and cattell thereof shall ye take vnto your selues: Thou shalt lye in wayte against the citie on the (a) backside thereof. 3 And so Iosuah arose, & all the men of warre, to go vp against Ai: and Iosuah chose out thirtie thousand strong men and valiaunt, & sent them away by night: 4 And he cõmaunded them, saying, Beholde, ye shall lye in wayte against the towne on the (b) backside thereof: go not verie farre from the citie, but be all redye: 5 And I, and all the people that are with me, wyll approche vnto the citie:

34 Afterwarde he red all the wordes of the lawe, the blessinges and cursinges accordyng to all that is written in the booke of the lawe. 35 And there was not one worde of all that Moyses commaunded, which Iosuah red not before all the congregation of Israel, aswell the (m) women and children, as the straungers that were conuersaunt among them.

And Iosuah sayde vnto them agayne, What are ye, and whence come ye? 9 They aunswered him, From a very farre countrey thy seruauntes are come for the name (e) of the Lorde thy God: For we haue hearde the fame of him, & all that he did in Egypt, 10 And all that he did to the two kinges of the Amorites that were beyonde Iordane, Sehon king of Hesbon, and Og king of Basan, which were at Astaroth.

20 And when Iosuah and the children of Israel had made an ende of slaying them with an exceedyng great slaughter, till they were wasted: the rest that remayned of them, entred into walled cities: 21 And all the people returned to the hoast to Iosuah at Makeda in peace, neither dyd any man mone his tongue agaynst the children of Israel. 22 Then sayde Iosuah, Open the mouth of the cane, and bryng out those fiue kinges vnto me out of the cane. 23 And they dyd so, and brought those fiue kinges vnto him out of the cane, (euen) the king of Hierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon. 24 And when they brought out those fiue kinges vnto Iosuah, Iosuah called for all the men of Israel, and sayde vnto the cheefe of the men of warre which went with him, Come neare, and put your feete vpon the (f) neckes of these kinges. And they came neare, and put their feete vpon the neckes of them. 25 And Iosuah sayde vnto them, Ye shall not feare, nor be fayne hearted, but be strong, and plucke vp your hearts: for thus shall the Lorde do to all your enemies agaynst whom ye fight. 26 And then Iosuah smote them, and slue them, and hanged them on fiue trees: and they hanged still vpon the trees vntyll the euenyng.

27 And at the goyng downe of the sunne, Iosuah gaue commaundement, and they toke them downe of the trees, and cast them into the cane wherin they had ben hyd: and layde great stones in the canes mouth, (which remayne) vntyll this day.

28 And that same day Iosuah toke Makeda, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and the kyng therof also destroyed he vtterly, with all the soules that were therin, and let none remayne: and he dyd to the kyng of Makeda, as he dyd vnto the kyng of Iericho. 29 Then Iosuah went from Makeda, and all Israel with him vnto Libna, and fought agaynst Libna. 30 And the Lorde deliuered it and the kyng therof into the hande of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and all the * soules that were therin, He let none remayne in it: but dyd vnto the kyng thereof as he dyd vnto the kyng of Iericho. 31 And Iosuah departed from Libna, and all Israel with him vnto Lachis, and besieged it, and assaulted it. 32 And the Lorde deliuered Lachis into the hande of Israel, which toke it the seconde day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and all the soules that were therin, doyng accordyng to all, as he had done to the citie of Libna. 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came vp to helpe Lachis: & Iosuah smote him and his people, vntyll none remayned of him. 34 And from Lachis Iosuah departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it, 35 And toke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and all the soules that were therin he vtterly destroyed the same day accordyng to all that he had done to Lachis.

36 And Iosuah departed vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him, vnto Hebron, and they fought agaynst it. 37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and the kyng therof, & all the townes that parteyned to it, and all the soules that were therin, & he left none remaynyng: but dyd accordyng to all, as he had done to Eglon, and destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therin. 38 And Iosuah returned, & all Israel with him to Dabir, & fought against it. 39 And whē he had taken it, & the kyng therof, and all the townes that parteyned therto, they smote them with the edge of the swoord, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therin, neither let he any remayne: euen as he did to Hebron, so he did to Dabir & the kyng therof, as he had done also to Libna & her kyng.

1 The lande of Chanaan was diuided among the nine tribes and the halfe. 6 Caleb requireth the heritage that was promised him. 13 Hebron was geuen him.

AND these are the countreys which the children of Israel inherited in the lande of Chanaan, which Eleazer the priest, and Iosuah the sonne of Num, and the auncient heades of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed to them: 2 By lot they receaued their possessions, as the Lord commaunded by the hand of Moyses to geue vnto the nine tribes, & vnto the halfe tribe. 3 For Moyses had geuen inheritaunce vnto (a) two tribes and an halfe on the other side Iordane: but vnto the Leuites he gaue none inheritaunce among them. 4 For the children of Ioseph were two tribes, Manasses & Ephraim: and therfore they gaue no part vnto the Leuites in the lande, saue cities to dwell in, with the suburbes of the same for their beastes & cattell. 5 As the Lorde cõmaunded Moyses, euen so the children of Israel did whē they diuided the lande. 6 And the children of Iuda came vnto Iosuah in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephune the Kenesite sayde vnto him, Thou wottest what the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses the man of God about (b) me and thee in Cades-barnea. 7 Fourtie yeres olde was I when Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde sent me from Cades-barnea to espie out the land: and I brought him word agayne as it was in myne heart. 8 Neuertheles my (c) brethren that went vp with me, discouraged the heart of the people: and I followed the Lorde my God. 9 And Moyses sware the same day, saying, The lande wheron thy feete haue troden, shalbe thine inheritaunce and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast followed the Lorde my God. 10 And beholde, the Lorde hath kept me alyue as he sayde this fourtie and fiue yeres, euen sence the Lorde spake this word vnto Moyses, whyle the children of Israel wandred in the wildernesse: and now lo I am this day fourescore and fiue yeres old: 11 And yet am as strong at this tyme, as I was when Moyses sent me: loke howe strong I was then, so strong am I nowe, either for warre, or for gouernment. 12 Nowe therefore geue me this mountayne whereof the Lorde spake in that day, (for thou heardest in that day howe the Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled) (d) If the Lorde wyll be with me, and I shalbe able to dryue them out, as the Lorde sayde. 13 And Iosuah blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephune Hebron to inherite. 14 And Hebron therfore became the inheritaunce of Caleb the sonne of Iephune the Kenesite vnto this day: because he folowed constantly the Lorde God of Israel. 15 And the name of Hebron was called in olde time, Kiriath-Arba, which (Arba) was a great man among the Enakims: and the lande ceassed from warre.

The.xvii. Chapter.

1 The portion of the halfe tribe of Manasse. 3 A portion is geuen to the daughters of Salphaad.

A THis was the lot of the tribe of Manasse, whiche was the eldest sonne of Ioseph, to wit of Machir the eldest sonne of Manasses, whiche was the father of Gilead: (now because he was a man of warre) he had Gilead and Basan. 2 This is the possession of the (a) rest of the chyldren of Manasses by their kinredes, (namely) of the chyldren of Abiezer, the chyldren of Helch, the chyldren of Ariel, the chyldren of Sechem, the chyldren of Hepher, the chyldren of Semida: For these were the male chyldren of Manasses, the sonne of Ioseph by their kinredes.

3 But Salphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasses, had no sonnes, but daughters: whose names are these, Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirsa. 4 Whiche came before Eleazar the priest, and before Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and before the lordes, saying, The Lorde commanded Moyses to geue vs an inheritaunce among our (b) brethren: And therefore according to the commaundement of the Lorde, he gaue them an inheritaunce among the brethren of their father. 5 And there fell ten portions to Manasses, beside the land of Gilead and Basan, which were on the other side Iordane.

B 6 Because the daughters of Manasses dyd inherite among his sonnes: and Manasses other sonnes had the lande of Gilead. 7 And the coast of Manasses was from Aser to Machmathath that lyeth before Sichem, and went along on the ryght hande, euen vnto the inhabitaunces of Entaphuah. 8 And the lande of Thaphuah belonged to Manasses: which (c) Thaphuah is beside the border of Manasses, beside the border of the chyldren of Ephraim. 9 And the coast descended vnto the "riuer Canah southwarde, euen to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasses: the coast of Manasses went also on the northside to the riuer, and the endes of it go out at the sea: 10 So that the south parteyned to Ephraim, and the north to Manasses, and the sea is his border: and they met together in (d) Aset northwarde, and in Issachar eastwarde. 11 And Manasses had in Issachar and in Aser, Beth-sean and her townes, Ibleam and her townes, and the inhabitours of Dor, with the townes parteyning to the same, and the inhabitours of Endor with the townes of the same, and the inhabitours of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitours of Mageddo with the townes of the same, euen three countreys. 12 Yet the chyldren of Manasses coulde (e) not ouercome those cities, but the Chanaanites presumed to dwell in the same lande. 13 Neuertheless assoone as the chyldren of Israel were waxed strong, they put the Chanaanites vnder tribute, but expelled them not.

14 And the chyldren of Ioseph spake vnto Iosuah, saying, Why hast thou geuen me but one lot and one portion to inherite, seyng I am a great people, and forasmuch as the Lorde hath (f) blessed me hytherto? 15 And Iosuah answered them, If thou be much people, then get thee vp to the wood (countrey) and prepare for thy selfe there in the lande of the Pherezites & (g) of the Giaunres, if mount Ephraim be to narowe for thee.

16 And the chyldren of Ioseph sayd, The hyll is not inough for vs: and all the Chanaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charets of iron, and so haue they that inhabite Beth-sean and the townes of the same, and they also that dwell in the valley of Iezrael. 17 And Iosuah sayd vnto the house of Ioseph, Ephraim and Manasses, Ye be much people, and haue great power, and shall not therfore haue one lot: 18 Therfore the hyll shalbe yours, and ye shall cut downe the wood that is in it: and the endes of it shalbe yours, if ye cast out the Chanaanites whiche haue iron charets, and are very strong.

20 And the kinredes of the chyldren of Caath that were Leuites, that is to say, the (c) other chyldren of Caath, had cities geuen them for their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

The .xxii. Chapter.

1 Ruben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses are sent agayne to their possessions.

THen (a) Iosuah called the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, 2 And sayd vnto them, Ye haue kept all that Moyses the seruaunt of the Lord (b) commaunded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commaunded you. 3 Ye haue not left your brethren of a long season vnto this day, but haue kept the commaundement of the Lord your God. 4 And nowe that the Lorde hath geuen rest vnto your brethren, as he promised them, therfore returne ye, and go vnto your tentes, and vnto the lande of your possession, whiche Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde gaue you on the other side Iordane. 5 But in any wyse take diligent heede, to do the commaundement and (c) lawe which Moyses the seruaunt of the Lorde charged you, that ye loue the Lorde your God, and walke in al his wayes, and kepe his commaundementes, and cleaue vnto hym, and serue hym with all your heartes, and all your soules.

6 And so Iosuah (d) blessed them, and sent them away: and they went vnto their tentes. 7 Vnto the one halfe of the tribe of Manasses Moyses gaue (possession) in Basan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Iosuah among their brethren on this syde Iordane westwarde. And Iosuah sent them away also vnto their tentes, and blessed them, 8 And sayd vnto them, Returne with much riches vnto your tentes, and with a great multitude of cattell, with siluer and golde, with brasse, and iron, and with muche rayment: and diuide the spoyle of your enemies with your (e) brethren. 9 And the chyldren of Ruben, the chyldren of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses returned, and departed from the chyldren of Israel out of Silo, which is in the land of Chanaan, to go vnto the countrey of Gilead, to the lande of their possession, whiche they had obtayned according to the woorde of the Lorde by the hand of Moyses. 10 And when they came vnto the borders of Iordane that are in the land of Chanaan, there the chyldren of Ruben, the chyldren of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses buylt (f) there an aulter by Iordane, and that a great aulter to see to.

11 When the chyldren of Israel heard say, Behold the chyldren of Ruben, the chyldren of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses haue buylt an aulter in the foreffront of the lande of Chanaan in the borders of Iordane at the passage of the chyldren of Israel: 12 When the chyldren of Israel hearde of it, the whole congregation of the chyldren of Israel gathered them together at Silo, to make (g) battell against them. 13 And the chyldren of Israel sent vnto the chyldren of Ruben, and to the chyldren of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasses into the lande of Gilead, Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the priest, 14 And with him ten lordes, of euery chiefe house a lorde throughout all the tribes of Israel, whiche were heades of their fathers houshoulders among the "thousandes of Israel.

15 And they went vnto the chyldren of Ruben, and to the chyldren of Gad, and to the chyldren of the halfe tribe of Manasses, vnto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus say the whole congregation of the Lorde. What transgression is this that ye haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lorde, in that ye haue buylded you an aulter, for to rebell this day against the Lorde? 17 Is the wicked deede of Peor to litle for vs, wherof we are not yet

11 Take good heede therefore vnto your "selues, that ye loue the Lorde your God: 12 Els, if ye go backe and cleaue vnto the rest of these nations that remaine with you, and shal make "marriages with them, and go in vnto them, and they to you: 13 Be ye sure that the Lorde your God wyll no more cast out all these nations from before you: but they shalbe snares and trappes vnto you, and scourges in your sydes, and thornes in (d) your eyes, vntyll ye perishe from this good lande which the Lorde your God hath geuen you. 14 And beholde, this day do I (e) enter into the way of all the worlde, & ye knowe in al your hearres and in all your soules, that nothyng hath fayled of all the good thynges which the Lorde your God promised you, but al are come to passe vnto you, and nothyng hath fayled thereof.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Iosuah rehearseth Gods benefites. 14 And exhorteth the people to feare God. 26 Iosuah dyeth.

AND Iosuah gathered (a) all the tribes of Israel to Sichem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for theyr heades, iudges, and officers, and they presented them selues (b) before God. 2 And Iosuah sayde vnto al the people, Thus saith the lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the (c) fludde in old time, euen Thare the father of Abraham and of Nachor, & serued straunge gods. 3 And I tooke your father Abraham from the other syde of the fludde, and brought hym throughout al the land of Chanaan, and multiplied his seede, and gaue hym Isahac.

4 And I gaue vnto Isahac, Jacob and Esau, and I gaue vnto Esau mount Seir, to possesse it: but Jacob and his children went downe into Egypt. 5 I sent Moyses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, and when I had so done among them, I brought you out. 6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: & as they came vnto the sea, the Egyptians followed after your fathers with charrets and horsemen vnto the red sea.

7 And when they cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde put "darkenesse betweene you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea vpon them, & couered them, and your eyes haue seene what I haue done to the Egyptians, and ye dwelt in the wyldernesse (d) along season. 8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites which dwelt on the other syde Iordane: and they fought with you, and I gaue them into your hande, that ye might conquer theyr countrey, and I destroyed them from out of your syght. 9 Then Balak the sonne of Ziphor kyng of Moab arose, and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the sonne of Bhor for to curse you:

And they said, We are witnesses. 23 Then put away (sayde he) the (l) straunge gods which are among you, and bowe your heartes vnto the Lorde god of Israel. 24 The people said vnto Iosuah, The Lord our God will we serue, and his voyce will we obey. 25 And so Iosuah (m) made a couenaunt with the people the same day, and set an ordinaunce and lawe before them in Sichem. 26 And Iosuah wrote these wordes in the booke of the lawe of God: and toke a great stone, and pitched it on one ende in the sayde place, vnder an oke that was in the sanctuarie of the Lorde. 27 And Iosuah sayde vnto all the people, Beholde, this stone shalbe a witnesse vnto vs, for (n) it hath heard all the wordes of the Lorde which he spake vnto vs, it shalbe therefore a witnes vnto you, lest ye denie your God. 28 And so Iosuah let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritaunce. 29 And after these thynges, Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruaunt of the Lorde dyed being an hundreth & ten yeres olde. 30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritaunce in Thamnath Serah, which is in mount Ephraim on the north syde of the hyll of Gaas. 31 And Israel serued the Lorde (o) all the dayes of Iosuah, and all the dayes of the elders that ouerliued Iosuah, and whiche had knowne all the woꝛkes of the Lorde that he had done for Israel. 32 And the bones of Ioseph whiche the chyldren of Israel brought out of Egypt, (p) buryed they in Sichem, in a parcell of grounde whiche Iacob bought of the sonnes of Hemor the father of Sichem for an hundreth peeces of siluer, and it became the inheritaunce of the chyldren of Ioseph. 33 And Eleazar the sonne of Aaron died, whom they buried in a hil that pertained to Phinehes his sonne, which (hill) was geuen him in mount Ephraim.

Who ſhall go vp for vs agaynſt the Chanaanites to fight firſt againſt thē? 2 And the Lord ſaid, Iuda ſhall go vp: beholde I haue delyuered the lande into his handes. 3 And Iuda ſayde vnto Simeon his (b) brother, Come vp with me in my lot, that we may fight againſt the Chanaanites, and I likewiſe wyll go with thee into thy (c) lot. And ſo Simeon went with hym. 4 And Iuda went vp, and the Lorde delyuered the Chanaanites and Pherezites into theyr handes: and they ſlue of them in Bezek ten thouſande men. 5 And they found * Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought againſt him, and ſlue the Chanaanites and Pherezites. 6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they followed after him, caught hym, and (d) cut of his thombes & his great toes. 7 And Adoni-bezek ſaid, Thee ſcoze and ten kinges hauing theyr thombes and great toes cut of, gathered theyr meate vnder my table: as I haue done, ſo God hath done to me againe. And they brought him to Hieruſalem, and there he dyed. 8 (The chyldren of Iuda had (e) fought agaynſt Hieruſalem, and had taken it, and ſmytten it with the edge of the ſworde, and (f) ſet the citie on fire.) 9 Afterwarde the childzen of Iuda went downe to fight agaynſt the Chanaanites that dwelt in the mountaine & toward the ſouth, and in the lowe countrey. 10 And Iuda went agaynſt the Chanaanites that dwelt in Hebron, whiche before tyme was called Kiriath-arba, and ſlue Seſai, Ahiman, and Thalmai. 11 And from thence he went to the inhabitaunces of Dabir, whoſe name in olde tyme was called Kiriath-ſepher. 12 And Caleb ſayde, He that ſmyteth Kiriath-ſephar, and taketh it, to hym wyll I geue Achſah my daughter to wyfe. 13 And Othoniel the ſonne of Kenez Calebs younger brother tooke it: to whom he gaue Achſah his daughter to wyfe. 14 When ſhe came to him, ſhe counſailed him to aſke of her father a feeld: And then ſhe (g) lighted of her aſſe & Caleb ſayde vnto her, What wylt thou? 15 She aunſwered vnto hym, Geue me a bleſſyng: for thou haſt geuen me a ſouthwarde lande, geue me alſo ſprynges of water. And Caleb gaue her ſprynges both aboue and beneath. 16 And the chyldren of the (h) Kenite Moyſes father in lawe went vp out of the citie of paulme trees, with the children of Iuda into the wyldernelle of Iuda that lyeth in the ſouth of Arad, and they went and dwelt among the people. 17 And Iuda went with Simeon his brother, and they ſlue the Chanaanites that inhabited Zephath, and vtterly deſtroyed it, and called the name of the citie Horma. 18 And alſo Iuda tooke (i) Azzah with the coaſtes therof, and Aſkalon with the coaſtes therof, and Akaron with the coaſtes therof. 19 And the Lord was with Iuda, and he conquered the mountaynes: but coulde not dryue out the inhabitaunces of the valleyes, becauſe they had charrettes of yron. 20 And they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, as Moyſes ſayde: and he expelled thence the three ſonnes of Anak. 21 And the childzen of Beniamin did not caſt out the Iebuſites that inhabited Hieruſalem: but the Iebuſites dwel with the childzē of Beniamin in Hieruſalem vnto this day. 22 And in like maner they that were of the houſe of Joſeph went vp to Bethel, and the Lord was with them. 23 And the houſe of Joſeph ſearched out Bethel, whiche before tyme was called Luz. 24 And the ſpies ſawe a man come out of the citie, & they ſayde vnto hym, Shewe

The .ii. Chapter.

1 The angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Chanaanites. 22 The cause is shewed why god suffered idolaters to remayne among them.

AND the (a) angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and saide, I made you to go out of Egypt, and haue brought you vnto the lande whiche I sware vnto your fathers, and I saide, I wil neuer breake my couenaunt that I made with you: 2 And ye also shall make no couenaunt with the inhabitours of this lande, but shall breake downe their aulters: neuertheless ye haue not hearkened vnto my voyce: Why haue ye this done? 3 Wherefore I haue likewise determined, that I wyll not cast them out before you: but they shalbe as thornes vnto you, and their gods shalbe a snare vnto you. 4 And when the angel of the Lorde spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people cryed out and wept: 5 And called the name of the same place * Bochim, and offered sacrifices there vnto the Lorde.

6 And when Iosuah (b) had sent the people away, the children of Israel went euery man into his inheritaunce to possesse the land. 7 And the people serued the Lorde all the dayes of Iosuah, & all the dayes of the elders that outliued Iosuah, and had seene all the great workes of the Lord that he did for Israel. 8 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruaunt of the Lorde dyed when he was an hundreth and ten yeres olde: 9 Whom they buried in the coastes of his inheritaunce in Thimnath (c) Heres, in mount Ephraim, on the north syde of the hyl Gaas.

(c) Or Serah Iosu. 24.g. ver. 5. signified the sunne, whose image was set vpõ Iosuahs graue for a memory that the sunne stoode at his commaundement.

10 And so all that generation were gathered vnto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, whiche neither knewe the Lorde, nor yet the workes which he had done for Israel. 11 And then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, and serued (d) Baalim, 12 And forsoke the lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and folowed straunge gods, euen of the gods of the nations that were rounde about them, and bowed them selues vnto them, and angred the Lorde: 13 They forsoke the lord, and serued Baal and (e) Asharoth.

theyr enemies. 15 * But whythersoeuer they went out, the (f) hande of the Lorde was sore against them, as the Lorde had sayde, and had swore vnto them: and he punished them sore. 16 Neuertheles the Lorde raysed vp iudges, which deliuered them out of the handes of theyr oppressours.

17 And yet for all that they would not hearken vnto their iudges: but rather went a whoring after straunge gods, and bowed them selues vnto them, and turned (g) quickly out of the way which theyr fathers walked in obeying the commaundementes of the Lorde: but they dyd not so. 18 And when the lorde raised them vp iudges, he was with the iudge, and delyuered them out of the handes of theyr enemies all the dayes of the iudge: (for the Lorde had "compassion ouer theyr sorowynges whiche they had by the reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them:) 19 Yet for all that, assoone as the iudge was dead, they returned and did worse then theyr fathers, in folowyng straunge gods, to serue them and worshippe them: and ceassed not from theyr owne inuentions, nor from theyr stubborne way.

20 And the wrath of the Lorde was moued against Israel, and he sayde, Because this people hath transgressed my couenaunt which I commaunded theyr fathers, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce: 21 I wil henceforth not cast out before them one man of the nations which Iosuah left when he dyed: 22 That thrugh them I may (h) proue Israel, whether they wyll kepe the way of the Lorde, and walke therin as theyr fathers dyd, or not. 23 And so the Lorde left those nations, and dyd not them out immediatly, neither deliuered them into the hande of Iosuah.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 The Chanaanites were left to trye Israel. 9 Othoniel deliuereth Israel. 12 Ahud killeth king Eglon. 31 Samgar killeth the Philistines.

These are the nations which the Lorde left that he myght proue Israel by them: (that is to say) (a) as many of Israel as had not knowne of the warres of Chanaan: 2 Only for the learnyng of the generations of the children of Israel, that he also might teache them warre, only suche as before knewe nothyng therof: 3 Of those whom he left, there were fyue lordes of the Philistines, and all the Chanaanites, and the Sidonites, and the Heuites that dwelt in mount Libanon, from mount Baal Hermon vnto the commyng into Hamath.

4 Those remayned to proue Israel by, and to wyt whether they would be hearken vnto the commaundementes of the Lorde whiche he commaunded their fathers by the hand of Moyses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites: 6 And tooke the daughters of them to be (b) theyr wiues, & gaue their owne daughters to their sonnes, and serued theyr gods. 7 And the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, and forgat the lord their God, and serued Baalim and (c) Astheroth. 8 Therefore the Lorde was angry with Israel, and he solde them into the handes of Chusan Risathaim kyng of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel serued Chusan Risathaim eyght yeres. 9 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde stirred vp a sauiour to the children of Israel, & saued them, (one) Othoniel the sonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

18 And when he had presented the present, he sent the people that bare it away. 19 But he him selfe turned agayne from the place of grauen images that was by Gilgal, and sayde, I haue a secrete errande vnto thee, O kyng. Which said, kepe silence. And all that stoode before hym went out from hym. 20 And Ahud came vnto hym, and in a sommer parler which he had fate he hym selfe alone: and Ahud said, I haue a message vnto thee from God. And he arose out of his seate. 21 And Ahud put forth his left hande, and tooke the dagger from his ryght thygh, and thrust it into his belly. 22 And the haft went in after the blade: and the fat closed the haft, so that he might not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dyrt came out.

23 Then Ahud gat hym out into the porche, and shut the doores of the parler vpon hym, and locked them.

28 And he sayde vnto them, Folowe me: for the Lord hath delyuered your enemies the Moabites into your hande. And they descended after him, and tooke the passages of Iordane towarde Moab, and suffered not a man to passe ouer. 29 And they slue of the Moabites the same tyme about ten thousande men, which were all (g) fat, and men of warre, & there escaped not a man. 30 So Moab was subdued that day vnder the hande of Israel: and the lande had rest fourescore yeres. 31 After him was Samgar the sonne of Anath, whiche slue of the Philistines sixe hundred men with an ore goade, and deliuered Israel also.

8 And Barak sayde vnto her, (d) If thou wylt go with me, I will go: but if thou wylt not come with me, I will not go. 9 She sayde, I will surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest shall not be for thine honour: for the Lorde shall deliuer Sisara into the hande of a woman. And Debora arose, and went with Barak to Kedes. 10 And Barak called Zabulon and Nephthali to Kedes, and "led after him ten thousand men: and Debora went with hym.

And so Barak went downe from mount Thabor, and ten thousande men after hym. 15 But the Lorde destroyed Sisara and all his charettes, and all his hoast with the edge of the swoorde before Barak: so that Sisara lyghted downe of his charet, and fled away on his feete. 16 But Barak folowed after the charets and after the hoast vnto Haroseth of the gentiles, and all the hoast of Sisara fell vpon the edge of the swoorde, and there was not a man left. 17 Howbeit Sisara fled away on his feete to the tent of Iael the wyfe of (f) Haber the Kenite (for there was peace betweene Jabin the kyng of Hasor, and the housholde of Haber the Kenite.) 18 And Iael went out to meete Sisara, and sayde vnto him, Turne in my lorde, turne in to me, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, she couered hym with a mantell. 19 And he sayde vnto her, Geue me I pray thee a litle water to drinke, for I am thirstie. The. vi. Chapter.

AND the chyldren of Israel committed (a) wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde: and the Lorde delinered them into (b) the handes of Madian seuen yeres. 2 And the hand of Madian preuayled against Israel: and (c) because of the Madianites the children of Israel made them dennes in the mountaynes and caues, and strong holdes. 3 And when Israel had sowen, then came vp the Madianites, the Amalechites, and they of the east, and came vp against them. 4 And pitched their tentes against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, tyll thou come vnto Azah, and left no sustenaunce for Israel, neither sheepe, ore, nor asse: 5 For they went vp, they and their cattell, and came with their tentes as a multitude of grashoppers, so that both they and also their camels were without number: and they entred into the lande to destroy it. 6 And so was Israel exceedyngly impouerysshed (d) in the sight of the Madianites, and * cryed vnto the Lorde. 7 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the lord because of the Madianites, 8 The Lorde sent vnto them a prophete, whiche sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel. I fet you from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage, 9 And I ryd you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hande of all that oppressed you, and cast them out before you, and gaue you their lande: 10 And

10 And I sayde vnto you, I(am) the Lorde your god, feare not the goddes of the Amorites in whose lande you dwell: But you haue not obeyed my voyce. 11 And the angell of the Lorde came, and sate vnder an Oke whiche was in Ephrah, that parteyned vnto Joas the father of the Esrites: and his sonne Gedeon threshed wheate by the wine presse, to hide it from the Madianites. 12 And the angell of the Lorde appeared vnto him, and saide vnto him, The Lorde is with thee thou mightie man. 13 And Gedeon answered him, (f) Oh my Lord, yf the Lorde be with vs, why is all this come vpon vs? yea, and where be al his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and saide, Dyd not the Lorde bryng vs out of Egypt? but nowe the Lorde hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the handes of the Madianites. 14 And the (g) Lord loked vpon him and saide, Go hence in this thy (h) might, and thou shalt deliuer Israel out of the handes of the Madianites: haue not I sent thee? 15 And he answered him, Oh Lorde, wherewith shall I saue Israel? beholde my kinred is "poore in Manasses, and I am least in my fathers house. 16 The Lorde said vnto him, I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Madianites as they were but one man. 17 And he answered him, Oh, if I haue found grace in thy sight, then shewe me a (i) signe that it is thou that talkest with me:

18 Depart not hence I pray thee, vntyll I come vnto thee, and tyl I bring myne offering, and haue set it before thee. And he saide, I will tary vntyll thou come agayne. 19 And Gedeon went in, and made redy a kyd, and sweete cakes of an (k) Epha of floure, and put it with the flesche in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, & brought it out vnto him vnder the Oke, and presented it. 20 And the angell of God sayde vnto him, Take the flesche and the sweete cakes, and lay them vpon this rocke, and powre out the broth And he dyd so. 21 Then the angell of the Lorde put foorth the ende of the staffe that he helde in his hande, and touched the flesche and the sweete cakes, and there rose vp fyre out of the rocke, and consumed the flesche and the sweete cakes: but the angell of the Lorde departed out of his sight. 22 And when Gedeon perceaued that it was an angell of the Lorde, he sayde, Alas O Lorde God, haue I therfore seene an angel of the Lorde face to face, (that I should dye?)

23 And the Lorde saide vnto him, Peace be vnto thee, feare not, thou shalt not dye. 24 Then Gedeon made an aulter there vnto the Lorde, and called it, The Lorde of peace. And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrath, that parteyneth vnto the father of the Esrites. 25 And the same nyght the Lorde saide vnto him, Take thy fathers young bullocke, and an other bullocke of seuen yeres olde, and (l) destroy the aulter of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it: 26 And make an aulter vnto the lord thy god vpon the top of this rocke in a conuenient place, and take the seconde bullocke, and offer whole burnt sacrifice vpon the wood of the groue whiche thou shalt cut downe. 27 Then Gedeon toke ten men of his seruauntes, and dyd as the Lorde bad him: but because he feared to do it by day for his fathers houshold, and the men of the citie, he dyd it by nyght. 28 And whē the men of the citie arose early in the morning, beholde the aulter of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe, that was by it, and the (m) second bullocke offred vpon the aulter that was made. 29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they saide, Gedeon the sonne of Joas hath done this thing. 30 Then the men of the citie saide vnto Joas, Bryng out thy sonne, that he may dye: because he hath destroyed the aulter of Baal, and cut downe the groue that was by it. 31 And Joas saide vnto all that stoode by him, Will ye pleade (n) Baals cause? or will ye saue him? He that will contende for him, let him dye or the morning: If he be a God, let him pleade for him selfe agaynst him that hath cast downe his aulter. 32 And from that day was Gedeon called Jerobaal: because his father had saide, Let Baal pleade for him selfe, because he hath broken downe his aulter. 33 All the Madianites therefore, and the Amalekites, & they of the east, were gathered together, & went and pitched in the valley of Jezrael. 34 But the spirite of the Lord "came vpon Gedeon, & he blew a trumpet, and (o) Abiezer was ioyned with him,

The .vii. Chapter.

1 The Lorde commaundeth Gedeon to send away a great part of his company. 22 The Madianites are discomfited by a wonderous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeb are slayne.

THen Jerobaal (who is Gedeon) and all the people that were with him, rose vp early, and pitched beside the well of Harad: so that the hoast of the Madianites were on the northside of them by the hyll of Moreh in the valley. 2 And the Lorde saide vnto Gedeon, The people that are with thee, are to many for me to geue the Madianites into their handes, lest Israel make their (a) vaunt agaynst me, & say, Myne owne hande hath saued me. 3 Now therefore make a proclamatiō in the eares of the people, and say, If any man dreade or be afearde, let him returne and depart early from mount Gilead: And there returned of the people twentie & two thousand, and there abode ten thousande. 4 And the Lord saide vnto Gedeon, The people are yet to many: bryng them downe vnto the water, and I wyll trye them vnto thee there: and of whom I say vnto thee, This shal go with thee: the same shall go with thee: And of whom soeuer I say vnto thee, This shal not go with thee: the same shall not go.

(a) God wyll not that any creature deprive him of his glory. Deut. xx. b. 1. Mala. j. g

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water: and the Lorde sayde vnto Gedeon, As many as lappe the water with their tongues as a dogge lappeth, them put by them selues, and (so do) them that kneele downe vppon their knees (b) to drincke. 6 And the number of them that put their hands to their mouthes and lapped, were three hundred men: but all the remnaunt of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to drynke water.

(b) They shal depart as vnmeete for this enterprise.

7 And the Lord saide vnto Gedeon, By these three hundred men that (c) lapped wyll I saue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thyne hand: and let all the (d) other people go euery man vnto his place. 8 They therfore of the people toke vittailes with them, and their trumpettes: and he sent all the rest of Israel, euery man vnto his tent, & retayned those three hundred men: and the hoast of Madian was beneath him in a valley.

(c) Drunke water, by putting their handes to their mouthes, and by lappyng.

(d) Whiche were in number, and parted at two times thirtie & one thousand and seuen hundred

9 And the same nyght the Lord saide vnto him, Aryse, get thee downe vnto the hoast, for I haue deliuered it into thyne hande. 10 But yf thou feare to go downe, then go thou and Phara thy ladde downe to the hoast. 11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thyne handes be strong to go downe vnto the hoast. Then went he downe and Phara his ladde vnto the ontside of the men of armes that were in the hoast. 12 And the Madianites, the Amalekites, and all they of the east, lay a long in the valley like a multitude of grashoppers, and their camels were without number, as the sande by the sea side in multitude. 13 And when Gedeon was come, beholde there was a man that tolde a dreame vnto his neighbour, & saide, Behold, I dreamed a dreame, and me thought that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoast of Madian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it that the tent lay along. 14 And his felow aunswered and sayd, This is nothing els saue the swoorde of Gedeon the sonne of Joas a man of Israel: for into his hande hath god deliuered Madian, & all the hoast. 15 When Gedeon heard the telling of the dreame, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped, and returned vnto the hoast of Israel, and sayde, Vp: for the Lorde hath deliuered into your hande the hoast of Madian. 16 And he diui-

Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together, & toke the waters vnto Bethbarath, and to Iordane.

25 And they toke two princes of the Madianites, Oreb and Zeb: and slue Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, and Zeb at the (h) wineprelle of Zeb, and folowed after Madian: and brought the heades of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon on the other side Iordane.

The .viii. Chapter.

1 Ephraim murmureth agaynst Gedeon. 27 He maketh an Ephod, which was the cause of idolatrie. 30 Of Gedeons sonnes, and of his death.

AND the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus, that thou calledst vs not when thou wentest to fyght with the Madianites? And they chode with him sharply. 2 And he sayde vnto them, What deede haue I done lyke vnto (a) yours? Is not the (b) gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better then the vintage of Abiezer? 3 God hath deliuered into your handes the lordes of Madian Oreb and Zeb: and what was I able to do lyke as you haue done? And then they left of their anger from him, when he had said that.

4 And Gedeon came to Iordane to passe ouer, he and the three hundred men that were with him weery, and yet folowed the (chase.) 5 And he saide vnto the men of (c) Sucoth, Geue I pray you cakes of bread vnto the people that folowe me, for they be faintie, that I may folow after Zebah & Zalmana kinges of Madian.

6 And the lordes of Sucoth saide, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana nowe in thyne (d) handes, that we should geue bread vnto thy armie?

7 Gedeon saide, Therfore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmana into myne hande, I will teare the fleshe of you with the thornes of the wylderneſſe, and with briers.

8 And he went vp thence to Phanuel, & spake vnto them lykewyse: and the men of Phanuel answered him as dyd the men of Sucoth. 9 And he saide also vnto the men of Phanuel, When I come againe (e) in peace, I will breake downe this towre. 10 Zebah and Zalmana were in Carcor, and their hoastes with them vpon a fifteene thousande men, whiche were all that were left of all the hoastes of them of the east: for there was slaine an hundred and twentie thousande men that drewe swoordes.

11 And Gedeon went through them that dwelt in tabernacles on the east side of Nobah and Iegbahah, and smote the hoast: for the hoast dyd eat no perilles. 12 And when Zebah and Zalmana fled, he folowed after them, and tooke the two kinges of Madian Zebah and Zalmana, and discomfited all the hoast. 13 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas returned from battell afore the sunne was vp, 14 And caught a lad of the men of Sucoth, & enquired of him: and he wrote him of the lordes and elders of Sucoth threescore and seuenteene men.

17 And he brake downe the towre of Phanuel, and slue the men of the citie. 18 And then saide he vnto Zebah and Zalmana, What maner of men were they whom ye slue at Thabor? And they answered, The lykeneſſe of thee and them is all one, euen after the fashion of the children of a kyng. 19 And he saide, They were my brethren, euen my (f) mothers children: as truely as the Lorde lyueth, yf ye had saued their lyues, I would not slay you. 20 And he saide vnto Jether his eldest sonne, Vp and slaye them. But the ladde drue not his sworde: for he feared, because he was yet young. 21 Then Zebah and Zalmana saide, Ryse thou, and fall vpon vs: for as (g) the man is, so is his strength. And Gedeon arose, and slue Zebah and Zalmana, and toke away the ornamentes that were on their camels neckes. 22 Then the men of Israel saide vnto Gedeon, Raigne thou ouer vs, both thou, thy sonne, and thy (h) sonnes sonne, for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hande of Madian. 23 And Gedeon saide vnto them, I will not raigne ouer you, neither shall my childe raigne ouer you: but the Lorde shall (i) raigne ouer you. 24 And agayne Gedeon saide vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would geue me euery man the earinges of his praye. For they had golden earinges, because they were Ismaelites. 25 And they answered, We wil geue them. And they spread a mantell, and dyd cast therein euery man the earynges of his praye. 26 And the wayght of the golden earynges that he required, was a thousande and seuen hundred sicles of golde, beside chaines & iewels, and purple rayment that was on the kinges of Madian, and beside the chaynes that were about their camels neckes. 27 And Gedeon made an (k) Ephod thereof, and put it in his citie Ephrah: And all Israel went a whoryng after it in the same place, which thing became a ruine vnto Gedeon and to his house.

28 Thus was Madian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lyft vp their heades no more: and the countrey was in quietnes fourtie yeres in the dayes of Gedeon. 29 And Jerobaal the sonne of Joas, went and dwelt in his owne house. 30 And Gedeon had threescore and ten sonnes of his body begotten: for he had many wyues.

31 And his concubine that was in Sichem bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech. 32 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas dyed in a good age, and was buryed in the sepulchre of Joas his father in Ephrah that parteyned vnto the father of the Esrites. 33 But assoone as Gedeon was dead, the chyldren of Israel turned away, and went a whoryng after Baalim, and made a couenaunt with Baal to be their God. 34 And the children of Israel thought not on the Lorde their God, which had deliuered them out of the handes of all their enemies on euery side. 35 Neither (l) shewed they mercie on the house of Jerobaal (otherwyse called) Gedeon, accordyng to al the goodnes which he had shewed vnto Israel.

The .ix. Chapter.

1 Abimelech vsurpeth the kingdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Ioatham propoſeth a parable.

A Bimelech the sonne of Jerobaal went to Sichem vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the kinrede of the house of his mothers father, saying, 2 Say I pray you in the eares of al the men of Sichem, Whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Jerobaal, (which are threescore and ten persons) raigne ouer you, either that one raigne ouer you? Remember that I am of your bone, and of your flesche. 3 And his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Sichem all these wordes, and their heartes were moued to folow Abimelech: for they saide, he is our brother. 4 And they gaue him threescore and ten peeces of syluer out of the house of Baal Berith, wherewith Abimelech hyred vaine and light persons whiche went with him. 5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ephrah, and (a) slue his brethren the sonnes of Jerobaal beyng threescore and ten persons vpon one stone:

25 And the citezins of Sichem sette men to lay awayte for him in the top of the mountaynes, whiche men robbed all that came along the way by them: and it was tolde Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the sonne of Obed came with his brethren, and they gat them to Sichem: and the men of Sichem put their confidence in him. 27 And they went out into the feeldes, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made mery, and went into the house of their god, and dyd eate and drynke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the sonne of Obed said, What is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Jerobaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serue such as come of Hemor the father of Sichem: for what reason is it that we should serue him? 29 Would God this people were vnder my hande, then would I take Abimelech out of the way. And he spake agaynst Abimelech, Make thyne hoast greater, and go out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gaal the sonne of Obed, he was wroth,

And Zebul ſaide vnto him, (h) The ſhadow of the hilles ſeeme men vnto thee.

(h) By theſe wordes he mocked Gaal for the bragge he made afore agaynſt Abimelech.

37 And Gaal aunſwered agayne, and ſayde, See, there come folke downe by the middle of the lande, and another company come along by the playne of the charmars. 38 Then ſayde Zebul vnto him, Where is now thy mouth that ſaide, What felowe is Abimelech, that we ſhould ſerue him? Is not this the people that thou haſt deſpiſed? Go out nowe and fight with them. 39 And Gaal went out before the citezins of Sichem, and fought with Abimelech. 40 And Abimelech chaſed him, that he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate. 41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thruſt out Gaal and his brethren that they ſhoulde not dwel in Sichem. 42 And on the morowe the people went out into the feelde, and they tolde Abimelech.

43 And he toke the people, & diuided them into three companies, & layde awayte in the feelde, & loked, & behold the people were come out of the citie, & he ranne vpon them & ſmote them.

44 And Abimelech and the companies that were with him, ruſhed forwarde, and ſtoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other companies ranne vppon all the people that were in the feeldes, and ſlue them. 45 And when Abimelech had fought agaynſt the citie all that day, he toke it, and ſlue the people that was therein, and deſtroyed the citie, and ſowed (i) ſalt in it. 46 And when all the men of the towre of Sichem heard that, they entred into an holde of the houſe of the god (k) Berith. 47 And it was tolde Abimelech that all the men of the towre of Sichem were gathered together.

And he sayd vnto her, Behold I haue not tolde it my father and my mother, & shall I tell it thee? 17 And Samsons wyfe wept before him seuen dayes whyle the feast lasted: and the seuenth day he tolde her, because she lay so sore vpon him: and she tolde the riddle to the children of her folke. 18 And the men of the citie sayde vnto him the seuenth day before the sunne went downe, What is sweeter then hony? and what is stronger then a Lion? Then sayde he vnto them, If ye had not plowed with my (h) heyfer, ye had not founde out my riddle. 19 And the spirite of the Lorde came vpon him, and he went downe to (i) Askalon, and slue thirtie men of them, and spoyled them, and gaue chaunge of garmentes vnto them which expounded the riddle: and he was wroth, and went vp to his fathers house. 20 But Samsons wife was geuen to one of his companions that he had taken vnto him.

BVT within a whyle after, in the tyme of wheate haruest, Samson vysited his wife with a kyd, saying, I wyll (a) go in to my wife into the chaumber. ¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

1 Samson caryeth awyay the gates of Azzah. 18 He was deceaued by Dalila. 30 He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistines, and dyeth with them.

THen went Samson to Azzah, and sawe there an [a] harlot, and went in vnto her. 2 And it was tolde the Azathites, saying, Samson is come hyther. And they went about, and layde wayte for him there all nyght in the gate of the citie, and were styll all the nyght, saying, In the morning when it is day we shall kyll him. 3 And Samson toke his rest tyll midnyght, and arose at midnyght, and toke the doores of the gate of the citie, and the two postes, and rent them of with the barre & all, and put them vpon his shoulders, and caryed them vp to the top of an hyll that is before Hebron. 4 And after this, he loued a woman by the [b] riuer of Sorek, whose name was Dalila.

5 Vnto whom came the lordes of the Philistines, and sayde vnto her, (b) Perswade him, and see wherin his great strength lyeth, and by what meanes we may ouercome him, that we may bynde him, and punishe him: and euery one of vs shall geue thee aleuen hundred siluerlinges. 6 And Dalila sayd to Samson, Oh, tell me where thy great strength lyeth, and howe thou mightest be bounde and brought vnder.

7 Samson aunswered vnto her, If they bynde me with seuen greene wythes that were neuer dryed, I shalbe weake, and be as another man.

8 And then the lordes of the Philistines brought her seuen wythes that were yet greene and neuer dryed, and she bounde him therwith.

9 (Notwithstandyng she had men lying in wayte with her in the chaumber:) and she sayde vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. And immediately he brake the cordes as a streyng of towe breaketh when it feeleth fire: and so his strength was not knowen. 10 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and tolde me lyes: nowe therefore (c) tell me wherwith thou mightest be bounde. 11 He aunswered her, If they bynde me with newe ropes that neuer were occupyed, I shalbe weake, and be as another man. 12 Dalila therefore toke newe ropes, and bounde him therewith, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. He sayde vnto her, If thou plattest the seuen lockes of my head with the threades of the wooffe. 14 And she fastened it with a pynne, and sayd vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. And he awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the pyn of the web and the wooffe. 15 And she sayde vnto him agayne, Howe canst thou say, I loue thee: when thyne heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me this three tymes, and hast not tolde me wherin thy great strength lyeth. 16 And as she lay vpon him with her wordes, continually beryng of him, his soule was encumbred euen vnto the death. 17 And so he tolde her all his heart, and sayde vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon myne head, for I haue ben a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore when I am shauen, my strength wyll go from me, and I shall ware weake, & be lyke all (other) men.

18 And when Dalila saw that he had tolde her all his heart, she sent & called for the lordes of the Philistines, saying, Come vp yet this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lordes of the Philistines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their handes. 19 And she made him sleepe vpon her knees, and she sent for a man, and he dyd shaue of the seuen lockes of his head, and began to vexe him, & his strength (d) was gone from him. 20 And she sayde, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and sayde, I wyll go out nowe as at other tymes before, and shake my selfe. And he wyst not that the Lorde was departed from him. 21 But the Philistines toke him, & put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bounde him with fetters of brasse, and he did grinde in the prison house.

21 Howbeit the heere of his head began (e) to growe agayne after that he was shauen. 23 Then the lordes of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a solempne offeryng vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they sayd, Our god hath deliuered Samson our enemie into our handes. 24 And when the people sawe him, they praysed their god: for they sayde, Our god hath deliuered into our handes our enemie, and destroyer of our countrey, which slue many of vs. 25 And when their heartes were merry, they sayde, Sende for Samson, that he may make vs "laugh. And they fet Samson out of the prison house, and he played before them: and they set him betweene the pyllers.

26 And Samson sayde vnto the lad that led him by the hande, Set me that I may touche the pyllers that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them. 27 And the house was ful of men and women, and there were al the lordes of the Philistines, and there were vpon the roofe a three thousande men and women, that beheld whyle Samson "played.

28 And Samson called vnto the Lorde, and sayd, O Lorde God I pray thee thinke vpon me, and strengthen me I beseche thee at this tyme only O God, that I may "be at once auenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. 29 And Samson caught the two middle pyllers on which the house stoode and on which it was borne vp the one in his right hande, and the other in his left. 30 And Samson sayde, My (f) soule shall dye with the Philistines, and bowed him with all his might, and the house fell vpon the lordes, and vpon all the people that were therin: and so the dead which he slue at his death, were mo then they which he slue in his lyfe.

31 And then his brethren and all the house of his father came downe, and toke him vp, and brought him, and buryed him betweene Zarah and Eshtaol in the burying place of Manoah his father: and he iudged Israel twentie yeres.

¶ The. xviii. Chapter.

2 The children of Dan sent men to searche the lande. 11 Then come the sixe hundred and take the gods and the priest of Micah away. 27 They destroy Lais.

IN those dayes there was (a) no king in Israel, and in those dayes the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritaunce to dwell in: for vnto that tyme all their inheritaunce had not fallen vnto them among the tribe of Israel. 2 And the children of Dan sent of their kinrede fiue actiue men in feates of warre out of their coastes, euen out of Zaraah and Esthaol, to viewe the lande and searche it out, and sayde vnto them, Go and searche out the lande. Which when they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, they lodged there. 3 And when they were in the house of Micah, they knewe (b) the voyce of the young man the Leuite: and when they turned in thyther, they sayde vnto him, Who brought thee hyther? What makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he aunswered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hyred me, and I am become his priest. 5 And they sayde vnto him agayne, Aske counsell nowe of God, that we may knowe whether the way which we go shalbe prosperous, or no. 6 And the priest sayde vnto them, (c) Go in peace, for the Lorde guideth your way which ye go.

7 Then the fiue men departed, and came to Lais, and sawe the people that were therin, howe they dwelt careless, after the maner of the Sidons, stylle, and without castyng of perils, and that no man " made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no businesse with other men. 8 And they came agayne vnto their brethren to Zaraah and Esthaol, and their brethren sayd vnto them, What haue ye done? 9 And they aunswered, Arise, that we may go vp against them: for we haue seene the lande, surely a very good one: and do ye sit stylle? Be not slouthfull to go and enter to possesse the lande.

10 If ye wyll go, ye shall come vnto a people that resteth no perils, and it is a very large countrey, which God hath geuen into your handes: it is also a place which doth lacke nothyng that is in the worlde. 11 And there departed thence of the kinrede of the Danites out of Zaraah and Esthaol, sixe hundred men appoynted with instrumentes of warre. 12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-iarim, which is in Iuda: wherfore they called the place " Mahaneh-dan vnto this day, and it is on the backside of Kiriath-iarim. 13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came vnto the house of Micah.

Howe then say ye vnto me, What ayleth thee? 25 And the children of Dan sayde vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, lest "angrye felowes runne vpon thee, and thou loose thy lyfe, with the lyues of all thyne houshold.

26 And the children of Dan went their wayes: and when Micah sawe that they were to strong for him, he turned and went backe vnto his house. 27 And they toke the (i) thynges which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came vnto Lais, vnto a people that were at rest and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and burnt the citie with fire. 28 And there was no man to "helpe, because (k) Lais was farre from Sidon, and they had no medlyng with any other man: and it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob. 29 And they built them there a citie, and dwelt therin, and called it Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Israel: howbeit the name of the citie was Lais at the begynnyng. 30 And the children of Dan set them vp the grauen image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gerson, the sonne of Manasses and his sonnes, were the priestes in the tribe of Dan vntyll the day of the (l) captiuitie of the lande. 31 And they set them vp the carued image which Micah made, all the whyle that the house of God was in Silo.

The. xx. Chapter.

1 The Israelites assemble in Mispah, to whom the Leuite declareth his wrong. 13 They sende for them that dyd the villanie.

Ose. 5. b.

THen all the chyldren of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as (a) one man, euen from Dan to Beer-seba, with the lande of Gilead, vnto the Lorde in Mispah. 2 And there assembled the "chiefe of all the people, (and) of all the tribes of Israel in the congregation of the people of God, foure hundred thousand footemen that drue swordes. 3 (Nowe the chyldren of Beniamin heard that the chyldren of Israel were gone vp to Mispah) Then (b) sayde the chyldren of Israel, Tell vs howe this wickednesse is committed? 4 And the Leuite the womans husband that was slayne, aunswered and sayde, I came into Gibea that is in Beniamin with my concubine to lodge all night.

5 And the men of Gibea rose against me, and beset the house rounde about vpon me by nyght, and thought to haue slayne me: and my concubine haue they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I toke my concubine, and cut her in peeces, and sent her throughout all the countrey of the inheritaunce of Israel: for they haue committed abhomination and villanie in Israel.

7 Beholde ye are all chyldren of Israel, geue your aduice and counsell herein. 8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of vs go to his tent, neither turne into his (c) house. 9 But this shalbe it that we will do to Gibea, (we will go vp) by lot against it: 10 And we will take ten men of the hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of the thousande, and a thousand out of ten thousande, to fetch vitayle for the people, that they may do when they come to Gibea Beniamin, according to all the abhominatio that they haue wrought in Israel. 11 And so all the men of Israel gathered together against the citie, knyt together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Beniamin, saying, What wickednes is this that is committed among you? 13 Nowe therefore deliuer vs the men, those chyldren of Belial whiche are in Gibea, that we may slea them, and put (d) away euyll from Israel. 14 But the chyldren of Beniamin wouldе (e) not hearken vnto the voyce of their brethren the chyldren of Israel: but the chyldren of Beniamin gathered themselues together out of the cities vnto Gibea, to come out and fight against the chyldren of Israel. 15 And the chyldren of Beniamin were numbred at that tyme out of the cities twentie and fyre thousande men that drue swordes, beside the inhabitauntes of Gibea, whiche were numbred seuen hundred chosen men. 16 And among all these folke, were seuen hundred chosen men beyng left handed, whiche euery one coulde slyng stones at an heere breadth, and not misse. 17 And the chyldren of Israel beside Beniamin were numbred foure hundred thousand men that drue swordes, and were all men of warre. 18 And the chyldren of Israel arose, and went vp to (f) the house of God, and asked of God, saying, (g) Whiche of vs shall go vp first to the battell against the chyldren of Beniamin? And the Lorde sayde, Juda shall begin. 19 And the chyldren of Israel roode vp early, and camped against Gibea. 20 And the men of Israel went out to battell against Beniamin, and the men of Israel put them selues in aray to fight against them beside Gibea. 21 And the chyldren of Beniamin came out of Gibea, and destroyed downe to the grounde of the Israelites that day twentie and two thousande men.

22 And the people the men of Israel plucked vp their heartes, and set their battell agayne in aray in the same place where they dyd the first day. 23 (And the chyldren of Israel went vp, and wept before the Lorde vnto euen, and asked of the Lord, saying, Shall we go agayne to battell against the chyldren of Beniamin our brethren? And the Lorde said, Go vp against them.) 24 And the chyldren of Israel came neare against the chyldren of Beniamin the seconde day.

25 And the chyldren of Beniamin went against them out of Gibea the second day, and destroyed to the earth of the chyldren of Israel once agayne

The Loꝛd sayd, Go vp: foꝛ to moꝛowe I will deliuer them into your handes. 29 And Israel set lyers in wayte rounde about Gibea.

30 And the chyldꝛen of Israel went vp against the chyldꝛen of Beniamin the thirde tyme, and put them selues in aray against Gibea, as twyse beꝛoze. 31 And the chyldꝛen of Beniamin came out against the people, and (i) were dꝛawen away from the citie, and they began to smyte of the people dead as twyse beꝛoze by two hye wayes in the feelde (of which one goeth vp to the house of God, and the other to Gibea) vpon a thirtie men of Israel. 32 And the chyldꝛen of Beniamin sayd, They are falle beꝛoze vs, as at the fꝛst. But the chyldꝛen of Israel said, Let vs flee, and pluche them away from the citie, vnto the hye wayes. 33 And all the men of Israel roſe vp out of their place, and put them selues in aray at Baal Thamar: and likewise the lyers in wayte of Israel came foꝛth out of their places, euen out of the medowes that were about Gibea, 34 And came against Gibea ten thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and there was a soꝛe battell: but (k) they wist not that (l) euyl was neare them. 35 And the Loꝛde plagued Beniamin beꝛoze Israel, and the chyldꝛen of Israel deſtroyed of the Beniamites the same day twentie and fiue thousand and an hundꝛed men, that drue swoꝛdes euery one of them. 36 And the chyldꝛen of Beniamin saw that they were stricken downe: foꝛ the men of Israel (m) gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted vnto the lyers in wayte whiche they had layde beſide Gibea.

37 And the lyers in wayte hasted, and bꝛake foꝛth against Gibea, and the embushment " drue them selues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the swoꝛde. 38 And the men of Israel had appointed a certayne tyme with the lyers in wayte, that they should make a great flame (and) smoke rise vp out of the citie. 39 And when the men of Israel retyred in the battell, Beniamin began (n) to smyte dead of the chyldꝛen of Israel about thirtie persons, and sayde, Surely they are stricken downe beꝛoze vs as in the fꝛst battell. 40 But when there began to aryse out of the citie a flame as a pyller of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde the flame of the whole citie began to aſcende vp to heauen. 41 When the men of Israel also turned (o) agayne, the men of Beniamin were abaſhed, foꝛ they sawe that euyll approched them: 42 And therefoꝛe they turned their backes beꝛoze the men of Israel vnto the way that leadeth to the wyldernesse, but the battell ouertoke them: and beside that, they whiche came out of the citie, deſtroyed them (p) in the middle of them.

43 And thus they compaſſed the Beniamites about, and chaſed them " diligently, and ouertan them, euen ouer against Gibea on the east syde.

44 And there were slayne of Beniamin eyghteene thousande men, which were men of warre. 45 And they turned and fled to the wyldernesse warde, and vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they (q) gleaned by the way of the rest of them fiue thousand men: and purſued after them vntyll they came to Gidom, and slue two thousande men of them. 46 So that all that were slayne that same day of Beniamin (r) were twentie and fiue thousande men that drue swoꝛdes, whiche were all men of warre.

48 And the men of Israel turned backe agayne vnto the chyldꝛen of Beniamin, and smote them with the edge of the swoꝛde in the cities, both man and beast, and all that came to hande, and set on fiꝛe all the (i) cities that they coulde come by.

AND the men of Israel (a) sware in Mispah, saying, There shall none of vs geue his daughter vnto any of Beniamin to wyfe. 2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till euen before God, and lyft vp their voyces, and wept sore, 3 And sayde, O Lorde God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that there shoulde be this day one tribe lacking in Israel? 4 And on the morowe the people rose vp betyme, and made there an (b) aulter, and offered whole burnt offeringes and peace offeringes. 5 And the chyldren of Israel sayde, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel that came not vp with the congregation vnto the Lorde? for they had made a great othe concerning hym that came not vp to the Lorde to Mispah, saying, He shall surely dye. 6 And the children of Israel (c) had pitie on Beniamin their brethren, and sayd, There is one tribe cut of from Israel this day: 7 What shall we do vnto the remnaunt of them, that thei may haue wyues? We haue swoorne by the lord, that we wyll not geue them of our daughters to wyues. 8 And they sayde, Is there any of the tribes of Israel that (d) came not vp to Mispah to the Lorde? And beholde, there came none of Iabes Gilead vnto the hoast and congregation. 9 For the people were viewed, and behold there were none of the inhabitaunces of Iabes Gilead there. 10 And the congregation sent thyther twelue thousande men of the "strongest, and commaunded them, saying, Go, and smyte the inhabitaunces of Iabes Gilead with the edge of the swoorde, both women and chyldren. 11 And this is it that ye shall do, ye shall vtterly destroy all the males, and all the women that haue lyen by men. 12 And they founde among the inhabitaunces of Iabes Gilead foure hundred damosels virgins, that had knowne no man by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the hoast to Silo, whiche is in the lande of Chanaan. 13 And the whole congregation sent, and (e) spake with the chyldren of Beniamin that were in the rocke of Rammon, and called peaceably vnto them. 14 And Beniamin came agayne at that tyme, and they gaue them wyues whiche they had saued alyue of the women of Iabes Gilead: but they (f) suffised them not.

15 And the people were sory for Beniamin, because that the Lord had made a breache in the tribes of Israel. 16 And then the elders of the congregation sayd, What shall we do to the remnaunt of them, to get them wyues? seyng all the women of Beniamin are destroyed. 17 And they sayde, There must be (g) an inheritaunce for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. 18 Howbeit we may not geue them wyues of our daughters. For the chyldren of Israel had swoorne, saying, Cursed be he that geueth a wyfe to Beniamin.

19 Then they sayde, Beholde there is a feast of the Lorde yerely in Silo, whiche is on the northside of Bethel, and on the east side of the way that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, and south from Libanon. 20 Therfore they commaunded the chyldren of Beniamin, saying, Go, and lye in wayte in the vineyardes. 21 And when ye see that the daughters of Silo come out to daunce in daunces, then come ye out of the vineyardes, and catche you every man a wyfe of the daughters of Silo, and go to the lande of Beniamin. 22 And when their fathers or brethren come vnto vs to complayne, we wyll say vnto them, Haue pitie on vs for their sakes: because we reserued not to eche man his wyfe in tyme of warre, and that ye haue not geuen vnto them hytherto, the fault is yours. 23 And the chyldren of Beniamin did euen so, and tooke them wiues accoyding to the number of them that daunced, whom they caught: and they went and returned vnto their inheritaunce, & repayred the cities, and dwelt in them. 24 And the chyldren of Israel departed thence at that tyme, and went euery man to his tribe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritaunce. 25 In those dayes there was no kyng in Israel: but euery man dyd that whiche seemed right in his owne eyes.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wyfe and chyldren into the lande of Moab.
3 He and his sonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

IT came to passe that when the iudges "ruled, there fel a dearth in the (a) lande, and a (certayne) man of Bethlehem (b) Juda went for to soiourne in the countrey of Moab, he and his wyfe, and his two sonnes. 2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wyfe Naomi, and the names of his two sonnes were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephraites out of Bethlehem Juda: And when they came into the lande of Moab, they continued there. 3 And Elimelech Naomies husbande dyed, & she remayned with her two sonnes.

4 Whiche toke them wyues (c) of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpha, & the others Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion dyed also both of them, and the woman was left (destitute) of her two sonnes and of her husbande. 6 Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrey of Moab, howe that the Lorde had visited his people, and geuen them bread. 7 Wherfore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her: and they went on their way to returne vnto the lande of Juda. 8 And Naomi sayde vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go and returne (d) eche of you vnto your mothers house: and the Lorde deale as kindly with you, as ye haue deale with the dead, and with me: 9 And the Lorde graunt you that you may finde rest eyther of you in the house of her (e) husbande. And when she kyssed them, they lift vp their voyce & wept, 10 And sayde vnto her, Surely we wyl returne with thee vnto thy folke. 11 And Naomi sayde, Turne agayne my daughters: for what cause wyll you go with me? Are there any moe chyldren in my wombe to be your husbandes? 12 Turne agayne my daughters, go your way, for I am to olde to haue an husbande: and if I sayde, I haue hope, if I toke a man also this night, yea and though I had already borne sonnes: 13 Would ye C tary for them tyll they were of age? or would ye for them so long refrayne from taking of husbandes? Not so my daughters: for it greeueth me " much for your sakes, that the hande of the Lord is gone out (f) against me. 14 And they lift vp their voyces, and wept agayne: and Orpha (g) kyssed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode styll by her. 15 And Naomi sayde, See, thy sister in lawe is gone backe again vnto her people, and vnto her gods: returne thou after her. 19 And Ruth aunswered, Entreate me not to leaue thee, and to returne from thee: for whyther thou goest, I will go also, and where thou dwellest, there I wil dwel: thy people shalbe my people, and thy God my God: 17 Where thou dyest, there wyll I dye, and there wyll I be buryed: the Lorde do so to me and D more also, if ought but death depart thee and me. 18 When she sawe that she was stedfastly mynded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her. 19 And so they went both, vntill they came to Bethlehem: and when they were come to Bethlehem, it was (h) noysed of them thyrough all the citie, and they sayd, Is not this Naomi? 20 And she aunswered them, Call me not " Naomi: but call me " Mara, for the almightie hath made me very bitter. 21 I went out full, and the Lord hath brought me home agayne emptie: Why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lorde hath humbled me, and the almightie hath brought me vnto aduersitie? 21 And so Naomi with Ruth the Moabitesse her daughter in lawe, returned out of the countrey of Moab, and came to Bethlehem in the beginning of (i) barly haruest.

And they sat downe. 3 And he sayd vnto the kinseman, Naomi that is come agayne out of the countrey of Moab, wyll sell a parcell of lande, whiche was our brother Elimelechs. 4 And I thought to do thee to wit, and byd thee bye it before the inhabitauntes and elders of my people: if thou wylt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wylt not redeeme it, then tell me, that I may knowe: for there is none to redeeme it (c) saue thou, and I next thee. ¶ The first Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Elkana father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues, Hanna was baren and prayed to the Lorde. 15 Her aunswere to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doth dedicate him to the Lorde.

(a) There were two Ramathes, so that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim, that is, the learned men and prophetes. (b) With the promise of multiplication of seede came in the priuiledge of two wyues: The promise perfourmed & ended in Christe, the priuiledge ceasseth, and Gods lawe taketh place, whiche ioyneth two in one flesh he, and no more Gene. 2. d.

THere was a man of (a) Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, named Elkana, the sonne of Ieroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Thohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite: 2 Which had (b) two wiues, the one called Hanna, and the other Phenenna: and Phenenna had chyldren, but Hanna had no chyldren. 3 And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hoastes in Silo, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, the Lordes priestes. 4 And it fell on a day that Elkana offered, and gaue to Phenenna his wyfe and to her sonnes and daughters portions. 5 But vnto Hanna he gaue a (c) "worthy portion: for he loued Hanna, and the Lorde had made her barren. 6 And her enemie (Phenenna) vexed her sore, forasmuche as she vpbrayded her, because the Lorde had made her barren. 7 (And so dyd he yere by yere) and as oft as she went vp to the house of the Lorde, thus she vexed her, that she wept, and did not eate. 8 Then sayd Elkana her husbande to her, Hanna, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? & why is thyne heart troubled? Am not I better to thee then ten (d) sonnes? 9 So Hanna rose vp after that they had eaten and dronken in Silo. (And Eli the priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the temple of the Lorde.) 10 And she was troubled in her mynde, and prayed vnto the Lorde, and wept sore:

11 And vowed a vowe, and sayde, O Lorde of hoastes, if thou wylt looke on the trouble of thyne handmayde, and remember me, and not forget thyne handmayde, but gene vnto thyne handmayde a man chylde, I wyll gene hym vnto the Lorde all the dayes of his lyfe, and there shall no rasor come vpon his head. 12 And as she continued prayng before the Lorde, Eli marked her mouth.

And so the woman went her way, and dyd eate, and looked no more sad. 19 And they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lorde, and then returned, and came to their house to Ramath: and when Elkana knewe Hanna his wyfe, the Lord (f) remembred her. 20 For in processe of tyme it came to passe that she conceaued, and bare a sonne, and called his name Samuel, (saying) Because I haue asked hym of the Lorde.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 There was no manifest vision in the tyme of Eli. 4 the Lorde calleth Samuel three tymes. 11 And sheweth what shall come vpon Eli and his house. 18 The same declareth Samuel to Eli.

AND the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lorde before Eli, and the worde of the Lorde was (a) precious in those dayes, neither was there any open vision. 2 And as at that tyme Eli lay in his (b) place, his eyes began to waxe dymme that he coulde not see. 3 And yer the lampe of God went out, Samuel layde him downe to sleepe in the temple of the Lorde where the arke of God was. 4 And the Lorde called Samuel. And he aunswered, I am here. 5 And he ran vnto Eli, and sayde, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he sayde, I called thee not, go agayne and sleepe. And he went, and layde hym downe to sleepe. 6 And the Lorde called once agayne, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and sayde, I am here, for thou biddest call me. And he aunswered, I called thee not my sonne, go agayne and sleepe. 7 Samuel (c) knewe not yet the Lorde, neither was the worde of the Lorde yet opened vnto hym. 8 And the Lorde called Samuel the thirde tyme. And he arose and went to Eli, and sayde, I am here, for thou hast called me. And Eli perceaued that the Lorde had called the childe. 9 Therefore Eli sayde vnto Samuel, Go and sleepe, and yf he call thee, then say, Speake Lorde, for thy seruaunt heareth thee. So Samuel went, and slept in his place. 10 And the Lorde came, and stoode, and called as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel aunswered, Speake, for thy seruaunt heareth.

11 And the Lorde sayde to Samuel, Beholde I wyll do a thing in Israel, that both the eares of as many as heareth it shall (d) tyngle. 12 In that day I wyll rayse vp against Eli all thynges whiche I haue spoken concernyng his house: when I begyn, I wyll also make an ende. 13 I haue tolde him that I wyll iudge his house for euer, for the wickednesse which he knoweth: for when his sonnes abused themselues, he stayed them not.

14 And therefore I haue swoine vnto the house of Eli, that the wyckednesse of Elies house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offeryng for euer. 15 Samuel slept vntyll the mornyng, and opened the doores of the house of the Lorde: and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and sayde, Samuel my sonne. And he aunswered, Here am I. 17 He sayde, What is that the lord hath sayde vnto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: (e) God do so to thee, and more also, yf thou hide any thyng from me of all that he sayde vnto thee. 18 And Samuel tolde hym euerywhyt, and hyd nothyng from hym. And he sayde, It is the Lorde, let hym do what seemeth hym good. 19 And Samuel grewe, and the Lorde was with hym, and left none of his wordes "vnperfourmed. 20 And all Israel from Dan to Beer-seba, wyst that Samuel was the true prophete of the Lorde. 21 And the Lorde appeared agayne in Silo: for the Lorde opened him selfe to Samuel in Silo through the worde of the Lorde.

They answered, Let the arke of the god of Israel be caryed about vnto Gath. And they caried the arke of the God of Israel about. 9 And when they had caried it about, the hande of the Lorde was against the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerodes in their secrete partes. 10 Therefore they sent the arke of God to Acaron: and assoone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cryed out, saying. They haue brought the arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slea vs and our people. 11 And so they sent, and gathered together all the lordes of the Philistines, and sayde, Sende (d) awaye the arke of the God of Israel, to go agayne to his owne place, that it slea vs not, and our people. For there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie, and the hande of God was exceedyng sore there. 12 And the men that dyed not, were smytten with the emerodes: and the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

They answered, fiue golden emerodes, and fiue golden myce, accordyng to the number of the princes of the Philistines: For one plague was on you all and on your princes.

The.viii. Chapter.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes iudges ouer Israel, who folowe not his steppes. 5 The Israelites aske a kyng.

When Samuel was olde, he (a) made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel. 2 The name of his eldest sonne was (b) Joel, and the name of the second Abia, and they were iudges in Beer-seba. 3 And his sonnes (c) walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, and tooke bribes, and peruerted the ryght. 4 Then all the eldets of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Rama. 5 And sayde vnto hym, Beholde thou art olde, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: nowe therfore make vs a kyng to iudge vs, as all other nations (haue.) 6 But the thyng displeased Samuel when they saide, Geue vs a kyng to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lorde. 7 And the Lorde sayd vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I shoulde not raigne ouer them. 8 And as they haue euer done sence I brought them out of Egypt vnto this day, and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods, euen so do they vnto thee. 9 Nowe therefore hearken vnto theyr voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, and shewe them the maner of the kyng that shall raigne ouer them. 10 And Samuel tolde all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a kyng of hym: 11 And he sayde; This shalbe the (d) maner of the kyng that shall raigne ouer you, He will take your sonnes and put them to his charets, and make his horsemen of them to run before his charet. 12 And will make him of them captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer fiftes, and will set them to eare his ground, and to gather in his harueste, & to make instrumentes of warre, and thinges that serue for his charettes. 13 And he will take your daughters, and make them apoticaries, cookes, and bakers. 14 And he shall take your feeldes, and your vineyardes, and your best olyue trees, and geue them to his seruauntes. 15 And he shall take the tenth of your sede, and of your vineyardes, and geue to his eunuches, and to his seruauntes. 16 And he shall take your men seruauntes, and maid seruauntes, young men, and the cheefe of your asses, and put them to his worke. 17 And he shal take the tenth of your cheepe, and ye shall be his seruauntes. 18 And ye shall crye out at that time because of your king whiche ye shall haue chosen you, and the Lorde will (e) not heare you at that day. 19 Nouertheless the people wouldo not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, not so: but there shalbe a kyng ouer vs, 20 That we may be lyke other nations, and that our kyng may iudge vs, and go out before vs, and fight our battayles. 21 Therfore when Samuel hearde all the wordes of the people, he rehearsed them in the eares of the Lorde. 22 And the Lorde sayd to Samuel, Hearken vnto theyr voyce, and make them a kyng. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Go euery man vnto his citie.

For the *breed is spent in our vesselles, and there is no other present to bryng the man of God: what haue we? 8 And the lad aunswered Saul agayne, and sayde, Beholde I haue founde about me the fourth part of a (e) sicle of syluer, that wyll I geue the man of God, to tell vs our way. 9 (Before tyme in Israel when a man went to seeke an aunswere of God, thus wyse he spake, Come, and let vs go to the (f) Sear: for he that is nowe called a prophete, was in the olde tyme called a Sear.) 10 Then sayd Saul to his lad, wel sayde of thee, Come, let vs go. And so they went vnto the citie where the man of God was. 11 And as they went they? way vp the hyl to the citie, they met with damosels that came out to drawe water, and sayde vnto them, Is there here a Seer? 12 And the maydens aunswered them, and sayde, Yea, beholde he is before you, make haste now: for he came this day to the citie, for there is an (g) offeryng of the people this day in the high place. 13 When ye be come into the citie, ye shall fynde hym strayght way yer he go vp to the high place to eate: for the people wyll not eate bitryll he come, because he doth (h) bleste the offeryng, and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: Nowe therefore get you vp, for this day shall ye find him. 14 And they went vp into the citie: and when they were come into the myddes of the citie, beholde Samuel came out agaynst them, for to go vp to the high place. 15 But the Lorde had tolde Samuel in his eare a day before Saul came, saying, 16 To morowe this tyme I wyll sende thee a man out of the lande of Beniamin, him shalt thou annoynt to be captaine ouer my people Israel, that he maye saue my people out of the handes of the Philistines: for I haue looked (i) vpon my people, & their (k) crie is come vnto me. 17 When Samuel therfore sawe Saul, the Lord aunswered hym, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, this same shall raigne ouer my people. 18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middle of the gate, and sayde, Tell me I pray thee where the Sears house is? 19 Samuel aunswered Saul & said, I am the Sear: go vp before me vnto the high place, for ye shal eate with me to day, & to morowe I wyll let thee go, and will tell thee al that is in thyne (l) heart. 20 And as for thyne asses that were lost three dayes ago, care not for them, for they are founde: And (m) whose shall the beawtiful things of Israel be? belong they not to thee, & vnto al thy fathers house? 21 But Saul aunswered and sayd, Am not I the sonne of Jeminie, of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my kinred is the least of all the kinredes of the tribe of Beniamin? Wherfore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his lad, & brought them into the (n) parler, and made them sitte in the cheefest place among them that were bidden, whiche were vpon a thirtie persons. 23 And Samuel sayd vnto the cooke, Bring forth the portion which I gaue thee, and of whiche I sayde vnto thee, Kepe it with thee. 24 And the cooke toke vp the shoulder and that whiche was (o) vpon it, and set it before Saul, and Samuel sayde, Beholde that which is left, put it before thee & eate: for hytherto hath it ben kept for thee, saying, Also I (p) called the people. And so Saul dyd eate with Samuel that day. 25 And when they were come downe from the high place into the citie, Samuel communed with Saul vpon the (q) top of the house. 26 And when they arose early about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul vpon the top of the house, saying, Vp, that I may sende thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he and Samuel. 27 And when they were come almost out of the towne, Samuel sayde to Saul, Bid the lad go before vs (and he went before) but stande thou styll awhyle, that I may shewe thee the (r) worde of God.

And they tolde him the tydinges of the men of Jabes. 6 And the ſpirite of God (c) came vpon Saul when he heard thoſe tydynges, and he was exceedyng angry. 7 And toke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in peeces, and ſent them throughout all the coaſtes of Iſrael by the handes of meſſengers, ſaying, Whoſoeuer commeth not forth after (d) Saul and after Samuel, ſo ſhall his oxen be ſerued. And the feare of the Lorde fell on the people, and they came out "with one conſent. 8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Iſrael were three hundred thouſande men, and the men of Juda thirtie thouſande. 9 And (e) they ſaid vnto the meſſengers that came, So ſay vnto the men of Jabes in Gilead, To morowe by that time the ſunne be hotte, ye ſhal haue helpe. And the meſſengers came, and ſhewed it to the men of Jabes, which were glad. 10 Therfore the men of Jabes ſaid, To morowe we wyll come (f) out vnto you, and ye ſhall do with vs all that pleaſeth you. 11 And on the morowe Saul put the people in three partes, and they came in vppon the hoaſt in the mornyng watch, and ſlue the Ammonites vntyll the heate of the day: and they that remayned, were ſcattered, ſo that two of them were not left together. 12 And the people ſayde vnto Samuel, (g) Who is he that ſaid, Shall Saul raigne ouer vs? bring thoſe men, that we may ſlay them. 13 And Saul ſaid, There ſhall no man (h) die this day: for to day the Lord hath ſaued Iſrael. 14 Then ſaid Samuel vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgal, and renue the kingdome there. 15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul king there before the Lorde in Gilgal, and there they offered (i) peace offeringes before the Lorde: and there Saul and all the men of Iſrael reioyced exceedingly.

And they anſwered, He is witneſſe. 6 And Samuel ſayde vnto the people, It is the Lorde that (e) made Moyſes and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the lande of Egypt. 7 Nowe therefore ſtande ſtill, that I may reaſon with you before the Lorde, according to all the "righteouſneſſes of the Lorde, whiche he ſhewed both you and your fathers. 8 After that Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde ſent Moyſes and Aaron, whiche brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. 9 And when they forgat the Lorde their God, he solde them into the hande of Sisara (f) captayne of the hoast of Hazor, and into the hande of the Philistines, and into the hande of the king of Moab, and they fought agaynst them. 10 And they cryed vnto the Lord, and saide, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the lorde, and haue serued Baalim & Astaroth: nowe therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enemies, and we wyll serue thee. 11 And the Lorde sent Jerobaal, (g) Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euery side, and ye dwelled safe. 12 And for all that, when you sawe that Nahas the king of the children of Ammon came agaynst you, ye saide vnto me, Not so, but a kyng shall raigne ouer vs: when yet the Lord your God was your kyng. 13 Nowe therfore beholde the kyng whom ye haue chosen, and whom ye haue desired: lo, the Lorde hath set a king ouer you.

And the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal. 5 The Philistines also gathered them selues together to fight with Israel, thirtie thousande charettes, and sixe thousande horsemen, with other people lyke the sande by the seas syde in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmas eastwarde from (d) Bethauen. 6 And when the men of Israel sawe it, they were in a straite, (for the people were in a distresse) and the people hyd them selues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in hye places, and in pittes. 7 And some of the Hebrewes went ouer Jordane to go vnto the lande of (e) Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people beyng afrayde, followed him. 8 And he taryed seuen dayes, euen vnto the tyme that Samuel had appoynted: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, & the people were therefore (f) scattered from him.

The .xiiii. Chapter.

14 Ionathan and his harnesse bearer put the Philistines to flight.

1 Then on a time Jonathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto his young man that bare his harnesse, (a) Come, and let vs go ouer to the Philistines garison that are yonder on the other side: and he tolde not his father. 2 And Saul taryed in the vttermost part of Gibea vnder a Pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people that were with him, were vpon a sixe hundred men.

3 And Ahia the sonne of Ahitob Ichabods brother the sonne of Phinehes the sonne of Eli, was the Lordes priest (b) in Silo, and ware an Ephod: & the people wist not that Jonathan was gone. 4 And in the middes of the passage by whiche Jonathan sought to go ouer vnto the Philistines garison, there was a sharpe racke on the one side, and a sharpe racke on the other side: the one called Bozez, and the other Seneh: 5 The forefront of the one leaned northward toward Michmas, and the other was southwarde towarde Gibea. 6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his harnesse, Come, and let vs go ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised, it may be that the Lorde wil worke with vs: for it is "no hardnesse with the Lorde to saue eyther in many, or in fewe. 7 And his harnesse bearer saide vnto him, Do all that is in thyne heart: go where it pleaseth thee, beholde I am with thee as thyne heart lusteth. 8 Then sayde Jonathan, Beholde we go ouer vnto these men, and shall shewe our selues vnto them. 9 Yf they say on this wyse to vs, Tary, vntyll we come to you: then we wyll stande stil in our place, & not go vp vnto thē. 10 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs: then we wyl go vp, for the Lord hath (c) delinered them into our handes:

And Ionathan saide vnto his harnesse bearer, Come vp after me, for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hande of Israel. 13 And Ionathan clymed vp vpon (e) handes and feete, and his harnesse bearer after him: and they fell before Ionathan, and his harnes bearer slue them after him.
14 And that first slaughter which Ionathan and his harnesse bearer made, was vpon a twentie men, within the compasse as it were about an halfe acher of lande which two (oxen plowe.)

(For the arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)
19 And whyle Saul talked vnto the priest, the noyse that was in the hoast of the Philistines spread farther abrode and encreased: And Saul saide vnto the priest, (h) Withdrawe thyne hande. 20 And Saul toyned him selfe vnto all the people that were with him, and they came to the battel, and beholde euery mans swoorde was against his felowe, and there was a very great discomfiture. 21 Moreouer, the Hebrewes that were with the Philistines before that time, and were come with them into all partes of the hoast, turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Ionathan. 22 And all the men of Israel also whiche had hid them selues in mount Ephraim, alloone as they heard how that the Philistines were fledde, they followed after the in the battell.
23 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Bethauen. 24 And when the men of Israel were kept downe with hunger that day, Saul charged the people with an oth, saying, (i) Cursed be the man that eateth any foode vntyll nyght, till I be auenged of myne enemies. And so none of the people tasted any sustenaunce. 25 And all they of the lande came to a wood where hony lay vpon the grounde. 26 And the people came into the wood, and beholde the honie dropped, and no man moued his hande to his mouth: for the people feared the (k) oth. 27 But Ionathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oth, wherefore he put foorth the ende of the rod that was in his hande, & dipt it in an honie combe, & put his hande to his mouth, and his (l) eyes receaued light. 28 Then aunswered one of the people, and saide, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any sustenaunce this day: And the people were faint. 29 Then saide Ionathan, My father hath (m) troubled the lande: see howe myne eyes hath receaued light, because I tasted a litle of this honie: 30 Howe much more then to day yf the people had eaten of the spoyle of their enemies whiche they founde? And had there not ben then a much greater slaughter among the Philistines? 31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmas to Aialon: and the people were exceedyng faynt. 32 And the people gat them to the spoyle, & toke sheepe, oxen, and calues, and slue them on the ground, and the people dyd eate them with the blood. 33 Then men tolde Saul, saying, Behold the people sinne agaynst the Lorde in that they eate with the blood. And he saide, Ye haue trespassed: rowle a (n) great stone vnto me this day. 34 And Saul said agayne, Go abrode among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his ore, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here and eate, and sinne not agaynst the Lorde in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his ore in his hande that night, and slue them there. 35 And Saul made an aulter vnto the Lorde: and that was the " first aulter that he

And he said vnto him, Say on. 17 Samuel saide to Saul, When thou wast (i) litle in thyne owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, & the Lord annoynted thee king ouer Israel? 18 And the Lorde sent thee on a iourney, & saide, Go, and vtterly destroy those sinners the Amalekites, & fight against them vntyll thou destroy them. 19 And wherefore hast thou not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde? but hast turned to the pray, and hast done that whiche is wicked in the sight of the Lorde? 20 And Saul saide vnto Samuel, Yea I haue (k) hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and haue gone the way which the Lorde sent me vnto, and haue brought Agag the king of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites. 21 But the people take of the spoyle sheepe, oxen, and the chiefest of the thinges which should haue ben destroyed, to offer vnto the Lorde thy God in Gilgal. 22 And Samuel sayde, Hath the Lorde as great pleasure in whole burnt sacrifices and offeringes, as when the voyce of the Lorde is obeyed? Beholde, to obey is better then sacrifice: and to hearken, is better then the fat of rammes.
23 For (l) rebellion is as the sinne of witchcraft, and stubbernesse is as the wickednes of idolatrie: because thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, therefore he hath cast away thee also from beyng kyng. 24 And Saul said vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue gone farther then the saying of the Lord, and thy wordes: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce. 25 Nowe therefore I pray thee take away my (m) sinne, and turne agayne with me, that I may worship the Lorde. 26 And Samuel sayde vnto Saul, I wyll not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lorde, and the Lorde hath cast away thee that thou shalt not be king ouer Israel. 27 And as Samuel turned him selfe to go away, he caught the lappe of his coate, and it rent.
28 And Samuel saide vnto him, The Lorde hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, and hath geuen it to a (n) neighbour of thyne that is better then thou. 29 The (o) strength of Israel wyll not lye, nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.
30 He saide, I haue sinned: but now honour me before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne agayne with me, that I may worship the Lorde thy God. 31 And so Samuel turned agayne, & followed Saul, and Saul worshipped the Lorde.
32 Then saide Samuel, Bring you hyther to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came vnto him "delicately: and Agag sayde, Truely the (p) bitternes of death is past.
33 And Samuel saide, As thy sworde hath made women childelesse, so shall thy mother be childelesse above other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in peeces before the Lorde in Gilgal.
34 And then Samuel departed to Rama, and Saul went home to his house to Gibea Saul. 35 And Samuel came no more to (q) see Saul vntyll the day of his death: neuertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king ouer Israel.

thyne (b) horne with oyle, and come, that I may sende thee to Isai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided me a king among his sonnes. 2 And Samuel saide, Howe can I go? for yf Saul heare it, he wyll kyll me. The Lorde aunswered, Take an heyfer with thee, (c) and say, I am come to offer to the Lorde. 3 And call Isai to the offering, and I wyll shewe thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt annoynt vnto me (d) him whom I name vnto thee. 4 And so Samuel dyd as the Lord bade him, and came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the towne were (e) astonyed at his commyng, and saide, Commest thou peaceably?

5 He aunswered, Yea I am come to offer vnto the Lorde: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the offering. And he sanctified Isai, and his sonnes, and bade them to the offering.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and saide, Surely the Lordes (f) annoynted is before him.

7 But the Lorde saide vnto Samuel, Loke not on his fashion, or on the heyght of his stature, because I haue refused him: for (God seeth) not as man seeth. For man loketh on the outwarde appearaunce, but the Lorde beholdeth the heart. 8 Then Isai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel: and he saide, Neither hath the Lorde chosen this. 9 Then Isai made Samma come: and he said, Neither yet hath the Lorde chosen him. 10 Agayne Isai made seuen of his sonnes to come before Samuel: and Samuel saide vnto Isai, The lord hath chosen none of these. 11 And Samuel saide vnto Isai, Are here all thy children? He sayde, There is yet a litle one behinde, that kepeth the (g) sheepe. And Samuel saide vnto Isai, Sende, and fetch him: for we wyl not sit downe, till he be come hyther.

12 And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of an excellent beawtie, and well fauoured in sight. And the Lorde saide, Aryse, and annoynt him: for this is he. 13 Therefore Samuel toke the horne of oyle, and annoynted him in the middes of his brethren: and the (h) spirite of the Lorde came vppon Dauid from that day forwarde: and Samuel rose vp, and went to Rama. 14 But the spirite of the Lorde departed from Saul, & an euyll spirite (sent) of the (i) Lorde vexed him. 15 And Sauls seruauntes saide vnto him, Beholde an euyll spirite (sent) of God vexeth thee. 16 Let our Lorde therefore commaunde thy seruauntes (that are before thee) to seeke a man that is a cunnyng player with an harpe: that when the euyll spirite of God commeth vppon thee, he may play with his hande, and thou shalt be eased.

17 Saul sayde vnto his seruauntes, Prouide me a man then that can play well, and bryng him to me. 18 Then aunswered one of his seruauntes, and saide, Beholde I haue seene a sonne of Isai the Bethlehemite, that can play vpon instrumentes, & is strong, valiaunt, and a man of warre, and prudent in doing of feates, and well made, and the Lorde is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Isai, and saide, Sende me Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe.

20 And Isai toke an asse (laden) with bread, and a flagon of wine, and a kid, and sent them by Dauid his sonne vnto Saul. 21 And (k) Dauid came to Saul, and " stoode before him: and he (l) loued him very well, and he was made his harneste bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Isai, saying, Let Dauid nowe remayne with me: for he hath founde fauour in my sight. 23 And so when the (euill) spirite of God came vpon Saul, Dauid toke an harpe and played with his hande: and so Saul was (m) refreshed, and dyd amende, and the euil spirite departed from him.

11 When Saul and all Israel hearde those wordes of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly (d) afrayde. 12 Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem Iuda, named Iai, which had eyght sonnes: and this "man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saul. 13 And the three eldest sonnes of Iai went, and folowed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell were, Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the thirde Samma: 14 And Dauid was the least: And the three eldest went after Saul. 14 Dauid also went and departed from Saul to (e) feede his fathers sheepe at Bethlehem. 16 And the Philistine came foorth in the morning and euening, & continued fourtie dayes. 17 And Iai said vnto Dauid his sonne, (f) Take for thy brethren an Epha of this parched corne, & these ten loaues, & runne to the hoast to thy brethren. 18 And cary these ten freshe cheeses vnto the captayne, and loke howe thy brethren fare, and fet out their pledge. 19 And Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines. 20 And Dauid rose vp early in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keper, and toke and went as Iai had commaunded him, and came within the compasse of the hoast: and the hoast went out in array, and shouted in the battaile. 21 For Israel and the Philistines had put them selues in array armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the thinges which he bare, vnder the handes of the keper of the vessels, and ran into the hoast, and came, and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, beholde there stoode a man in the midst (Goliath the Philistine by name, of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistines, and spake (g) such wordes: and Dauid heard it. 24 And all the people of Israel when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afrayde. 25 And euery man of Israel saide, Sawe ye not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come: And to him that killeth him, wyll the king geue great ryches, and wyll geue him his daughter thereto, yea and make his fathers house (h) free in Israel. 26 And Dauid spake to the men that stoode by, and saide, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the shame from Israel? and what is this vncircumcised Philistine, that he shoulde reuile the hoast of the liuing God? 27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him. 28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was angrye with Dauid, and saide, Why camest thou downe hyther? and with whom hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wildernesse? I know thy pride and the malice of thyne heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29 And Dauid saide, And what haue I nowe done? is there not a (i) cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner: And the people answered him agayne as before.

31 And they that hearde the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saul: whiche caused him to be fet. 32 And Dauid saide to Saul, Let no mans heart fayle him because of him: thy seruaunt wyll go, and fight with yonder Philistine.

And Saul sayde vnto Dauid, (m) Go, and the Lorde be with thee. 38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, & put a coate of mayle vpon him. 39 And girded Dauid with his owne sworde vpon his rayment, and he assayed to go: and because he neuer proued it, Dauid sayde vnto Saul, I can not go with these: for I haue not vsed my selfe therto. And Dauid put them of him.

41 And the Philistine came and drue neare agaynst Dauid, and the man that bare the shielde went before him. 42 And when the Philistine loked about & sawe Dauid, he disdayned him: for he was but young, ruddy, and of a comely face. 43 And the Philistine sayde vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou commest to me with staues? And the Philistine (o) cursed Dauid in the name of his gods. 44 And the Philistine sayde to Dauid, Come to me, and I will geue thy flesche vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beastes of the feelde. 45 Then sayde Dauid to the Philistine, Thou commest to me with a sword, a speare, and a shielde: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hoastes the God of the hoast of Israel, whom thou hast rayled vpon. 46 (p) This day shall the Lorde close thee into my hande, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and will geue the carkases of the hoast of the Philistines this day vnto the foules of the ayre, & to the beastes of the earth, that all they which be in the worlde, may knowe that there is a God in Israel. 47 And all this congregation shal knowe that the Lorde saueth not with sworde and speare (for the battayle is the Lordes) and he shall geue you into our handes. 48 And when the Philistine arose, to come & drawe nye to Dauid, Dauid hasted, & ran to fight agaynst the Philistine. 49 And Dauid put his hand in his bagge, and toke out a stone, and slang it, & smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone suncke into his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth.
50 And so Dauid ouercame the Philistine with a slyng and a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slue him, when Dauid had no sworde in his hande. 51 But Dauid ran and stoode vpon the Philistine, and toke his sworde, and drue it out of his sheathe, and slue him, and cut of his head therwith. And when the Philistines sawe that their champion was dead, they fled. 52 And the men of Israel and of Iuda arose, & showted, and folowed after the Philistines vntyl they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Acaron: and the Philistines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim euen vnto Gath, and Acaron.
53 And the children of Israel returned from chasyng after the Philistines, and spoyled their tentes. 54 And Dauid toke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Hierusalem, but he put his armour in his * tent.
55 When Saul saw Dauid go forth agaynst the Philistine, he sayde vnto Abner the captayne of the hoast, Abner, (q) whose sonne is this young man? Abner aunswered, As thy soule liueth O king, I can not tel. 56 And the king sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne the younglyng is. 57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner toke him, and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hande. 58 And Saul sayde to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou young man? Dauid aunswered, I am the sonne of thy seruaunt Isai the Bethlehemite.

3 The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid.
11 Saul woulde haue slayne Dauid.
29 Saul feareth Dauid, seyng that the Lorde is with him.

AND when he had made an ende of speakyng vnto Saul, the (a) soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathan loued him as his owne soule. 2 And Saul toke him that day, and would let him go no more home to his fathers house. 3 Then Ionathan and Dauid made a couenaunt, because he loued him as his owne soule. 4 And Ionathan put of the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it to Dauid, and his garmentes, euen to his swoorde, and to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whythersoeuer Saul sent him, and behaued him selfe (b) wisely: and Saul set him ouer his men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and in the sight of Sauls seruauntes. 6 And as they came againe when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the (c) Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel singyng, and daunsyng to meete king Saul, with tymbrels, with ioy, and with (instrumentes of) musicke.

7 And the women (d) aunswered one another in their play, and sayde, Saul hath slayne his thousande, and Dauid his ten thousand. 8 And Saul was exceedyng (e) wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayde, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousande, and to me but a thousande: and what can he more haue saue the kingdome? 9 Wherfore Saul had an eye on Dauid from that day forwarde. 10 And on the morowe the euyll spirite sent of God came vpon Saul, and he (f) prophecied in the middes of the house: and Dauid played with his hande, like as at other tymes: and there was a tauelyn in Sauls hande: 11 And Saul toke the tauelyn, and sayde, I wyll nayle Dauid to the wall with it. And Dauid auoyded out of his presence two tymes. 12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, because the Lorde was with him, and was departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a (g) captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before the people. 14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his wayes, and the Lord was with him. 15 Wherfore when Saul sawe that he was so exceedyng wise, he was afrayde of him. 16 But all Israel and Juda loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 And Saul sayd to Dauid, Behold my eldest daughter Merob, her I wyll gene thee to wife: only be a valiaunt sonne vnto me, and fyght the Lordes battayles: for Saul thought, Myne hande shall not be vpon him, but the hande of the Philistines shalbe vpon him. 18 And Dauid aunswered Saul, What am I? and what is my lyfe, or the kinrede of my father in Israel, that I should be sonne in lawe to the king? 19 Howbeit when the tyme was come that Merob Sauls daughter shoulde haue ben geuen to Dauid, she was geuen vnto (h) Adriel a Meholathite to wife. 20 Howbeit Michol Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and the thyng pleased him. 21 And Saul sayde, I wyll (i) geue him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hande of the Philistines may be against him. Wherfore Saul sayde to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in law in the one of the twaine.

22 And Saul commaunded his seruauntes to commune with Dauid secretly, & to say, Beholde the king hath a fauour to thee, & all his seruauntes loue thee: be nowe therefore the kinges sonne in law. 23 And Sauls seruauntes spake those wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid sayde, Seemeth it to you a light thyng to be a kinges sonne in lawe, seyng that I am a poore man, and of small reputation? 24 And the seruauntes brought Saul worde agayne, saying. Of this maner spake Dauid. 25 And Saul sayd, This wise shall ye say to Dauid, The king careth for no other dowry, but for an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines, to be auenged of the kinges enemies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall into the handes of the Philistines. 26 And when his seruauntes tolde Dauid these wordes, (k) it pleased Dauid well to be the kinges sonne in lawe: and the dayes were not expired. 27 Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slue of the Philistines two hundred men, and Dauid brought their foreskinnes, and (l) they gaue them wholly to the kyng, that he might be the kinges sonne in lawe: Wher-

¶ The. xix. Chapter.

2 Ionathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 23 The spirite of prophecie commeth on Saul.

SAul spake to Ionathan his sonne, and to all his seruauntes, that they shoulde (a) kyll Dauid. 2 But Ionathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Dauid, and Ionathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: nowe therefore I pray thee take heede to thy selfe vntyll the morning, and abyde in some secrete place, and hyde thy selfe:

3 And I will go out, and stande by my father in the feelde where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and whatsoeuer I see, I will tel thee. 4 And Ionathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him, Let not the king sinne agaynst his seruaunt, agaynst Dauid: for he hath not sinned agaynst thee, and his workes haue ben to thewarde very good. 5 For he dyd put his life in "his hande, and slue the Philistine, and the Lord brought to passe a great health for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: Wherefore then wylt thou sinne agaynst innocent blood, and slay Dauid without a cause? 6 And Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathan, and Saul (b) sware, as the Lorde liueth, he shall not dye. 7 And Ionathan called Dauid, and Ionathan shewed him all those wordes: and Ionathan brought Dauid to Saul, and he was in his (c) presence as in tymes past. 8 And the warre began agayne, and Dauid went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slue them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him. 9 And the euyll spirite of the Lorde was vpon Saul, as he sate in his house, hauyng a iauelyn in his hande; and Dauid (d) played with his hande. 10 And Saul entended to smite Dauid to the wall with the iauelyn: but he eyd him selfe out of Sauls presence, and he smote the speare into the wall: and Dauid fled, and was saued the same nyght.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michol Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this nyght, to morowe thou shalt be slayne. 12 And so Michol (e) let Dauid downe thorowe a windowe: and he went and fled, and was saued. 13 And Michol toke an image, and layde it in the bed, and put a pyllowe stuffed with goates heere vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth. 14 And when Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid, she sayde, He is sicke. 15 And Saul sent the messengers agayne to see Dauid, saying, Bryng him to me bed and all, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde there lay an image in the bed, with a pyllowe of goates heere vnder the head of it. 17 And Saul sayde vnto Michol, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? Michol aunswered Saul, For he sayd vnto me, Let me go, or els I will kyll thee. 18 And so Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Rama, and tolde him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in (f) Naioth. 19 And one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde Dauid is at Naioth in Rama. 20 And Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid: and when they sawe a company of prophetes prophecying, and Samuel standyng as (g) appoynted ouer them, the spirite of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they (h) prophecied to. 21 And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: and Saul sent messengers yet againe the thirde tyme, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him selfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and sayd, Where are Samuel and Dauid? And one sayde, Beholde they be at Naioth in Rama. 23 And he went thither euen to Naioth in Rama: and the spirite of God (i) came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntyll he came to Naioth in Rama. 24 And he stripte

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

2 Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul would haue killed Ionathan. 38 Ionathan aduertiseth Dauid by three arrowes of his fathers fury.

AND Dauid fled from Naioth which is in Rama, and came and sayde before Ionathan, What haue I done? wherein am I faultie? what is the sinne that I haue committed before thy father, that he seketh my lyfe? 2 He sayde vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not dye: beholde my father wyll do nothyng either great or smal but that he wyll "shewe it me: and howe shoulde my father hide this thyng from me? he wyll not do it. 3 And Dauid sware agayne, and sayde, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes, & therfore he thinketh, Ionathan shall not knowe it, lest he be sory: and in very deede euen as the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule lyueth, there is but a (a) step betweene me and death.

4 Then sayde Ionathan vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer thy soule "desireth, that I wyll do vnto thee. 5 And Dauid sayd vnto Ionathan, Beholde to morowe is the (b) begynnyng of the moneth, and I shoulde sit with the king at meate: but let me go, that I may hyde my selfe in the feeldes vnto the thirde day at euen. 6 If thy father speake of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me that he myght go to Bethlehem to his owne citie: for there is holden a yerely feast for all the kinrede. 7 And if he say, It is well done, then thy seruaunt shal haue peace: but if he be angry, then be sure that wickednesse is vtterly concluded of him. 8 And then thou shalt shewe mercie vnto thy seruaunt, for thou hast ioyned thy seruaunt into a (c) couenaunt of the Lorde with thee: notwithstandyng if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thy selfe: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Ionathan aunswered, God kepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were (d) concluded of my father to come vpon thee, woulde not I tell it thee? 10 Then sayd Dauid to Ionathan, Who shall tell me? howe (shall I know) if thy father aunswere thee cruelly? 11 And Ionathan sayde vnto Dauid, Come, and let vs go out into the feelde. And they went out both of them into the feelde. 12 And Ionathan sayde vnto Dauid, O Lorde God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers mynde at this tyme to morowe, or within these three dayes, and if it be well with Dauid, and I then sende not vnto thee, and shewe it thee: 13 The Lorde do so(e) and much more to Ionathan: but if my father haue pleasure to do thee euyll, I wyll shewe thee also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest go in peace, and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath ben with my father.

14 And (I require) not whyles I lyue, (for I doubt not) but thou wylt shewe me the mercie of the Lorde, that I dye not. 15 But (I require) that thou cut not of thy mercie from my house for euer, no not when the Lorde hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid euerye one from the face of the earth.

16 And so Ionathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, (saying,) Let the Lorde require it at the handes of Dauids enemies. 17 And Ionathan sware agayne vnto Dauid, because he loued him: for he loued him as his owne soule. 18 Then sayde Ionathan to Dauid, To morowe is the first day of the moone: and thou shalt be "misled, because the place where thou wast wont to sit shalbe emptie. 19 Therfore thou shalt hide thy selfe three dayes (then) thou shalt go downe quickly, and come to the place where thou diddest hide thy selfe when the busines was in hande, and shalt remayne by the stone "Esel. 20 And I wyll shoote three arrowes on the side therof, as though I shot them at a marke. 21 And I wyll sende a lad, and byd him go seke the arrowes. And if I say vnto the lad, See the arrowes are on this syde thee, bryng them: then come thou, for it is peace and no hurt, as the Lorde lyueth.

22 But yf I say vnto the lad, Behold the arrowes are beyonde thee: go thy way, for the (f) Lorde hath sent thee away. 23 And as touching thys which thou and I haue spoken, beholde the Lorde be betweene thee and me for euer. 24 And so Dauid hyd him selfe in the feelde: And when the newe moone was come, the king sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And the king sate as at other tymes vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wal: and Ionathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls syde, and Dauids place was emptie. 26 Nenertheless Saul sayde nothyng at all that day: for he thought some thyng hath befallen him, (f) though he were cleane: (or els) because he was not purified. 27 But on the morowe, which was the seconde day of the newe moone, Dauids place was emptie agayne: and Saul sayd vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of (g) Iesai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day? 28 And Ionathan aunswered vnto Saul, Dauid asked licence of me to go to Bethlehem. 29 For he sayde, Let me go I pray thee, for our kinrede doth holde an offering in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: and therfore yf I haue founde fauour in thyne eyes, let me go I pray thee, and see my brethren: This is the cause that he commeth not vnto the kinges table.

30 Then Saul was angry with Ionathan, and sayde vnto him, Thou (h) sonne of the wicked rebellious (woman) do not I knowe that thou hast chosen the sonne of Iesai vnto thine owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke and shame of thy mother? 31 For as long as the sonne of Iesai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor yet thy kingdome: Wherfore nowe sende, and fetch him vnto me, for he is the childe of (i) death.

32 And Ionathan aunswered vnto Saul his father, and sayde to him, Wherfore shall he dye? What hath he done? 33 And Saul lift vp a speare to hit him, wherby Ionathan wist well that it was vtterly determined of his father to slay Dauid. 34 And so Ionathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the second day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, because his father had done him shame. 35 On the next morning Ionathan went out into the feelde at the (k) tyme appoynted with Dauid, and a litle lad with him.

36 And he sayd vnto his boy, Runne, and seke out myne arrowes which I shote. And as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyonde him. 37 And when the lad was come to the place whyther Ionathan had shot the arrowe, Ionathan cryed after the lad, & sayde, Is not the arrowe beyonde thee?

38 And Ionathan cryed after the lad agayne, Make (l) speede, haste & stande not still. And Ionathans lad gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master. 39 But the lad wist nothyng of the matter, only Ionathan and Dauid wist it. 40 And Ionathan gaue his (m) instrumentes vnto the lad that was with him, and sayde vnto him, Go, and carry them to the towne.

41 And assoone as the lad was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the south, & fell on his face to the grounde, and bowed him selfe three tymes: and they kissed eche other, and wept together, but Dauid (n) exceeded. 42 And Ionathan sayde to Dauid, Go in peace: and the thynges which we haue swoine both of vs in the name of the Lorde, saying, The Lorde be betweene thee & me, and betwene thy seede & mine (let them stand) for euer. And he arose, and departed: And Ionathan went into the towne.

THen came Dauid to (a) Nob to Ahimelech the priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meetyng of Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Why art thou alone and no man with thee? 2 And Dauid sayde vnto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath (b) commaunded me a certayne thing, and hath sayd vnto me, Let no man knowe whereabout I sende thee, and what I haue commaunded thee: and I haue appoynted my seruauntes to such & such places. 3 Nowe therfore if thou hast ought vnder thine hande, geue me fiue loaues of bread, or what commeth to hande. 4 And the priest aunswered Dauid, and sayde, There is no common bread vnder myne hande, but here is halowed bread: if the young men haue kept them selues, specially from women. 5 Dauid aunswered the priest, and sayde vnto him, Of a truth women hath ben separated from vs this two or three dayes sence I came out, and the (c) vessels of the young men were holy: although this way be impure, yet this day it shalbe sanctified in the vessell. 6 And so the priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was none other bread there, saue the shewe bread that was taken from before the Lorde, to put fresh bread there the day that it was taken away.

And Dauid sayd, There is none to that, geue it me. 10 And Dauid arose, and fled the same day from the (f) presence of Saul, & went to Achis the king of Gath. 11 And the seruauntes of Achis sayde vnto him, Is not this Dauid the king of the lande? 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him.

A Dauid therefore departed thence, and escaped to the caue (a) Adullam: when his brethren also and his fathers house hearde it, they went downe thyther to him. 2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in combraunce, and in debt, and troubled in their myndes, and he became a captayne ouer them: and there were with him vpon a foure hundred men.

3 And Dauid went thence to Mispah in the lande of (b) Moab, and sayd vnto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother (I pray thee) come forth vnto you, tyll I knowe what God wyll do for me. 4 And he (c) brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the whyle that Dauid kept him selfe in the (d) holde. 5 And the prophete Gad sayde vnto Dauid, Abyde not in the holde, but depart and go into the lande of Juda. Then Dauid departed, and came into the forrest Hareth.

6 And Saul hearde that Dauid was discouered, and also the men that were with him: and Saul sate in Gibea vnder a tree in Rama, hauyng his speare in his hande, and all his men stoode about him. 7 And Saul sayde vnto his seruauntes that stoode about him, Heare I pray you ye sonnes of (e) Jemini: wyll the sonne of Jsai geue euery one of you feeldes and vineyardes, and make you all captaynes ouer thousandes and ouer hundredes: 8 That ye haue also conspired agaynst me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a couenaunt with the sonne of Jsai, and there is none of (f) you that is sory for me, or sheweth me that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruaunt to lye in wayte agaynst me (as appeareth) this day? 9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite (which was appoynted by the seruauntes of Saul) and sayde, I sawe the sonne of Jsai when he came to Nob to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitob. 10 Which asked counsel of the Lorde for him, and gaue him vittayles, and gaue him the sworde of Goliath the Philistine also. 11 Then the king sent and called for Ahimelech the priest the sonne of Ahitob, and all his fathers house (that is to say) the (g) priestes that were in Nob: and they came all to the king. 12 And Saul sayde, Heare nowe thou sonne of Ahitob. He answered, Here I am my lorde. 13 And Saul sayde vnto him, Why haue ye conspired agaynst me thou and the sonne of Jsai, in that thou hast geuen him vittayle, and a sworde, and hast asked counsell of God for him, that he shoulde ryse agaynst me, and lye in wayte for me (as appeareth) this day? 14 Ahimelech answered the king, and sayde, Who is so faythfull among all thy seruauntes as Dauid, beyng also the kinges sonne in lawe, and goeth at thy byddyng, and is had in honour in thine house? 15 Haue I this day begun first (h) to aske counsel of God for him? that be farre from me: let not the king impute any thyng vnto his seruaunt,

Then they tolde Dauid, ſaying, Beholde the Philiſtines fight agaynſt (a) Keila, and ſpoyle the barnes. 2 Therefore Dauid aſked counſel of the Lorde, ſaying, Shall I go & ſmite theſe Philiſtines? And the Lord aunſwered vnto Dauid, Go, and ſmite the Philiſtines, and ſaue Keila. 3 And Dauids men ſayde vnto him, See, we be afrayde here (b) in Iuda: howe much more then if we come to Keila agaynſt the hoaſt of the Philiſtines? 4 Then Dauid aſked counſel of the Lorde agayne: and the Lorde aunſwered him, and ſayde, Ariſe, and go downe to Keila: for I wyll deliuer the Philiſtines into thyne hande.

And wyll Saul come downe as thy ſeruaunt hath hearde? O Lorde God of Iſrael, I beſeche thee tell thy ſeruaunt. And the Lorde ſayd, He wyll come downe. 12 Then ſayd Dauid, Will the lordes of Keila deliuer me and the men that are with me into the hande of Saul? And the Lorde ſayde, They wyll deliuer thee vp. 13 Then Dauid and his men, which were vpon a ſixe hundred, aroſe and departed out of Keila, and went (e) whither they couldе: & it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled from Keila, and he let the iourney alone.

25 Saul also and his men went to seke him: and they tolde Dauid, wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernesse of (k) Maon: And whē Saul heard that, he folowed after Dauid in the wildernesse of Maon. 26 And Saul & his men went on the one side of the mountayne, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountayne: and Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed Dauid and his men rounde about, to take them. 27 But there came a (l) messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistines haue inuaded the lande.

¶ The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Dauid hid in a caue, spareth Saul.
10 He sheweth to Saul his innocencie.
18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault.
22 He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto him to be fauourable to his.

AND When Saul was come agayne from folowyng after the Philistines, there were which tolde him, saying, Behold Dauid is in the wildernesse of (a) En-gadi. 2 Then Saul toke three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seke Dauid and his men in the heyght of the rockes "where wilde goates remaine. 3 And he came to the sheepe coates by the way, where there was a caue, and Saul went in to "do his easement and Dauid and his men remayned in the "inward partes of the caue. 4 And the men of Dauid sayde vnto him, See, the day is come of which the Lorde sayde vnto thee, Behold I will deliuer thyne enemie into thine hande, and thou shalt do to him as it shall seeme good in thy syght. Then Dauid arose, & cut of the lap of Sauls garment priuily. 5 And afterwarde Dauids heart smote him because he had cut of the lap of Sauls garment.
6 And he sayde vnto his men, The Lorde kepe me from doing that thing vnto my master the Lordes annoynted, to lay mine hande vpon him, seing he is the (b) annoynted of the Lorde.
7 And so Dauid kept of his seruauntes with these wordes, and suffered them not to rise against Saul: but Saul rose vp out of the caue, & went away. 8 Dauid also rose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, My Lorde king. And when Saul loked behynde him, Dauid stowped (with) his face to the earth, and bowed him selfe: 9 And Dauid sayd to Saul, Wherfore geuest thou an eare to mens wordes that say, Behold Dauid seketh euyll against thee? 10 Behold, this day thine eyes haue seene howe that the Lorde hath deliuered thee this day into myne hande in the caue: and some bad me kyll thee, but I had compassion on thee, and sayde, I will not lay myne handes on my master, for he is the Lordes annoynted. 11 And moreouer my father, behold and see yet the lap of thy garment in my hande, inasmuch as I kylled thee not when I cut of the lap of thy garment: Vnderstande therefore and see that there is neither euyll nor wickednesse in me, and that I haue not sinned against thee: and yet thou huntest after my soule to take it. 12 The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lorde auenge me of thee: but mine hande be not vpon thee. 13 Accordyng as the * olde prouerbe saith, Wickednes proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand be not vpon thee.

After a dead dogge, and after a flea. 15 The lord therfore be iudge, and iudge betweene thee and me, and see and pleade my cause, and "auenge me out of thyne hande. 16 When Dauid had made an ende of speaking these wordes to Saul, Saul sayde. 18 And thou hast shewed this day howe that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had closed me in thyne handes, thou kyllest me not. 19 For who shall finde his enemie, and let hym depart into a (d) good way? Wherfore the Lorde reward thee with good for that thou hast done vnto me this day. 20 And now behold, I (c) wote well that thou shalt be kyng, and that the kyngdome of Israel shalbe stablished in thyne hande: 21 Sweare nowe therefore vnto me by the Lorde that thou shalt not destroy my seede after me, & that thou shalt not put my name out of my fathers house. 22 And Dauid sware vnto Saul, & Saul went home: but Dauid and his men gate them vp vnto the holde.

The. xxv. Chapter.

1 Samuel dyeth. 3 Nabal and Abigail. 38 The Lorde killeth Nabal. 42 Abigail and Ahinoam Dauids wyues. 43 Michol is geuen to Phalti.

AND Samuel dyed, and all the Israelites gathered together, and lamented hym, and buried him in his owne (a) house at Rama. And Dauid arose, and went downe to the wylderneſſe of Pharan. 2 And there was a man in (b) Maon, whose possession was in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie, and had three thousande sheepe, and a thousande goates: and he was shearing his sheepe in Carmell. 3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wyfe was Abigail, and she was a woman of a singuler wysdome, and beautifull: but the man was churlish, and of euyll conditions, & was of the kinred of Caleb. 4 And Dauid heard in the wylderneſſe that Nabal dyd sheare his sheepe. 5 And Dauid sent out ten young men, & said vnto them, Get you vp to Carmel, & go to Nabal, and "greete hym in my name. 6 And ye shal say, So mayest thou liue, peace be to thee, peace be to thyne house, and peace be vnto al that thou hast. 7 Beholde I haue heard say that thou hast shearers: nowe thy sheepheardes (c) were with vs, and we dyd them no spite, neither was there ought missing vnto them al the whyle they were in Carmell: 8 Aske thy laddes, & they will shewe thee: Wherfore let these young mẽ finde fauour in thine eyes (for we come in a good "season) and geue I pray thee whatsoeuer (d) commeth to thyne hande vnto thy seruauntes, and to thy sonne Dauid.

9 And when Dauids young men came, they told Nabal al those wordes in the name of Dauid: and held their peace. 10 And Nabal aunswered Dauids seruauntes, and sayd, (e) Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Isai? there is plentie of seruauntes nowe a dayes that breake away euery man from his maister. 11 Shall I then take my bread, my water, & my flesche that I haue killed for my shearers, and geue it vnto men whom I wote not whence they be? 12 And so Dauids seruauntes turned their way, and went agayne, and came and tolde him all those sayinges. 13 And Dauid sayde vnto his men, Gyrde euery man his sworde about hym. And they gyrded euery man his sworde about hym, & Dauid was gyrded with his sworde: and there folowed Dauid vpõ a foure hundred men, and two hundred abode by the "stuffe. 14 But one of the lads tolde Abigail Nabals wyfe, saying, Beholde Dauid sent messengers vnto our maister out of the wylderneſſe to salute hym: and he" rayled on them.

But she tolde her husbande Nabal nothing therof. 20 And as she rode on her asse, she came priuily downe the side of the hyll, and behold Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them. 21 And Dauid sayd, Surely in vayne haue I kept all that this felowe hath in the wyldernesse, so that nothing was missed of all that parteyned vnto hym: and he hath quite me euyll for good. 22 So and more also do God vnto the enemies of Dauid, if I leaue of all that parteyne to hym by the dawning of the day, any that (h) pysseth against the wall. 23 And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lighted of her asse, and fel before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the grounde.
24 And fell at his feete, and sayde, Let this iniquitie be counted myne my lorde, and let thyne handmayde I pray thee speake in thyne "audience, and heare the wordes of thy handemayde. 25 Let not my lorde I pray thee regarde this wicked "man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, & folly is with hym: But I thyne handmayde sawe not the young men of my lorde whom thou sendedst. 26 Now therfore my lord, as the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, euen the Lorde that hath withholden thee from comming to (shed) blood, and kept thyne(i)hand to thee: so nowe, I pray God that thyne enemies, and they that intende to do my lord euill, may be as Nabal. 27 And now this "blessing which thine handmayde hath brought vnto my lord, let it be geuen vnto the young men that "folowe my lorde. 28 I pray thee forgeue the trespasse of thyne handemayde: for the Lorde wyll make my lord a (k) sure house, because my lord fighteth the battayles of the Lorde, and there coulde none euyll be founde in thee in all thy dayes. 29 And yet a (l) man hath ryssen to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule: but the soule of my Lord shall be bounde (m) in the bundell of the liuing with the Lorde thy God, and the soules of thy enemies shal God cast out, euen as out of the middle of a slyng. 30 And when the Lorde shall haue done to my lorde all the good that he hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler

32 And Dauid sayd to Abigail, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.
33 Blessed is thy saying, and blessed art thou whiche hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, & from auenging my selfe with myne owne hande. 34 For in very deede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, which hath kept me backe from hurting thee: except thou haddest hasted and met me, surely there had not ben left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pysseth against the wall. 35 And so Dauid receaued of her hande that which she had brought him, & sayd vnto her, Go vp in peace to thyne house, beholde I haue heard thy voyce, and haue "graunted thy petition. 36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and beholde he helde a feast in his house lyke the feast of a king, and Nabals heart was merry within hym, for he was very dronken: wherfore she tolde (n) hym nothing neither lesse nor more, vntyll the morowe morning. 37 But in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wyfe told him these wordes, and his heart dyed within him, & he became as a stone. 38 And about ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he dyed. 39 And when Dauid heard that Nabal was dead, he sayde, Blessed be the Lorde that hath "iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hande of Nabal, and hath kept his seruaunt from euill: for the Lord hath recompenced the wickednesse of Nabal vpon his owne head. And Dauid sent to commune with Abigail, to take her to his wyfe. 40 And when the seruauntes of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs vnto thee, to take thee to his wife. And she arose and bowed her selfe on her face to the earth, & sayde, Beholde, let thy handmayd be a seruaunt to washe the feete of the seruauntes of my lord. 41 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and gate her vpon an asse, with fiue damosels of hers that (o) went at her feete, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and became his wyfe. 42 Dauid also

And Dauid answered, Against the south of Juda, and against the south of the (d) Jerameelites, and against the south of the (e) Kenites. 11 And Dauid saued neither man nor womā alyue to bring to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on vs, (and say) So dyd Dauid: and so wyll be his maner all the whyle he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistines. 12 And Achis beleued Dauid, saying, "He hath made his people Israel vtterly to abhorre hym, and therefore he shalbe my seruaunt for euer.

1 Dauid hath the chiefe charge promised about Achis. 8 Saul consulteth with a witch, and she causeth hym to speake vnto Samuel. 18 Who declareth his ruine.

AND in those dayes the Philistines gathered their hoast together to warre, to fight with Israel: and Achis sayde vnto Dauid, Be sure thou shalt go out with me to battayle, thou and the men that are with thee. 2 And Dauid sayde to Achis, Surely thou shalt (a) know we what thy seruaunt can do. And Achis sayde to Dauid, Then I wyll make thee keper of my head for euer. 3 Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented hym, and buryed hym in Rama his owne citie: And Saul had put (b) away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the lande. 4 And the Philistines gathered together, and came and pitched in Sunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

He aunswered, (d) Bryng me vp Samuel. 12 When the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceaued me? for thou art Saul. 13 And the kyng sayde vnto her, Be not afrayde: What sawest thou? The woman sayde vnto Saul, I sawe "gods ascending vp out of the earth. 14 He sayde vnto her agayne, What fashion is he of? She aunswered, There commeth vp an olde man with a mantell vpon hym. And Saul perceaued that it was (e) Samuel, and he stowped with his face to the grounde, and bowed hym selfe. 15 And Samuel sayde to Saul, Why hast thou vnquieted me, to make me be brought vp? Saul aunswered, I am sore encumbred, for the Philistines make warre against me, and god is departed from me, and aunswereth me no more, neither by prophetes, nor by dreames: and therfore I haue called thee, that thou mayest (f) tell me what I shall do.
16 Then saide Samuel, Wherefore doest thou aske of me, whyle the Lord is gone from thee, and is become thyne enemie? 17 Truely the Lord hath done to (g) him euen as he spake by my "hande: for the Lorde hath rent the kingdome out of thyne hand, and geuen it thy neighbour Dauid:
18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therfore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day. 19 And moreouer, the Lorde wyll deliuer Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistines: to morowe shalt thou and thy sonnes be (h) with me, and the Lorde shall geue the hoast of Israel into the handes of the Philistines.
20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore (i) afrayde because of the wordes of Samuel: and there was no strength in hym: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. 21 And the woman came vnto Saul, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and sayde vnto hym, See, thyne handmayde hath obeyed thy voyce, and (k) haue put my soule in my hand, and haue hearkened vnto thy wordes whyche thou sayedst vnto me. 22 Nowe therfore I pray thee hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thyne handmayde, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate, and get thee strength, and then go on thy iourney. 23 He refused, and sayde, I wyll not eate. But his seruauntes and the woman together compelled him, and he hearkened vnto their voyce: and so he arose from the earth, and sate on a bed.
24 The woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted and killed it, and tooke floure and kneded it, and dyd bake vnleauened bread thereof:
25 And brought them before Saul, and before his seruauntes: and when they had eaten, they stoode vp, and went away the same night.

6 And Dauid was in great cumbraunce: for the people (b) entended to stone hym, because the hearte of all the people were vexed euery man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but Dauid toke a good courage to him in the Lorde his God. 7 And sayde to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee bryng me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid. 8 And Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shal I folowe after this company? shall I ouertake them? And he aunswered hym, Folowe, for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and (c) recouer all.

But as his part is that goeth downe & fighteth, so shall his part be that tarryeth by the stuffe: they shal part alike. 25 And so from that day forwarde was that made a statute and a lawe in Israel vnto this day. 26 When Dauid therfore came to Ziklag, he sent (g) of the pray vnto the elders of Juda & to his frendes, saying, See, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lorde. 27 He sent to them of Bethel, to them of south Ramoth, to them of Jathir, 28 To them of Aroer, to them of Sephamoth, to them of Esthema, 29 To them of Rachal, to them of the cities of Jerahmeel, to them of the cities of the Kenites, 30 To them of Horma, to them of Chorachan, to the of Athach, 31 To them that are in Hebron, and to all places where Dauid and his men were wont to haunt.

Fter the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, & had ben two dayes in Ziklag: 2 Behold there came a man the thirde day out of the hoast from Saul, with his (a) clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: and when he came to Dauid, he fell to the earth, and dyd obeysaunce. 3 Dauid sayd vnto him, Whence commest thou? He sayde vnto hym, Out of the hoast of Israel I am escaped. 4 And Dauid sayde vnto hym, And what is done, I pray thee tell me. He sayd, The people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and dead, and Saul & Ionathan his sonne are dead also. 5 And Dauid sayde vnto the young man that told it hym, Howe knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his sonne be dead? 6 The young man that tolde hym answered, (b) As I came by chaunce to mount Gilboa, beholde Saul leaned vpon his speare: and lo, the charettes and * horsemen folowed harde after hym. 7 And when he looked backe, he sawe me, and called me: and I answered, here am I. 8 And he sayde vnto me, Who art thou? I answered hym, I am an (c) Amalekite. 9 He sayd vnto me agayne, I pray thee come vpon me, and slea me: for anguishe is come vpon me, because my lyfe is yet whole in me. 10 And so * I stoode vpon hym, and slue him: and because I was sure that he coulde not lyue after that he had fallen, I toke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the brasselet that was on his arme, and haue brought them hyther vnto my Lord. 11 Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, and rent them, and so dyd all the men that were with hym. 12 And they mourned & wept, and fasted vntyll euen for Saul and Ionathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lorde, and for the house of Israel, because they were ouerthrowen with the swoorde. 13 And Dauid said vnto the yonng man that brought him these tidinges, Whence art thou? He answered, I am the sonne of an alitaunt, an Amalekite. 14 And Dauid sayde vnto hym, Howe is it that thou wast not afrayde to lay thyne hande on the lordes annoynted to destroy hym? 15 And Dauid called one of his young men, and sayde, Go to, and fall vpon him. And he smote him that he dyed. 16 Then sayd Dauid vnto hym, Thy blood (d) be vpon thyne owne head: for thyne owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slayne the Lordes annoynted. 17 And Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul and ouer Ionathan his sonne. 18 (Also he bad them teache the chyldren of Iuda the (e) vse of the bowe: and beholde it is written in the booke of * the righteous:) 19 O noble Israel, (f) he is slayne vpon thy hye places: howe are the mightie ouerthrowen? 20 Tell it not in Gath, nor publishe it in the streates of Askalon: lest the daughters of the Philistines reioyce, and lest the daughters of the vncircumcised triumph. 21 Ye mountaynes of Gilboa, vpon you be neither deawe nor rayne, nor (g) feeldes of offerings: for there the shielde of the mightie is cast downe, the shielde of Saul, as though he had not ben anoynted with oyle. 22 The bowe of Jonathan neuer turned backe, neither dyd the swoorde of Saul returne emptie from the blood of the slayne, and from the fat of the mightie. 23 Saul and Jonathan were louely and pleasaunt in their liues, and in their deathes they were not diuided: they were swyfter then Egles, and stronger then Lions. 24 Ye daughters of Israel

4 Dauid is annoynted king in Ebron.

AFter this, Dauid (a) asked counsell at the Lorde, saying, Shall I go vp into any of the cities of Juda? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Go vp. And Dauid saide, Whither shall I go? He answered, Vnto (b) Hebron.

2 And so Dauid went thyther with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Jesraelite, & Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite. 3 And the men that were with him (c) hym dyd Dauid cary vp also, euery man with his housholde: and they dwelt in the townes of Hebron.

4 And the men of Juda came, and there they annoynted Dauid king ouer the house of Juda: and they tolde Dauid, saying, It is the men of Jabes Gilead that buried Saul. 5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Jabes Gilead, and sayde vnto them, Blessed are ye vnto the Lorde, that ye haue shewed suche kyndnesse vnto your lord Saul, and haue buried him. 6 And nowe the Lorde shewe mercie and (d) trueth vnto you: and (e) I will do you also such kindnesse, as ye haue done in this thyng: 7 Therfore now let your handes be strong, and " play ye the men: for your maister Saul is dead, and they that are of the house of Juda haue annoynted me kyng ouer them. 8 But Abner the sonne of Ner that was captayne of Saules hoaste, toke Jbosheth the sonne of Saul, and brought hym to (f) Mahanaim, 9 And made him kyng ouer Gilead, and ouer the Asurites, & ouer Jezruel, Ephraim, Beniamin, and ouer (g) all Jsrael. 10 And Jbosheth Saules sonne was fourtie yeres olde when he began to raigne ouer Jsrael, and raigned two yeres: but the house of Juda folowed Dauid. 11 (And the time which Dauid raigned in Hebron ouer the house of Juda, was seuen yeres and sixe monethes.) 12 And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruauntes of Jbosheth the son of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the sonne of Zarui, and the seruauntes of Dauid went out and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they sate downe, the one on the one syde of the poole, and the other on the other syde. 14 And Abner sayde to Joab, Let the young men now aryse, and (h) play before vs. And Joab sayde, Let them aryse.

15 Then there arose, and went ouer twelue of Beniamin by numbre, which pertayned to Jbosheth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruauntes of Dauid. 16 And euery one caught his felowe by the head, and thrust his swoorde in his (i) felowes side, & so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called " Helkath hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. 17 And there was an exceeding cruel (k) battayle that same day: for Abner & the men of Jsrael fell before the seruantes of Dauid. 18 And there were three sonnes of Zarui there, Joab, Abisai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as lyght of foote as a wylde Roe.

19 And Asahel folowed after Abner, and in goyng he turned neither to the right hande nor the left from Abner. 20 Then Abner loked behind him, & said, Art thou Asahel? He answered, Yea. 21 Abner said, Turne thee either to the ryght hand or the left, and catch one of the young men, and take thee his " weapons. But Asahel woulde not depart from hym. 22 And Abner said agayne to Asahel, Depart from me: (l) wherefore shoulde I smyte thee to the ground, and not be able to holde vp my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit when he woulde in no wyse depart, Abner with the hynder ende of the speare smote hym vnder the (m) fyft ribbe, that the speare came out behinde him, that he fell downe in the same place, and dyed there: and as many as came to the place where Asahel fel downe and died, stoode still.

24 Joab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe when they were come to the hyll Amma, that lyeth before Giah, by the way of the wyldernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the chyldren of Beniamin gathered them selues together after Abner, and were on a heape, and stoode on the toppe of an hyll.

And king Dauid him selfe folowed the beere. 32 And when they buried Abner in Hebron, the kyng lift vp his voyce, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept.

38 And the king sayd vnto his seruauntes, Knowe ye not howe that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? 39 And I am this day tender and newly annoynted kyng: and these men the sonnes of Zaruia be to *harde for me: the Lorde rewarde the doer of euyll, according to his wyckednesse.

AND when Sauls (a) sonne hearde that Abner was dead in Hebron, his handes were (b) feeble, and all the Israelites were afrayde. 2 And Sauls sonne had two men that were captaines of bandes, the one called Baanah, and the other Rechab, the sonnes of Rimmon a Berothite of the children of Beniamin: (for (c) Beroth was reckened to Beniamin.

3 And these Berothites fled to (d) Githaim, & sojourned there vntil this day.) 4 And Jonathan Sauls sonne had a son that was lame on his feete: and was fiue yeres olde when the tydinges came of Saul & Jonathan out of Jezrael: and his nurse tooke hym vp, and fled away: and as she made haste to flee, the chylde fell, and began to halt, and his name was Miphiboseth. 5 And the sonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, Rechab & Baanah, went & came in the heate of the day to the house of Isboseth: which slept on a bed at noone. 6 And behold they came into ? middes of the house, as though they (e) would haue fetched wheate: and Rechab and Baanah his brother smote hun vnder the fift ribbe, & fled.

The. v. Chapter.

3 Dauid is made kyng ouer all Israel. 7 He taketh the forte of Sion. 19 He asketh counsell of the Lord. 20 And ouercommeth the Philistines twyse.

THen came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, and sayde thus, Beholde, we are thy (a) bone, and thy flesshe. 2 And in tyme past when Saul was our kyng, thou ledest Israel in and out: and the Lorde hath said to thee, Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captaine ouer Israel. 3 And so all the elders of Israel came to the kyng to Hebron, and king Dauid made a couenaunt with them in Hebron (b) before the Lorde: and they (c) annoynted Dauid king ouer Israel. 4 Dauid was thirtie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned fourtie yeres.

5 In Hebron he raigned ouer Juda seuen yeres and sixe monethes: and in Hierusalem he raigned thirtie and three yeres ouer all Israel and Juda.

6 The king also and his men went to Hierusalem vnto the Iebusites the inhabitauntes of the lande, which spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the (d) blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: For they said, Thou art not able to come in hyther.

7 Neuertheless, Dauid tooke the strong holde of Sion: the same is the citie of Dauid. 8 And Dauid sayde the same day, Whosoeuer smyteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters of the houses, and smyteth the lame and the blynde hated of Dauids soule, (I will preferre hym,) Wherefore they sayde, The blynde and the lame shal not come into that house. 9 And so Dauid dwelt in the towre, and called it the citie of Dauid, and buylt round about it from Millo, & inward.

10 And Dauid prospered and grewe, and the Lorde God of hoastes was with him. 11 And "Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to Dauid, and Cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons for walles: and they built Dauid an house. 12 And Dauid perceaued that the Lord had stablished him king ouer Israel, and that he had exalted his kyngdome for his people Israels sake, 13 And Dauid tooke hym mo concubines and wynes out of Hierusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and mo sonnes and daughters were yet borne to Dauid. 14 And these be the names of the sonnes that were borne vnto him in Hierusalem, Samua, Sobab, Nathan, and Solomon, 15 Ibhar also and Elisua, Nepheg, and Japhia, 16 Elisama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. 17 But when the Philistines hearde that they had annoynted Dauid king ouer Israel, they came all vp to (e) seeke Dauid: and assoone as Dauid heard of it, he gat him to an holde. 18 And when the Philistines came, they spread them selues in the valley of Raphaim. 19 And Dauid (e) asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I go vp to the Philistines? wilt thou deliuer them into my handes? And the Lord aunswered vnto Dauid, Go vp: for I will doubtlesse deliuer the Philistines into thy handes. 20 And Dauid came to Baal Perazim, and smote them there, & sayde, The Lorde hath diuided myne enemies a sunder before me as waters be diuided a sunder. And therefore he called the name of the place "Baal Perazim. 21 And there they left their images, and Dauid and his men burnt them. 22 And the Philistines came yet agayne, and layde them selues in the

Thus sayeth the lord of hoastes, I toke thee from the sheepe coate as thou wast folowing sheepe, that thou mightest be ruler ouer my people, ouer Israel. 9 And I was with thee in all that thou wentest to, and haue destroyed all thyne (c) enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a greate (d) name, lyke vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth. 10 (Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwel in a place of their owne, and (e) moue no more: neither shall wicked people trouble them any more, as before tyme, 12 And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and I will set vp thy seede after thee, whiche shall proceede out of thy body, and will stablyshe his kyngdome.

2 Then sayde Dauid, I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, as his father shewed (a) kindnesse vnto me. And Dauid sent to comfort hym by the (b) hande of his seruauntes ouer his father: and Dauids seruauntes came into the lande of the children of Ammon. 3 And the princes of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanon their lorde, "Thynkest thou that Dauid doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comfortours to thee? hath not Dauid rather sent his seruauntes vnto thee to searche the citie, and to spye it out, and to ouerthowe it? 4 Wherefore Hanon tooke Dauids seruauntes, and shaued of the one (c) halfe of their beardes, and cut of their garmentes in the middle, euen harde to the buttockes of them, and sent them away.

5 When they tolde it vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedyngly ashamed) and the kyng sayde, Tary at Jericho, vntyll your beardes be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon sawe that they (d) stanke in the sight of Dauid, they sent, and hyred the " Syrians of the house of Rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba twentie thousande footemen, and of kyng Maacha a thousande men, and of Istob twelue thousande men. 7 And when Dauid hearde of it, he sent Joab and all the hoast of strong men. 8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their armie in aray at the entryng in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, of Rehob, Istob, and Maacha, were by them selues in the feelde.

9 When Joab sawe that the front of the battaile was agaynst hym before and behynde, he chose of all the choyse of Israel, and put them in aray agaynst the Syrians. 10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hande of Abisai his brother, that he myght put them in aray agaynst the children of Ammon. 11 And he sayd, If the Syrians be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me: but if the children of Ammon be to strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

12 Therefore quyte thee lyke a man, and let vs be valiaunt for our people and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde do that whiche is good in his C owne eyes. 13 And Joab proceeded forth, and the people that was with hym, to fight agaynst the Syrians: but they fled before hym. 14 And when the children of Ammon sawe that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abisai, and entred into the citie: and so Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Hierusalem. 15 And when the Syrians sawe that they were smytten before Israel, they gathered them together. 16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out

AND it came to passe that after the yere was expired, in the tyme (a) when kinges go forth to battel, Dauid sent Ioab and his seruauntes with him, and all Israel, whiche destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabba: but Dauid taryed still at Hierusalem. 2 And in an euening tyde Dauid arose out of his (b) bed, and walked vppon the roofe of the kinges palace, and from the roofe he sawe a woman washing her selfe, and the woman was very beautifull to loke vpon. 3 And Dauid sent to enquire what woman it should be: And one saide, Is not this Bethsabe the daughter of Eliam, and wyfe to (c) Vrias the Hethite? 4 And Dauid sent messengers, and toke her away: And she came in vnto him, and he lay with her (and she was purified from her vncleannesse) and returned vnto her house. 5 And the woman conceaued, and sent and (d) tolde Dauid, and saide, I am with childe. 6 And Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Sende me Vrias the Hethite. And Ioab sent Vrias to Dauid. 7 And when Vrias was come vnto him, Dauid demaunded of him howe Ioab dyd, and howe the people fared, and howe the warre prospered? 8 And Dauid saide to Vrias, (e) Go downe to thy house, and washe thy feete. And Vrias departed out of the kinges palace, and there folowed him a present from the king. 9 But Vrias slept at the doore of the kinges palace, with all the seruauntes of his Lorde, and went not downe to his house. 10 Whiche when they had tolde Dauid, saying, Vrias went not downe vnto his house: Dauid sayde vnto Vrias, Camest thou not from thy iourney? why diddest thou not go downe then vnto thyne house?

By thy life, and by the lyfe of thy soule, I wyll not do this thing. 12 And Dauid sayde vnto Vrias, Tary here this day also, and to morowe I wyl let thee depart. And so Vrias abode in Hierusalem that day, and the morowe. 13 And when Dauid had called him, he dyd eate and drynke before him, and he made hym (f) drunke. And at euen he went out to lye on his couche with the seruauntes of his lorde, but went not downe to his house. 14 On the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hande of Vrias: 15 And he wrote thus in the letter, (g) Put ye Vrias in the forefront of the harper battaile, and come ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and dye.

The. xiii. Chapter.

14 Amnon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Thamar. 19 Thamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Amnon.

AFter this, so it was that Absalom the sonne of Dauid had a fayre sister, named (a) Thamar, whom Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued. 2 And he was so sore vexed that he fell sicke for his sister Thamar: for she was a (b) virgin, and he thought it hard for him to do any thing to her. 3 But Amnon had a frende called Jonadab the sonne of Simah Dauids brother: and Jonadab was a very subtile man. 4 And he saide vnto him, Howe commeth it that thou beyng the kinges sonne art thus consumed from day to day? Wylt thou not tell me? Amnon aunswered him, I loue Thamar my brother Absalomes sister. 5 Jonadab saide vnto him, (c) Lay thee downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father is come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee let my sister Thamar come, and geue me meate, and dresse it in my sight, that I may see it, and eate it of her hande. 6 And so Amnon lay downe, and made him selfe sicke: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon saide vnto the king, I pray thee let Thamar my sister come, and make me a coople of (d) cakes in my sight, that I may eate of her hande. 7 Then Dauid sent home to Thamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnons house, and dresse him meate. 8 So Thamar went to her brother Amnons house, (and he was layed downe) and she toke " floure, & kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and dyd bake them. 9 And toke a panne, and (e) powred them out before him, but he would not eate: and Amnon saide, Haue (f) out all men from me. And they went all out from him. 10 And Amnon sayde vnto Thamar, Bryng the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thyne hande. And Thamar toke the cakes whiche she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother: 11 And when she had set them before him to eate, he toke her, and sayde vnto her, Come, lye with me my sister. 12 And she aunswered him, May my brother, do not force me: for there hath no such thing ben done in Israel, do not thou this folly. 13 And I, whyther shall I cause my shame to go? and thou shalt be as one of the (g) fooles in Israel:

Nowe therefore I pray thee speake vnto the king, and he will not denye me vnto thee. 14 Howbeit he would not hearken vnto her voyce: but beyng stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her. 15 And then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue with whiche he before loued her: and Amnon said vnto her, Vp & get thee hence. 16 She aunswered him, "There is no cause, This euyl that thou purtest me away, is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me. Neuertheless, he would not heare her: 17 But called his "boye that serued him, and saide, Put away this woman from me, and bolt the doore after her. 18 And she had a garment of (f) diuers colours vpon her: for with such garmentes were the kinges daughters that were virgins appareled. Then his seruaunt brought her out, and locked the doore after her. 19 And Thamar toke and put asshes on her head, and rent her garment of diuers colours that was on her, and layed her hande on her head, and so she went away crying.

20 And Absalom her brother sayde vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother ben with thee? Nowe yet be still my sister, he is thy brother, let not this thing greeue thyne heart. And so Thamar remayned desolate in her brother Absaloms house. 21 But when king Dauid heard of al these thinges, he was very wroth. 22 And Absalom sayd vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: howbeit Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Thamar. 23 And after the time of two yeres, Absalom had sheepe shearers in the "plaine of Hasor beside Ephraim, and bade all the kinges sonnes. 24 And came to the king and said, Beholde thy seruaunt hath sheepe shearers, I pray thee that the king with his seruauntes come to thy seruaunt. 25 The king aunswered Absalom, Nay my sonne, I pray thee let vs not go all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee. And Absalom lay sore vpon him: howbeit he would not go, but "blessed him.

26 Then saide Absalom, But I pray thee shall not my brother (g) Amnon go with vs? And the king aunswered him, What needeth it that he go with thee? 27 But Absalom made such instance, that he let Amnon and al the kinges children go with him.

28 Nowe had Absalom commaunded his young men, saying, Marke when Amnons (h) heart is merry with wine, and when I bid you, Smite Amnon: then kyll him, and feare not: haue not I bidden you? be bolde therefore, and play the men. 29 And the seruauntes of Absalom dyd vnto Amnon euen as Absalom had commaunded: and all the kinges sonnes arose, and euery man gat him vp vppon his mule, and fled. 30 And whyle they were yet in the way, tydynges came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slaine all the kinges sonnes, and there is none left alyue. 31 Then the kyng arose, and tare his garmentes, and lay along on the (i) earth: and all his seruauntes stoode by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab the sonne of Simea Dauids brother aunswered & saide, Let not my Lorde suppose that they haue slaine all the young men of the kinges sonnes, but Amnon onlye is dead: for that hath ben determined in Absaloms minde sence he forced his sister Thamar. 33 Nowe therefore let not my lorde the king "take the thing so greeuously, to thinke that all the kinges sonnes are dead, "for Amnon onlye is dead. 34 But Absalom fled: and the young man that kept the watch lyft vp his eyes and loked, and beholde there came much people by the way of the hil side "behinde him. 35 And Jonadab said vnto the king, Beholde the kinges sonnes come: as thy seruaunt said, so it is. 36 And assoone as he had left speaking, beholde the kinges sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces & wept. The king also and all his seruauntes wept exceedyngly sore. 37 But Absalom escaped, and went to (k) Thalmai the sonne of Ammihur king of Gesur: and Dauid mourned for his sonne euery day. 38 And so Absalom escaped, and went to Gesur, and was there three yeres. 39 And king Dauid "desired to go forth vnto Absalom: for where as Amnon was dead, he was comforted ouer him.

And he aunswered, As the Lorde lyueth, there shall not one heere of thy sonne fall to the earth. 12 The woman sayde, Let thyne handmayde speake one worde vnto my lorde the kyng. And he sayde, Say on. 13 The woman sayd, Wherefore then hast thou (f) thought such a thing agaynst the people of God? For the king doth speake this thing as one which is faultie, that he should not fetch home agayne his banyshed. 14 For we must nedes dye, and are as water spilt on the ground, which can not be gathered vp agayne: neither doth God spare any person, yet doth he appoynt (g) meanes that his banished be not vtterly expelled from him. 15 Nowe therefore I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lorde the king, (because) the people (h) haue made me afrayde: and thy handmayde saide, Now wyll I speake vnto the kyng, it may be that the king wyll performe the request of his handmayde. 16 And the kyng shall heare his handmayde to deliuer her out of the hand of the man that would haue destroyed me, and also my sonne out of the inheritaunce of God.

17 And thyne handmayde saide, The word of my lorde the king shall nowe be "comfortable: for my lorde the king is as an (i) angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee. 18 Then the kyng aunswered, and sayde vnto the woman, Hide not from me I pray thee the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman saide, Let my lorde the king nowe speake. 19 And the king saide, Is not the (k) hande of Ioab with thee in all this matter? The woman aunswered, and saide, As thy soule lyueth my lorde the kyng, I wyl not turne to the ryght hande nor to the left from ought that my lorde the king hath spoken: for euen thy seruaunt Ioab bad me, & he put all these wordes in the mouth of thyne handemayde: 20 For to the intent that I shoulde (l) chaunge the fourme of speache, hath thy seruaunt Ioab done this thing: and my lorde is wyse according to the wysdome of an angell of God, to vnderstande all thinges that are in the earth. 21 And the king saide vnto Ioab, Beholde I haue (m) done this thing: go, and bryng the young man Absalom agayne. 22 And Ioab fell to the grounde on his face, and bowed him selfe, & "thanked the king: and Ioab saide, Nowe thy seruaunt knoweth that I haue founde grace in thy sight my lorde O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his seruaunt. 23 And so Ioab arose, and went to Gesur, and brought Absalom to Hierusalem. 24 And the kyng said, Let him turne to his owne house, and not see my face. And so Absalom returned to his owne house, & sawe not the kinges face. 25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praysed as Absalom for beautie: from the sole of his foote, to the top of his head there was no blemish in him. 26 And when he polled his

2 And Absalom rose vp early, and stoode in the place of the entring in of the gate: and euery man that had any " matter and came to the kyng for iudgement, him dyd Absalom call vnto him, and sayde, Of what citie art thou? He aunswered, Thy seruaunt is of one of the (a) tribes of Jsrael.

3 And Absalom said vnto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man (deputed) of the king to heare thee. 4 Absalom sayde moreouer, Oh that I were made (b) iudge in the lande, that euery man which hath any plea and matter in the lawe might come to me, and that I might do him iustice? 5 And when any man came nye to him, & dyd hym obeysaunce, he put forth his hande, and toke him to him, and kissed him.

6 And on this maner dyd Absalom to all Jsrael that came to the king for iudgement: so Absalom (c) stale the hearres of the men of Jsrael. 7 And after (d) fourtie yeres Absalom sayde vnto the king, I pray thee let me go to Hebron, and pay my vowe whiche I haue vowed vnto the Lord. 8 For thy seruaunt vowed a vowe when I was in Gesur in Syria, saying, Jf the Lorde shall bryng me agayne in deede to Hierusalem, I (e) will serue the lord.

9 And the king sayde vnto him, Go in peace. And so he arose, and went to Hebron. 10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Jsrael, saying, Assoone as ye heare the voyce of the trumpet blowe, ye shall say, Absalom raigneth in Hebron. 11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Hierusalem that were (f) called, and they went with pure hearts, not knowyng of (g) any thing.

For * it was euen the Lordes determination to destroy the (c) good counsel of Achitophel, that the Lorde myght(d) bryng euyll vpon Absalom. 15 Then sayde Chusai vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the priestes, Of this & that maner dyd Achitophel and the elders of Israel counsel Absalom, and thus and thus haue I counselled. 16 Nowe therfore sende quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tary not this nyght in the feeldes of the wildernesse, but get thee (e) ouer, lest the king be deuoured, & al the people that are with him. 17 Now Jonathan & Ahimaaz abode by the well Rogel: (for they myght not be seene to come into the citie) & a wenche went and (f) tolde them: and they went, and shewed king Dauid. 18 Neuertheleſſe a lad sawe them, & tolde it to Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, which had a wel in his yarde, into the which they went downe. 19 And the wyfe toke and spread a couerlet ouer the welles mouth, & spread grounde corne theron: and the thyng was not spied. 20 And when Absaloms seruauntes came to the wyfe to the house, they sayd, Where is Ahimaaz & Jonathan? The woman aunswered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and could not finde them, they returned to Hierusalem. 21 And assoone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went & tolde king Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water, for (g) such counsell hath Achitophel geuen agaynst you. 22 Then Dauid arose, & all the people that were with him, and they were come ouer Jordane (h) by that it was day: so that there lacked not one of them that was not come ouer Jordane. 23 And when Achitophel sawe that his counsell was not folowed, he sadled his asse, & arose & gate him home to his owne house, and to his owne cittie, and put his houshold in order, and (i) hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buryed in the sepulchre of his father. 24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom passed ouer Jordane, he & all the men of Israel with him. 25 And Absalom made Amasa captayne of the hoast in stede of Joab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Jethra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of (k) Nahas, sister to Zaruia Joabs mother. 26 So Israel & Absalom pitched in the lande of Gilead.

¶ The. xix. Chapter.

7 Ioab encourageth the king. 8 Dauid is restored. 23 Semei is pardoned. 24 Miphiboseth meeteth the king. 39 Barzellai departeth. 41 Israel striueth with Iuda.

AND it was tolde Ioab, beholde the king weepeth, and mourneth for Absalom. 2 And the "victory of that day was turned into mourning vnto all the people: for the people hearde say that day howe the king sorowed for his sonne. 3 And the people went that day into the citie by stealth, as people confounded do conuey them selues when they flee in battel. 4 But the king (a) hid his face, and cryed with a loude voyce, O my sonne Absalom, O Absalom my sonne, my sonne. 5 And Ioab came into (b) the house to the king, & sayde, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruaunts, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, & of thy concubines, 6 In that thou louest thyne enemies, and hatest thy freendes: for thou hast declared this day that thou regardest neither thy "princes nor seruaunts: & this day I do perceaue that if Absalom had liued, and all we had dyed this day, that had "pleased thee well. 7 Nowe therfore vp, and come out, and speake "comfortably vnto thy seruaunts: for I sweare by the Lorde, except thou come out, there wyll not tary one man with thee this night, & that wyll be worse vnto thee then all the euyll that fell on thee from thy youth vnto this houre.

8 Then the king arose, and sate in the (c) gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Beholde the king doth sit in the gate: & all the people came before the king, for Israel had fled, euery man to his tent. 9 And all the people were at (d) strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saued vs out of the hande of our enemies, and he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philistines, and nowe he is fled out of the lande for Absalom: 10 But Absalom whom we annoynted ouer vs, is dead in battel: therfore why are ye so styll that ye bryng not the king agayne? 11 And king Dauid sent to (e) Sadoc and Abiathar the priestes, saying, Speake vnto the elders of Iuda, and say, Why are ye behynde to bring the king agayne to his house (seyng that such tydynges is come from all Israel vnto the king euen to his house?) 12 Ye are my brethren, my bones, and my flesche: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the king againe? 13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone & of my flesche? God do so to me & more also, yf thou be not captayne of the hoast to me for euer in the (f) roome of Ioab. 14 And he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iuda euen as the heart of one man, so that they sent (this worde) to the king, Returne thou with all thy seruaunts. 15 So the king returned, and came to Iordane: and Iuda came to Gilgal for to go to meete the king, and to conduct him ouer Iordane. 16 And (g) Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini which was of Bahurim hasted, and came downe with the men of Iuda to meete king Dauid. 17 And there were a thousande men of Beniamin with him, & Siba the seruaunt of the house of Saul & his fifteene sonnes and twentie seruauntes with him, and they went ouer Iordane before the king. 18 And there went ouer a boat to cary ouer the kinges houshold, and to do him pleasure: and Semei the sonne of Gera fell before the king as he was come ouer Iordane: 19 And sayde vnto the king, Let not my lorde impute wickednesse vnto me, nor remember the thynges that thy seruaunt dyd (h) wickedlye when my lorde the king departed out of Hierusalem, that the king woulde take it to his heart. 20 For thy seruaunt doth knowe howe that I haue done amisse: and therfore beholde I am the first this day of all the house of (i) Ioseph, that am come downe to

to meete my lorde the king. 21 But Abisai the sonne of Zaruia aunswered & sayd, Shall not Semei dye for this, because he cursed the Lordes annoynted? 22 And Dauid sayd, What haue I to do with you ye sonnes of Zaruia? For this day ye be aduersaries vnto me: shall there any man dye this day in Israel? Do not I knowe that I am this day king ouer Israel? 23 And therfore the king sayde vnto Semei, Thou shalt not dye: And the king ware vnto him. 24 And Miphiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the king, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his bearde, nor (m) washed his clothes from the tyme the king departed, vntyll he came agayne in peace. 25 And whē (n) he was come to Hierusalem & met the king, the king sayd vnto him, Wherfore wentest not thou with me Miphiboseth? 26 He aunswered, My lorde O king, my seruaunt deceaued me: for thy seruaunt said, I would haue myne asse sadled to ryde theron, for to go to the king: because thy seruaunt is lame. 27 And he hath accused thy seruaunt vnto my lorde the king, and my lorde the king is as an (o) angell of God: do therfore what seemeth (p) good in thine eies. 28 For all my fathers house were but (q) dead men before my lorde the king, and yet diddest thou put thy seruaunt among them that dyd eate at thine owne table: what right therfore haue I yet to crye any more vnto the king? 29 And the king sayd vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue sayde: thou and Ziba diuide the (r) landes betweene you. 30 And Miphiboseth sayd vnto the king, Yea let him take all, forsomuch as my lorde the king is come agayne in peace vnto his owne house. 31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and went ouer Iordane with the king, to conduct him ouer Iordane.

32 Barzellai was a very aged man, euen fourescore yeres olde, and prouided the king of sustenaunce whyle he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substaunce. 33 And the king sayd vnto Barzellai, Come ouer with me, and I wyll feede thee with me in Hierusalem. 34 And Barzellai sayde vnto the king, "Howe long haue I to liue, that I shoulde go vp with the king vnto Hierusalem?

35 I am this day fourescore yeres olde: and can I discerne betweene good or euyll? Hath thy seruaunt any taste in that he eateth or drynketh? Can he heare any more the voyce of singyng men and women? wherfore then should thy seruaunt be yet a burden vnto my lorde the king? 36 Thy seruaunt will go a litle way ouer Iordane with the king: and why wyll the king recompence it me with such a reward? 37 O let thy seruaunt turne backe agayne, that I may dye in mine owne citie, and (be buryed) in the graue of my father & of my mother: beholde here is thy seruaunt (f) Chimham, let him go with my lorde the king, and do to him what shall please thee.

38 And the king aunswered, Chimham shall go with me, and I wyll do to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoeuer thou shalt "requyre of me, that same wyll I do for thee. 39 And all the people went ouer Iordane: and when the king was come ouer Iordane, he kissed Barzellai, and "blessed him, and he went backe agayne vnto his owne place.

40 And then the king went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him: and all the people of Juda conducted the king, and also halfe the people (t) of Israel. 41 And behold all the men of Israel came to the king, and sayde vnto the king, Why haue our brethren the men of Juda (v) stolen thee away, and haue brought the king and his houshold and all Dauids men with him ouer Iordane? 42 And all the men of Juda aunswered the men of Israel, Because the king is neare of kinne to vs: wherfore be ye angry for this matter? Haue we eaten of the kinges cost? or haue we taken any bribes? 43 And the men of Israel aunswered the men of Juda, and sayd, We haue ten partes in the king, and haue therto more right to Dauid then ye: why then dyd ye despise vs, that our aduise shoulde not be first had in restoring our king? And the wordes of the men of Juda were fiercer then the wordes of the men of Israel.

and sayde, We haue no part in Dauid, neither haue we inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai: euery man to his tentes, O Israel. 2 And so euery man of Israel went from Dauid, and followed Seba the sonne of Bichri: but the men of Iuda claue fast vnto their king from Iordane to Hierusalem.

3 And Dauid came to his house to Hierusalem, and the kyng toke the ten women his concubines, that he had left behynde him to kepe the house, and put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: and so they were inclosed vnto the day of their death, lyuyng in wydowhead.

4 Then sayde the kyng to (b) Amasa, "Call the me of Iuda together within three dayes, and be thou here also.

5 And so Amasa went to gather the men of Iuda together, but tarryed longer then the tyme which he had appoynted him. 6 And Dauid sayde to Abisai, Nowe shal Seba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then dyd Absalom: take thou therefore thy lordes (c) seruauntes, and folowe after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape vs. 7 And there went out after him Ioabs men, & the Cerethites, & the Phelethites, and all the mightiest men: and they departed out of Hierusalem to folowe after Seba the sonne of Bichri. 8 And when they were at the great stone in Gibeon, Amasa "went before them: and Ioabs (d) garment that he had about him was girde vnto him, and he had girded thereon a swoorde, which was toyned fast to his loynes in a sheath, that as he went it fell somewhyne out.

9 And Ioab (e) sayde to Amasa, Art thou in "health my brother? And Ioab toke Amasa by the beard with the right hande to kysse him. 10 But Amasa toke no heede to the swoorde that was in Ioabs hande: for therewith he smote him in the fifth (ribbe) & shed out his bowels to the ground, and "thrust at him no more, and he dyed: so Ioab and Abisai his brother folowed after Seba the sonne of Bichri. 11 And one of Ioabs men stoode by him, and sayde, He that beareth any fauour to Ioab, or good wyll to Dauid, let him go after Ioab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middes of the way: and when the man sawe that all the people stoode styll, he remoued Amasa out of the way into the feelde, and cast a cloth vpon him, because he sawe that euery one that came by him stoode styll.

13 And alsoone as he was remoued out of the way, all the people went after Ioab, to folowe after Seba the sonne of Bichri. 14 And he went throwe all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, and to Bethmaacha, and all the places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went after him. 15 And they came and besieged him in Abel, neare to Bethmaacha: and they cast vp a banke agaynst the citie, and the people thereof stoode on the camper, and all the people that was with Ioab "thrust at the wall to ouerthrowe it. 16 Then cryed a wise woman out of the citie, heare, heare, I pray you say vnto Ioab, Come hyther that I may speake with thee. 17 When Ioab was come vnto her, the woman sayd, Art thou Ioab? He aunswered, I am he. She sayde vnto him, Heare the wordes of thyne handmayde. And he aunswered, I do heare. 18 Then she spake thus, (f) They spake in the olde tyme, saying, They shoulde aske of Abel: and so haue they continued.

19 I am (g) one of them that are peaceable and faithfull in Israel, and thou goest about to destroy a citie, and a mother in Israel: Why wylt thou deuour the inheritaunce of the Lord?

20 And Ioab aunswered, and sayde, God forbyd, God forbyd it me that I shoulde either deuour, or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim (Seba the sonne of Bichri by name) hath lyft vp his hande agaynst the kyng, euen agaynst Dauid: deliuer vs him only, and I wyll depart from the citie. And the woman sayd vnto Ioab, Beholde his head shalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall. 22 And then the woman went vnto all the people with her wisdome, and they smote of the head of Seba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it out to Ioab: and he blewe a trumpet, & they "retyred from the citie euery man to his tent: and Ioab returned to Hierusalem vnto the king. 23 Ioab was ouer all the hoast of Israel, & Banaia the sonne of Iehoida was ouer the Cerethites & Phelethites. 24 And Aduram was ouer the tribute, and Iosaphat the sonne of Ahilud was recorder. 25 Seua was scribe, and Dadoc and Abiathar were the priestes. 26 And Ira the Iairite was (g) cheefe about Dauid.

THen there was an hunger in the daies of Dauid three yeres "together: and Dauid "enquired of the Lorde. And the Lorde answered, It is for Saul, and the house of blood, because he slue the (a) Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and sayd vnto them, (nowe the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnaunt of the Amorites, and the children of Israel sware vnto them: and Saul sought to slay them, for a zeale that he had to the children of Israel and of Juda.)

3 Wherfore Dauid sayde vnto the Gibeonites, (b) What shall I do for you, and wherwith shall I make the attonement, that ye may bleese the inheritaunce of the Lorde? 4 The Gibeonites answered him, We will haue no siluer nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither is it our mynde that thou shouldest kyll (c) any man in Israel. He sayd, What you shall say, that will I do for you. 5 They answered the king, The man that consumed vs, & imagined to bring vs to naught, that we are destroyed from remaynyng in any of the coastes of Israel:

6 Let seuen men of his (d) sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and we will hang them vp (e) vnto the Lorde in Gibeah of Saul whom the Lorde dyd choose. And the king sayde, I will geue them you. 7 But the king had compassion on Miphiboseth the sonne of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, because of the Lordes oth that was betweene them, euen betweene Dauid & Jonathan the sonne of Saul. 8 But the king toke the two sonnes of Rispha the daughter of Aia whom she bare vnto Saul, euen Armoni and Miphiboseth, & the fiue sonnes of Michol the daughter of Saul, whom (f) she bare to Adriel the sonne of Barzellai the Meholathite: 9 And he deliuered them into the handes of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the hyll before the Lorde: and they "fell all seuen together, and were slayne in the dayes of harueſt, euen in the (g) first dayes, and in the begynnyng of barly harueſt. 10 And Rispha the daughter of Aia toke (h) sackcloth, and hanged it vp for her vpon the roche from the begynnyng of harueſt, vntyl (i) water dropped vpon them out of heauen, and suffred neither the birdes of the ayre to "lyght on them by day, nor beastes of the fielde by nyght.

11 And it was tolde Dauid what Rispha the daughter of Aia the concubine of Saul had done. 12 And Dauid went and toke the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his sonne from the citezins of Jabes in Gilead, which had stolen them from the streete of Bethsan where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slayne Saul in Gilboa: 13 And he brought thence the bones of Saul & the bones of Jonathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. 14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his sonne buryed they in the countrey of Benjamin in Zela, in the sepulchre of Cis his father: and when they had performed all that the king commaunded, God was then (k) at one with the lande. 15 Moreouer the Philistines had yet warre againe with Israel, and Dauid went downe and his seruauntes with him, and fought againſt the Philistines: and Dauid waxed faynt.

16 And Jesbi-benob one of the sonnes of the giauntes (the iron of whose speare waxed three hundred (l) sicles of brasse, and he beyng girded with a newe swoorde) thought to haue slayne Dauid. 17 But Abisai the sonne of Zarnia succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and kylled him. Then the seruauntes of Dauid sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with vs to battayle, that thou quenche not the (m) light of Israel. 18 And yet after this there was a battayle with the Philistines at (n) Gob: and then Sibbechai the Husathite slue (o) Saph, which was one of the sonnes of the giauntes. 19 And there was another battayle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the sonne of Jaere Oregim a Bethlehemite slue (p) Goliath the Gethite: the staffe of whose speare was as great as a weauers beame. 20 And there was yet another battayle in Geth, where was a man of a great stature, and had on euery hande sixe fingers, & on euery foote sixe toes, foure & twentie in number, and was borne also of the kinrede of the giauntes in Geth. 21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Simea the brother of Dauid slue him. 22 These foure foure were borne to the giaunt in Geth, and dyed by the hand of Dauid, and by the handes of his seruauntes.

AND Dauid spake the wordes of this (a) song vnto the Lorde, what tyme the Lord had deliuered him out of the hande of all his enemies, and out of the hande of Saul. 2 And he sayde, The Lorde is my rocke, and my castell, and my deliuerer. 3 God is my * strength, in him will I trust: he is my shielde, and the horne of my saluation, my hye towre, and my refuge, my sauiour, thou hast saued me from wrong. 4 I will call on the Lorde which is prayse worthy: and so shall I be saued from mine enemies.

5 For the pangues of death closed me about: the fluddes of * Belial put me in feare. 6 The sorowes of * hell compassed me about, the snares of death ouertoke me. 7 In my tribulation did I call vpon the Lorde, and crye to my God: and he dyd heare my voyce out of his temple, and my crye (did enter) into his eares. 8 The earth trembled and quaked, the foundations of heauen moued and shooke when he was angry. 9 (b) Smoke went out at his nosthyrls, and consumyng (c) fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled therat. 10 And he bowed (d) heauen and came downe: and there was darknesse vnder his feete. 11 And he rode vpon Cherub and did flee: he came fleyng vpon the wynges of the wynde. 12 He made darknesse a tabernacle rounde about him: with waters gathered together in thicke cloudes. 13 Through the brightnesse of his presence were (e) the coles of fire kindled. 14 The Lorde thundred from heauen, and he that is most hye gaue his voyce.

15 He shot arrowes, and scattered them: (to wit) lightnyng, and ouerthewe them. 16 The chanels of the sea appeared, and the foundations of the worlde were seene by the reason of the rebukyng of the Lorde, and through the blastyng of the breath of his nosthyrls. 17 He sent from aboue and toke me: he drue me out of many waters. 18 He deliuered me from my mightie enemie, and from them that hated me: for they were to strong for me. 19 When they had (f) preuented me in the day of my calamitie, the Lord stayed me vp. 20 For he brought me out into a large place: he deliuered me, because he had a fauour vnto me. 21 The Lorde rewarded me according vnto my (g) righteousnesse, according to the pureneſſe of my handes he recompenced me.

22 For I haue kept the wayes of the Lorde, and did not wickedly agaynst my God. 23 For all his lawes were in my syght, and from his statutes I dyd not depart. 24 In his syght also haue I ben vpryght, and haue kept me from myne owne iniquitie. 25 And the Lorde dyd to me agayne according to my righteousnesse, euen after my pureneſſe in his eye sight. 26 With the godly thou shalt be godly, and with the man that is vpryght thou shalt be vpryght.

27 With the pure thou shalt be pure: and with the froward thou wilt shewe thy selfe (h) frowarde. 28 And the poore people thou wylt saue: but thyne eyes are vpon the proude to bryng them downe. 29 For thou art my syght O Lorde, and the Lorde shall syght my darknesse. 30 For by thee I shall breake through an hoast of men, and by my God will I spring ouer a wall. 31 God is vncorrupt in his way, the worde of the Lorde is tryed in the fire: he is a shielde to all them that trust in him. 32 For who is a God saue the Lorde? and who is mightie saue our God? 33 God strengtheneth me in battayle, and maketh the way cleare before me. 34 He maketh my feete like (i) hyndes feete, and setteth me vpon my hye places.

35 He teacheth my handes to fyght, that euen a bowe of steele is broken with mine armes. 36 Thou hast geuen me the shielde of thy saluation, & with thy louyng meekenes thou doest multiplie me. 37 Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me, and my legges shall not fayle me. 38 I haue folowed vpon myne enemies and destroyed them, and turned not agayne, vntyll I had consumed them. 39 I haue wasted them & wounded them, that they shal not be able to arise: yea they shal fal vnder my feete. 40 Thou hast girded me about with myght to battayle, and them that arose agaynst me hast thou subdued vnder me.

41 And thou hast geuen me the neckes of myne enemies: that I myght destroy them that hate me.

2.Chr.29.f

13 And Adonia the sonne of Haggith came to Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, and she sayde, Commest thou peaceably? And he sayde, Peaceably. 14 He sayde moreouer, I haue somwhat to say vnto thee. She sayd, Say on. 15 And he sayd, Thou knowest that the kingdome was myne, and that al Israel (c) set their faces on me, that I shoulde raigne: howbeit the kingdom is turned away, and geuen to my brother: for it is appoynted hym of the Lorde.

16 And nowe I aske a petition of thee, deny me not. And she sayde vnto hym, Say on. 17 And he sayde, Speake I pray thee vnto Solomon the king (for he will not say thee nay) that he geue me Abisag the Sunamite to wyfe. 18 And Bethsabe sayde, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the king. 19 Bethsabe therfore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonia: and the king rose vp to meete her, and bowed him selfe vnto her, & sate him downe on his seate, & there was a seate set for the kinges mother, and she sate on his right syde. 20 Then she sayde, I desire a little petition of thee, I pray thee say me not nay. And the king sayd vnto her, Aske on my mother, for I will not say thee nay. 21 She sayde, Let Abisag the Sunamite be geuen to Adonia thy brother to wyfe. 22 And king Solomon aunswered and sayde vnto his mother, Why doest thou aske Abisag the Sunamite for Adonia? (b) aske for hym the kyngdome also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for hym Abiathar the priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zaruia. 23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lorde, saying, God do so & so to me, if Adonia haue not spoken this worde against his owne lyfe. 24 Now therefore as the Lorde lyueth whiche hath ordeyned me, and set me on the seate of Dauid my father, and made me an house as he promised, Adonia shal dye this day. 25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, and he smote him that he died. 26 And vnto Abiathar the priest saide the king, Get thee to Anatoth vnto thyne owne feeldes, for thou art worthy of death: but I wyll not at this tyme kyll thee, because thou barest the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffred with my father in all his afflictions. 27 (e) And so Solomon put away Abiathar from beyng priest vnto the Lorde: that he might fulfill the wordes of the Lorde, whiche he spake ouer the house of Eli in Silo.

28 Then tidinges came also to Ioab (for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though he turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter. 29 And it was tolde king Solomon how that Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and behold he is by the aulter: Then Solomon sent Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, saying, Go and fall vpon hym. 30 And Banaia came to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and sayde vnto hym, Thus saith the king, Come out. And he saide, Nay, but I wyl dye euen here. And Banaia brought the king word againe, saying, Thus sayde Ioab, and thus he aunswered me. 31 And the king said vnto hym, (d) Do euen as he hath sayd, smyte hym, and bury hym: that thou mayest take away the blood whiche Ioab shed causeles, from me and from the house of my father. 32 And the Lorde shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two men more righteous and better then he, and slue them with the sworde, my father Dauid not knowing therof, euen

35 And the kyng put Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada in his roome ouer the hoast, and put (g) Sadoc the priest in the roome of Abiathar. 36 And the king sent, and called Semei, and sayd vnto him, Buylde thee an house in Hierusalem, and dwell there, and see that thou go not foorth thence anye whyther. 37 For be thou sure that the day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the ryuer of Cedron, thou shalt dye that day, and thy blood shalbe vpon thyne owne head. 38 And Semei saide vnto the kyng, This saying is good: as my lorde the kyng hath sayde, so wyll thy seruaunt do. And Semei dwelt in Hierusalem many a day. 39 And after three yeres, two of the seruauntes of Semei ran away vnto Achis sonne of Maacha kyng of Geth: and they told Semei, saying, Beholde thy seruauntes be in Geth. 40 (h) And Semei stoode vp, and sadled his asse, and gate hym to Geth to Achis to seeke his seruauntes: and Semei went, and brought his seruauntes agayne from Geth.
G 41 And it was tolde Solomon howe that Semei had gone from Hierusalem to Geth, and was come agayne.
42 And the kyng sent, and called Semei, and sayde vnto hym, Dyd I not charge thee by the Lord with an oth, & testifie vnto thee, saying, Be sure, that whensoeuer thou goest out, & walkest abrode any whyther, thou shalt dye the death? And thou saydest vnto me, It is good tidinges that I haue hearde. 43 Why then hast thou not kept the oth of the Lord, and the commaundement that I charged thee withall? 44 The kyng sayde moreouer to Semei, Thou remembrest all the wickednesse whiche thyne heart knoweth, and that thou diddest to Dauid my father: the Lorde also shall bryng thy wickednesse vpon thyne owne head: 45 And kyng Solomon shalbe blessed, and the seate of Dauid stablished before the Lorde for euer.
46 So the kyng commaunded Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada: whiche went out, and smote him that he died: and the kyngdome was stablished in the hand of Solomon.

SOlomon made affinitie with Pharao kyng of Egypt, and tooke Pharaos daughter, and brought her into the (a) citie of Dauid, vntyll he had made an ende of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lorde, and the wall of Hierusalem round about.

4 And the kyng went to Gibeon to offer there, for that was the speciall hygh place: and a thousande whole burnt offringes dyd Solomon offer vpon that aulter. 5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by nyght, and God saide, Aske what (thou wilt) that I may geue it thee. 6 And Solomon sayde, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruaunt Dauid my father great mercy, when he walked before thee in truetly, in righteousnesse, and in playneness of heart with thee, & thou hast kept for hym this great mercy, that thou hast geuen hym a sonne to sit on his seate, as it is come to passe this day. 7 And nowe O Lord my God, it is thou that hast made thy seruaunt king in steade of Dauid my father: and I am but young, and (c) wote not how to go out and in. 8 And thy seruaunt is in the middest of thy people whiche thou hast chosen, and verily the people are so many that they can not be told nor numbred for multitude. 9 (d) Geue therefore thy seruaunt an vnderstanding heart to iudge thy people, that I may discerne betweene good and bad: for who is able to iudge this thy so mightie a people? 10 And this pleased the Lord well that Solomon had desired this thing. 11 And God sayde

The. vi. Chapter.

2. Chro. 3. 8. * Aprill. Act. 7. f.

AND in the foure hundred & foure score yere after the children of Israel were come out of the lande of Egypt, and in the fourth yere of the raigne of Solomon vpon Israel, and in the moneth * Zif, which is the seconde moneth, he began to builde the house of the Lorde. 2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lorde, was threescore cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hye. 3 And he made a porche before the temple of the house, which was twentie cubites long after the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broade in the fore-front of the house. 4 And in the house he made * windowes broad (without) and narow (within.) 5 And by the wall of the house he made chambers rounde about, in the walles of the house round about the temple and the quier: and he made chambers rounde about.

6 The neathermost chamber was fiue cubites broade, and the middle was sixe cubites broade, and the third was seuen cubites broade: for without in the wall of the house he made restes rounde about, that (the beames of the chambers) shoulde not be fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And the house was built of stone, made perfect alredye before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe, either any toole of iron heard in the house while it was in buyldyng. 8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and men went by with windyng stayres into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the thirde. 9 And so he built the house, and finished it: and seeled the house beyng vaued with seelyng of Cedar trees. 10 And then he buylt chambers to all the temple fiue cubites hye: and they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar. 11 And the worde of the Lorde came to Solomon, saying, 12 Concerning the house whiche thou art in building, yf thou wylt walke in mine ordinaunces, and execute my lawes, and kepe all my commaundements to walke in them: then will I make good vnto thee my promise which I promised Dauid thy father; 13 And I wyll dwell among the children of Israel, and wyl not forsake my people Israel. 14 Solomon therefore built the house, and finished it. 15 And seeled the walles of the house within with boordes of Cedar tree: euen from the pauement of the house vnto the roofe did he seele the walles of it within with Cedar tree, & boorded the flooze of the house with planckes of firre. 16 And he builded twentie cubites in the sides of the quier of the temple both flooze and walles with boordes of Cedar, and dressed it within the secret place of the temple, euen in the most holy place.

17 But the house that is the temple before before it, was fourtie cubites (long.)

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carued with knoppes, and grauen with flowres: and all was Cedar timber, so that no stone was seene.
19 And the quier that was within the temple he prepared, to set there the arke of the appoyntment of the Lord.
20 And the quier * before was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in height: and he couered it with pure golde, and boorded the aulter with Cedar. 21 So Solomon couered the house within with pure golde: and he made golden barres runne along the quier which he had couered with gold.
22 And the whole house he ouerlaide with golde vntyll he had ended it: also all the aulter that was before the quier he ouerlayde with golde. 23 And within the quier he made two cherubims of * Olive tree ten cubites hye.
24 Fiue cubites long was a wyng of the one Cherub, and fiue cubites long was a wyng of the other Cherub: so that from the vttermost part of one wyng, vnto the vttermost part of the other were ten cubites. 25 And the other Cherub was ten cubites hie also: so that both the Cherubims were of one measure, & one size: 26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was it of the other.
27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner house: and the Cherubims stretched out their winges, so that the one wing of the one touched the one wall, and the one wing of the other touched the other wall: and the other two wings of them touched one another in the middest of the house.
28 And he ouerlayde the Cherubims with golde. 29 And in the walles of the house rounde about he made figures of carued and seeled worke: (as namely) pictures of Cherubims, and paulme trees, and grauen flowres within and without. 30 And the floore of the house he couered with golde within and without. 31 And in the entring of the quier he made two doores of Olive tree: and both the vpper and two side postes were fyue square. 32 The two doores also were of olive tree, and he graued them with grauing of Cherubims and paulme trees and grauen flowres, and couered them with golde, and layde thinne plates of golde vpon the Cherubims and paulme trees. 33 And so made he for the doore of the temple postes of olive tree foure square. 34 The two doores were of firre tree, and either doore with foulding leaues.
35 And he graued thereon Cherubims, paulme trees, & carued flowres: and couered the carued worke with golde finely wrought. 36 And he built the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, & one rowe of Cedar wood.
37 In the fourth yere was the foundation of the house of the Lord layde, in the moneth * Zif. 38 And in the eleuenth yere in the moneth * Bul (which is the eyght moneth) was the house full finished throughout all the parties thereof, according to all the fashion of it: And so was he seuen yeres in buyldyng it.

The. vii Chapter.

BVt Solomon was buyldyng his owne house thirteene yeres, and finished it all. 2 And he buylt the house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fifty cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hye: and it stoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pyllers, and Cedar beames were layde vpon the pyllers. 3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vppon the beames that lay on the pyllers, euen fiue and fourtie beames, fifteene in a rowe. 4 And there were wyndowes in three rowes, and the wyndowes were one against another three folde.
5 And all the doores with the syde postes and the vpper postes were foure square, and had windowes one against another three fold. 6 And he made a porche by the pyllers (that bare vp the house) fifty cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade, and the porche was before those and the other pyllers: for there was a thicke tree set before them. 7 Then he made a porch to sit and iudge in, euen a porche of iudgment, seeled with Cedar throughout all the pauementes. 8 And his house wherin he dwelt had an other hall, more inwarde then the porche, of like worke: and then Solomon made an house for Pharaos daughter (whom he had taken to wife) like vnto the fashion of the porche. 9 And all these were of the, best stones, hewed after a measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation tion vnto the(a) beames that lay aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the out syde towarde the great court.

10 And the foundation was layd vpon riche stones, and that very great stones, wherof some were ten cubites, and some eyght cubites. 11 And aboue were rich stones, squared after a certaine rule, and couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court rounde about was with three rowes of hewed stones, & one rowe of Cedar plankes, after the maner of the inner court of the house of the Lorde and of the porch of the temple. 13 And king Solomon sent and fet one Hiram out of Tyre, 14 A widowes sonne of the tribe of Nephthali, his father being a man of Tyre: Which Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, full of wisdome, vnderstanding, and cunning, to worke all maner of worke in brasse: and he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his worke. 15 For he cast two pillers of brasse of eyghteene cubites hie a peece: & a string of twelue cubits dyd compasse either of them about.

16 And he made two pommelles of moulten brasse, (after the fashion of a crowne,) to set on the toppes of the pillers: the height of the one head peece conteyned fiue cubites, and the height of the other head peece conteined fiue cubites also. 17 He made networke, and wrythen worke lyke chaynes for the pommelles vpon the head peeces that were on the toppe of the pillers: euen seuen(rowes) vpon the one head peece, & seuen vpon the other.

18 And so he made the pillers, & two rowes of pomegranates round about in the one networke to couer the pommels that were vpon the top: and this he dyd also for the other head peece.

19 And the pommels that were vpon the top of the pillers, were after lillie worke in the porche, foure cubites.

20 And the pommels vpon the two pillers had also aboue ouer against the middest within the networke (pomgranates) and vpon the second head peece were there two hundred pomgranates in(two)rowes round about. 21 And he set vp the pillers in the porch of the temple: and when he had set vp the right piller, he called the name thereof Jachin: & when he had set vp the left piller, he called the name thereof Boaz. 22 And vpon the top of the pillers (were) lillie worke: and so was the worke of the pillers finished.

23 And he made a moulten lauatorie ten cubites wyde from brym to brym, round in compasse, & fiue cubites hye; and a string of thirtie cubites did compasse it about. 24 And vnder the brim of it there were knoppes round about, ten in one cubite, and they compassed the lauatorie round about: and the knoppes were cast with it in two rowes when it was cast. 25 And it stoode on twelue oxen, of which three loked toward the north, three toward the west, three toward the south, and three toward the east: & the lauatorie stoode vpon them, and al their hynder partes were inwarde. 26 It was an hande breadth thicke, and the brym was wrought lyke the brym of a cup with flowres of lillies, & it conteyned two thousand(b) batres. 27 And he made ten feete of brasse: foure cubites long, and foure cubites broad a peece, and three cubites hie. 28 And the worke of the feete was on this maner, They had sides, & the sides were betweene the ledges. 29 And on the sides that were betweene the ledges, were lions, oxen, and cherubins: and likewise vpon the ledges that were aboue: and beneath the lions and oxen, were certaine additions made of thin worke. 30 And vnder euery foote were foure brasen wheeles, & boordes of brasse: and in the foure corners thereof vnder the lauatorie, were vndersetters moulten at the side of euery addition. 31 And the stalke of the lauatorie was in the middle of it, and aboue one cubite: but the stalke thereof was rounde after the worke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: & also vpon the stalke were granynges with their bandes, foure square and not rounde.

32 And vnder the sides were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned fast to the bottome, and the height of euery wheele was a cubite and an halfe. 33 And the workmanship of the wheeles was like the worke of a charet wheele: & their axeltrees, their naules, spokes, and shaftes, were al moulten.

34 And there were foure vndersetters in the foure corners of one foote, & the vndersetters were of the very bottome selfe. 35 And in the height of the bottome was there a rounde compasse of halfe a cubite hie: & in that height of the bottome there proceeded both ledges and sydes out of the same

37 Thus made he the ten feete after this maner: and they had all one fashion of castyng, one measure, and one syse. 38 Then made he ten lauers of brasse, one lauer containyng fourtie battes: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten feete he put one lauer. 39 And he put fiue of those feete on the ryght syde of the house, & other fiue on the lefte: and he set the lauatorie on the ryght side of the house eastwarde, and toward the south. 40 And Hiram made pots, shouels, and basons: and so finished all the worke that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lorde:

45 And pottes, shouels, and basons: and all these vessels which Hiram made to kyng Solomon for the house of the Lorde, were of bright brasse.

And he called them the lande of "barren vnto this day. 14 And Hiram sent the king fyue score talentes of golde. 15 (And this is the summe whiche king Solomon raysed for a tribute when he buylded the house of the Lorde, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Hierusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gazer. 16 For Pharao king of Egypt went vp, and tooke Gazer and burnt it with fire, and slue the Chanaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter, Solomons wyfe. 17 And Solomon built Gazer and Bethhoron the neather. 18 And Baalath and Thamor in the wildernesse in the lande, 19 And all the treasure cities that Solomon had, and cities for his charettes, and cities for his horsmen, and al that Solomon desired, & would buylde in Hierusalem, in Libanon, and in all the lande of his dominion.)

gold. 19 And the seate had sixe steps, and the top of the seate was rounde behinde, and there were pommels on either side on the place of the seate, and two lions stoode beside the pommels. 20 And there stoode twelue lions on the steppes, sixe on a side: there was none lyke vnto it in any kingdome. 21 And all kyng Solomons drinking vessels were of golde, and lykewyse all the vessels of the house of the wood of Libanon were of pure golde: and as for siluer, it was nothing woorth in the dayes of Solomon: 22 For the kinges nauie of shippes went on the sea vnto Tharsis, with the nauie of Hirams shippes: euen once in three yeres went the nauie to Tharsis, & brought golde and siluer, Elephantes teeth, apes, and peacockes. 23 And so king Solomon exceeded all the kinges of the earth both in riches and wisdome. 24 And all the worlde resorted to Solomon, to heare his wysdome which God had put in his heart. 25 And brought him euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, and sweete odours, and horses, and mules, yere by yere.

26 And Solomon gathered together charets and horsemen. And he had a thousand & foure hundred charettes, and twelue thousande horsmen, whom he bestowed in the charette cities, and with the king at Hierusalem. 27 And the king made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar as plenteous as the wilde figge trees that growe aboundauntly in the feeldes. 28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kinges marchaūtes receaued the linnen for a price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt for sixe hundred sicles of siluer, that is, one horse for an hundred and fifty: and euen so for all the kinges of the Hethites, & for the kinges of Syria, dyd they bring them out through their handes.

The .xi. Chapter.

BVT king Solomon loued many outlandyshe women, & the daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonites, and Hethites: 2 Where as yet concernyng these nations the Lorde saide vnto the children of Israel, Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you, els wyll they turne your hearts after their gods: neuertheles Solomon claue vnto them in loue. 3 (a) And he had seuen hundred wyues (that were) queenes, and three hundred concubines: and his wyues turned away his heart. 4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wyues turned his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father. 5 For Solomon folowed Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Melcom the abhomination of the Ammonites. 6 And Solomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and folowed not the Lorde perfectly, as dyd Dauid his father. 7 For then dyd Solomon buylde an hye place for Chamos the abhomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Hierusalem, and vnto Moloch the abhomination of the children of Ammon. 8 (b) And lykewyse dyd he for all his outlandyshe wyues, which burnt incense, and offered vnto their gods. 9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the Lorde God of Israel, which had appeared vnto him twyse, 10 And gaue him a charge concernyng this thing, that he shoulde not folowe other gods: but he kept not that which the Lord commaunded him. 11 Wherfore the Lord saide vnto Solomon, For asmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept myne appoyntment, and my statutes whiche I commaunded thee, I wyll rent the kyngdome from thee, and wyll geue it to thy seruaunt.

12 Notwithstandyng in thy dayes I wyll not do it, because of Dauid thy father: but wyll take it from the hand of thy sonne. 13 Howbeit I wyl not take away all the kingdome: but wyll geue one (c) tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruaunt, and because of Hierusalem whiche I haue chosen.

14 And the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kinges seede, whiche was in Edom. 15 For when Dauid was in Edom, and Joab the captayne of the hoast was gone vp to burie them that were slaine, he smote all the men children in Edom: 16 (For sixe monethes dyd Joab remayne there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed al the men children of Edom.)

17 And this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruauntes with him, to come into Egypt: Hadad beyng yet a litle childe. 18 And they arose out of Madian, and came to Paran, & toke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharao king of Egypt, whiche gaue him an house, and appoynted him victailes, and gaue hym lande. 19 And Hadad gat great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue hym to wyfe the sister of his owne wyfe, euen the sister of Thahpenes the queene. 20 And the sister of Thahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whom Thahpenes nourished in Pharaos house: and Genubath was with Pharaos houshold among the sonnes of Pharao. 21 And when Hadad hearde in Egypt that Dauid was layde to sleepe with his fathers, and that Joab the captayne of the hoast was dead also, he sayde to Pharao, Let me depart, that I may go to myne owne countrey. 22 Pharao said vnto him, What hast thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thyne owne countrey? He answered, Nothing: howbeit, let me go.

23 And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, one Rezon the sonne of Eliada, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zoba: 24 And he gathered men vnto him, & became captayne ouer the companie when Dauid slue them: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and raigned in Damascus. 25 Therefore was he an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Solomon, and this was the mischiefe, in that Hadad dyd abhorre Israel and raigned ouer Syria. 26 And Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite of Zareda (whose mother was called Zeruah, which was a widowe) and he Solomons seruaunt, lyft vp his hande agaynst the kyng.

27 But this was the cause that he lyft vp his hande agaynst the kyng, Solomon buylt Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father. 28 And this felowe Jeroboam was a man of strength and courage: and Solomon sawe the young man that he was able to do the worke, he made him ruler ouer all the charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And at that season Jeroboam went out of Hierusalem, and the prophete Ahia the Silonite met him by the way, hauing a newe mantell on him, and they two were alone in the feelde. 30 Ahia caught the new mantell that was on him, and rent it in twelue peeces, 31 And saide to Jeroboam, Take thee ten peeces: for thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Beholde I wyll rent the kyngdome out of the handes of Solomon, and wyll geue ten tribes to thee. 32 And he shall haue one for my seruaunt Dauids sake, and for Hierusalem the citie which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel: 33 Because they haue forsaken me, & haue worshipped Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Chamos the god of the Moabites, & Milcom the god of the chyldren of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, my statutes, and my lawes, as dyd Dauid his father. 34 I wyll not take the whole kingdome out of his hande: but I wyll make him chiefe all his lyfe long, for Dauid my seruauntes sake whom I chose: because he kept my commaundementes and my statutes: 35 But I wyll take the kingdome out of his sonnes hande, and wyl geue it vnto thee, euen ten tribes of it: 36 And vnto his sonne wyll I geue one tribe, that Dauid my seruaunt may haue a lyght alway before me in Hierusalem the citie whiche I haue chose me to put my name there.

37 And I wyll take thee, and thou shalt raigne accordyng to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be kyng ouer Israel. 38 And yf thou hearken vnto all that I commaunde thee, & wylt walke in my wayes, and do that is ryght in my sight, that thou kepe my statutes and my commaundementes, as Dauid my seruaunt dyd, then wyll I be with thee, and buylde thee a sure house, as I buylt for my seruaunt Dauid, and wyll geue Israel vnto thee:

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Sisac king of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt vntyll the death of Solomon.

41 The rest of the workes that concerne Solomon, and all that he dyd, and his wysdome, are they not written in the booke of the workes of Solomon? 42 The time that Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon all Israel, was

And the people departed.

6 And king Roboam toke counsell with the olde men that stoode before Solomon his father, whyle he yet lyued, and sayde, What counsell geue ye, that I may aunswere this people?

(a) Graue & wyse counsell.

7 And they saide vnto him, (a) If thou be a seruaunt vnto this people this day, & folowe their mindes, and aunB swere them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruauntes for euer. 8 But he forsoke the counsell that the olde men had geuen him, and called vnto his counsell young men that were growen vp with him, and wayted on him: 9 And he sayde vnto them, What counsel geue ye, that we may aunswere this people? for they haue communed with me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father dyd put vpon vs, lighter.

15 And the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinaunce of God, that he might perfourme his saying which the Lord spake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Ieroboā the sonne of Nabat. 16 And so when all Israel sawe that the king regarded them not, the people aunswered the kyng with these wordes, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? we haue no inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai: to your tentes O Israel, nowe see to thyne owne house Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tentes. 2.Sam.xx.a 1.Chro.x.b

20 And when al Israel heard that Ieroboam was come agayne, they sent, & called him vnto the multitude, and made him king ouer all Israel, & there was no tribe that folowed the house of Dauid but Iuda onlye. 21 And when Roboam was come to Hierusalem, he gathered al the house of Iuda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and fourescore thousande of chosen men whiche were good warriours, to fight agaynst the house of Israel, & to bring the kingdome agayne to Roboam the sonne of Solomon. And the man of God besought the Lorde, and the kinges hand was restored againe, and became as it was before. 7 And the king sayd vnto the man of god, Come home with me, that thou mayst dyne, and I wyl geue thee a reward. 8 And the man of God saide vnto the king, If thou wouldest gene me halfe thyne house, I wyll not go in with thee, neither wyll I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place: 9 For so was it charged me through the worde of the Lord, saying, Eate no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne agayne by the same way that thou camest. 10 And so he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

And his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went whiche came from Iuda. 13 And he saide vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. Whiche when they had sadled, he gat him vp thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and founde him sitting vnder an oke, and he sayde vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Iuda? And he sayde, I am.

15 He sayde vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread. 16 He answered, I may not returne with thee, to go in with thee: neither wyll I eate bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place. 17 For it was sayde to me in the worde of the Lord, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there.

28 And he went, and found his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lion stoode by the corse, and the lion had not eaten the carcasse, nor hurt the asse. 29 And the prophete tooke vp the body of the man of God, and layde it vpon the asse, & brought it agayne: and the olde prophete came to the citie to lamente, & to burie him. 30 And he layde his body in his owne graue, and they lamented ouer him, (saying,) Alas my brother. 31 And when he had buryed him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, see that ye burie me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buryed: lay my bones beside his bones.

daughter of (a) Abisalom. 3 And he walked in all the sinnes of his father whiche he had done before him, and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as the heart of Dauid his father. 4 Neuertheleſſe for Dauids sake dyd the Lorde his God gene him (b) a lyght in Hierusalem, that he ſet vp his ſonne after him, & ſtablished Hierusalem: 5 Because Dauid dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commaunded him all the dayes of his lyfe, ſaue onlye in the matter of Vrias the Hethite.

6 And there was warre betweene Roboam & Jeroboam as long as he lyued. 7 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Abiam, and all that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Juda? And there was warre betweene Abiam and Jeroboam. 8 And Abiam ſlept with his fathers, & they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: and Asa his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

9 In the twentith yere of Jeroboam kyng of Iſrael raigned Asa ouer Juda. 10 Fourtie and one yeres raigned he in Hierusalem: and his (c) mothers name was Maacha the daughter of Abiſalom. 11 And Asa dyd ryght in the eyes of the Lorde, as dyd Dauid his father. 12 And he toke away the male ſtewes out of the lande, and put away all the abhominable idols that his fathers had made.

13 (d) And he put downe Maacha his mother from bearyng rule, becauſe ſhe had made an idoll in a groue, and Asa deſtroyed her idoll, and burnt it by the brooke Cedron. 14 But the hye places were not put (e) downe: neuertheleſſe Asa his heart was perfect with the Lorde all his dayes. 15 He brought in the holy veſſels of his father, and that he had dedicate vnto the houſe of the Lorde, golde, and ſiluer, and iewels. 16 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa kyng of Iſrael all their dayes. 17 And Baasa kyng of Iſrael went vp agaynſt Juda, and buylt Rama, ſo that he wouldе let none go out or in to Asa kyng of Juda. 18 Then Asa toke all the ſiluer and golde that was left in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kinges houſe, and deliuered them vnto the handes of his ſeruauntes, and kyng Asa ſent them to Benhadad the ſonne of Tabrimon the ſonne of Hezion kyng of Syria that dwelt at Damaſcus, ſaying, 19 There is a bonde betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thy father: and beholde I haue ſent vnto thee a preſent of ſiluer & golde, that thou come and breake thy bonde that thou haſt with Baaſa kyng of Iſraal, that he may depart from me.

20 So Benhadad hearkened vnto kyng Asa, and ſent the captaynes of the hoaſtes which he had agaynſt the cities of Iſrael, and ſmote Hion, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maacah, and all (the region of) Cenereth with all the lande of Nephthalt. 21 And when Baaſa heard thereof, he left buyldyng of Rama, and dwelt in Thirza.

22 Then kyng Asa * made a proclamation throughout al Juda, that none ſhoulde be excuſed: and ſo they toke the ſtones of Rama and the timber wherewith Baaſa had builded, and kyng Asa built with them the hyll of Beniamin, and Miſpah. 23 The remnaunt of all the wordes that concerne Asa, and all his might, and all that he dyd, and the cities whiche he buylded, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Juda? Neuertheleſſe in his olde age he was diſeaſed in his feete.

24 And Asa ſlept with his fathers, and was buried beſide his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Joſaphat his ſonne raigned in his ſteade. 25 And Nadab the ſonne of Jeroboam began to raigne vpon Iſrael the ſeconde yere of Asa kyng of Juda, and raigned vpon Iſrael two yeres. 26 And he dyd euyll in the ſight of the Lorde, walkyng in the way of his father, and in his ſinne wherewith he made Iſrael ſinne.

27 And Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia whiche was of the houſe of Iſſachar conſpired agaynſt him, and Baaſa ſmote him at Gibbethon, whiche is a citie of the Philiſtines (for Nadab and all Iſrael layed ſiege to Gibbethon.) 28 Euen in the third yere of Asa kyng of Juda, dyd Baaſa ſlaye hym, and raygned in his ſteade.

29 And when he was kyng, he ſmote al the houſe of Jeroboam, & he left him naught that breathed, vntyll he had put him cleane out, accordyng vnto the ſaying of the Lord which he ſpake by his ſeruaunt Ahia the Selonite:

32 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa king of Israel all their dayes. 33 So in the thirde yere of Asa kyng of Juda began Baasa the sonne of Ahia to raigne ouer all Israel in Thirza, twentie and foure yeres.

1 Of Baasa. 6 Ela. 9 Zimri. 16 Amri. 21 Achab maryeth Iezebel. 34 Iericho is buylt agayne.

THen the worde of the Lorde came to Jehu the sonne of Hanani agaynst Baasa, saying, 2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captayne ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to anger me with their sinnes: 3 Beholde I wyll roote out the posteritie of Baasa, and the posteritie of his house: and wyll make thy house lyke the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat. 4 That man of Baasa whiche dyeth in the citie, him shall the dogges eate: & that man of * him whiche dyeth in the feeldes, shall the fowles of the ayre eate. 5 The rest of the wordes that concerne Baasa, and what he dyd, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Israel? 6 And so Baasa slept with his fathers, and was buried in Thirza, and Ela his sonne raigned in his steade. 7 And by the hande of the prophete Jehu the sonne of Hanani came the worde of the Lorde agaynst Baasa, and agaynst his house, and agaynst all the wickednesse that he dyd in the sight of the Lord, in angryng him with the worke of his owne handes, that he should be lyke the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed(a) him. 8 The twentie and sixth yere of Asa kyng of Juda, began Ela the sonne of Baasa to raigne ouer Israel in Thirza two yeres. 9 And his seruaunt Zimri (whiche was captayne of halfe his charets) conspired agaynst him as he was in Thirza drynkyng, and was dronken in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Thirza. 10 And Zimri came, and smote him, & killed him in the twentie and seuenth yere of Asa king of Juda, and raigned in his steade.

11 And when he was kyng, and sate on his seate, he slue all the house of Baasa, not leauing thereof one to pisse agaynst a wall: yea, he slue his kinsefolkes and freendes also.

12 And thus dyd Zimri destroy all the house of Baasa, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde which he spake agaynst Baasa by the hande of Jehu the prophete, 13 For all the sinnes of Baasa and sinnes of Ela his sonne, which they sinned, and made Israel to sinne, and anger the Lorde God of Israel with their vanities. 14 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ela and all that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Israel? 15 In the twentie and seuenth yere of Asa king of Juda dyd Zimri raigne seuen dayes in Thirza: and the people was then in the hoast besieging Gibbethon, a citie of the Philistines. 16 And the people in the hoast heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and slayne the king: Wherefore all they of Israel made Amri the captayne of the hoast king ouer Israel that same day, euen in the hoast.

17 And Amri departed by from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Thirza. 18 And when Zimri sawe that the citie must needes be taken, he went into the palace of the kinges house, (b) and * burnt him selfe and the kynges house with fyre, & so dyed 19 For his sinnes whiche he sinned, in doyng that which is euyll in the sight of the Lord, & in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sinnes whiche he dyd, and in that he made Israel to sinne. 20 The rest of the wordes that concerne Zimri, & the treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kynges of Israel? 21 Then were the people of Israel diuided into two partes: for halfe the people folowed Thibni the sonne of Ginath, making hym kyng: and the other halfe folowed Amri. 22 But the people that folowed Amri, preuayled agaynst the people that folowed Thibni the sonne of Ginath: and so Thibni dyed, and Amri raigned.

23 In the thirtie and one yere of Asa king of Juda began Amri to raigne ouer Israel twelue yeres: Sixe yeres raigned he in Thirza. 24 He bought the hyll "of Samaria of one Semar for two talentes of syluer, and built in the hyll, and called the name of the citie which he built, after the name of Semar, which had ben owner of the hyll of Samaria. 25 But Amri wrought that which is euyll in the eyes of the Lorde, and did worse then all that were before him. 26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, & in his sinnes wherwith he made Israel sinne, to anger the Lord God of Israel with their vanities. 27 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amri, & all that he did, & his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Israel?

29 In the thirtie & eyght yere of Asa king of Juda, began Achab the sonne of Amri to raigne ouer Israel, and the same Achab the sonne of Amri raigned ouer Israel in Samaria twentie & two yeres. 30 And Achab the sonne of Amri did euyll in the sight of the Lord aboue all that were before him.

31 For (c) it seemed vnto him but a light thyng to walke in the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat: He toke Jesabel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonites to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him. 32 And he reared vp an aulter for Baal in the temple of Baal which he had builded in Samaria: 33 And Achab made a groue, and proceeded further in angeryng the lord God of Israel then all the kinges of Israel that were before him. 34 In his dayes did Hiel of Bethel builde Jericho: he laide the foundation therof in Abiram his eldest sonne, & set vp the gates therof in his yongest sonne Segub, accordyng vnto the worde of the Lorde which he spake by Joshab the sonne of Nun.

6 (a) And the rauens brought him bread and flesshe in the mornyng, and likewyse bread and flesshe in the euenyng: and he drake of the brooke.

7 And after a while the brooke dryed vp, because there fell no rayne vpon the earth. 8 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto him, saying, 9 Vp, and get thee to Sarepth a which is in Sidon, and dwel there: behold I haue commaunded a widowe there to sustayne thee. 10 So he arose and went to Sarepth a: and when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde the widowe was there gathering of stickes: and he called to her, and sayde, Fetche me I pray thee a litle water in a vessell, that I may drinke. 11 And as she was goyng to fetche it, he cryed after her, and sayde, Bryng me I pray thee a morsel of bread also in thine hande. 12 She sayde, As the Lorde thy God liueth, I haue no bread redy, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrell, and a litle oyle in a cruse: and beholde I am gatherynge two stickes, for to go in, and dresse it for me and my sonne, that we may eate it, and dye. 13 And Elias sayde vnto her, Feare not, go, and do as thou hast sayde: but make me therof a litle cake first of all, and bryng it vnto me, and afterward make for thee and thy sonne. 14 For thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, The meale in the barrel shal not be wasted, neither shal the oyle in the cruse be diminished vntyll the Lorde haue sent rayne vpon the earth. 15 And she went, and did as Elias sayd: and she, and he, and her house, did eate a good space. 16 And the meale wasted not out of the barrel, neither was the oyle spent out of the cruse, accordyng to worde of the Lorde which he spake by the hande of Elias. 17 And after these thynges the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sicknesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. 18 And she sayde vnto

Elias is sent to Achab. 13 Obadia hideth an hundred prophetes. 40 Elias kylleth all Baals prophetes.

A After proceste of many dayes, the worde of the Lord came to Elias in the third yere, saying, Go shew thy selfe vnto Achab, and I will sende rayne vpon the earth. 2 And Elias went to shewe him selfe vnto Achab: and there was a great famine in Samaria. 3 And Achab called Obadia, whiche was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatlye. 4 For when Iesabel destroyed the prophetes of the Lorde, Obadia toke an hundred prophetes, and hyd them by fiftie in a cane, and prouided bread and water for them.) 5 And Achab sayd vnto Obadia, Go into the land vnto all fountaynes of water, and vnto all brookes, yf so that we may fynde grasse to saue the horses and mules alyue, that all the beastes perishe not. 6 And so they diuided the lande betweene them to walke throughout it: Achab went one way by him selfe, and Obadia went another way by him selfe. 7 And as Obadia was in the way, behold Elias met him, and he knewe him, and fell on his face, and sayde, Art not thou my lorde Elias? 8 And he answered him, I am he: go, and tell thy lord, Beholde, Elias is here. 9 He sayd, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruaunt into the hande of Achab, to slay me? 10 As the Lorde thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome whyther my lord hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they sayd, He is not there: he toke an oth of the kingdome & nation when he founde thee not. 11 And nowe thou sayest, Go, and tell thy lorde that Elias is here. 12 And assoone as I am gone from thee, the spirite of the Lorde shall cary thee into some place that I do not knowe, and so when I come and tell Achab, and he can not fynde thee, he shall slay me: but I thy seruaunt feare the Lorde from my youth vp. 13 Was it not tolde my lorde what I dyd, when Iesabel slue the prophetes of the Lorde? howe I hyd an hundred men of the Lordes prophetes, fiftie men in one cane, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread & water? 14 And thou sayest, Go thou nowe and shewe thy lorde, Beholde Elias is here: that he may slay me. 15 And Elias sayde, As the Lorde of hoastes liueth before whom I stande, I will shewe my selfe vnto him this day. 16 So Obadia went to meete Achab, and tolde him: and Achab went to meete Elias. 17 And when Achab sawe Elias, he sayde vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? 18 He answered, It is not I that haue troubled Israel, but (a) thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the cõmaundementes of the Lorde, and thou hast folowed Baal.
19 Nowe therfore sende, and gather to me all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophetes of Baal foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophetes of the groues foure hundred, which eate at Iesabels table. 20 So Achab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and vnto all the prophetes together vnto mount Carmel. 21 And Elias came vnto all the people, and sayde, Howe long (b) halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lorde be God, followe him: but yf Baal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not one worde. 22 Then sayde Elias vnto the people (agayne) I only remayne a prophete of the Lorde: but Baals prophetes are foure (c) hundred and

And beholde the Lorde went by, and a mighte strong winde that rent the mountaynes and brake the rockes before the Lord, but the Lorde was not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake, but the Lorde was not in the earthquake: 12 And after the earthquake came fire, but the Lorde was not in the fire: and after the fire, came a smal still voyce. 13 And when Elias heard, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stoode in the entryng in of the caue: and beholde there came a voyce vnto him, and said, What doest thou here Elias? 14 And he answered, I haue ben ielous foꝛ the Lorde God of hoastes sake, because the children of Israel haue foꝛsaken thy couenaunt, cast downe thine auters, and slayne thy prophetes with the swoꝛde, and I only am left, and they seke my lyfe to take it away. 15 And the Lorde sayd vnto him, Go, and turne thy way to the wilderne vnto Damascus: and when thou comest there, annoynt Hazael king ouer Syria: 16 And Jehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou annoynt king ouer Israel: and Eliseus the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou annoynt to be prophete in thy roome. 17 And who so escapeth the swoꝛde of Hazael, him shal Jehu slay: and if any man escape & swoꝛde of Jehu, him shall Eliseus put to death. 18 And I haue left me seuen thousande in Israel, of which neuer man (a) bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kissed him with his mouth. 19 So he departed thence, and founde Eliseus the sonne of Saphat plowyng, and hauyng twelue yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelue: and Eliseus went by him, & cast his mantle vpon him. 20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elias, and sayd, Let me I pray thee kisse my father and my mother, and then I wyl folowe thee. He sayde vnto him, Go backe agayne, foꝛ what is it that I haue done to thee? 21 And when he went backe agayne from him, he toke a couple of oxen, and slue them, and dressed the flesche with the instrumentes of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: and then he arose and went after Elias, and ministred vnto him.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoast togerher, hauyng thirtie and two kinges with him, and hoꝛses and charets: and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and warred agaynst it. 2 And he sent messengers to Achab king of Israel into the citie, and sayde vnto him, Thus saith Benhadad, 3 Thy siluer and thy golde is myne, and the fayrest of thy wyues and of thy children be myne. 4 And the king of Israel answered and sayd, My lorde king, accoꝛdyng to thy saying, I am thyne and all that I haue. 5 And when the messengers came agayne, they sayde, Thus saith Benhadad, Foꝛasmuch

Luk. 9. 8

Forasmuch as I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy golde, and thy wiues, and thy children: 6 I will therfore sende my seruauntes vnto thee to morowe this tyme, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruauntes, and whatsoeuer is pleasaunt in thine eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away. 7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the elders of the lande, & sayde, Take heede I pray you, and see howe this felowe goeth about mischeefe: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, for my children, for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not. 8 And all the elders and all the people sayde, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent. 9 Wherfore he sayde vnto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst sende for to thy seruaunt at the first tyme, that I will do: but this thyng I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought aunswere agayne. 10 And Benhadad sent vnto him agayne, and sayd, Thus and thus do the gods vnto me, yf the dust of Samaria be enough for all the people that folowe me, to take euery man an handfull. 11 And the king of Israel aunswered, and sayde, Tell him, Let not him that putteth on his harnesse boast him selfe, as he that putteth it of. 12 And when Benhadad hearde that tidynges (as he was with the kinges drinkyng within the pauilions,) he sayde vnto his seruauntes, Put your selues in order. And they set them selues in aray agaynst the citie. 13 And beholde there came a prophete vnto Achab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lorde, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? beholde I will deliuer it into thyne hande this day, and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde. 14 And Achab sayd, By whom? He sayd, Thus saith the Lorde, Euen by the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres. He sayd agayne, Who shall order the battayle? And he aunswered, Thou.

15 Then he numbred the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres, and they were two hundred & thirtie and two: and after them also he numbred all the people of the children of Israel (euen) seuen thousand. 16 And they went out at noone: but Benhadad did drinke till he was dronken in the pauilions, both he and the kinges euen thirtie & two kinges that holpe him. 17 And the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres went out first, and Benhadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. 18 He sayde, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet aliue. 19 And so those young men of the gouernours of the shyres came out of the citie, and the hoast after them: 20 And they slue euery one his enemie (that came in his way:) and the Syrians fled, & they of Israel folowed after them: and Benhadad the king of Syria scaped on a horse with his horsmen. 21 And the king of Israel went out, & smote the horses and charettes, and with a great slaughter slue he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a prophete to the king of Israel, and sayd vnto him, Go forth, and play the man, be wyse, and take heede what thou doest: for when the yere is gone about, the king of Syria will come vp agaynst thee.)

23 And the seruauntes of the king of Syria sayd vnto him, The gods of the hylles are their gods, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fight agaynst them in the playne, and (for what ye will) we shall haue the better of them. 24 And this do, Take the kinges away, euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their roomes: 25 And number thee an hoast like the hoast that thou hast lost, such horses and such charets, and we will fight against them in the playne, & thou shalt see vs get the better of them. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and dyd euen so. 26 And after the yere was gone about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, & went vp to Aphec to fight agaynst Israel. 27 And the children of Israel were numbred, & with their whole number went they agaynst them, & the children of Israel pitched before them like two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Syrians fylled the countrey. 28 And there came a man of God, and sayd vnto the king of Israel, Thus saith the lord, Because the Syrians haue sayd, The Lorde is but God of the hylles, and not God of the valleys: therfore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, & ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde. 29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes: and in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned, and the the children of Israel slue of the Syrians an hundred thousande footmen in one day. 30 But the rest fled to Aphec into the citie, and there fell a wall vpon twentie & seuen thousande of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the citie from chaumber to chaumber. 31 And his seruauntes sayde vnto him, Beholde we haue hearde say that the kinges of the house of Israel are mercifull kinges: we wyll therefore put sackecloth about our loynes, & ropes about our heades, and go out to the king of Israel, it may be he wyll saue thy life. 32 And so they girded sackecloth about their loynes, & put ropes about their heades, and came to the king of Israel, and sayd, Thy seruaunt Benhadad saith, I pray thee let me liue. He sayde, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother. 33 And the men toke that worde for good lucke, and hastily caught it out of his mouth, and sayde, Yea thy brother (a) Benhadad. He sayd, Go, bring him hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto him, & he caused him to come vp into the charet.

(a) He is aliue.

34 And he sayde vnto him, The cities which my father toke from thy father, I wyll restore agayne, and thou shalt make stretes for thee in Damascus, as my father dyd in Samaria: and I wyll make an appoyntment with thee, and sende thee away. And so he made an appoyntment with him, & sent him away. 35 And there was a certayne man of the children of the prophetes which sayde vnto his neighbour in the worde of the Lorde, Smyte me I pray thee. And the man would not smyte him. 36 Then sayd he vnto him, Because thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, beholde assoone as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And assoone as he was departed from him, a lion founde him, and slue him. 37 Then he founde another man, and sayd, Smite me I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him. 38 So the prophete went forth, and waited for the king by the way, and put him selfe out of knowledge with ashes which he layed vpon his face. 39 And when the king came by, he cryed vnto the king, and sayde, Thy seruaunt went out in the middes of the battell, and behold there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, & said, Kepe this man: and if he be missed or lost, thy life shal go for his, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer. 40 And as thy seruaunt had here & there to do, he was gone. And the king of Israel said vnto him, Euen so shal thy iudgement be, as thou hast geue sentence. 41 And he hasted, & toke the ashes away from his face, and the king of Israel knewe him that he was of the prophetes:

AFter these thynges, Naboth the Iezraelite had a vineyarde in Iezrahel, harde by the palace of Achab king of Samaria. 2 And Achab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Geue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a garden of herbes therof, because it lyeth so nye my house, and I wyll geue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or rather if it please thee, I wyll geue thee the worth of it in money. 3 And Naboth sayd to Achab, The Lorde forbid that from me, that I should geue the inheritaunce of my fathers vnto thee. 4 And Achab came into the house heauy and euyll apayde because of the worde which Naboth the Iezraelite had spoken to him: for he had sayde, I wyll not geue thee the inheritaunce of my fathers: And he layd him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread. 5 But Iezabel his wife came to him, and sayd vnto him, Why is thy spirite so sad, that thou eatest no bread? 6 And he sayde vnto her, For I spake vnto Naboth the Iezraelite, and sayde vnto him, Geue me thy vineyarde for money: or els if it please thee, I wyll geue thee (another) vineyarde for it. And he answered, I will not geue thee my vineyard.

thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezraelite. 8 And so she wrote a letter in Achabs name, and sealed it with his seale, and sent the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie, dwellyng with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letter, saying, Proclayme a (b) fast, & set Naboth on hye among the people: 10 And set two vnthryftes before him, to beare witnesse agaynst him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God and the king: and then cary him out, and stone him to death. 11 And (c) the men of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours which dwelt in his citie, dyd as Jezabel had sent vnto them, and as it was written in the letter which she had sent vnto them. 12 They proclaymed a fast, & set Naboth among the cheefe of the people. 13 And there came in two men the children of Belial, and sate before him: and the (two) vnthryfte persons witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did "blaspheme god and the king. And they caryed him out of the citie, and stoned him with stones that he dyed. 14 And then they sent to Jezabel, saying, Naboth is stoned to death. 15 And when Jezabel heard that Naboth was stoned to death, she sayde to Achab, Vp, and take possession of the vineyarde of Naboth the Jezraelite, which he denyed to gene thee for money: for Naboth is not alyue, but dead. 16 And when Achab heard that Naboth was dead, he stoode vp to go downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezraelite, and to take possession of it. 17 And the worde of the Lord came to Elias the Thesbite, saying, 18 Vp, and go down to meete Achab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: beholde he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone downe to possesse it. 19 And therfore shalt thou say vnto him, Thus saith the Lorde, Hast thou kylled, & also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus saith the Lorde, In the place where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogges licke euen thy blood also. 20 And Achab sayde to Elias, Hast thou founde me, O thou myne enemie? He answered, I haue found thee: for thou hast solde thy selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde. 21 Beholde I wyll bryng euyll vpon thee, and wyll make cleane riddaunce of thy posterite, and wyll destroy from Achab (euen) him that maketh water agaynst the wall, and him that is shut vp, and left behynde in Israel. 22 And wyll make thyne house lyke the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and lyke the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia, for the prouocation wherewith thou hast prouoked, and made Israel to sinne. 23 And of Jezabel spake the Lorde, saying, The dogges shall eate Jezabel by the wall of Jezrahel. 24 And he that dyeth of Achab in the towne, him shall dogges eate: and he that dyeth in the feelde, him shall the fowles of the ayre eate. 25 But there was none lyke Achab which dyd sell him selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and that because Jezabel his wyfe prycked him forwarde. 26 He did exceedyng abhominably in folowyng fowle idols, accordyng to all thynges as did the Ammorites whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And when Achab heard those wordes, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his flesshe, and fasted, and laye in sackcloth, and went " bare foote. 28 And the worde of the Lorde came to Elias the Thesbite, saying, 29 Seest thou howe Achab humbleth him selfe before me? because he so submitteth him selfe before me, I wyll not bryng that euyll in his dayes: but in his sonnes dayes wyll I bryng euyll vpon his house.

AND they continued three yeres without warre betweene Syria and Israel. 2 And in the thirde yere dyd Josaphat the king of Juda come downe to the king of Israel. 3 (And the king of Israel sayde vnto his seruauntes, Knowe ye not that Ramoth (in) Gilead is ours, and we sit styll, and take it not out of the hande of the king of Syria?) 4 And he sayde vnto Josaphat, Wylt thou thou come with me to battell agaynst Ramoth(in) Gilead? And Iosaphat sayd vnto the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. 5 And Iosaphat sayde vnto the king of Israel, (a) Aske counsell I pray thee at the worde of the Lorde to day. 6 And then the king of Israel gathered the prophetes together, vpon a foure hundred men, & sayd vnto them, Shal I go agaynst Ramoth (in) Gilead to battel, or shal I let it alone? And they sayd, Go vp: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the handes of the king. 7 And Iosaphat sayde, Is there here neuer a prophete of the Lorde more, that we myght inquire of him? 8 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, There is yet one man (Michea the sonne of Iimla) by whom we may aske counsel of the Lorde: but I hate him, for he doth not prophecie good vnto me, but euyl. And Iosaphat sayd, Let not the king say so. 9 Then the king of Israel called a "chamberlayne, & sayd, Fetch Michea the sonne of Iimla hyther at once. 10 And the king of Israel, and Iosaphat the king of Iuda sate either in his seate, and their apparell on them, in a voyde place beside the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophecied before them. 11 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana made hornes of iron, and sayde, Thus saith the Lorde, With these (hornes) shalt thou pushe the Syrians, vntyll thou haue made an ende of them. 12 And all the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth(in)Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the kinges hande. 13 And the messenger that was gone to call Michea, spake vnto him, saying, Beholde the wordes of the prophetes speake good vnto the king with one mouth: Let thy worde therefore I pray thee be like the word of euery one of them, to speake that which is good. 14 And Michea sayde, As the Lorde liueth, what soeuer the Lorde saith vnto me, (b) that wyll I speake. 15 And so he came to the king, and the king sayde vnto him, Michea, ought we to go against Ramoth (in) Gilead to battell, or to be styl? He answered him, (c) Go, and prosper: the Lord shal deliuer it into the hande of the king. 16 And the king sayd vnto him, So & so many tymes do I charge thee that thou tell me nothyng but that which is true, in the name of the Lord. 17 He sayd, I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the hilles, as sheepe that haue not a sheepheard. And the Lord sayd, These haue no maister, let euery man returne to his house in peace. 18 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, Dyd I not tell thee that he wolde prophesie no good vnto me, but euyll?

19 And he sayde agayne, Heare thou therfore the worde of the Lorde, I sawe the Lorde sit on his seate, and al the host of heauen stode about him on his ryght hande and on his left.

20 And the Lorde sayde, Who shall "perswade Achab that he may go, and fall at Ramoth (in) Gilead? And one sayde on this maner, and another on that. 21 And there came foorth a certayne spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayd, I will perswade him. And the Lorde sayd vnto him, Wherewith? 22 And he sayde, I wyll go out, and be a false spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. He sayde, Thou shalt perswade him, and preuayle: Go foorth then, and do euen so. 23 Now therfore beholde the Lorde hath put a lying spirite in the mouth of all these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyll towarde thee. 24 But Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to & smote Michea on the cheeke, and sayde, Which went the spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake vnto thee? 25 And Michea sayde, Beholde thou shalt see in that day when thou shalt go from chaumber to chaumber to hyde thee. 26 And the king of Israel sayde, Take Michea, & cary him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Joas the kinges sonne, 27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellowe in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntyll I returne in peace. 28 And Michea sayd, If thou returne in peace, the Lorde hath not spoken by me. And he sayde, Hearken ye people euery one of you. 29 And so the king of Israel, & Iosaphat the king of Iuda, went vp to Ramoth(in) Gilead. 30 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, I wyll chaunge my apparell, and wyll enter into the battel, but put thou on thine apparel. And the king of Israel chaunged him selfe, and went to battell. 31 But the king of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two capraynes that had

But Iosaphat would not. 50 And Iosaphat dyd sleepe with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iehoram his sonne raigned in his steade. 51 Ahazia the sonne of Achab began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria the seuentenenth yere of Iosaphat king of Iuda, and raigned two yeres ouer Israel.

52 But he dyd euyll in the sight of the Lorde, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne. 53 For he serued Baal, and worshipped hym, and prouoked the Lorde God of Israel vnto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.

And Elias departed. 5 And when the messengers turned backe agayne vnto hym, he sayde vnto them, Why are ye nowe come agayne? 6 They answered hym, There came a man vp against vs, and sayd vnto vs, Go, and turne agayne vnto the kyng that sent you, & say vnto him, Thus saith the Lorde, Is there not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Beelzebub the God of Ekron? therfore thou shalt not come downe from the bed on whiche thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death. 7 And he they answered hym, It was an heerie man, and gyrt with a gyrdell of leather about his loynes. And he sayde, It is Elias the Thesbite. 9 Then the kyng sent vnto him a captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: whiche came to hym (and beholde he sate on the top of an hyll) and he spake vnto him, Thou man of god, the king hath sayde, Come downe. 10 Elias answered and sayde to the captayne ouer the fiftie, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, & consume thee and thy fiftie. (b) And there came fire from heauen, and consumed him and his fiftie. 11 Agayne also he sent vnto him another captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie: And he spake and sayde vnto hym, O man of God, thus hath the king sayd, Make haste, and come downe. 12 Elias answered and sayd vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and consume thee and thy fiftie. And there came fire of God from heauen, and consumed him and his fiftie.

(b) The threatninges of gods prophetes are effectuall against the wicked.

13 And the kyng yet agayne sent the thirde captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: And the thirde captayne ouer fiftie went vp, and came and fell on his knees before Elias, and besought hym, and sayde vnto hym, Oh man of God, I pray thee let my lyfe and the life of the fiftie thy seruaunts be precious in thy sight. 14 Beholde, there came fire downe from heauen, and burnt vp the two fore captaynes ouer fiftie with their fifties: therfore let my lyfe nowe be precious in thy sight. 15 And the angell of the Lord sayde vnto Elias, Go downe with him, and (c) be not afraide of him. And he arose, and went downe with hym vnto the king. 16 And he sayd vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to aske counsell at Beelzebub the god of Ekron) as though there had ben no God in Israel, whose worde thou mightest seeke after) therefore thou shalt not come downe of the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

17 And so he dyed according to the worde of the Lorde whiche Elias had spoken: and Jozam (his brother) began to raigne in his steade, in the seconde yere of Jozam the sonne of Josaphat kyng of Juda, because he had no sonne. 18 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ahazia, what things he did, are they not writte in the boone of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel?

here: for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. He sayd. As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And so thei two went toge-
B ther. 7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the prophetes came and stoode on the other side a farre of: and they two stoode by Jordane. 8 And Elias toke his mantell, and wrapt it toge-ther, and smote the waters, and they were diuided part the one way and part the other: so that they two went ouer through the drye land. 9 And assoone as they were ouer, Elias sayd vnto Eliseus, Aske what I shall do for thee yer I be taken away from thee. And Eliseus sayde, I pray thee let thy spirite be double vpon me.

10 And he saide, Thou hast asked an harde thing: neuertheless, if thou see me when I am taken away from thee, thou shalt haue it so: if thou do not, it shall not be. 11 And as they went walking and talking, beholde there appeared a charet of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both a sun-der, and Elias went vp through the whole winde into (b) heauen. 12 And Eliseus sawe, and cryed, O my fa-ther, O my father, the charet of Israel and the horsemen thereof. And he sawe hym no more: and he toke his owne clothes, and rent them in two peeces. 13 He toke vp also the man-tell of Elias that fell from hym, and went backe againe, and stoode by Jor-
C danes side. 14 And toke the mantell of Elias that fel from him, and smote the waters, and he sayde, Where is the Lorde God of Elias, and he hym selfe? And when he had smitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Eliseus went ouer. 15 And when the children of the prophetes which were at Jericho saw hym from a farre, they sayde, The spirite of Elias doth rest on Eliseus: And they came to meete hym, and fell to the grounde before him, 16 And said vn-to hym, See, nowe there be with thy seruauntes fiftie strong men, let them go we pray thee and seeke thy maister: if so be the spirite of the Lorde hath taken hym vp, and cast hym vpō some mountayne, or into some valley. And he sayde, Ye shall send none. 17 And when they lay vpon hym till he was ashamed, he sayde, Sende. They sent therefore fiftie men, which sought hym three dayes, but founde hym not.

18 And when they came agayne to hym (whiche tarved at Jericho) he saide vnto them, Did I not say vnto you, that ye should not go? 19 And the men of the citie sayde vnto Elise-us, Beholde sir, the dwelling of this citie is pleasaunt, as thou thy selfe seest: but the water is naught, and the grounde" barren. 20 He said, Bring me a newe cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to hym. 21 And he went vnto the spring of the wa-ters, and cast the salt in thyther, and sayde, thus saith the Lorde, I haue healed these waters, there shall not come hencefoorth eyther death or ba-rennelle. 22 So the waters were healed vnto this day, according to the saying of Eliseus, whiche he spake.

23 And he went vp from thence vnto Bethel: and as he was goyng vp the way, there came litle chyldren out of the citie, and mocked hym, and sayde vnto him, Go vp thou balde head, go vp thou balde head. 24 And he tur-ned backe, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came two beares out of the wood, and tare fourtie and two chyl-dren of them. 25 And he went from thence to mount Carmell, and from thence he turned agayne to Samaria.

The.iii. Chapter.

1 The raigne of Ioram. 6 He and Io-saphat go to warre against Moab which rebelled. 24 The Moabites are ouer-come.

A NOwe Joram the sonne of Achab began to raigne vpon Israel in Samaria the eyghteenth yere of Josaphat kyng of Juda, and raigned twelue yeres. 2 And he wrought euyll in the sight of the Lorde, but not like his father and like his mother: for he put away the images of Baal that his father had made. 3 Neuer-theless he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom. 4 And Mesa kyng of Moab was a lorde of sheepe, and ren-dered vnto the kyng of Israel an hun-dred thousande lammes, and an hun-dred thousande rammes with the woolle. 5 But when Achab was dead, the kyng of Moab rebelled a-gainst the kyng of Israel. 6 And king Joram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel: 7 And went, and sent to Josaphat the kyng of Juda, saying. The kyng of

thou come with me against Moab in battell? He answered, I wyll come vp: for as I am, so art thou: and as my people be, so are thy people: and my horses as thy horses. 8 And he sayde, What way shall we go vp? And he answered, The way through the wylderneſſe of Edom. 9 And ſo the kyng of Israel toke his iourney, and the king of Juda, & the king of Edom:
And when thei had compaſſed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the hoast, and for the cattayle that "folo-wed them. 10 And the kyng of Israel sayde, Alas, the Lord hath called these three kinges together, to deli-uer them ouer into the hande of Moab. 11 But Josaphat sayd, Is there not here a prophete of the Lorde, that we may enquire of the Lord by hym?
And one of the kyng of Israels seruauntes answered and said, Here is Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, whiche powred water on the hands of Elias.
12 And Josaphat sayd, The worde of the Lorde is with hym. And ſo the kyng of Israel, and Josaphat, and the kyng of Edom went downe to hym.
13 And Eliseus sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the prophetes of thy father, and to the prophetes of thy mother. And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto him, Oh nay: for the Lord hath called these three kinges together, to deliuer them into the hand of Moab.
14 And Eliseus sayde, As the Lorde of hoastes liueth, in whose sight I stande, and it were not that I regarde the presence of Josaphat the kyng of Juda, I woulde (a) not looke towarde thee, nor yet see thee. 15 But nowe bring me a minstrell. And when the minstrell played, the hand of the Lord came vpon hym: 16 And he sayde, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches: 17 For thus saith the Lorde, Ye shall see neither wynde nor rayne, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye, and your beastes, and your cattayle: 18 And this is yet but a small thing in the sight of the Lord for as much as he will geue ouer
the Moabites also into your handes:
19 And ye shall smyte euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shal fell euery pleasaunt tree, and stop eue-ry wel of water, and marre euery good plat of grounde with stones. 20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offred, beholde there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.
21 And when al the Moabites heard that the kinges were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able "to put on harneſſe, and stoode in the border of the lande: 22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vpon the water, that the Moabites saw the water a farre of as red as blood, 23 And they sayd, This is the blood of slaughter: The kynges are slayne, and one haue smitten another: Nowe therfore Moab get thee to the spoyle.
24 And when they came to the hoast of Israel, the Israelites stoode vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they followed vpon them, and smote Moab, 25 And they ouerthewe the cities, and on euery good parcell of lande cast euery man his stone, and filled it, and they stopt all the welles of water, and feld al the
they the stones therof: howbeit they went about it with slinges, & smote it.
26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battaile was to sore for hym, he toke with him seuen hundred men that drue the sword, to haue gone thorrow (euen) vnto the king of Edom: but they could not. 27 And then he toke his eldest sonne that should haue raig-ned in his steade, and offred hym for a whole burnt offering vpon the wall:
And there was (a) great indignation against Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne land.

And they could not eate therof. 41 But he sayde, Bring meale. And he cast it into the pot, and he said, Fil for the people that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot. 42 There came a man frō Baal Salisa, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruites, euen twentie loaues of barlye, & full eares of corne in the huske: and he sayde, Geue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his seruaunt aunswered, Why shall I set this before an hundred men? He sayde agayne, Geue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus saith the Lorde, They shall eate, and there shall be left ouer. 44 And so he set it before them, and they dyd eate, and left ouer, according to the worde of the Lorde.

The. v. Chapter.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Eliseus refuseth his giftes.

NAaman captayne of the hoast of the kyng of Syria, was a great man, and honorable in the sight of his maister, because that by hym the Lorde had geuen health vnto Syria: He was also a mightie man, and expert in warre (but he was) a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought out of the countrey of Israel a litle mayde, and she was with Naamans wyfe.

3 And she sayd vnto her lady, I would to God my lorde were with the prophet that is in Samaria, for he would deliuer him of his leprosie. 4 And he (a) went in, and tolde his lord, saying. Thus and thus sayde the mayde that is of the lande of Israel. 5 And the kyng of Syria sayd, Go thy way thyther, and I will send a letter vnto the kyng of Israel. And he departed, and toke with hym ten talentes of siluer, and sixe thousande peeces of golde, and ten chaunges of raymentes:

6 And brought the letter to the kyng of Israel, contayning this tenour. Nowe when this letter is come vnto thee, beholde I haue therewith sent Naaman my seruaunt to thee, that thou mayest rid hym of his leprosie.

7 And when the kyng of Israel had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and sayde, Am I God, that I shoulde slay, and make a lyue? For he doth sende to me that I shoulde deliuer a man from his leprosie: Wherfore consider I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarrell against me. 8 Whiche when Eliseus the man of God had heard howe that the kyng of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the kyng, saying, Wherfore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come nowe to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. 9 And so Naaman came with his horses & with his charets, and stoode at the doore of the house of Eliseus. 10 And Eliseus sent a messenger vnto hym, saying, Go, and washe thee in Iordane seuen tymes, and thy flesh shall come agayne to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and sayde, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lorde his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leprosie. 12 Are not Abana and Pharphar riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel?

And so he turned hym, and departed with displeasure. 13 And his seruauntes came, and communed with hym, and sayde, Father, if the prophete had byd thee do some great thing, oughtest thou not to haue done it? Howe muche rather then when he saith to thee, Washe and be cleane? 14 Then went he downe, and washed hym selfe seuen tymes in Iordane, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesshe came agayne like vnto the flesh of a litle chylde, and he was cleansed.

For thy seruaunt wyll hencefoorth offer neither whole burnt sacrifice nor offering vnto any other gods, saue vnto the Lorde. 18 But herein the Lorde be mercyfull to thy seruaunt, that when my maister goeth into the house of Rimmon for to worship there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I do bowe downe I say in the house of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercyfull vnto thy seruaunt because of this thing.

The.vi. Chapter.

6 Eliseus maketh iron to swim aboue the water. 8 He discloseth the king of Syrias counsell to the king of Israel.

A THe children of the prophetes said vnto Eliseus, Beholde we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is to litle for vs: 2 Let vs go we pray thee vnto Iordane, & take thence euery man a beame, and buylde vs a place to dwel in. And he answered, Go. 3 And one sayd, Be content I pray thee, and come with thy seruauntes. And he answered, I wyll come. 4 And so he went with them: and when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood. 5 But as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fell into the water: and he cryed, and sayde, Alas maister, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God sayde, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place: And he cut downe a sticke, and cast it in thyther, & immediatly the iron did swim. 7 Therfore sayd he, Take it vp. And he stretched out his hand, & toke it vp. 8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, & toke counsell with his seruauntes, & sayde, In such and suche a place shalbe my campe.

9 And the man of God sent vnto the B kyng of Israel, saying, Beware that thou go not ouer to suche a place, for there the Syrians are lurking.

10 Therfore the king of Israal sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned him of, (a) and saued him selfe from it, not once, nor twyse.
11 And the heart of the kyng of Syria was troubled for this thing, & he called for his seruauntes, and saide vnto them, Will ye not shewe me which of oure men (betrayeth me) to the kyng of Israel? 12 And one of his seruaunts sayde, None my lorde O kyng: but Eliseus the prophet that is in Israel telleth the kyng of Israel, yea the wordes that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber. 13 He sayd, Go, & spye where he is, that I may sende & fetch him. And one tolde him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. 14 Therfore C sent he thyther horses and charets, and a mightie hoast: and they came by night, and compalled the citie about.
15 And when the seruaunt of the man of God rose vp early to go out, behold there was an hoast rounde about the towne with horses and charets: and his seruaunt sayde vnto hym, Alas maister, what shall we do? 16 He aunswered, Feare not: for they that

And the lord opened the eyes of the young man, & he looked: and behold the mountayne was full of horses, and charets of fire rounde about Eliseus. 18 And when they came downe to hym, Eliseus prayed vnto the Lorde, & sayd, Smyte

D But he led thē to Samaria. 20 But when they were come to Samaria, Eliseus sayde, Lorde open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they sawe, and behold they were in the middes of Samaria. 21 And the kyng of Israel said vnto Eliseus when he saw them, My father, shall I smyte them, shall I smyte them? 22 And he aunswered, Thou shalt not smyte them: but smyte those that thou hast taken with thyne owne swoorde, and with thyne owne bowe: but rather set bread and water before them, that they may eate and drinke, and go to their maister.
23 And he prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten & dronke, he sent them away, and they went to their maister: and so the souldiours of Syria came no more into the lande of Israel. 24 After this Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his hoast, and went vp, and besieged Samaria. 25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and beholde they besieged it, vntyll an asses head was solde for fourescore siluer pence, & the fourth part of a (b) cab of dones doung for fiue peeces of siluer. 26 And as the kyng of Israel was goyng vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying. Helpe me my lorde O kyng. 27 He sayde, If the Lord do not succour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine presse? 28 And the kyng sayd vnto her, What wylt thou? She aunswered, Yonder woman sayde vnto me, Bryng thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we wil eate mine to morow. 29 And so we dressed my sonne, and did eate hym: and I sayde to her the other day, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate hym: And she hath hid her sonne. 30 And when the king hearde the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wall, and the people looked, & beholde he had a sackcloth vnder (c) vpon his fleshe. 31 Then he sayde, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat shall stande on hym this day. 32 But Eliseus sate in his house (and the elders sate by him) and the king sent a man before him: but yer the messēger came to hym, he saide to the elders, Haue ye not seene howe that the sonne of this murtherer hath sent to take away myne head? Be circumspect whē the messenger commeth, and shut the doore, and holde him at the doore: Is not the sounde of his maisters feete behinde hym? 33 Whyle he yet talked with them, beholde, the messenger came downe vnto him, & sayd, Behold, this euil is of the lord: and what more shall I looke for of the Lorde?

Lorde, To morowe this tyme (shall) a measure of fine flowre be solde for a sicle, & two measures of barley for a sicle in the gate of Samaria. 2 Then a certayne lorde (on whose hande the kyng leaned) aunswered the man of God, & sayde, Beholde, yf the Lorde woulde make windowes in heauen, might this saying come to passe? He said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, but shalt not eate therof. 3 And there were foure leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they saide one to another, Why sit we here vntil we dye? 4 If we say, We wil enter into the citie: behold the dearth is in the citie, & we shall dye therein: and yf we sit styll here, we dye also. Now therfore come, and let vs flee vnto the hoast of the Syrians: yf they sane our liues, we shall lyue: yf they kill vs, then are we dead. 5 And they rose vp in the twylight to go to, the hoast of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermost part of the hoast of Syria, behold there was no man there. 6 For the Lorde had made the hoast of the Syrians to heare a noyse of charets, and a noise of horses, and the noise of a great hoast: insomuch that they sayde one to another, Lo, the kyng of Israel hath hired against vs the kinges of the Hethites, and the kinges of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs. 7 Wherfore they arose, and fled in the twylyght, and left their tentes, and their horses, and their asses, and the feelde whiche they had pitched, euen as it was, (a) & fled for their liues. 8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the hoast, they went into a tent, and did eate and drynke, and caryed thence syluer, and golde, and raiment, & went and hid it: and came againe and entred into another tent, and caried thence also, and went and hid it. 9 Then said one to another, We do not well, this day is a day to bring good tydynges, and we hold our peace. If we tary till the day lyght, some mischiefe will come vpon vs: Now therfore come, that we may go, and tell the kynges houshold.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Syrians, and see there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses and asses tied, and the tentes were as they were wont to be. 11 And the porters cryed and declared (it) to the kynges house within. 12 And the king arose in the night, and sayde vnto his seruauntes, (b) I wyll shewe yon nowe what the Syrians haue done vnto vs, They knowe that we be hungrie, and therefore are they gone out of the campe to hyde themselues in the feelde, saying, When they come out of the citie, we shall catche them alyue, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his seruauntes aunswered, and said, Let men take I pray you fiue of the horses that remaine & are left in the (multitude:) (behold they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: beholde (I say) they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we wil sende, and see. 14 They toke therfore the horses of two charets, and the king sent after the hoast of the Syrians, saying, Go, and see. 15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and lo, all the way was full of clothes, and vessels whiche the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and tolde the kyng. 16 And the people went out, & spoiled the tentes of the Syrians: and so it came to passe that a measure of fine flowre was solde for a sicle, & two measures of barley for a sicle, according to the word of the lord. 17 And the kyng appointed that lorde (on whose hande he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people (c) trode vpon him in the gate, & he dyed according to the worde of the man of God whiche he sayde when the king came downe to hym. 18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fine flowre for another shalbe to morowe this tyme in the gate of Samaria.

19 Wherunto that lorde aunswered the man of God, and sayd, Yea and yf the Lorde made windowes in heauen, might it come to passe? And he sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

Lord hath called for a dearth, and the same shall come vpon the lande seuen yeres. 2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and went both she and her houshold, and sojourned in the lande of the Philistines seuen yeres. 3 And at the seuen yeres ende, the woman came agayne out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call vpon the kyng for her house and for her lande. 4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruaunt of the man of God, saying, Tell me I pray thee all the great deedes that Eliseus hath done. 5 He tolde the king howe he had restored a dead body to lyfe agayne: but in the meane tyme the woman whose sonne he had rayled vp agayne, cryed to the king for her house, and for her land: And Gehezi sayde, My lorde O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne whom Eliseus rayled vp againe. 6 And when the king asked the woman, she tolde him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlayne, saying, Restore thou vnto her all that are hers and all the (a) fruites of the fielde, sence the day that she left the land, vnto this tyme. 7 And Eliseus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sycke: And one tolde hym, saying, The man of God is come hyther. 8 And the king sayde vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and go meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lorde by him, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease? 9 And so Azael went to meete hym, and tooke the present with hym, and of euery good thing of Damascus, euen as much as fourtie camels could beare: and came and presented hym selfe before hym, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease? 10 And Eliseus sayde vnto him, Go, and say vnto him, Thou shalt (b) recouer: howbeit, the Lorde hath shewed me that he shall surely dye.

11 He loked vpon him stedfastly vntil he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. 12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lorde? He answered, For I knowe the euil thinges that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their young men shalt thou slay with the sworde, and shalt dasshe out the braynes of theyr suckyng children, and al to teare their women with childe. 13 But Hazael sayd, What is thy seruaunt a dogge, that I shoulde do this great thing? And Eliseus answered, The Lorde hath shewed me that thou shalt be kyng of Syria. 14 And so he departed from Eliseus, & came to his master: which sayde to him, What sayde Eliseus to thee? He answered, He tolde me that thou shouldest recouer. 15 And on the morowe he take a thicke cloth, and dipt it in water, and (c) spreade it on his face: and he dyed, and Hazael raigned in his steade.

16 The fift yere of Jozam the sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, Josaphat being also king of Juda, Jozam the sonne of Josaphat kyng of Juda began to raigne. 17 Thirtie and two yeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeres in Hierusalem. 18 And he walked in the wayes of the kynges of Israel, as they that were of the house of Achab: for the daughter of Achab was his wife, and he did euil in the sight of the Lorde. 19 And the Lorde would not destroy Juda because of Dauid his seruauntes sake, as he promised hym to geue him alway a light among his children. 20 In those dayes Edom rebelled agaynst Juda, and made them a king of their owne. 21 So Jozam went to Zair, he and al his charettes with hym: and he rose by nyght, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, with the captaynes of his charettes, and the people fled into theyr tentes. 22 But Edom rebelled, so that he woulde not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: then Libnah rebelled that same time. 23 The rest of the wordes that concerne Jozam, and al that he did, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Judah? 24 And Jozam rested with his fathers, and was buried beside his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Ahazia his sonne raigned in his steade. 25 In the twelfth yere of Jozam the sonne of Achab king of Israel did Ahazia the sonne of Jozam kyng of Juda begyn to raigne. 26 Two and twentie yeres olde was Ahazia when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yere in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Athalia the daughter of Omri king of Israel. 27 But he walked in the way of the house of Achab, and dyd euyll in the syght of the Lorde, as dyd the house of Achab: for he was one of the children of the prophetes, and saide vnto him, Girde vp thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thine hande, and get thee to Ramoth (in) Gilead. 2 And when thou commest thyther, loke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat the sonne of Nimsi, and go to him, and make hym arise vp from among his brethren, and cary him to a secret chamber. 3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the lord, I haue annointed thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the dooze, and flee without any tarying. 4 And so the seruaunt of the prophete gat hym to Ramoth Gilead: 5 And when he came in, beholde the captaynes of the hoast were sitting together: and he sayde, I haue an errande to thee, O captayne. 6 And Iehu sayde, Vnto whiche of all vs? He sayde, To thee, O captayne. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, & sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lozde God of Israel, I haue (a) annoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lozde, euen ouer Israel.

12 They saide vnto him agayne, It is not so, tell vs. He said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lozde, I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel. 13 Then they hasted, and toke euery man his garment, and put it vnder hym on the toppe of the staires, and blewe with trumpets, saying, Iehu is kyng. 14 And so gat vp (into a charet) and went to Iezrahel where Iozam lay: and Ahazia kyng of Iuda was come downe thyther to see Iozam. 17 And the watchman that stoode on the towze in Iezrahel, spyed the company of Iehu as he came, and sayde, I see a companie. And Iozam sayde, Take an horsman, and sende to meete them, that he may aske whether it be peace. 18 And so there went one on horsbacke to meete him, and saide, Thus sayth the kyng, Is it peace? And Iehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turne thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not agayne. 19 Then he sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and sayde, Thus sayth the kyng, Is it peace? Iehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turne thee behind me. 20 And the watchman tolde, saying, He came to them also, and commeth not agayne: And the dryuyng is like the dryuyng of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi: for he driueth (the charet) as he were mad.

21 And Iozam sayde, Make redy.

And

And the charet was made redy, and Joram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Juda, went out either of them in his charet agaynst Jehu, and met him in the feelde of Naboth the Jezrahelite. 22 And when Joram sawe Jehu, he said, Is it peace Jehu? He answered, What peace shoulde there be, so long as the whordoms of thy mother Jezabel and her witchecraftes are so great? 23 And Joram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia. 24 And Jehu toke a bowe in his hande, and smote Joram betweene the armes, and the arrowe went through his heart, and he fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then saide Jehu to Bidkar a captayne, Take (him,) and cast hym in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Jezrahelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Achab his father, the lord * layed this heauy burthen vpon hym: 26 I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sonne, saith the Lord, and I will quite it thee in this ground saith the Lorde. Nowe therefore take and cast hym in the plat of grounde, according to the word of the lord. 27 But when Ahahia the kyng of Juda sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Jehu folowed after hym, and said, Smite him also in the charet, at the goyng vp to Gur by Jebleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and there dyed. 28 And his seruauntes caryed him in a charet to Hierusalem, and buried him there in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of Dauid.

29 And in the eleuenth yere of Joram the sonne of Achab, began Ahazia to raigne ouer Juda. 30 And when Jehu was come to Jezrahel, Jezabel hearde of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and loked out at a wyndowe. 31 And as Jehu entred at the gate, she sayde, Had (b) Zimri peace, which slue his maister? 32 And he lift vp his eyes to the window, and sayde, Who is of my side, who? And there loked out to him two or three chamberlaynes. 33 And he sayd, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, & her blood dashed toward the wall, and towarde the horses: and he troade her vnder foote. 34 And when he was come in, he dyd eate and drynke, and sayd, Go and visite I pray you yonden cursed creature, and bury her: for she is a kinges daughter. 35 And so when they came to burie her, they founde no more of her then the skull, and the feete, and the paulmes of her handes. 36 Wherefore they came agayne, and tolde him: and he sayde, This is the worde of the Lorde which he spake by the hande of his seruaunt Elias the Thesbite, saying, In the feelde of Jezrahel shall dogges eate the flesshe of Jezabel. 37 And so the carkasse of Jezabel was euen as doung vpon the earth in the feelde of Jezrahel, so that no man myght say, This is Jezabel.

The. x. Chapter.

6 Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slayne. 25 He killeth also all the priestes of Baal.

A Chab had threescore & ten sonnes in Samaria: and Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Jezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying, 2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your maisters sonnes, ye haue with you both charets & horses, a strong citie haue ye also, and harnes) 3 Looke whiche of your maisters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers seate and fight for your lordes house. 4 But they were exceedingly afrayde, & sayde, See, two kinges were not able to stande before hym: howe shall we then be able to stande? 5 And he that was gouernour of Achabs house, & he that ruled the citie, the elders also, & the tutours, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy seruaunts, & wyl do all that thou shalt bid vs, we wyll make no man kyng: therfore do thou what seemeth good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and wyll hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men that are your maisters sonnes, and come to me to Jezrahel by to morowe this tyme: (and the kyngs sonnes were threescore and ten persons, and they were with the great men of the citie which brought them vp.) 7 And when the letter came to them, they toke the kings children, and slue them, euen threescore and ten persons, and layde their heades in basketten, and sent them to hym to Jezrael. 8 And there came a messenger, and tolde hym, saying, They haue brought the heades of the kings sonnes. And he sayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entryng in of the gate vntyll the morowing.

They answered, The brethren of Ahazia are we, and go downe to salute the children of the king and of the queene. 14 And he sayde, Take them alyue. Whom when they had taken them alyue, they slue them at the well whiche was beside the house where the sheepe are shoren, euen two and fourtie men, neither left he any of them. 15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab comming against hym, and he blessed hym, and sayde to hym, Is thyne heart ryght, as myne heart is true with thine? And Ionadab answered, yea that it is. Then gene me thyne hande. And when he had geuen him his hande, he toke him vp to hym into the charet, 16 And sayde, Come with me, and see my zeale that I haue for the Lord. And so they made hym ride in his charet. 17 And when he came to Samaria, he slue al that remained vnto Achab in Samaria, til he had destroied him, according to the sayinge of the lord which he spake to Elias.

17 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the lordes people, and also betweene the king and the people. 18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his aulters also, and his images brake they downe lustilie, and slue Mathan the priest of Baal before the aulters: and the priest set watche ouer the house of the Lorde.

19 And toke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captaynes, and them of the garde, and all the people of the lande, and they brought the kyng from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde to the kynges palace, and he sate hym downe on the seate of the kynges.

The. xii. Chapter.

A Nd Ioas began to raigne in the seuenth yere of Iehu, fourtie yeres raigned he in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Zebiah of Beer-seba. 2 And he did that which was good in the sight of the Lorde, as long as (a) Iehoiada the priest enfourmed hym. 3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incense yet vpon the high places. 4 And Ioas sayde to the priestes, All the siluer of the dedicate thinges that be broght to the house of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing heart geueth and bryngeth into the house of the Lorde: 5 Let the priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintaunce, to repaire the broken places of the house wheresoeuer any decay is found. 6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentith yere of king Ioas the priestes had mended nothyng that was decayed in the temple. 7 Then kyng Ioas called for Iehoiada the priest and the other priestes, and sayde vnto them, Why repaire ye not the broken places of the temple? nowe therfore see that ye receaue no more money of your acquayntaunce, except ye deliuer it to repayre the temple withal. 8 And the priestes consented to receaue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the priest toke a chest, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and set it beside the aulter on the right syde, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the priestes that kept the vessels put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the lorde. 10 And when they sawe there was muche money in the chest, the kynges scribe and the hye priest came vp, and tolde the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and put it into a bagge. 11 And they gaue the money scaled into the

handes of them that executed the worke, that had the ouerlight of the house of the Lorde: and they brought it out to the carpenters and buylders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord, 12 And to masons and hewers of stone: and they bought timber and free stone to repayre the decaye in the house of the Lord, and to al that went out to mende the temple. 13 Howbeit there was not made for the house of the Lorde bowles of siluer, instrumentes of muscke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer of the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde. 14 But they gaue that to the workmen, and repayred therewith the house of the Lorde. 15 Moreouer, they reckened not with the men into whose handes they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dyd their busines vpon trust. 16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the lord: for it was the priestes. 17 Then came Hazael kyng of Syria vp, and fought against Geth, and toke it: and Hazael set his face to go vp to Hierusalem. 18 And Ioas king of Iuda toke all the halowed thinges that Iosaphat, Ioram, and Ahazia his fathers kinges of Iuda had dedicate, and that he him selfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was founde in the treasures of the house of the Lorde and in the kynges house, and sent it to Hazael kyng of Syria, so he departed from Hierusalem. 19 The remnaunt of the workes that concerne Ioas, and al that he did, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Iuda? 20 And his owne seruauntes arose, and conspired, and slue Ioas in "the house of Millo, in the way going downe to Silla: 21 Iozachar the sonne of Semaah, and Iozabad the sonne of Somer his seruauntes smote him, and he dyed: and they buryed hym with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

15 Eliseus sayde vnto hym, Take bowe and arrowes. And he toke vnto hym bowe and arrowes. 16 And he sayde to the king of Israel, Put thyne hande vpon the bowe. And he put his hande vpon it: And Eliseus put his handes vppon the kynges handes, 17 And sayde, Open a windowe eastwarde. And when he had opened it, Eliseus sayde, Shoote, and he shot: And he sayde, The arrowe of health of the Lorde, and the arrowe of health agaynst Syria: for thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphec, tyll thou haue made an ende of them. 18 And he sayde, Take the arrowes. And he toke them, And he sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, Smyte the grounde. And he smote thrise, and ceassed. 19 And the man of God was angry with hym, and sayde, Thou shouldest haue smytten fyue or sixe times, and then thou haddest smitten Syria tyll thou haddest made an ende of them: where nowe thou shalt smyte Syria but thrise. 20 And so Eliseus dyed, and they buryed hym: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the lande (a) the same yere.

8 Then Amazia sent messengers to Joas the sonne of Joachaz sonne of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, (a) let vs see eche other. 9 And Joas the kyng of Israel sent to Amazia king of Juda, saying, Dyd not a thistle that is in Libanon sende to a Cedar tree that is in Libanon, saying, Geue thy daughter to my sonne to wyfe? And the wylde beast that was in Libanon went, and trode downe the thistel. 10 Thou hast smitten Edom, thyne heart hath made thee proude: enioy this glory, and tary at home: why doest thou prouoke to mischiefe, that thou shouldest be ouerthrowen and Juda with thee? 11 But Amazia would not heare: and Joas kyng of Israel went vp, and he and Amazia kyng of Juda sawe either other at Bethsames whiche is in Juda.

12 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to their tentes. 13 And Joas king of Israel toke Amazia king of Juda the sonne of Joas the sonne of Ahazia at Bethsames, and came to Hierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Hierusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

14 And he toke all the golde & siluer, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kinges house: and the children toke he to be his wardes, and returned to Samaria agayne.

18 And the remnaunt of the wordes that concerne Amazia, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Juda? 19 But they conspired treason against him in Hierusalem: and when he fled to Lachis, they sent after him to Lachis, & slue him there. 20 And they brought him on horses, and he was buryed at Hierusalem with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. 21 And all the people of Juda toke Azaria (which was fifteene yeres olde) and made him king for his father Amazia. 22 He built Elath, and brought it agayne to Juda after that the king was layde to rest with his fathers. 23 In the fifteene yere of Amazia the sonne of Joas king of Juda, was Jeroboam the sonne of Joas made king ouer Israel in Samaria, & raigned fourtie and one yeres: 24 And wrought that which was euyll in the sight of the lord, neither turned he away from all the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel to sinne. 25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entring of Hemath vnto the sea of the wyldernesse, according to the worde of the Lorde God of Israel whiche he spake by the hand of his seruaunt Jonas the sonne of Amithai the prophete, whiche was of Geth Hepher: 26 For the Lorde sawe how that the affliction of Israel was exceedyng " bitter, insomuch that the prisoned and the forsaken were at an ende, & there was none to helpe Israel. 27 And the Lorde sayde not that he would put out the name of Israel from vnder heauen: but he helped them by the hand of Jeroboam the sonne of Joas.

euen Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat:
and

and Jeroboam drewe Israel away that they should not folowe the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam whiche he dyd, and departed not therefrom,

23 Vntyll the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had saide by all his seruauntes the prophetes: and so was Israel caryed away out of their owne lande to Assyria euen vnto this day. 24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, from (e) Cutha, from Ana, from Hamath, & from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria in steede of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities therof.

25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lorde, and the Lord sent lions among them, which slue them. 26 Wherfore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast translated and put in the cities of Samaria knowe not the lawe of the God of the lande: therefore he hath sent lions vpon them, and behold they slay them, because they knowe not the maner of worshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria cõmaunded, saying, Cary thither one of the priestes whom ye brought thence, and let him go and dwell there, and teache them the fashion how to serue the god of the countrey. 28 And then one of the priestes whom they had caryed from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they should feare the Lorde. 29 Howbeit euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the high places whiche the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. 30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima, 31 The Auites made Nibhas and Tharthak: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adrameleth, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, and made them priestes of the hyest of them, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. 33 And so (f) they feared the Lord, & serued their owne gods after the maner of the people whom they caryed thence.

34 And vnto this day they do after the olde maner: and neither feare god, neither do after their ordinaunces and customes, nor after the law and commaundement whiche the Lorde commaunded the children of Jacob, whom he called Israel. 35 And the Lorde made a couenaunt with them, & charged them, saying, Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lorde which brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, & to him do sacrifice. 37 The statutes, ordinaunces, lawe and commaundement which he wrote for you, see that ye be diligent to do for euermore, and feare not any other gods. 38 And the couenaũt that I haue made with you see ye forget not, and feare none other gods: 39 But the Lorde your God ye shall feare, and he shall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.

41 And so these nations feared the lord, and serued their images also, like as did their children and their childrens children: euen as dyd their fathers, so do they vnto this day.

4 Hezekia king of Iuda putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idols, 7 and prospereth.

IN the third yere of Hosea sonne of Ela king of Israel, it came to passe that Hezekia the sonne of Achas king of Juda did raigne. 2 Twentie and fiue yeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and raigned twentie & nine yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi the daughter of Zacharia. 3 And he dyd that which is right in the sight of the lord, according to all as did Dauid his father. 4 He (a) put away the high places, & brake the images, & cut downe the groues, and all to brake the brasen serpent that Moyses had made: for vnto those dayes the children of Israel dyd burne sacrifice to it: and he called it Nehustan. 5 He trusted in the Lord God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kinges of Juda, neither were there any such before him. 6 For he claue to the Lord, and departed not from him: but kept his cõmaundementes which the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

7 And the lord was with him, so that he prospered in all thinges whiche he toke in hande: and he rebelled agaynst the king of Assyria, & serued him not.

A SO it came to passe, that when kyng Hezekia hearde it, he rent his clothes, and put on sacke cloth, and came into the house of the Lorde,

2 And sent Eliakim whiche was the steward of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, and the elders of the priestes clothed in sacke to Esai the prophete the sonne of Amoz. 3 And they saide vnto him, Thus saith Hezekia, This day is a day of tribulation, & of rebuke & blasphemie: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to be deliuered. 4 Peraduenture the Lord thy god wil heare al the wordes of Rabsake, whō the kyng of Assyria his maister hath sent to rayle on the lyuing God, and to rebuke him with wordes which the lord thy God hath heard: and lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnaunt that are left. 5 So the seruauntes of king Hezekia came to Esai. 6 And Esai saide vnto them, So shall ye say to your maister, Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afrayde of the wordes which thou hast heard, with which the young men of the king of Assyria haue rayled on me. 7 Behold I wyl send a blast vpon him, and he shal heare tidynges, and so returne to his owne lande, and I wyl bring to passe that he shall fall vpon the sworde euen in his owne lande. 8 And Rabsake went backe agayne, and founde the king of Assyria fighting agaynst Libna: for he had heard how that he was departed from Lachis. 9 And when he hearde men say of Thirhaka king of Ethiopia, Behold he is come out to fight against thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezekia, saying, 10 Thus speake to Hezekia king of Juda, saying, Let not thy God deceaue thee in whom thou trustest, saying, Hierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the kyng of Assyria. 11 Behold thou hast heard what the kinges of Assyria haue done to all landes, how they haue vtterly destroied them: and shalt thou escape? 12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which mine auncestours haue destroyed: As Gozan, & Haran, and Rezeph, C and the children of Eden which were in Thelassar? 13 Where is the kyng of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, the kyng of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena and Iua? 14 And Hezekia receaued the letter of the hande of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekia went vp into the house of the Lorde, and layde it abrode before the Lord. 15 And Hezekia (a) prayed before the Lord, and saide, O Lorde God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth. 16 Lord bowe downe thyne eare, and heare: open Lorde thyne eyes, (I beseeche thee,) and see: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib, which hath sent (this man) to rayle on the lyuing God.

(a) It is the true refuge and succour in all daungers, to flee vnto the Lord by earnest prayer.

17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kinges of Assyria haue destroyed nations and their landes, 18 And haue set fyre on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of the handes of man, euen of wood and stone: and they destroyed them. 19 Nowe therefore O Lorde our God, I beseche thee saue thou vs out of his hande, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onlye art the Lorde God.

20 And Esai the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekia, saying. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I haue heard it. 21 This is therfore the word that the Lord hath said of him, (b) The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne (O thou kyng of Assyria) the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee. 22 Whom hast thou rayled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed?

(b) Hierusalem is called virgin, because as yet it had not ben taken by the enemie. Mat. 23. d. Zach. 2. b.

Against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thyne eyes so hie? euen agaynst the holie one of Israel. 23 By the hand of thy messengers thou hast rayled on the lord, and said, With the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the tops of the mountaines, along by the sides of Libanon, and I will cut downe the hye Cedar trees and the lusty fyrre trees therof: and I will go into the lodging of his borders, & into the wood of his Carmel. 24 I haue digged and dronke straunge waters: and with the steppe of my goyng will I drye all the water pooles that are besieged. 25 Hast thou not heard howe I haue ordeyned such a thing a great while ago, & haue prepared it from the beginnyng? And shall I not now bring it foorth that it may destroy and bring strong cities into wast heapes of stones? 26 And the inhabiters of them shalbe of litle power, and faint hearted, & confounded, and shalbe lyke the grasse of the feelde, or grene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houses, or as the corne that is vntrye and smitten with blasting. 27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out and thy goyng in, & thy fury agaynst me. 28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to myne eares, I will put my hooke in thy nostrels, and my byt in thy lippes, & I will bring thee backe agayne the same way thou camest.

29 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekia, ye shall eate this yere of such thinges as grow of them selues, and the next yere such as come vp of those that dyd growe of their owne accord, and the third yere sowe ye and reape, plant vineyardes, and eate the fruites therof. 30 And it that is escaped and left of the daughter of Iuda, shal yet agayne take rooting downwarde, and beare fruite vpward.

31 For out of Hierusalem shall go a remnaunt & a number that shal escape out of mount Sion: the zeale of the Lord of hoastes shall bring this thing to passe. 32 Wherfore thus sayth the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come to this citie, nor shoote an arrowe into it, nor come before it with shielde, nor cast a bancke against it. 33 But shall go backe agayne the way he came, and shall not come into this citie, sayth the Lorde. 34 For I wil defende this citie, to saue it for myne owne sake, and for Dauid my seruaunts sake. 35 And the selfe same night the angel of the lord went out, and smote in the hoast of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore and fiue thousand: and when the remnaunt were vp early in the mornyng, behold they were al dead coarses. 36 And so Sennacherib king of Assyria auoyded and departed, and went agayne and dwelt at Ninive. 37 And as he was in a temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech & Sarasar his owne sonnes (c) smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the lande of Armenia, and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his steade.

ABout that time was Hezekia sicke vnto death: and the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos came to him & saide vnto him, Thus sayth the lord, Put thyne houshold in an order, for thou shalt die, and not liue. 2 And Hezekia turned his face to the wall, and prayed vnto the lord, saying, 3 I beseche thee, O Lord, remember now howe I haue walked before thee in trueth and with a perfect heart, & haue done that whiche is good in thy sight. And Hezekia wept sore. 4 And afore Esai was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the lord came to him, saying, 5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekia the captayne of my people, Thus sayth the lord god of Dauid thy father, (a) I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares, & behold I wil heale thee, so that on the thirde day thou shalt go vp vnto the house of the lord. 6 And I wyl adde vnto thy dayes yet fifteene yeres, & I will deliuer thee & this citie out of the hande of the king of Assyria, & wil defend this citie, for mine owne sake, & for Dauid my seruaunts sake. 7 And Esai said, Take a lumpe of dried figges. And they toke and layd it on the sore, & he recouered.

11 He put downe the horses that the kinges of Juda had geuen to the sunne, at the enteryng in of the house of the Lorde by the chamber of Nathanmelech the chamberlayne, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.
12 And the aulters that were on the top of the parlour of Achez which the kinges of Juda had made, and the aulters which Manasse had made in the two courtes of the house of the Lord, did the king breake downe, and ran thence, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Cedron. 13 And the high places that were before Hierusalem on the ryght hande of the mount (c) Olinet, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Astaroth the abhomination of the Sidons, and for Chamos the abhomination of the Moabites, and for Milchon the abomination of the children of Ammon, those the king defiled: 14 And brake the images, & cut downe the groues, & fylled their places with the bones of men. 15 Moreouer the aulter that was at Bethel, the high places made by Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel sinne, both the aulter & also the high place he brake downe, and burnt the hygh place, and stampt it to powder, and burnt the groue. 16 And as Josia turned him selfe, he spyed the graues that were in the mount, and sent and fet the bones out of the graues, & burnt them vpon the aulter, to pollute it, according vnto the worde of the Lord that the man of God proclaymed which tolde the same wordes. 7 Then he sayde, What title is that that I see? And the men of the citie tolde him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Juda, and tolde the selfe same thynges that thou hast done to the aulter of Bethel. 8 And he sayde, Let him alone: see that no man moue his bones. And so his bones were saued, with the bones of a prophete that came out of Samaria.

21 And the king commaunded all the people, saying, Kepe the feast of Passouer vnto the Lorde your God, as it is written in the booke of this couenaunt. 22 There was no Passouer holden lyke that from the dayes of the iudges that iudged Israel, and in all the dayes of the kinges of Israel and of the kinges of Juda. 23 In the eighteenth yere of king Josia was this Passouer holden to the Lorde in Hierusalem. 24 And moreouer workers with spirites, and soothsayers, images, idols, and all the abominations that were spyed in the lande of Juda and in Hierusalem, those did Josia put out of the waye, to performe the wordes of the lawe which were written in the booke that Helchia the priest founde in the house of the Lorde. 25 Lyke vnto him was there no king before him that turned to the Lorde with all his heart, with al his soule, & all his might, according to all the lawe of Moyses, neither after him arose there any such as he.
26 Notwithstandyng the Lorde turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath, wherwith he was angrye against Juda, because of all the prouocations that Manasse had prouoked him withall. 27 And the Lorde sayde, I will put Juda also out of my sight, as I haue done away Israel, and will cast of this citie Hierusalem which I haue chosen, and the house of which I sayd, My name shalbe there.
28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Josia, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Juda?
29 In his dayes Pharao Necho king of Egypt went vp against the king of Assyria to the riuer of Euphrates: and king Josia went against him, & was slayne of him at Megiddo when he had seene him. 30 And his seruauntes caryed him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Hierusalem, and buryed him in his owne sepulchre: and the people of the lande toke Joachas the sonne of Josia, and annoynted him, and made him king in his fathers stead. 31 Joachas was twentie and three yeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned three monethes in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hamital, the daughter of Jeremia of Libna.

A AND in the ninth yere of his raigne, the tenth day of the moneth, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he and all his hoast agaynst Hierusalem, and pitched agaynst it, and made engins agaynst it on euery side. 2 And the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yere of king Zedekia. 3 And the ninth day of the moneth, there was so great hunger in the citie, that there was no bread for the people of the lande.

4 And the citie was broken vp, and all the men of armes (fled) by nyght by a way through a gate (which is) betweene two walles by the kinges garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie:) and the king went the way toward the plaine. 5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees folowed after the king, and toke him in the plaine of Jericho: and all his army were scattered away from him. 6 So they toke the king, and brought him to (Nabuchodonosor) the king of Babylon to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon him. 7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedekia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedekia, and fettered him with chaynes, and caryed him to Babylon. 8 And the seuenth day of the fifth moneth (which is the nineteenth yere of king Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon) came Nabuzaradan a seruaunt of the king of Babylon & cheefe captayne of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem: 9 And burnt the house of the Lorde, and the kinges house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, and all great houses burnt he with fire. 10 And all the souldiers of the Chaldees that were with the cheefe captayne of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem rounde about. 11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fled to the king of Babylon, with the remnaunt of the common people, did Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne of the men of warre cary away. 12 But the captayne of the souldiers left of the poore of the lande to dresse the vines and to till the grounde. 13 And the pillers of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the sockettes, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lorde, did the Chaldees breake, and caryed all the brasse of them to Babylon. 14 And the pottes, shouels, instrumentes of musicke, spoones, and all the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, toke they away. 15 And the fire panneys, and basons: and such thinges as were of golde and of siluer, them toke the cheefe captayne away: 16 Euen two pillers, one lauatorie, & the sockettes which Solomon had made for the house of the Lorde: the brasse of all these vessels was without wayght.

17 The height of the one piller was eyghteene cubites, and the pommel therof was brasse: and the height of the pommel was with wreathe worke three cubites, and pomgranates vpon the pommel round about all of brasse: and of the same fashion was the seconde piller, with a wreathen worke.

18 And the cheefe captayne of the men of warre toke Saraia the cheefe priest, and Zephoniah the hyest priest saue one, and the three kepers of the holy thynges: 19 And out of the citie he toke a chamberlayne that had the ouersight of the men of warre, and fiue men of them that were euer in the kinges presence, which were founde in the citie, and him that was scribe to the captayne of the hoast which brought out the people of the lande to warre, and threescore men of the people of the lande that were founde in the citie. 20 And Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne of the men of warre, toke these and brought them to the king of Babylon to Ribla. 21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slue them at Ribla in the lande of Hamath: and so Juda was caryed away out of their lande. 22 Howbeit there remayned people in the lande of Juda, whom Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Saphan ruler ouer them. 23 And all the captaynes of the souldiers, they & their, hearde that the king of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mizpah Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Johannan the sonne of Karea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophathite, and
